TONIGHT'S PLAY.

Mildred Holland and Her Company Have Arrived in Town.

Mildred Holland and her company arrived in town this morning after an all-night ride from Cortland, N. Y., where they played last evening. Tonight they will present the noted romantic drama, "The Power Behind the Throne," for the first time before a Freeland audience.

Wherever this company has appeared they have left behind them satisfied theatre-goers and a demand for the opera house managers for dates next season. The drama is pronounced by expert critics to be the best of its class placed on the stage this season. It will be given in Freeland under a contract which provides that the company shall receive $450 for the performance, which is the highest price ever guaranteed for one performance in this county.

There are a number of desirable seats on both the first and second floors that can yet be obtained. The sale so far has been encouraging to the management, but the house is not yet sold out, notwithstanding the rumors circulated to this effect.

Work on Mine Fire.

Tremendous efforts are now being made to extinguish the fire which has been burning for forty-two years in a mine at Summit Hill. The mine is the property of the Lehigh Coal and Navigation Company, and caught fire on February 9, 1859, in a gangway, after an explosion of gas.

A dam has been built at Nesquehoning, and there wet coal dirt and culm is scooped into pipes and flushed into the workings where the fire rages at the rate of thirty or forty tons a day. It is expected that this will eventually choke the fire.

Turned Up for His Share.

A sensational story comes from New Castle, Pa., concerning a young man named Abner Davis, who is said to have mysteriously disappeared from his home in Nanticoke over fifteen years ago. Despite diligent search and inquiry by his father and relatives nothing was heard of him until last Saturday—long after he was given up as dead. Mr. Davis, Sr., died several years ago and left a fortune of $100,000 to be divided between two daughters and the missing son, should he ever return. The executors have already paid the money to the other heirs.

If people only knew what we know about Kodol Dyspepsia Cure, it would be used in nearly every household, as there are few people who do not suffer from a feeling of fullness after eating, belching, flatulence, sour stomach, or water brash, caused by indigestion or dyspepsia. A preparation such as Kodol Dyspepsia Cure, which, with no aid from the stomach will digest your food, certainly can't help but do you good. Grover's City Drug Store.

Dr. "Dan" Evans, of New Castle, a former resident of Nanticoke, is one of the executors, and he was called upon on Saturday by young Davis, who made himself known and demanded the legacy left him by his father. Mr. Davis has been a "globe-trotter," but refuses, it is said, to assign any reason for his sudden disappearance and strange silence for so many years.

Nine-Hour-Day Party.

At the Lyceum theatre, Scranton, last night the affiliated unions of machinists, blacksmiths, patternmakers and machine shop laborers presented a request for a nine-hour day in a unique manner. They gave an entertainment to which they specially invited the superintendents and foremen of all the shops in the city. There were addresses on the advisability of a nine-hour day, which they ask to go into effect tomorrow, and there was a farce enacted entirely by the members of the union in which the wild-eyed labor agitator and the millowner and superintendent who oppose every progressive movement of labor were satirized. At the conclusion of the farce the request for a nine-hour day was formally presented.

In the Hotel Business.

P. E. Gallagher and R. F. Hodges, of Thurmond, W. Va., according to the Thurmond Herald, last week purchased the Kinney cafe at Charleston. The consideration was $10,000. The new proprietors have named their hotel "The Stag," and if any Freeland people happen in the vicinity of Charleston they can depend upon receiving a royal welcome at "The Stag."

Mr. Gallagher was a former resident of this region and is a brother to ex-Burgess E. P. Gallagher. His friends here will wish him unlimited success in his latest venture.

Will Send Body Home.

James Welch, of the Third ward, has received notice from the war department that the body of his son, Thomas, will be brought from the Philippines in the near future and sent to Freeland. The young man was a private in Company H, Nineteenth infantry, and died from fever last December.

The bodies of all soldiers who died or were killed in the Philippines will be brought to the United States, but those not claimed by relatives will be buried in the government cemetery at San Francisco.

"I have been suffering from dyspepsia for the past twenty years and have been unable after trying all preparations and physicians to get any relief. After taking one bottle of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure I found relief and am now in better health than I have been for twenty years. I can not praise Kodol Dyspepsia Cure too highly." Thus writes Mrs. C. W. Roberts, North Creek, Ark. Grover's City Drug Store.

Funniest Flight of Fancy.

The most eccentric humorist of the day, John Kendrick Bangs, will revive his famous "Jimmieboy Stories" in next Sunday's Philadelphia Press, May 5. The voyage of Jimmieboy on his "Skicycle" is told with a snap and humor that is inimitable. Among other things there are some thoughts on riding a bicycle over a lawn mower; rheumatic trees; the Christopher Columbus among skibicycles; the dangers of puncturing tires on church steeples, etc. This story will be one of the interesting features of next Sunday's Press. It will be well to order your copy from your newsdealer in advance.

"Our little girls was unconscious from strangulation during a sudden and terrible attack of croup. I quickly secured a bottle of One Minute Cough Cure, giving her three doses. The croup was mastered and our little darling speedily recovered." So writes A. L. Spafford, Chester, Mich. Grover's City Drug Store.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC.

Beginning with Monday, April 15, A. Oswald will close his store at 8 o'clock every evening except Saturdays and the general pay nights.

ROUND THE REGION.

A political sensation was caused at Pottsville yesterday by the ousting from their places in the county almshouse all appointees who were installed on April 1 last to serve for one year. The changes made involve the displacement of all the appointees of John F. Horgan, a Democratic member of the board, who is alleged to have displaced his party leaders by acting with Edward Kester, the Republican member, when the positions were filled a month ago. In the shake-up, Mr. Kester took the side of Henry Becker, the other Democrat.

An attack on Sunday funerals was made Sunday night by Rev. L. C. Murdoch, of the Kingston M. E. church. He said that Sunday funerals should be abolished because the church is entitled to the pastor's service on Sunday. When he returned to Wilkesbarre to lead a meeting she had him arrested and he was sent to jail.
