The Price of Victory
is perseverance and good judgment. Good judgment is necessary in the selection of that course or method to which the energy and effort is to be applied in the attainment of success. Perseverance is often wasted by reasons of injudicious methods. This applies to the purchase of remedies, in the use of which people waste more money and efforts than in any other direction. The market is flooded with extravagantly advertised hair restorers, which if the advertisements were true, would grow hair in a night, and on anything.
"Luxura" is a formula of the ablest hair specialist in the world, Dr. Pincus, of Germany, and backed by a guarantee for the return of your money if it fails. "Luxura" contains ingredients which will effectively eradicate dandruff and check the hair from falling out. Price, $1.00 per package, delivered free of all carrying charges. Send for a free sample of "Luxura," enclosing 2c. stamp to cover postage. Boston Drug and Chemical Co., 596 Pelham Building, Boston, Mass.

The following bills were ordered paid: Electric Light Co., light, 94c; Cox Bros. & Co., coal, $19.50; Lewis Lentz, repairs, $1.58; E. B. Shelhamer, coal and wood, $9.55; Matthias Schwabe, coal, $6.90.
A statement from Tax Collector Malloy showed the amount paid on his duplicate to be $5,200, with a balance of $1,505.

The visit of County Superintendent Hopper was reported and the result of his finding the schools in good condition. Edgar Schmidt requested an increase in salary. It was referred to the teachers committee.

A communication from the Philadelphia Commercial Museum was read with enclosures in regard to the collection of raw products and manufactured articles. The reply of the secretary was also read. The matter of securing a case was placed in the hands of the building committee.

The building committee reported having procured additional radiators at a cost of 15c a foot or 75c a loop. They were placed in position and were satisfactory. In regard to holding contract for the proper heating of the High School room, the matter is still in the hands of the solicitor.

A lengthy report of the finance committee was read, showing the condition of the district.

The secretary informed the board that he had been notified by the county commissioners that a reduction of the assessed valuation of the borough had been made which would reach about $25,000. They advised appointing a committee to act with them to readjust valuation. Messrs. Everitt, Krommes and McCole were appointed.

The principal reported for the sixth month an enrollment of 847; same month last year, 743; increase, 105; average attendance, 722; same month last year, 487; increase, 16. He also reported an addition of books to the High School library.

The treasurer reported a balance of $961.82.

The Murder Case.

There are no new developments in the Dimerio murder. The case is still in the hands of County Detective Jones, who is following up the various clues which have presented themselves. As announced in the local edition of Wednesday's Tribune, Nicholas Capece was committed to jail by Squire Shovlin and was taken to the county prison Wednesday evening by Constable Walsh.

The coroner's jury, consisting of S. J. Neuburger, John G. Davis, George Sippel, S. Woodring, Charles Moerschbacher and John James, yesterday rendered the following verdict:

"That Rudolph Dimerio came to his death by a gun shot wound on March 5, 1901, at the hands of person or persons unknown to the jury. And we, the jury, do further say that from the evidence offered we believe that the shot was fired from the cellar window of the residence of Nicholas Capece, and we the jury do further say that there was such strong suspicion of unlawful acts at the hands of a person or persons unknown to the jury as to make this inquest necessary."

The funeral of the victim took place yesterday afternoon. Many friends, also the Barbers' Union of Freeland, attended. Interment was made at St. Ann's cemetery.

Services at P. M. Church

On Sunday evening at the P. M. church there will be addresses made by the class on the "Life of Martin Luther." There will also be songs sung and used by the class that is in training for the "Reformation," and Miss Bessie Atwood, the trainer, of Mt. Holly, N. J., will present the public with a recitation of much worth. This efficient trainer is a graduate in elocution, impersonation, music and general history, from one of New Jersey colleges. Services begin at 7 p. m.

Brakeman Killed.

