STRIKE CLOUDS PASSING AWAY

Bright Prospect of Amicable Adjustment.

Believed That the Miners' Officials and Anthracite Magnates Will Soon Arrive at an Understanding.

The dark clouds which have for the past few weeks been hovering over the anthracite coal field, and by their presence have caused an uneasiness that has penetrated every avenue of business and trade, are now, from reports which can be considered authentic, almost ready to pass away.

From reliable sources it is learned that the silence maintained by the anthracite coal magnates has been broken, and that the officials of the United Mine Workers and the representatives of the mining industry will soon, if they are not already together, meet in conference to discuss the questions of right and equity which were raised by the recent convention at Hazleton.

During the past forty-eight hours the sponsors of the capital and labor interested in the anthracite coal business have transacted business which has paved the way for a better understanding on both sides, and, while the work done is not yet in shape to present in full to the public at large, it is no violation of confidence to state that President Mitchell and the three district presidents have succeeded in obtaining assurances from some of the leading people on the side of capital that the miners' claims, as set forth in the resolutions adopted in convention, are entitled to consideration, and that a time and place have been set to give the union officials an opportunity to present these claims before representatives of the operators.

The officers and members of the union have steadily claimed that all that is necessary to convince their employers of the justice of their claims, especially their demand for a uniform wage scale, is an opportunity to meet the operators in conference. That the miners will be able to substantiate with abundant proofs the position they have taken is not doubted by themselves or their friends.

Nevertheless, knowing that they have a wily and crafty opposition to deal with, the United Mine Workers are not neglecting preparations to be ready to make a determined stand for their rights, should the conference to be held fail to bring about such a settlement as every resident of the coal region hopes for. The men are opposed to striking, and will do everything consistent with dignity and honor to avoid such a struggle, but if the contest comes to a point where the choice must be made between striking or surrendering their claims, the strike will be called and willingly obeyed.

President Mitchell and District Presidents Fahy, of Pottsville; Duffy, of McAdoo, and Nicholls, of Nanticoke, arrived in New York city from Scranton on Saturday. They established headquarters at the Ashland House, and their program for today includes a meeting with J. Pierpont Morgan at the latter's office. At this meeting an agreement will be reached for or against the holding of a future session.

PRIEST OPPOSES A STRIKE.

Rev. J. J. Curran, president of the Scranton Catholic Temperance Union and pastor of a large congregation at Wilkesbarre, took strong ground yesterday against a miners' strike. His congregation is composed almost entirely of miners. In his address to his parishioners he said the miners had not yet recovered from the last strike, and it would be almost suicidal to engage in another strike so soon.

How to Keep Your Friends.

"The less you exact of your friends the more they will give you," writes Helen Waterston Moody of "The First Tragedy in a Girl's Life," in the April Ladies' Home Journal. "For yourself give as richly and as nobly as you want to—of your love and your confidence and your loyalty. Live up to your highest ideal of what a friend should be (and the higher you make that ideal the finer woman you will be and the more friends will flock to you), but never exact of your friends that they shall give you more than they choose easily to give.

"If some one you love disappoints you, and as many, many more will do in days to come, do not hold up your ideal of what they should be and do as a mirror in which to count their imperfections. Let it pass, if you can, with a little smile that may be sad, but need not be at all satirical. And never be jealous of a friend if you want to keep one.

"If anybody you are fond of forms other friendships, or seems to be engrossed with other friends, do not let it make you unhappy, and above all never offer comment upon her all too evident neglect of her old friends for her new ones."

Rendered Good Music.

No entertainment conducted this season by the Mining and Mechanical Institute gave more pleasure to the friends of the school than the engagement of the Royal Hungarian orchestra, which appeared here Saturday evening. The music was without question the finest ever rendered in Freeland by a similar organization, and even those who acknowledge that they know but little of music were profoundly impressed with the evening's entertainment.

Last night a sacred concert was given by the orchestra, and was attended by a small but very appreciative audience.

The members left this morning for Binghamton, N. Y., where they are engaged to play this evening.

Will Play in Big Leagues.

Bernard McFadden, of Villanova college, is spending a few days in Freeland. He has signed to play the coming season with Cincinnati National league baseball club.

Matt Broderick, of Sandy Run, has signed to play the season with Buffalo.

Both young men are ball players whose merits have been long recognized by their local admirers, and their work this summer will be closely watched by their Freeland friends. Both are members of the Tigers Athletic Club and received their first lessons in the game while playing on the Tigers team.

