OPERATORS NOT PRESENT

Employers Fail to Meet Miners' Representatives.

Coal Companies and Individual Firms Ignore Joint Conference Called to Assemble This Morning.

The joint conference of the representatives of the anthracite mine employes and their employers, called by the United Mine Workers to meet today at Hazleton, was not held, the operators failing to attend either in person or by proxy.

The convention met as usual this morning, and, as no one appeared to represent the employers, the delegates went into executive session.

The scale committee again reported, but their demands did not meet the approval of the convention and the matter was referred to the committee once more.

No further information of the business done today was given out by the press committee.

The convention, from appearances, will continue in session until tomorrow.

YESTERDAY'S SESSION.

At yesterday's secret session three incidents of importance developed. To begin with, John Fahey tendered his resignation as a member of the national board. The constitution of the union forbids any man to hold two offices. Mr. Fahey held the presidency of his district.

The second incident was far more indicative. The wage scale committee reported soon after the convention was called to order. Within a half hour their entire report was thrown out as impossible. The only inference to be drawn from this is the desire of the majority to countenance nothing that shall tend to prevent a peaceful settlement.

As a further and stronger indication of this desire, it is alleged that the members of the executive committee have submitted the proposed scale to the Philadelphia and Reading Company, through an intermediary, to see if the slight changes suggested would be satisfactory.

There is a possibility that the matter may be referred to the executive board for settlement, but there is a strong probability that the convention itself will make the decision.

A good deal of business was transacted yesterday. Numerous bills favoring the miners, and now pending at Harrisburg, were endorsed, extra enthusiasm being put into the protest against uniformed police at the scene of labor troubles.

It was also resolved that each local appoint a committee to examine checks to ascertain whether the 10 per cent increase is being paid.

A petition was drawn and sent to Governor Stone and the Pardon Board to authorize the release from jail of the twelve men convicted of rioting at Oneida and sentenced from six months to four years' imprisonment, the petition being based on the ground that the law has been amply satisfied and that the release of the prisoners will relieve the suffering of their families.

"German Reformation."

The great reproduction of history at the Grand opera house next Monday and Tuesday evenings represents Martin Luther in song, tableaux, illustrated lectures and impersonation. Three strong scenes will be impersonated by home talent, also two professionals. The church professionals open and close the evening's entertainment.

The first six couples are peasants dressed in the style of the sixteenth century Germans. They are: Lizzie Nagle, Annie Kimmel, Marian Weeks, Annie Ashman, Mary Johnson, Harry Horrox, Thos. Morris, Wm. Bradley, Alvin Krommes, Frank Miller, Rogard Hinderliter.

They carry the flags in the order which the Reformation entered the countries, those representing the states of the union wearing the state emblems.

The state girls are: Cora Zeistloft, Martha Mietke, Katie Goepfert, Mary Stewart, Lena Bechtloft, Bertha Alden, Annie Davis, Ellaase Davis, Gertrude Smith, Annie Walters, Eva Fagan, Lizzie Miller, Carrie Houser, Mary Fletcher, Emma Hoffman, Katie Yoch, Elizabeth Carl, Bena Schroder, Cassie Deisroth, Lillie Greby, Lillie M. Woodring, Carrie Drasher, Frances Carter, Mayme Stehling, Catherine Fisher, Nettie Shelhamer, Clara Marley.

The young men representing the states of the German empire are: Elmer Thrasher, Wm. Krommes, Calvin Zeistloft, Clarence Marley, Geo. E. Anthony, Geo. Roth, John Sippel, Orion Vanaken.

The scene of the evening is the great trial, at Worms, showing Martin Luther, who was the central figure of the times. This scene is reproduced with great military show and gorgeous clothing.

The characters in the trial are: Martin Luther, John Smith; Emperor Chas. V., of Germany, Rev. W. C. Hall; Cardinal Alexander, John Shafer; King of Saxony, G. N. Vanauker; Knight, Prof. Edgar H. Schmidt; Melancthon, Orion Vanaken; Courtier, Wm. Acornly; Monk, Geo. Thomas; second cardinal, W. Horris; bishop, Julius Hudock; Prince Albert, Francis Miller; Prince Willencoes, John Sippel; page, Master Thomas D. Brobst; knights, lords and princes, Frank Miller, G. A. Anthony, Wm. Bradley, Harry Horrox, Rogard Hinderliter, Calvin Zeistloft, Chas. Drasher, Philip Rudolph, E. R. Dresher, A. K. Krommes, Thos. Morris, Wm. Krommes, Clarence Marley, Jacob Billman, Walter Davis, Alex. Heidenreich, Robert Bell, Jonas Steward, Harry Drum; emperor's imperial guard, palace guard, cardinal state guard, details of Knights of Mystic Chain.

