Progress of Lecture Course.

Adjusted Amicably. "I do not think there is any reason for all of this talk about another big an-thractic strike," said John T. Dempsey, of Scranton, last evening. Mr. Dempsey, sey is secretary of District No. 1, United Mine Workers of America, which em-braces the Lackawanna and Wyoming regions. Continuing, Mr. Dempsey said: "The operators have not said they will not attend the conference at Hazle-ton in March, and we are hopeful that they will. If they do, I have not the slightest doubt but matters will be ad-listed satisfactorily all around." "All the talk of a strike at this time, even in advance of the issuing of the-motices for the conferences, is ill-advised and unjust to the operators and the mine workers. No one is desirous of having a strike." Progress of Lecture Course. The lecture course at the Park M. E. church in their week of jubilee is giving the town people a great treat. Tomor-row night Rev. Dr. Mason, the colored orator of Cincinnati, will lecture. Dr. Mason is considered one of the finest orators, black or white, before the American people today. No tickets are on sale but a silver offering will be re-ceived at the door. That means noth-ing less than a dime-nickles and pennles are ruled out. Will Deceive the time

The ma-jority of members of the craft were present and all the absent ones are said to have approved of the movement and signified their intention to be present at the next meeting, when officers will elected and a normapent organization cur. The railroads are rushing cars into all the mines in large quantities, and there is no doubt that unless a strike again results in the spring the coming summer will be one of great industrial activity in this section. the next meeting, when officers weeted and a permanent organization effected.

Forty Fatal Accidents.

The trustees of the Ross township cemetery still refuse to allow the body of Raiph White to be interred there. White killed his nephew, and after being convicted and sentenced he killed him-self. On this ground the trustees base their refusal. White's sister owns a lot in the cemetery, and when admission for the body was refused she engaged an attorney. He told her to make another attempt. FORTY FAILA ACCIDENTS. The annual report of Mine Inspector Davis, of the Fifth anthracite district, made public yesterday, shows that the total coal production last year was 5.343.391 tons, or 20.243 tons less than in 1899. There were forty fatal and sev-enty-six non-fatal accidents, leaving seventeen widows and forty-four or-phans. The total number of persons employed was 15,111, an increase of 818. attempt. LOCAL NOTES "Quo Vadis," the great historical play, was produced at the opera house last evening before a large and well pleased audience. The play is one of strong re-ligious motive and intense dramatic sit-uation, purity of thought, beauty of sentiment and general excellence throughout and by those who saw the production last night it will long be re-membered. It shows Rome in the days of Nero when prolifigacy and crime were the ruling passions. It shows us Peter and the aposties, aged, simple and vener-able, who went to Rome and scattered the seeds of truth, which changed the destiny of the entire world. Mr. Aiden

The production of "In the Heart of the Sierras" at Ferguson's theatre last night by the Edwin Young Dramatic Company was highly appreciated by a large audience. Mr. Young and Flor-ence Leslie appeared in the leading roles and with their company gave one of the best productions of the play that has been made here. The specialities intro-duced between the acts are also very good, especially the sketches by Price and Daly and the feats of strength and balancing done by another member of hausted in the effort to rid her of it.