Church Consecration.

The Italian and Tirolese Catholic church on Fern street was consecrated yesterday morning by Rev. M. J. Fallibee in the presence of a large number of people. He was assisted by the pastor, Rev. Peter Loungo. The church has been tastefully furnished and equipped with a handsome altar and organ, and the Italian and Tirolese residents of the community are taking a great deal of interest in its future.

The church will be known as St. Anthony's.

Contesting for Stewardship.

The poor directors are in session at Laurytown today and it is expected that a successor will be chosen to fill the vacancy at the almshouse caused by the resignation of Steward Wells. The contest has narrowed down to Bittner, of Weatherly, and Jacobs, of Hazleton, and the politicians are claiming that the latter will be elected, basing their predictions on the fact that Jacobs is a Republican and Bittner a Democrat. The three members of the board are Republicans.

Will of George Bird.

The will of George Bird, late of Freeland, was probated at Wilkesbarre on Saturday. He gives all his estate to his children in equal shares, except to Elijah, who, on account of what he has already received, is to get only $1; $1 is to be paid the heirs of his daughters, Ellen, Sarah, Ann and Amelia, and $25 to Mattie Ridell, a grand-daughter. His sons, Levi and George W., are named as executors. The estate is valued at $1,500.

Drawn as Jurors.

Among the citizens of this vicinity drawn to serve as jurors are the following:

April 29.—Fred Haiges, Foster; Frank McHugh, J. O. Baker, Samuel Simmons, Hazle; Theodore Pundy, Jeddo.

May 6.—Denis Boyle, Freeland; Harry Argut, John Richards, Frank Smith, Foster; James W. Shaw, Butler.

Attended Father's Funeral.

Richard Scott, of town, attended the funeral of his father, Kennedy Scott, on Saturday at Philadelphia, where he died last Tuesday night. Mr. Scott, Sr., was aged 55 years and was a prominent resident of the city. He had been ill for the past five weeks.

The stomach controls the situation. Those who are hearty and strong are those who can eat and digest plenty of food. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat and allows you to eat all the good food you want. If you suffer from indigestion, heartburn, belching or any other stomach trouble, this preparation can't help but do you good. The most sensitive stomachs can take it. Grover's City drug store.

ROUND THE REGION.

Around the coffin in which lay the body of the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Waytkosky, at their home in Scranton, were a number of lighted wax candles. One of the neighbors came in last night, bent over to kiss the lips of the dead child and knocked one of the lighted tapers into the coffin. The coffin decorations and the grave clothes of the child flamed up in an instant. The body of the child was charred in many places, but it was saved from cremation.

Mrs. Mary E. Mabey, of Mill Creek, fired three shots at a man who is alleged to have broken into her hotel early Saturday morning and wounded him severely in the right side. Mrs. Mabey stood at the top of the steps and ordered the man out of the house. He threw three oil lamps at her and then started to climb the stairs. The wounded man was taken to the hospital.

Prof. Ivison, of Lonaconing, Md., suffered terribly from neuralgia of the stomach and indigestion for thirteen years and after the doctors failed to cure him they fed him on morphine. A friend advised the use of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure and after taking a few bottles of it he says, "It has cured me entirely. I can't say too much for Kodol Dyspepsia Cure." It digests what you eat. Grover's City drug store.

Mrs. Robert W. Taylor, whose husband last week broke out of Pottsville jail, but was recaptured, has filed an application for divorce in Schuylkill county court. Taylor, from the time of his recapture until yesterday, refused food, intending, he said, to starve himself to death. He has since changed his mind.

Three hundred miners of the Clear Spring colliery, Pitston, narrowly escaped death by suffocation on Saturday. Only the presence of mind of a mine boss, who rushed messengers to other sections of the workings, saved the men from being overcome by gas.

Like Oliver Twist, children ask for more when given One Minute Cough Cure. Mothers endorse it highly for cure. It quickly cures all coughs and colds and every throat and lung trouble. It is a specific for grippe and asthma and has long been a well known remedy for whooping cough. Grover's City drug store.

Frank B. Winslow, manager of the Sheldon Axle Works, Wilkesbarre, was killed by a Delaware and Hudson express train, while riding his wheel on the tracks. The train overtook him before he could dismount.

William Stern, who for many years had conducted a dry goods store at Scranton, committed suicide at Atlantic City on Saturday by turning on the gas in his room.

