Attacked a Young Lady.

Attacked a roung Lady. Miss Bessie Owens, of Main street, while on her way from Eckley to Hazle Brook, to give music lessons in the lat-ter town, was overtaken on Monday af-ternoon by an unknown man who at-tempted to catch hold of her. During the struggle which followed, Thomas Jefferson, of town, who was returning from his work at Hazle Brook, came along. Miss Owens' assailant then took to the woods. The young lady states she will be able to identify the man if she sees him again.

A Correction.

A Correction. District Attorney B. R. Jones informs the Tribune that its report of the in-dictment returned by the grand jury against Nicholas Capece, who is in prison to answer for the killing of Ru-dolph Demerio, was incorrect. The dis-trict attorney states that Capece has been indicted for murder and man-slaughter both.

During Sir Henry Irving's recent performance of "The Merchant of Venice" at the Theater Royal, Belfast, much annoyance was caused to fre-quenters of the stalls and circles by valies who did not remove their hats, with the result that the management, at hast decided to give the fair ones a gentle hint. Prior to the commence-ment of the first act a curtain was dis-played on which was painted in large letters the following: "Madam, will you kindly take off your hat, as I am sitting immediately behind you and cannot see the stage?" The hint was sufficient, for all hats and bonuets dis-appeared.—Pail Mail Gazette.
