BREVITIES.

The funeral of Patrick Gallagher, the young man who was killed in the mines on Monday, will take place from the home of his parents on Adams street at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning. A requiem mass will be read at St. Ann's church and the interment made in the adjoining cemetery.

Rev. J. B. Kerschner, of town, delivered an address last evening at the Twentieth Century convention held in Hazleton Reformed church. His subject was: "The Necessary Co-operation in the Twentieth Century Movement."

Hot temperance drinks, at Keiper's.
 The operation performed last week upon Mrs. Robert Boyle, of Freeland, in a Philadelphia hospital, is believed to have been a success and her speedy recovery is expected.

All the necessary preparations have been made at Lattimer to resume work on Monday. The mules were taken into the mines yesterday.

Gentlemen, for hats and caps go to A. Oswald. He has a nice variety.

None but union men will be given employment at the Freeland brewery when the plant begins operations.

Edward Sterner and Miss Clara Page will be united in marriage at St. Paul's P. M. church on the 25th inst.

The borough employes are suffering much inconvenience by reason of the treasurer not having funds to cash their orders.

Valentine Day tomorrow.

DeWitt's people are familiar with Miss Wills' Little Early Risers and those who use them find them to be famous little liver pills. Never gripe. Grover's City drug store.

A large number of books and magazines have been received by the Young Men's Christian Association from Rev. John Ireland, of Eckley.

Mrs. Robert Boyle, Sr., of Mahanoy City, is dangerously ill with an attack of pneumonia and her Freeland relatives have been summoned to her bedside.

Nanticoke relatives of Edward Fletcher have received notice that the young man, who was serving as a soldier in the Philippines, died on December 7 last.

"When I was prostrated with grip and my heart and nerves were in bad shape, Dr. Miles' Nervine and Heart Cure gave me new life and health."—Mrs. Geo. Colie, Elgin, Ill.

Contagion in Pittston is spreading rapidly. There have been thirty deaths from scarlet fever and diphtheria during the past week. The board of school control threatens to close the city schools.

The body of a man believed to be that of John S. Kendley, of Wilkesbarre, was found dead on a bridge of the Central Railroad of New Jersey at Newark, N. J., today. It is supposed he was struck by a train during the night.

Richard Thomas, a celebrated basso, died at Scranton yesterday, aged 42 years. He was well-known among Welsh musicians throughout the state and no singer in Pennsylvania ever won more first prizes at Eisteddfods. His bardic name was "Llew Herberts."

A Difference in the Morning.
 Have you noticed how different persons look before making their toilet in the morning, and do you realize that the difference is chiefly on account of the hair? A well-kept head of hair adds to the attractiveness of a person than any other feature. Therefore your toilet is incomplete without "Luxura." It not only increases the growth of hair, but makes it animated and bright, and thoroughly cleanses the scalp of dandruff and all microbial diseases. Of the many hair and scalp preparations now on the market, "Luxura" stands without a rival. It is the result of twenty-five years' study of the ablest scientist on scalp diseases. Write today for a free trial package, enclosing 2c stamp. Regular three months' treatment, $1.00, sent postage paid, in plain wrapper, to any address, with written guarantee to do as represented, or money refunded. Boston Drug and Chemical Co., 596 Pelham Building, Boston, Mass.

One Fare to Washington, D. C.
 And return via the Lehigh Valley Railroad. On account of the inauguration ceremonies at Washington, the Lehigh Valley Railroad will sell tickets to that point and return March 1, 2 and 3, at the low rate of one fare for the round trip. These tickets will be good to return to March 8, inclusive, and will be honored on any train except the Black Diamond express. Stop-over allowed at Philadelphia and Baltimore, by deposit of ticket, provided ticket is used within original limit.

For further particulars consult Lehigh Valley ticket agents.

MISCELLANEOUS ADVERTISEMENTS.

