Drifton Company's President Gives Testimony.

Industrial Commission at Washington Learns Something From the Head of Coxie Bros. & Co.

Irving A. Stearns, president of Coxie Bros. & Co., of Drifton, occupied the attention of the Industrial Commission at its afternoon session in Washington yesterday. This company is engaged in mining and shipping anthracite coal, and also owns and controls the Delaware, Susquehanna and Schuylkill Railroad.

Mr. Stearns said that his company had a trackage contract with the Lehigh Valley Railroad and supplies its own trains, crews, etc. He had understood that recently the railroad companies had agreed to increase the percentage of the tidewater price of coal to independent operators from 60 per cent to 65 per cent. These contracts were to be in perpetuity and were made to prevent competition, the cutting of prices, etc.

He said that his company ships annually about three and a half per cent of the anthracite coal mined, amounting last year to 1,580,880 tons, and that his instructions had been to mine all the coal for which there is demand. If the output of any large company should be materially increased, he said, the entire trade would be demoralized. The railroad companies generally fix the price of anthracite, Mr. Stearns said. He expressed the opinion that the present price of hard coal is as high as the trade will permit and that any material advance would cause an increase of competition.

He did not believe there was any discrimination against independent operators and he did not believe there was reason to hope for the opening of new anthracite fields.

There had been efforts in recent years to construct independent roads to tide-water, but the coal properties back of them had been bought up by the "community of interest" and the new roads therefore had not been built.

He expressed the opinion that these transfers in the future would render rates more stable.

Mr. Stearns said that his company employs 3,500 men, representing twenty nationalities, about three-quarters being foreigners. Some of them engaged in the strike of last fall, but only went out under extreme intimidation to avoid loss of life. The average net earnings of the miners in the mines of the company, Mr. Stearns put at $13.60 net per month for the best months.

One Wife Not Enough.

From Yesterday's Plain Speaker. John Dresh, of Nuremberg, is in serious trouble today in consequence of charges of perjury and bigamy preferred by his wife, who recently had him sent to jail at Sunbury on charges of desertion and non-support. Mrs. Dresh, who comes from Freeland, lives at Shamokin at present. Some startling developments are looked for.

Dresh was arrested several months ago on the charges of desertion and non-support and the evidence being conclusive was sent to jail upon failure to promise to provide for his better half.

Today he was brought from jail to Shenandoah to answer the charges of bigamy and perjury, also preferred by his wife.

The latter alleges that Dresh went before Justice McCormick, at Nuremberg, some time ago and applied for a license to marry Miss Hattie Houser. In doing so, she says, he swore his first wife—Mrs. Dresh, who is now prosecuting him—was dead, whereas he knew she was very much alive. The complaint also sets forth that Dresh married Miss Houser on June 16 last and that they lived together until he was sent to jail.

Justice Shoemaker, before whom the case was heard, placed Dresh under $500 bail, in default of which he was remanded to jail to await trial.

Mrs. Dresh says she was married to the accused man at Freeland, on August 10, 1895, by Rev. Samuel Cooper. They lived together eighteen months. Mrs. Dresh, at the time of that marriage, was the widow of Francis P. Martin, of Freeland.

The Assessment Question.

Monday having been appointed by the county commissioners as appeal day for property owners of Freeland who were not satisfied with the assessment as recently made, several people of town were at Wilkesbarre on that day to present their objections. The assessment was thoroughly gone over by both parties and large decreases in the valuation were found in the Second and Third wards, while the First, Fourth and former South wards showed increases. Much discrimination in property valuations were found to exist in various parts of town. The commissioners' assessment of lots on many of the side and rear streets were found to be greater than the actual value, and lots side by side and on opposite sides of the same street were found to vary in their assessed value.

The commissioners took the matter under further consideration, and it is likely that revised transcripts will be issued for Freeland and another date set for appeals.

Early Closing.

The Clerks' Union, at last evening's meeting, made preparations to carry out the plans of the early closing movement, as given in the Tribune a few weeks ago. The clerks demand Sunday closing of all business and the closing of stores at 7 p. m., except on two evenings each week. The assistance of United Mine Workers and other labor organizations will be asked to make the movement a success.