The scene of monks and choirmen in Erferth: Erferth Monk, Geo. H. Thomas; soloist, W. H. Rippe; choirmen, G. Vanauker, E. H. Schmidt, W. H. Dunmoyer, Wm. Seipel, John Trout, Ralph Seipel, Edward Keck, John Shafer, Geo. Thomas, Wm. Acornly.

Solo and chorus, "Dare to be a Luther."

Chorus, Luther League Rally Hymn. Chorus, "Jesus Shall Reign."

The beautiful scene of the evening is the scene with mother superior and nuns and novices: Mother Superior, Bertha Wenner; soloist, Miss Acornly; soloist, Mrs. O. Brobst; Katherine Von Bpra, Alberta Soder; Alice, Sara Zeistloft; Anna, Mary Bell; Angelica, Clara Wenner; Veronica, Gertrude Keck; Sara, Sara Kuntz; Vesta, Pauline Hudock; Babetta, Carrie Miller; Cecilia, Mary Weiss; Agnes, Nellie Rowland, Rose Mary, Esther Horn; Aloysius, Stella Falk; Bertha, Mary Yock; Susanna, Maria Robinson; Lelecla, Jennie Dodson; novices, Mabel Deban, Hilda and Lina Vanauker; Nancy, Minnie O'Donnell; Katrina, Lettie Wenner; Annimoor, Martha Robinson. Scene includes choruses and solos, closing with a tableau.

The last procession is amidst the waving of flags and flashing of swords, all joining in singing Luther's battle hymn, "Ein Feste Burg."

A Dangerous Thief

Is not one who steals a purse, for that is trash, nor is it always a human being who seeks to steal wealth of other description. The most daring and annoying thieves are germs, parasites and microbes, which rob us of that which is of greater value than wealth. Medical science in its recent progression in bacteriological research, has discovered how the human system is constantly robbed of organic vitality by parasites. The epidermis of the scalp is often attacked and people are thereby deprived of a good head of hair. The parasite can be destroyed by the antiseptic ingredients in "Luxura," and the growth of hair revived by the invigorating properties of "Luxura." Price $1.00, delivered free of all carrying charges, in plain wrapper, accompanied by written guarantee providing for the return of money if it fails.

If interested, send address at once, enclosing 2c stamp to cover postage for a free trial package. Boston Drug and Chemical Co., 596 Pelham Building, Boston, Mass.

When you are bilious, use those famous little pills known as DeWitt's Little Early Risers to cleanse the liver and bowels. They never gripe. Grover's City drug store.

Taxing Widows' Properties.

Freeland, March 14, 1901.

Editor Tribune.—The tax collectors, school board, members of council and county commissioners are annually besieged by widowed property owners, and their friends, political and otherwise, for the purpose of securing abatements or exonerations of taxes due upon property owned by them. All manner of reasons are given why these should be granted, and not a few applicants have even claimed that widows are not liable to pay these taxes. This is all a mistake, for all property is liable to the extent of its full market value whatever that market may prove.

But why should widows evade taxes on property? Are not they better able to pay a few dollars annual tax of a dollar or less a month average than their less fortunate sisters who have not properties, but are compelled to rent them, paying from $6 to $10 a month which includes taxes, repairs and the profits, often no small sum, of the owners? As well might some of our well-to-do widows ask to be excused except on the ground of sympathy and poverty. This subject furnishes food for thought for our council, our school board, tax collector and our widows, not to say the county commissioners.

Why discriminate against the poor widow paying rent who supports herself, and family often, at the washboard and other menial labor? Think it over, ladies and gentlemen, and "Be Just Before You Are Generous." Justice.

Two Aged Residents Dead.

Mrs. Ann Davis, wife of Isaac Davis, of Front street, died at her home at 10.30 o'clock this morning. Mrs. Davis had been confined to her bed since Sunday. Last night she was stricken with paralysis, and up to the time of her death was unable to speak. The deceased was 64 years of age. The funeral will probably take place Monday afternoon, but no definite arrangements have yet been made.

Condy Heeney, a well known resident of town, died at his home on North Ridge street last evening at 10 o'clock. A few hours previous he received a paralytic stroke, from the effects of which he was unable to recover.

The deceased was aged 61 years and is survived by his wife and the following sons: James and Patrick, of Morea, and Bernard, of New York City.

The funeral will take place on Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Interment at St. Ann's cemetery.

Prof. Ivison, of Lonaconing, Md., suffered terribly from neuralgia of the stomach and indigestion for thirteen years and after the doctors failed to cure him they fed him on morphine. A friend advised the use of Koolid Dyspepsia Cure and after taking a few bottles of it he says, "It has cured me entirely. I can't say too much for Koolid Dyspepsia Cure." It digests what you eat. Grover's City drug store.

Miners' Examining Board.

The Miners' Examining Board will meet at the hotel of Mrs. William Jenkins, Centre and Luzerne streets, Freeland, on Saturday, March 16, 1901, at 7 p. m., for the purpose of examining all applicants for miners' certificates.

James Brogan, Miners' Matthew Welsh, Examining James Bottoms, Board.