ELECTION NOTICE.—Notice is hereby given that at the election to be held on the third Tuesday in February, 1901, being the nineteenth day of the month, the following of the Middle Coal Field Post District are to be elected to wit:

One person for director to serve three years from April 1, 1901, whose residence must be in that part of the district known as the Weatherly or Middle district.
 One person for auditor to serve from April 1, 1901, whose residence must be in that portion of the district known as the Mauch Chunk or Lower district.

S. W. Gangwere, William S. Lieb, Wilson E. Campbell, Directors.

Death of Rev. Ireland.

Rev. John Ireland, a retired minister of the Protestant Episcopal Church, died at his home in Eckley at 3 o'clock this morning after a short illness. For many years, from 1876 to 1892, he was pastor of St. James' church in that town. In the latter year he gave up active church work, owing to his age, but continued to labor unostentatiously.

Rev. Ireland was one of those clergymen whose broad and liberal views on all matters pertaining to the welfare and advancement of mankind won him the respect of people of all denominations and he had the warm friendship and esteem of many not of his own faith.

The deceased was a native of Belfast, Ireland, and during his life he was a staunch advocate for the rights of his country and its people, and his ancestors took a prominent part in the uprisings of the Irish people against unjust and cruel laws.

The deceased was aged 88 years. The funeral arrangements had not been completed when the Tribune went to press.

Fatal Accident at Oakdale.

Michael Basinski, aged 27 years, died on Monday evening at his boarding house in Drifton from injuries received that afternoon in No. 4 colliery, Oakdale. It was Basinski's first day in that mine, having given up his job in Drifton colliery on account of his fears that the poor rock in his breast made working there too dangerous.

The deceased is survived by a brother and a step-brother here and a brother and step-brother in Poland.

He was a member of St. Kasimer's Society and the Kosciusko Guards, of Freeland, and Local Union 1519, United Mine Workers, of Drifton, all of which were well represented at the funeral this morning. A requiem mass was read at St. Kasimer's church and the remains were interred at St. Ann's cemetery.

Objects to Cold Feet.

Alderman Donohue had a curious case before him yesterday. Thomas R. Jones, who lives at Lee Park, a suburb of Wilkesbarre, made application to the magistrate for a divorce from his wife, Mary Ann.

In his bill of particulars the husband says as soon as winter sets in his wife has cold feet and they remain cold until warm weather. He says this works great hardship to him as he is unable to sleep at night, and in consequence he cannot do justice to his work the next day.

Went to the Hospital.

August Zimmerman, of South Centre street, met with a serious injury while at work in his breast in No. 5 colliery, Jeddo, yesterday. He was struck in the left eye by a piece of coal and a dangerous wound resulted.

Mr. Zimmerman left yesterday afternoon for Will's Eye hospital, Philadelphia, where he will receive treatment for his injury.

Murderer Commits Suicide.

Ralph White, an aged prisoner in the county jail, hung himself with a sheet in his cell last night. White shot and killed his nephew, Joseph White, at Sweet Valley, last October. He was convicted of murder in the second degree and sentenced to fifteen years in the Eastern penitentiary. He was to be taken to Philadelphia next week.

Common Pleas Jurors.

The following citizens of this vicinity have been drawn to serve as jurors in common pleas court on the dates preceding their names:

March 18.—John Gallagher, John J. Welsh, Stewart Weiss, Foster; Edward O'Donnell, Jacob Roth, Hazle.

After Saloon Keepers.

Unlicensed saloon keepers in the upper region are preparing to go out of business owing to a crusade against the illegal sale of whisky. Rev. W. H. Williams, of Pittston, is at the head of the movement, and yesterday caused the arrest of five dealers in Avoca, who were fined severely.

"My stomach was affected by grip and I could eat nothing but crackers and milk. I began taking Dr. Miles' Nervine and Pain Pills and the trouble disappeared."—Mrs. J. Lindsey, Montrose, Minn.

PLEASURE.

February 20.—Cantata, entitled "The World for Christ," at P. M. church, Fern street. Tickets, 15 cents.

If I had Grip I would use Dr. Miles' Pain Pills and Dr. Miles' Nervine.
 Sold at all Druggists.

ROUND THE REGION.

