FUNERAL OF REV. PHILLIPS

Large Crowd of People Assembled at Pittston.

Thousands Gather to Pay Their Last Respects to Dead Priest--His Death Still a Mystery.

The funeral of the late Rev. E. S. Phillips, of Hazleton, whose death in New York city became known to the public on Friday, took place at Pittston today. The funeral attracted more people than any similar event has ever drawn together in Luzerne county. Reports from Pittston place the number in attendance at no less than 12,000.

The body arrived from New York late Saturday night. At 10 o'clock this morning it was taken to St. John's Catholic church, where Bishop M. J. Hoban, of Scranton, celebrated a pontifical mass, assisted by over fifty priests from various sections of the diocese.

The spacious edifice was not one-tenth large enough to accommodate those who endeavored to gain access. The services were lengthy and impressive. The funeral cortege, which comprised thousands of people, contained several divisions of the A. O. H., temperance societies, councils of the Knights of Columbus, delegations from the Elks, over a dozen locals of the United Mine Workers and many people who are not affiliated with any organization.

The floral offerings were probably the most handsome ever seen in this part of the state.

The remains were laid in the family plot in St. John's cemetery, beside those of his father and mother.

FREELAND REPRESENTED.

At a meeting of Divisions 6 and 41, A. O. H., of Freeland, last evening, a delegation was chosen to represent the Freeland members of the order at the funeral. The following were named, and are at Pittston today: Con McCole, John J. Welsh, Patrick O'Donnell, John Brennan, Peter D. Gallagher, Hugh Kennedy, James Brogan, Patrick Quinn, James Brennan, Daniel Mulrauey, John J. Carr and Frank McLaughlin.

In addition to the above, upwards of sixty people boarded the special train which passed through town this morning. The train left Hazleton at 6.15 a. m., and consisted of eleven cars.

Resolutions of condolence were adopted last evening at the joint meeting of Freeland divisions of the A. O. H.

THE MYSTERY UNSOLVED.

The manner in which Rev. Phillips came to his death has not yet been solved.

New Apportionment.

The legislative apportionment bill, which was reported in the legislature a few days ago, will be read for the first time tonight and will then be recommitted for the purpose of amendment. The bill gives Luzerne county eight representatives and divides the districts as follows:

The city of Wilkesbarre shall constitute the First district and elect two members.

The boroughs of Courtdale, Dallas, Dorrancton, Exeter, Forty Fort, Luzerne, New Columbus, Shickshinny, Swoyer-ville, West Wyoming and Wyoming, West Pittston and the townships of Dallas, Exeter, Fairmount, Franklin, Hunlock, Huntington, Jackson, Kingston, Lake, Lehman, Ross, Salem and Union shall constitute the Second district and elect one member.

The boroughs of Edwardsville, Kings-

If people only knew what we know about Kodol Dyspepsia Cure, it would be used in nearly every household, as there are few people who do not suffer from a feeling of fullness after eating, belching, flatulence, sour stomach, or water brash, caused by indigestion or dyspepsia. A preparation such as Kodol Dyspepsia Cure, which, with no aid from the stomach, will digest your food, certainly can't help but do you good. Grover's City Drug Store.

ton and Plymouth and the township of Plymouth shall constitute the Third district and elect one member.

The city of Hazleton, the borough of West Hazleton and the townships of Black Creek and Hazle shall constitute the Fourth district and elect one member.

The city of Pittston, the boroughs of Avoca, Hughestown, Ladin and Yatesville and the townships of Marcy, Jenkins and Pittston shall constitute the Fifth district and elect one member. The boroughs of Ashley, Nanticoke, Nescopeck, Sugar Notch and Warrior Run and the townships of Conyngham, Hanover, Hollenback, Nescopeck, Newport and Sugarloaf shall constitute the Sixth district and elect one member.

The boroughs of Freeland, Jeddo, Laurel Run, Miner's Mills, Parsons and White Haven and the townships of Bear Creek, Buck, Butler, Danison, Dorrance, Fairview, Foster, Plains, Slocum, Wilkesbarre and Wright shall constitute the Seventh district and elect one member.

