Freeland Recorded Without Waste of Words.

Joseph Birkbeck has entered suit against Camp 147, P. O. S. of A., of town, for $100, which he claims is due him as funeral benefits on account of the death of his wife. Payment of the claim has been refused, it is said, on the ground that Mr. Birkbeck was in arrears at the time of his wife's death. The case is being tried this afternoon before Squire Shovlin.

A petition asking for an additional law judge for Luzerne county has obtained nearly 200 signers among members of the bar. It will be forwarded to the legislature, which has under consideration the bill asking for another judge for Luzerne. The bill will undoubtedly pass and Frank Wheaton will be appointed by Governor Stone to fill the office.

Gentlemen, for hats and caps go to A.
Oswald. He has a nice variety.
A beautiful tribute to the heroism of miners in the mines is given in Leslie's Weekly for March 30, the author being F. E. Seward, editor of the Coal Trade Journal. He shows that there are many cases of heroism that if displayed on the battlefield or before the public gaze would win the plaudits of the world.

James Pendergast, Sr., of Upper Lehigh, was taken to Laurytown hospital this morning by Liveryman Frank O'Donnell. He is suffering from a temporary derangement of his mental faculties, and a few weeks' treatment is expected to restore a proper balance.

The heavy rains of the past week caused a washout in the vicinity of the D. S. & S. bridge, which spans the Le-Valley tracks at Drifton. Almost a hundred cars of material were required to fill up the gulch.

Miss Bid McLaughlin, of North Washington street, returned on Saturday from Jefferson hospital, Philadelphia, where she had been receiving treatment for several weeks for her injured foot.
While not completely cured, her foot is much stronger than before.

Those famous little pills, DeWitt's Little Early Risers, will remove all impurities from your system, cleanse your bowels, make them regular. Grover's City drug store.

A committee representing the employees of G. B. Markle & Co. called at the office of John Markle, in Jeddo, this morning, and asked that a time be fixed for a conference to discuss grievances of the employees.

Directors Keller, McHugh and Lesser, of the Foster school board, were the only members present on Saturday evening. A quorum will be mustered, if possible, for a meeting Wednesday evening.

A number of sports from this region will take in the Perry-Sullivan "go" at Allentown this evening. The former is personally acquainted with many of our young men.

Council viewed the Fourth ward fire house yesterday afternoon and will report at a meeting to be held Wednesday evening to take action in the matter.

St. Ann's band rendered a sacred concert yesterday afternoon at St. Ann's convent.

A large number from town took in the Beisheim-Fox shooting match at Milneville on Saturday.

School Director John McCole, of the Sixth ward, has placed a piano in his home.

Charles Holland, of Stockton, and Miss Katie McHugh, of Jeddo, will be married at St. Ann's church the latter part of this month.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. John Rogan, South Centre street, last week.

David Keers, a former resident of Freeland, died last week at Scranton.

PLEASURE.

band at Yannes' opera house. Admission, 50 cents.

lot, 20x150 feet, on North Birkbeck street.
$1,000 for the John Dusheck property, 50x150 feet, on North Washington street.

feet, on West Walnut street.

FOR SALE CHEAP.—Three fresh cows; can Murderer Placed in Jail.

John Gulick, slayer of his mother and brother, is now locked in Sunbury jail.
Since the commission of his crime last Tuesday morning he has roamed aimlessly through the mountains eating sweet birch during the day and at night going into some town and begging food from door to door.

On Saturday night he wandered to the old homestead where he committed the crime and sought shelter in an outbuilding. After kindling a fire in the stove he sat there all night and was discovered yesterday morning. The aged father was called and shook hands with his son, whom he took back into the very room where he had killed his mother.

The double murderer stood in silence for a moment, and then sat down at the breakfast table and partook of a hearty meal. The murder was not mentioned.
Through with the meal, he went upstairs and changed clothing. In the meantime a constable arrived and placed him under arrest.

When the warrant was read to him he remarked: "I intended to give myself up on Monday. I am tired of being hunted like a dog and being driven from place to place. I stood on a hill on Friday and saw the funeral of my mother and brother."

Onida Trouble Settled.

Onida miners returned to work this morning, the differences between them and Cox Bros. & Co.'s superintendents having been adjusted by the revoking of the order compelling the men to report before 6 a. m. in order to be lowered down the slope.

The determined stand taken by the locked-out employees attracted the attention of persons who have more interest in maintaining harmony between miners and operators than the clique at Drifton, and a curt notice from the anthraxite powers, commanding the company to live up to the spirit and letter of its posted notices, brought about a sudden change in the demeanor of the pompous figure-heads who think they are superintending Cox Bros. & Co.'s coal affairs.

