For Brain

Loss of mental energy, lack of thought power, failing memory or inability to con-centrate the mind on the work in hand, there is nothing so good as Dr. Miles' Nervine. Its powerful influence in building up and strengthening the broken-down nerves, makes this great remedy an inval-uable brain-food and restorative. It nour-ishes, fortifies and refreshes the tired and worn-out brain and gives new strength. new life, and new energy to the system.

"My nerves were greatly debilitated, and I had a feeling of dullness, dizzy spells and confusion of ideas. Would awake from sleep with a burning pain in the back and top of my head, and a disagreeable taste in my mouth. My memory was poor and I sometimes thought I would go crazy. I began taking Dr. Miles' Nervine and was helped from the very start. The result was that I was completely restored."

Adds renewed force to the system, puts a new light in the eye, gives new firmness to the step and new life to the mind. Now is the time to try it.

In these days of "hustle" one wants to read a newspaper which presents all the news in the most concise form without being obliged to read colums of matter to get at facts.

Viewed from this standpoint

..The.. Philadelphia Record

is the ideal newspaper. It is an enterprising, energetic, honorable journal, printing all the news.

It is courageous and independent; speaking its mind without fear or favor, and it is devoted first, last and all the time to the interests of the public.

"The Record" is the PIONEER ONE CENT NEWSPAPER of the United States, and has by far the largest circulation in Philadelphia, averaging over 190,000 daily and over 155,000 Sunday.

This is the third largest morning circulation in the United States.

Price of subscription to both issues for one year is $4; to the daily only, $3; to the Sunday only, $1; to the daily only, for one month, 25c.; to the daily and Sunday for one month, 35c.

Powerful Yeast.

The veteral editor of the Golden (Colo.) Transcript, who hates a liar as he hates a delinquent subscriber, and who uses only the old reliable George Washington brand of truth in his business, fathers this strange story:

"A Larimer county farmer lost a cow in a very queer manner last week. The animal in rummaging through a summer kitchen found and swallowed an old umbrella and a cake of yeast. The yeast, fermenting in the poor beast's stomach, raised the umbrella, and she died in great agony."—Denver Post.

Mrs. Hearts. Legislator.

Mrs. Evangeline Hearts has introduced in the Colorado house of representatives three bills in which shat takes special interest, and, being the usiy woman in this assembly, her wishes will receive respectful consideration on that account, says the Denver News, as well as because of merit in the bills themselves.

One of these bills proposes to amend the state constitution so as to enable the state to go into business, the principal object being to enable it to open coal mines on state lands and operate them for the benefit of the public. Another bill provides that all property acquired after marriage, except by descent or bequest, shall be jointly owned by husband and wife and shall not be allenated without the consent of both. It does not interfere with preperty owned by either before marriage or acquired by descent or bequest afterward, but aims to make the earnings of both after marriage from execution or attachment, such as household goods, etc., cannot be mortgaged or sold without the written joint consent of both husband and wife. Mrs. Heartz says that even the so called "chattel mortgage fiends" have told her that this bill would relieve them of much disagreeable controversy. The aim is to prevent an improvident husband from turning his family out of doors by a mortgage sale of household effects.

Miss Hildegarde McKenna. daughter

one of the Washington Belles.

Miss Hildegarde McKenna, daughter of Justice of the Supreme Court McKenna, is one of the most beautiful girls in official life in Washington. She made her debut early in December and took society by storm. Her coloring is of that exquisite brilliancy born of the mild airs of the Pacific coast. She is tall and graceful, neither slender nor stout, but lissome and plant. She has auburn hair, has blue eyes and is of the style that Titian loved to paint. She was educated at Georgetown convent and possesses a gracious presence and a kindly air which wins her friends at the first meeting.

Justice McKenna has three daughters—isabel. Maria, and Justice McKenna has three daughters—Isabel, Marie and Hildegarde.

They represent the blond, brunette and Titian types of beauty and are considered three of the handsomest young girls in Washington. Their mether, Mrs. McKenna, is also one of the grandes dames of Washington, tall, graceful and handsome, always faultlessly clad, and an ideal hostess.—Success.

First French Girls' Club.

The first French girls' club has just been formed in Parls and is looked upon with intense disapproval, it is said, by the conservative. It is called the Association des Etudiantes, and the membership is limited to students of certain colleges, including the University of Parls, the School of Fine Arts and the School of Decorative Art.

The club had great difficulty in securing a home, as the landlords seemed to think it a highly improper thing, but rooms finally were found in a building belonging to a scientific society.

The rules adopted by the club are sufficiently stringent, one would think, to quiet the fears of the opponents. The froms are to be closed at 10 o'clock, games of chance are prohibited, no alcoholic beverages will be served, tobacco is not allowed on the premises and no pet animals are permitted in the house.—New York Tribune.

"Paid Under Protest."

Miss Mary S. Anthony has paid her taxes, as she has said from the first that she would do when it became necessary in order to avoid sacrificing her home. She accompanied her check with the following note: "In humiliation at being compelled to contribute to the support of a government which refuses to all woman taxpayers the privilege or right to decide as to the expenditure of money, while the same is so readily granted to all men of whatever shade or nationality outside of prison walls, whether taxpayers or not, I herewith inclose my county tax, $17.85, which please write distinctly on your book as 'paid under protest.'"—Woman's Journal.

FOR LITTLE FOLKS.

A Young Telephone Operator.

The townspeople of Edwardsville, Ills., boast of the youngest telephone exchange operator in the world in the person of little 6-year-old Gladys Lax. She is classed as one of the wonders of this suburb of St. Louis and has a wide acquaintance among commercial men who have had occasion to use the exchange at Edwardsville.

This little operator is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Lax, who have charge of the exchange. Gladys had not begun to learn her A. B. C before she knew nearly every number contained on the switchboard. She sat by while her father and mother operated the various switches and soon evidenced the ability to be of material assistance to her parents. She was given a high chair, stationed at one of the switches and supplied with a head band just like the real girl operator wears. Here she manipulates the keys after the fashion of her older sisters in the larger cities. For the last three months she has been making exchanges, and now her mother declares that she is an adept.

Edwardsville is only 18 miles distant from St. Louis, and its manufacturing interests bring it in close touch with the metropolitan city.

ORGANIZED CHARITY.

ITS METHODS ARE WRONG AND ITS RESULTS HARMFUL.

What the Poor Generally Need Is Justice, Not Charity—Give Men a Chance to Work and Don't Rob Them of Their Labor's Fruits.

The Arena for March contains an interesting and sensible article on "Organized Charity" from the pen of Charles B. Patterson. Following is an extract from the article:

Society, the state and the nation are responsible for the existing order of things. There are in this country tens of thousands of ablebodied persons out of employment. These masses must be fed in one way or another. If they could obtain work, the large would help to strengthen their physical bodies and also develop their minds, but it has not live on what they receive from the things of the country tens of the co