Representatives Hartman, Coray, Mahon, Haworth and Drum are not satisfied with this apportionment so far as it relates to Luzerne county.

Thought the Roof Fell In.

From Today's Philadelphia Record.
Jack Donohue, who is training at a nearby resort for his contest with "Kid" Ferry, at Freeland, tonight, had a try-out on Saturday with a well-known colored boxer. The go was to be a four-round affair for points, but by the taunts of the dusky opponent it finished on merit. Three rounds were very scientific, Donohue holding his own nicely.

In the fourth round, when told to cut loose and rough it up a bit, Donohue landed a straight right on the point of the chin, dropping the colored man like a log. A grand scramble was made by a number of sports present, who thought the man dead. He came to in six minutes, and asked if the roof had fallen in.

Tonight's Contests.

The boxing contests to be conducted tonight under the auspices of the Sterling Athletic Club are attracting the attention of those in the region who take an interest in the sport, and a large audience seems assured.

The bout between Walser, of Hazleton, and McCarron, of McAdoo, will draw many people from the towns named, and the Paul brothers are expected to give a fine exhibition.

The fifteen-round contest between Ferry and Donohue is the principal feature of the evening's entertainment, and a most interesting scientific battle is looked for.

Wedded on Saturday.

John Schroeder, Jr., of Jeddo, and Miss Elizabeth Hardtka, of West Hazleton, were married at West Hazleton on Saturday afternoon by Rev. Ritter, of West Hazleton. They will reside in Jeddo.

Henry Saur and Maggie Diehl, both of Hazleton, were united in marriage by Rev. J. B. Kerschner at 2 o'clock on Saturday afternoon.

Edward L. Snyder and Sarah R. Jones were married by Rev. J. B. Kerschner at the home of the bride's parents on South Washington street at 7 o'clock on Saturday evening.

Miners May March.

The sessions of the executive boards of Districts Nos. 7 and 9, held in Hazleton on Saturday, did not adjourn until some time after midnight. The question under discussion was the action of the state senate in reference to the mining bills.

The members of the boards are very reticent about the matter and refuse to give information, but it is believed the miners from these districts are prepared to march to Harrisburg.

Resolutions on the death of Rev. E. S. Phillips were unanimously adopted.

Pan-American Exposition.

Low fares via the Lehigh Valley Railroad to the Pan-American Exposition. Five-day tickets, good only in day coaches, will be sold on Tuesdays and Saturdays, May 1 to October 31, from Freeland at the rate of $7 for the round trip.

Ten-day tickets will be sold from Freeland every day, May 1 to October 31, good on any train, except the Black Diamond express, at the rate of $10 for the round trip.

"Our little girl was unconscious from strangulation during a sudden and terrible attack of croup. I quickly secured a bottle of One Minute Cough Cure, giving her three doses. The croup was mastered and our little darling speedily recovered." So writes A. L. Spafford, Chester, Mich. Grover's City Drug Store.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC.

Beginning with Monday, April 15, A. Oswald will close his store at 8 o'clock every evening except Saturdays and Sundays.

ROUND THE REGION.

Early Saturday morning a Pittston car returning to Wilkesbarre ran over a man lying on the track at Port Bowkley. He was lying with his head on the tracks and when the car struck him the front of the car was derailed. The car was finally put back on the track and the man was taken to Wilkesbarre. Life was extinct. The police searched his pockets and found a United Mine Workers' card which bore the name of John Bataga, Local 699, of Edwardsville.

On his eighty-fifth birthday anniversary Rev. Gideon H. Day, the oldest Methodist minister in Pennsylvania, died at his home at Riverside. Rev. Day entered the Baltimore conference as a minister in 1839, and a few years later entered the Central Pennsylvania conference, of which he was a member at the time of his death. About ten years ago he was placed on the superannuated list.

Mr. W. J. Baxter of North Brook, N. C. says he suffered with piles for fifteen years. He tried many remedies with no results until he used DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve and that quickly cured him. Grover's City Drug Store.

Hon. Daniel Edwards, of Kingston, aged 76 years, one of the best known men in this county, died suddenly early Saturday morning at his residence. His death is doubly sad, coming so soon after the death of his wife, one month ago. Deceased had been in his usual health even to the time of retiring at 11 o'clock Friday night.