Delegates Elected.

Thomas Gallagher and John Shovlin, of Freeland, were elected yesterday by the Young Men's Corps to represent the society at Scranton next month in annual convention of the Scranton C. T.
A. Union. President John J. McNelis will also attend the convention in his official capacity, and will enter the race as a candidate for delegate to the national convention of the union.

Mr. McNelis has been a hard worker for the cause of temperance for many years and the Scranton union can make no better selection to send as its representative to the national union.

A Disappointing Day.

Easter Sunday, usually considered the opening of spring, was wet, cold and dreary, and the many Easter bonnets and new suits, which had been purchased with the intention of being donned for the first time yesterday, were sadly stored away for a more auspicious occasion.

In the churches the services were all well attended, especially at those where special music and singing had been prepared.

Spent Easter at Home.

The following students were noticed in town for Easter:

Lehigh university—Frank Roberts, Daniel Sachs, Richard Cunningham.
Villanova—Thomas Campbell.
Philadelphia Dental—P. X. O'Donnell.
Cornell—Calvin Albert.
Philadelphia College of Pharmacy—Howard Albert.
Carlisle—Daniel Kline, Roger Dever.

Investigating a Death.

The death of John Beros, of Carbon and Washington streets, who died on Friday in the Miners' hospital from injuries alleged to have been received by falling down stairs on March 30, is being investigated by the authorities. There are reasons to believe that his death was due to injuries other than those caused by the alleged falling down the stairs.

Band Ball Tonight.

The annual ball of St. Patrick's cornet band will be held this evening at Yannes' opera house. The members have made preparations to accommodate their friends and expect to have a large number present. Music will be furnished by St. Ann's band and refreshments will be on sale.

"Last winter I was confined to my bed with a very bad cold on the lungs.
Nothing gave me relief. Finally my wife bought a bottle of One Minute Cough Cure that effected a speedy cure.
I cannot speak too highly of that excellent remedy."—Mr. T. K. Houseman, Manatowney, Pa. Grover's City drug store.

ROUND THE REGION.

George Kleckner, who was to have been initiated as a member of the Junior Order United American Mechanics at Tamaqua, by mistake entered the Improved Order of Red Men's quarters, where a class was also to be initiated.
Before the mistake was discovered he was well into the mysteries of Red Men-ship and he was made a full-fledged Indian without having been proposed or balloted for.

"Take a sniff of that, it will cure any headache," said an alleged patent medicine agent to Nicholas Gillis, of Luzerne borough, handing him a bottle. Gillis sniffed vigorously and awoke half an hour later. The agent had gone, so had $14. Gillis gave the alarm and the man was captured and is now in jail.
He gives his name as Lafayette Hall, of Johnstown.

"I had piles so bad I could get no rest nor find a cure until I tried De-Witt's Witch Hazel Salve. After using it once, I forgot I ever had anything like piles."—E. C. Boice, Somers Point, N. Y. Look out for imitations. Be sure you ask for DeWitt's. Grover's City drug store.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Morgan, the oldest married couple in this county, had the pleasure of celebrating the fifty-ninth anniversary of their marriage last week at Wilkesbarre. Mr. Morgan is 86 years old and his wife is 77. They were married at the county seat and have lived there ever since.

You cannot enjoy perfect health, rosy cheeks and sparkling eyes if your liver is sluggish and your bowels clogged.
DeWitt's Little Early Risers cleanse the whole system. They never gripe.
Grover's City drug store.

A serious mine cave has occurred in the borough of Hughesstown, a mile north of Pittston, which has affected about five acres of territory and wrecked several houses. A handsome residence owned by John Tischler has been ripped apart and two houses owned by Charles Schmaltz and John Carlsheuer have been tipped badly.

Spring coughs are specially dangerous and unless cured at once, serious results often follow. One Minute Cough Cure acts like magic. It is not a common mixture but is a high grade remedy.
Grover's City drug store.

Editor Richard Little, of the Scrantonian, has had warrants issued for the arrest of Fred Dilcher, of the United Mine Workers' executive board, and Martin D. Flaherty, a prominent labor leader of Scranton. The charge preferred against them is conspiracy.

PERSONAL.

James Halpin, of Scranton, is spending a few days at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Halpin, Birkbeck street.

Mrs. Della Chambers and son and daughter, of Brooklyn, N. Y., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kulp, North Centre street.

Dr. Thomas Birkbeck, of Philadelphia, spent yesterday with his parents here.

Miss Mame O'Neill, of Philadelphia, is visiting Upper Lehigh friends.