An effort is being made today by several of the merchants to arrange for the holding of a meeting of the business people of town some evening this week. Exceptions are taken to some of the demands of the Clerks' Union, and to ascertain the views and feeling of the merchants the proposed meeting will be held.

Removal of Pastor.

Rev. W. W. Hartman and family have removed to St. Mary's, Elk county, where the former will assume his duties as pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church. During his residence in town Rev. Hartman made many friends, and his energetic work as pastor of the Park church contributed largely to the success which its congregation attained during his service as its guide and director. Rev. Hartman's strict attention to the business of his vocation won him the friendship of all people with whom he came in contact.

Verdict of Manslaughter.

The grand jury's return of an indictment for manslaughter in the case of Nicholas Capece, accused of the murder of Rudolph Demerio, is causing considerable discussion in town. It was generally understood last week that a first degree indictment had been agreed upon, but this was an error, according to the grand jury's return. Friends of Capece are now satisfied that the case against him will fall and that a prompt acquittal of the charge will follow his trial.

Granted a Pension.

Christian Koster, of Drifton, a veteran of the rebellion, has been granted by the government a pension of $12 a month, dating from June 5, 1900, on account of inability to earn a living by manual labor. About a year ago Mr. Koster lost a leg by an accident at Drifton station, caused by a runaway team of mules.

"I had piles so bad I could get no rest nor find a cure until I tried DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. After using it once, I forgot I ever had anything like piles."—E. C. Boice, Somers Point, N. Y. Look out for imitations. Be sure you ask for DeWitt's Grover's City drug store.

PLEASURE.

April 20.—Hop of Good Wills Athletic Association at Yannes' opera house. Admission, 25 cents.

ROUND THE REGION.

A suit for damages has been entered against the Lehigh Valley Company by Mrs. Kate L. Marsh, whose husband was employed as a fireman and on March 13, 1901, was killed by the explosion of the boiler near White Haven. Damages are claimed on the ground that the boiler was defective and that the company was negligent in not keeping it in proper repair. A similar suit has been entered against the same company by Kate N. Albert, widow of Wilson T. Albert, who was the engineer and was killed in the same accident.

The Spring Brook Water Company, which practically controls the water system in the Wyoming and Lackawanna valleys, has purchased the water plant at Pittston, including that of the Pennsylvania Coal Company. The new reservoir just completed by the Spring Brook Company has a capacity of two billion gallons, and will supply the inhabitants between Scranton and Wilkesbarre, as well as all collieries and manufacturing plants.

"I have been troubled with indigestion for ten years, have tried many things and spent much money to no purpose until I tried Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. I have taken two bottles and gotten more relief from them than all other medicines taken. I feel more like a boy than I have felt in twenty years."—Anderson Riggs, of Sunny Lane, Texas. Thousands have testified as did Mr. Riggs. Grover's City drug store.

At last night's production of the "Two Merry Tramps" in the Grand, some one in the gallery threw a piece of apple at one of the actors, but fortunately it did not strike him. Such actions as this are to be deplored and a repetition will not be tolerated by the management.—Hazleton Plain Speaker.

Adam Rhoades was struck down and mysteriously murdered close to his home in Parsons at 1 o'clock yesterday morning, and the only clue of any kind the police have is the statement of his friend, Matthew Cooper, who says a man came out of the darkness and stabbed Rhoades.

You will waste time if you try to cure indigestion or dyspepsia by starving yourself. That only makes it worse when you do eat heartily. You always need plenty of good food properly digested. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is the result of years of scientific research for something that would digest not only some elements of food but every kind. And it is the one remedy that will do it. Grover's City drug store.

Alderman W. S. Millar, of Scranton, has announced his determination to put a stop to the practice of spitting in street cars and on sidewalks. Yesterday he fined James Scott $3 for expectorating on the sidewalk.