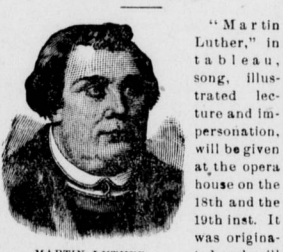

John Sullivan, aged 30 years, a brakeman on the Jersey Central Railroad, was killed at an early hour yesterday morning by falling between coal cars of his train at Walnutport, Lehigh county. The body was terribly mangled and was not taken to his parents' home at Mountain Top, this county, until this morning. The young man was a nephew of Thomas A. Buckley, of town, and the funeral tomorrow morning will be attended by several Freeland people.

Public Sale.

There will be exposed to public sale, on the premises of the undersigned, on Thursday, March 14, 1901, at 10 a. m., the following: Horses, cows, chickens, grain, farming implements, complete stock of household furniture, household goods and utensils, etc. Terms will be made known on day of sale. M. B. Freas, Butler township.

The diagram for "The Missouri Girl" opens tomorrow at 9 a. m. at McMenamin's store.

THEATRICAL.

MARTIN LUTHER.
He will be given by Mrs. H. E. Monroe, of Philadelphia, assisted by 100 best local talent, under auspices of the P. M. church. The committee is hard at work and will spare no pains to make it a success.

This entertainment was given five times in Philadelphia, Pittsburg, Allegheny, Reading and other towns in the state, and is historically correct. The lecturer tells the story of Germany during the sixteenth century and illustrates it by eighty-five superb stereoscopic views of different places and people, while our home talent will illustrate the leading events of the period.

The costumes are furnished by Mrs. Monroe and are of the sixteenth century style. The entertainment opens and closes with an allegorical procession, showing how people went to church in olden times. The different symbols of the church are formed and as they go they sing "The Son of God," "The Palms" and the "Gloria." The monk and choir scenes show the introduction of the surplice choir.

The grandest scene of the evening is Luther's great trial at Diet of Worms, which represents 5,000 people assembled to hear the defense of the monk who shook the world.

The scene calling forth the finer feeling in one's nature is the nun and novice scene.

Dialogues and singing, fine solos and choruses, etc., give this greatest reproduction of history; also a magnificent display of military, closing with Luther's famous battle hymn, "Ein Feste Burg."

"The Missouri Girl," which has been patiently waited for by Freeland's lovers of clean comedy, will be seen here on Tuesday evening, with the author, Fred Raymond, in the cast. It is a sensational comedy drama with a good plot, well carried out in the hands of a competent company. There is plenty of comedy running through the story in which the members have an opportunity to display their talents. The scenic effects and climaxes are excellent, every act requiring a setting of special scenery. During the action of the piece some exceedingly clever specialties are introduced.

A very strong attraction presents itself for the approval of theatre-goers this evening in Tom S. Twigg and his own carefully selected company in the new and successful romantic drama, "In the Path of the Plague." The play has been highly commended by the critics and public of every city in which it has been presented without a dissenting voice. Mr. Twigg is an actor of high repute and has never been known to fail in any of his undertakings.

Irving French, supported by a talented company of recognized artists, will open a three nights engagement on Thursday, March 14, when the comedy drama, "A Runaway Wife," will be presented. This attraction is guaranteed to drive away dull cares. Prices 10, 20 and 30 cents. Ladies 15 cent special tickets issued for Thursday night only, if reserved before 7 p. m.

The Freeland Opera House Company signed a contract today in which Mildred Holland is guaranteed $450 as her share of the receipts of a performance of "The Power Behind the Throne," to be given here in the near future.

Death of Mrs. Wenner.

Mrs. Jennie Wenner, aged 34 years and 11 months, died at the University hospital, Philadelphia, last evening. Mrs. Wenner recently underwent an operation at that institution to have a tumor removed from her neck. The immediate cause of death was heart trouble.

The deceased is survived by one daughter, her mother, two brothers and two sisters, as follows: Mrs. Andrew Boyd, John, William and Mary Boyd and Mrs. William Shelly, of town.

The remains will arrive here on the 6.34 Lehigh Valley train this evening. The funeral takes place at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon. Services will be conducted at the house by Rev. J. W. Biscoff, of Upper Lehigh. Interment at Freeland cemetery.

Hot temperance drinks, at Kelpner's.