Counterfeits of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve are liable to cause blood poisoning. Leave them alone. The original has the name DeWitt's upon the box and wrapper. It is a harmless and healing salve for skin diseases. Unequaled for piles. Grover's City drug store.

The White Haven Journal has been sold by S. S. Staples to W. C. Taylor, who will publish it hereafter.

Wilkesbarre silk mill strikers announce that with the sums promised them and what they now have in the treasury they have sufficient to stay on strike for six months.

When you are bilious, use those famous little pills known as DeWitt's Little Early Risers to cleanse the liver and bowels. They never gripe. Grover's City drug store.

To Encourage Marriage.

In the state legislature on Friday, Representative Jeremiah Roth, of Lehigh county, who is well known in Freeland, introduced a bill to encourage marriage. The bill provides that a male citizen of Pennsylvania over 40 years old making application for a marriage license shall pay to the clerk of courts a license fee of $100, which is to be turned into the state treasury for the purpose of maintaining homes for old women over 40 years old who have not had a suitable opportunity or offer of marriage and have not means sufficient to keep themselves in clothes and spending money. Any bachelor over 40 years who shall go outside of the state for a wife shall pay $100 into the state treasury.

The act is irrevocable and can never be repealed without the consent of the majority of the old women who have been regularly admitted to the homes.

Bros. Royer in Next Door.

The famous Brothers Royer will shortly appear at the opera house, in their acrobatic farce frolic, "Next Door." The piece is a production on the order of "Eight Bells." It is said to contain many features, prominent among them being the Royer troupe of acrobats, the funny trick bathing scene, the haunted house, the funny mule and the wonderful leaping scene. A feature in itself is the beautiful costumes and scenery. The piece is considered one of the very best on the road.

Happenings of the Past Two Days in and Around Freeland Recorded Without Waste of Words.

The funeral of the late John W. Slattery took place this afternoon shortly after 2 o'clock and was largely attended by the friends of the young man. Many beautiful floral tributes were presented. The remains were taken to St. Ann's church, where services were held, after which the interment took place in the adjoining cemetery.

Ice cold soda at Keiper's.

It is reported in railroad circles that after May 1 Freeland people will be given better accommodations to and from the county seat by the Lehigh Valley Railroad. The present schedule is very unsatisfactory to patrons of the road, and also gives the town a small service worse than has existed for the past fifteen years.

Coxe Bros. & Co. will pay on Friday and Markle & Co., Wentz & Co., Kemmerer & Co., Upper Lehigh Coal Company and Pond Creek and Wyoming Coal Company will pay on Saturday.

Easter baskets and novelties—Keiper's Al Hoffman, of Drifton, has resigned his position as blacksmith for Coxe Bros. & Co. and on April 1 will remove to Union township, Schuylkill county, where he will begin business as a farmer.

J. W. Troell, of West Hazleton, and Miss Cassie Holland, of Freeland, were married on Saturday evening by Rev. J. B. Kerschner.

See that you get the original DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve when you ask for it. The genuine is a certain cure for piles, sores and skin diseases. Grover's City drug store.

William Hes has disposed of his property on West Walnut street, Birtvanton, to Mrs. Eva Karpowitz, of town, for $1,200. The sale was conducted by Attorney R. J. O'Donnell.

John M. Carr, Esq., of Freeland, is making an active contest for the appointment of district attorney for the new judicial district. While every lower order would like to see Mr. Carr succeed it is stated in political circles that Harry Knight, of Sunbury, has been slated for the position.—Hazleton Standard.

The lingering cough following gripe call for One Minute Cough Cure. For all throat and lung troubles this is the only harmless remedy that gives immediate results. Prevents consumption. Grover's City drug store.

PERSONAL.

John J. McGarvey and Patrick J. O'Donnell, of Elizabeth, N. J., are in town—the former attending the funeral of the late John W. Slattery and the latter visiting his brother, William, who is ill.

Miss Kate Garver and Miss Millie Scotch, of Weatherly, are the guests of Freeland friends.

Peter Yannes will leave tomorrow for Seattle, Washington, where he will make his future home.

Miss Nellie Sullivan, of Philadelphia, is attending to business in town.

Stewart MacFarlane, Esq., of Los Angeles, California, is visiting his parents at Drifton.

Edward Dugan, of New York city, is visiting in town.

Their promptness and their pleasant effects make DeWitt's Little Early Risers most popular little pills wherever they are known. They are simply perfect for liver and bowel troubles. Grover's City drug store.