While a traveling salesman was consuming an oyster stew in the store of W. H. Leisenring, of Nanticoke, he found a sparkling object which proved to be a fine pearl. The gem is worth $25.

Barns near Shickshinny owned by Kester Stauffer, D. F. Holleper and M. H. Daley were destroyed by fire yesterday, two horses perishing in the flames. The loss is about $3,000.

You cannot enjoy perfect health, rosy cheeks and sparkling eyes if your liver is sluggish and your bowels clogged. DeWitt's Little Early Risers cleanse the whole system. They never gripe. Grover's City drug store.

The Anthracite Brewers' Association has been organized in Schuylkill county, after a year's effort by Charles J. Andrews, of Pittsburg, who has been made secretary. The price of beer has been advanced from $5 to $6.50 a barrel.

A foreigner whose name cannot be pronounced tried to kill himself by standing on the Lehigh Valley Railroad track at Edwardsville. The engineer was forced to stop a fast mail train. When taken from in front of the engine the man exclaimed that he wished to die because he had lost a $2 bill. He was arrested.

Samuel Salsburg, who shot and severely wounded Dr. Harry L. Falk at Wilkesbarre last week, has commenced proceedings for a divorce from his wife. Dr. Falk is still confined in his room, and all danger from the wound is not yet passed.

Ice cold soda at Kelper's. Wilkesbarre's city solicitor, Charles F. McHugh, was re-elected to that position on Monday night.

The late Kate S. Pardee, of Hazleton, whose will was probated yesterday, leaves all her estate to her husband, Frank Pardee, and names him as executor.

A deal was made at Ashland this week by which the Schuylkill Telephone Company is absorbed by the United Telegraph and Telephone Company. The price paid for the Schuylkill property was $218,750.

Spring coughs are specially dangerous and unless cured at once, serious results often follow. One Minute Cough Cure acts like magic. It is not a common mixture but is a high grade remedy. Grover's City drug store.

LOCAL NOTES WRITTEN UP

Short Items of Interest to All Readers.

Happenings of the Past Two Days in and Around Freeland Recorded Without Waste of Words.

The tension between the Central Railroad of New Jersey and its employes is greater today than at any time since the present difficulties began. The men are balloting for and against a strike. Judging from all indications, the officers of the road are, under the impression that the vote will favor a strike, and are fortifying themselves against such a contingency.

Squire Shovlin this afternoon gave judgment for $100 and costs against Camp 147, P. O. S. of A., in the suit instituted by Joseph Birkbeck for death benefits due him on account of the death of his wife.

The musicians of the region have formed an organization known as Musicians Union, No. 139, of Hazleton. The membership includes all the leading men of the profession hereabouts. Prof. S. DePierro, leader of DePierro's orchestra, has been elected president.

There are no new developments in the case of John Beros, whose death, it is rumored, was due to injuries not received accidentally. Arrests of suspected parties are spoken of, but none have yet been made.

Solomon Bittner, of Jeddo, returned home yesterday from a three months' visit to his former home in Franklin county, which he had not seen in twenty years.

Gentlemen, for hats and caps go to A. Oswald. He has a nice variety.

Alex. B. Coxie, Eckley B. Coxie, Jr., George Davis, Robert Baskin, George Cutler, W. B. Fry and Henry Wyatt have been elected as vestrymen of St. James' Episcopal church at Drifton.

Daniel Gill is spending a week at Atlantic City, where he expects to improve his health, which was weakened by his recent illness.

Frank Hontz is making preparations to erect a residence at the corner of Birkbeck and Johnson streets.

The borough auditors, ex-Secretaries Davis and McClellan and the council will meet this evening at the Municipal building.

Those famous little pills, DeWitt's Little Early Risers, will remove all impurities from your system, cleanse your bowels, make them regular. Grover's City drug store.

The ball conducted on Monday evening at Yannes' opera house by the St. Patrick's cornet band was well attended.

W. B. Fry, of Drifton, and George Cutler, of Freeland, have been elected to represent St. James' P. E. church in the diocesan convention at Pottsville next month.