Joseph Houston and Hugh McGarvey, of Mahanoy City, spent Easter at their homes in town.

Married on Saturday.

Eugene West, of town, and Miss Bertha C. Betterly, of Butler valley, were married on Saturday at Hazleton by Rev. E. S. Stoffet, of that city. The news that the ceremony had been performed was a surprise to the friends of the young couple. Mr. and Mrs. West left immediately for Monroe county, where they are enjoying their honeymoon as the guests of Mr. West's relatives.

The groom has recently taken charge of the saloon which for many years was conducted by Condy O. Boyle, and upon their return from their wedding tour they will make their home here.

Renewed the Lease.

The Freeland Opera House Company yesterday gave notice to the Young Men's C. T. A. B. Corps that a renewal of the lease of the Grand opera house building had been decided upon to date from August 1 next to August 1, 1902.
The rent the coming year, which is the third and last year covered by the lease, will be $650, an increase of $50 over the rent for the present year. According to the terms of the lease it was necessary to give the Young Men's Corps four months' notice of the Opera House Company's intention to renew.

Explanations in Order.

The borough auditors will convene Wednesday evening for the purpose of hearing explanations from ex-Secretaries Davis and McClellan, regarding the missing leaves of the ex-tax collector's exoneration book. They may also inquire into other matters pertaining to the audit which do not at present appear quite clear.

Sketch of a New and Growing Organization.

Membership Embraces Many Persons of National Reputation—Initiation Fee Is Eleven Cents.

Are you a Buffalo?

Perhaps you haven't heard of the new order that recently struck this town and numbers its members by the dozens. To learn the mysteries of this far-famed order it costs eleven cents—and some-over. This is how it is done:

One of your friends meets you on the street and inquires, "Are you a Buffalo?"
Of course you are not, and tell him so.
Then your troubles have just begun.
He replies, "Well, give me eleven cents, and I will initiate you."

You suspicion a "sell" at once and decline, but he assures you it is all right, and you make the contribution.
Then he proceeds to make you a Buffalo. You are given the grand hailing sign, and the answer; next comes the grip; then follows the admonition in regard to what you do on certain occasions. You are next taken into some place of business and given a practice lesson. If you have been attentive during the initiation service, you get along in good shape and see where your eleven cents goes to, but if you have been careless and did not observe the instructions of the Buffalo, you are greeted with a general invitation to "Buy, buy, buy."

There is nothing else left for you to do but to purchase anything the company wants. After having satisfactorily passed this test, you are greeted as a full-fledged Buffalo, and informed that you are entitled to the best to be had.
The initiation is on the "quick-lunch" plan, and it bars no one that is out of jail or the cemetery, who can raise eleven cents or more. This is the only requirement, and it is here that the joke comes in. For the prospective candidate seldom has the exact amount, and tenders anywhere from a quarter to twenty dollars when asked for his fee, with the result that he is out just that amount, being blandly told that "Buffaloes never give change."

This merry form of hold-up has made "Buffaloes" out of nine-tenths of the United States senate, almost all the lower house, and successfully on no less than seven governors, one of whom, Dietrich, of Nebraska, paid $20 to learn the cardinal principle regarding change.
No less a personage than Vice President Roosevelt fell a victim to the wiles of a member desirous of getting square, and the strenuous-lived Teddy was buncoed to the extent of $5 on the day of his inauguration by a Chicago politician who had been previously "buffaloed." Andrew Carnegie was caught in it to the extent of a silver dollar, as was also John D. Rockefeller, who separated himself from a quarter to learn the mystic secret of the order.

Separate Union for Firemen.

The International Brotherhood of Stationary Firemen has decided that the firemen employed at the mines are not compelled to join the United Mine Workers, but belong to the Firemen's Union.
The union has ordered all who joined the miners' organization to resign, and to pay no heed to any attempt of the miners to get them into their union.
This division pleases the operators, as the firemen will not be compelled to strike with the miners.

A Royal Photographer.

The German empress is an exceptionally skillful amateur photographer, and she has a most interesting collection of pictures. The empress takes snap shots at the court festivities, and she has secured a photograph of the crown prince when he appeared for the first time on parade as a full officer of the guards.

Also a Character.

The shah of Persia is a great caricaturist. The walls of his private apartments are covered with plain white paper, and on this he scribbles funny pictures whenever the fancy takes him. When he grows tired of them, they are washed off or the room is repapered.

You will waste time if you try to cure indigestion or dyspepsia by starving yourself. That only makes it worse when you do eat heartily. You always need plenty of good food properly digested.
Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is the result of years of scientific research for something that would digest not only some elements of food but every kind. And it is the one remedy that will do it. Grover's