The dislodgment of a tooth filling in its contact with a hard substance has nettled Mrs. George Netherton, of Wyoming, this county, $300. A few days ago her tooth struck one large and six smaller pearls after starting to enjoy a toothsome bivalve. Mrs. Netherton was surprised to learn from a Philadelphia expert that the largest pearl was worth $125, and the others a proportionate amount.

Recent experiments show that all classes of foods may be completely digested by a preparation called Kodol Dyspepsia Cure, which absolutely digests what you eat. As it is the only combination of all the natural digestants ever devised the demand for it has become enormous. It has never failed to cure the very worst cases of indigestion and it always gives instant relief. Grover's City drug store.

Scranton's silk mill strike, instead of being near an end, is apt to grow considerably, and a move is now on foot to make it a general affair throughout the state and also to push it over into New Jersey. This was decided upon when it was learned that the management of the Sauquoit Mill was about to ship all of its unwoven silk to the mills in Paterson, N. J., to have it woven.

"I had been in bed three weeks with grip when my husband brought me Dr. Miles' Nervine, Pain Pills and Nerve and Liver Pills. I was cured."—Mrs. J. Reinier, Franklin, Ind.

Superintendents from every colliery in the coal region were at Jeannetteville on Monday and witnessed the test of the mammoth electric pump just completed for the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Company, at Avondale. The pump is said to be the largest of its kind in the world, and will be the first of this type to be used in the mines in the anthracite region.

For the weakness and prostration following grippe there is nothing so prompt and effective as One Minute Cough Cure. This preparation is highly endorsed as an unfailing remedy for all throat and lung troubles and its early use prevents consumption. It was made to cure quickly. Grover's City drug store.

The jury in the case of E. J. Fisher, manager of the Wilkesbarre Iron and Metal Company, returned a verdict of guilty, with the recommendation for extreme clemency, after being out two days. The defendant was tried for receiving a quantity of brass alleged to have been stolen from different railroad companies.

The friends of Mrs. L. Denison will be pleased to learn of her recovery from grip, at her home in Bay City, Mich., through the use of Dr. Miles' Nervine and Pills.

The striking mill girls at Wilkesbarre, being incensed because several of the girls went back to work, hanged a non-union girl in effigy to a telegraph post near the mill yesterday morning, danced around it and threatened all non-union girls with a similar fate.

There is always danger in using counterfeits of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. The original is a safe and certain cure for piles. It is a soothing and healing salve for sores and all skin diseases. Grover's City drug store.

Pittston bartenders will get their Sundays off in the future, the differences between them and the hotelkeepers having been amicably adjusted.

Persons who can not take ordinary pills find it a pleasure to take DeWitt's Little Early Risers. They are the best little pills ever made. Grover's City drug store.

While in a fit of despondency Allen Myers, a well-known young man of Harveyville, this county, committed suicide by cutting his throat with a razor.

Everybody says that J. W. Udy is looking splendid since his recovery from the grip at his home in Des Moines, Iowa. They all know that Dr. Miles' Nervine was what cured him.

Bridget Langan, of Pittston township, was run over by a Lehigh Valley engine and decapitated.

Like bad dollars, all counterfeits of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve are worthless. The original quickly cures piles, sores and all skin diseases. Grover's City drug store.

Mrs. James Blaklee, a respected and well known resident of Mauch Chunk, died on Monday. She was the mother of A. P. Blaklee, who at one time was superintendent of this division of the Lehigh Valley Railroad.

J. C. Helfrey, foreman at the Westinghouse factory in East Pittsburg, had a severe attack of grip, but he used Dr. Miles' Nervine and Pain Pills and was soon back in his place.

Over 300 employees at the Sterling silk mill, Pittston, went on strike yesterday, and the girls at the Avoca and Taylorville mills are expected to go out this week.

Tobacco of all kinds at Keiper's.

Rollis Bubniss, who killed Joseph Rutkoffski, had his death warrant read to him yesterday by Sheriff Beddall, at Pottsville. Bubniss will be executed in the Schuylkill prison yard on April 17.