DeWitt's Little Early Risers search the remotest parts of the bowels and remove the impurities speedily with no discomfort. They are famous for their efficacy. Easy to take, never gripe. Grover's City Drug Store.

The annual session of the Wyoming class convenes in Salem Reformed church, Weatherly, this evening. The session will last for four days. The Reformed churches in Luzerne, Columbia, Montour and parts of Carbon and Lackawanna counties will be represented.

A coffin supposed to contain the body of Ralph J. White was found at the bottom of Grassy pond yesterday afternoon. The pond is a mile and a quarter from Sweet Valley cemetery.

Skin affections will readily disappear by using DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Look out for counterfeits. If you get DeWitt's you will get good results. It is the quick and positive cure for piles. Grover's City Drug Store.

Despite the efforts of the authorities, smallpox cases are increasing in number at Larksville. Another death occurred yesterday, John Reed succumbing. His is the seventh death.

Upwards of 2,000 machinists throughout Luzerne county struck this morning for a nine-hour day.

The least in quantity and most in quality describes DeWitt's Little Early Risers, the famous pills for constipation and liver complaints. Grover's City Drug Store.

UPPER LEHIGH.

No. 8 slope, of the Upper Lehigh Coal Company, has been abandoned and the machinery, boilers, etc., removed to the other collieries of the company. A quantity of coal still remains in the mine, which will be removed by stripping the surface some time in the future.

At No. 6 slope two new sets of boilers are being installed.

Dick & Mantz last week removed a steam shovel from No. 3 slope to No. 6, where the stripping operations will be pushed this summer. The new steam shovel ordered by the Upper Lehigh Company, which was expected to arrive last week, has not yet been received. It will be installed at No. 3.

A new hoisting engine is being placed in position at No. 4 colliery.

Mrs. James Goulden and brother, Geo. Weightman, visited their mother, who is ill at Allentown, last week.

This is the last week of school and the teachers, Mr. Alden and Misses Schmidt and Gallagher, are preparing suitable exercises for the closing.

The sinking of the railroad tracks leading from the breaker still continues, and workmen are engaged filling up the depressions as they occur.

PLEASURE.

LOCAL NOTES WRITTEN UP

Short Items of Interest to All Readers.

Happenings of the Past Two Days in and Around Freeland Recorded Without Waste of Words.

Advice from Wilkesbarre state that Attorney B. J. Mooney, who is in the Mercy hospital, is in a critical condition, suffering from tuberculosis, and no hopes for his recovery are entertained. Mr. Mooney is a son of Mrs. Hugh Gallagher, of Chestnut street, and is married and has a couple of children. He was formerly a newspaper man and was admitted to the bar about seven years ago.

The funeral of the late George Hoodmasher, who lost his life in the engine explosion at Bloomsbury, N. J., on Wednesday, took place from his home on Walnut street Saturday afternoon. The Trainmen's Brotherhood and D. S. & S. employes attended in a body. Services were conducted at the Park M. E. church by Rev. Swartz.

Three men named Gallagher, O'Donnell and Klingerman were entombed before noon today in Silver Brook mine by a rush of coal and water from an abandoned working. At 3 p. m. the men had not been rescued, and it is feared they are dead.

Editor W. R. Flad and wife, accompanied by the latter's sister, Miss Clara Fraser, and Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Oberender left yesterday for Buffalo, where they will spend a week viewing the Pan-American Exposition.

John H. Quigley, of town, has obtained a position as traveling salesman for a Pittsburg establishment, and has taken up his residence in that city. He will be joined by Mrs. Quigley and the family in the near future.

The Slavonic Dramatic Company will present a drama at the Grand opera house tomorrow evening. The company is said to be a capable one and a good performance is expected.

Mrs. Jacob Knecht, Sr., who recently removed from Freeland to Hazleton, was taken last week to the Methodist hospital, Philadelphia, to be treated for cancer.

You are much more liable to disease when your liver and bowels do not act properly. DeWitt's Little Early Risers remove the cause of disease. Grover's City Drug Store.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard J. Carr, of Eckley, are entertaining twin daughters at their home since Thursday last.

New concrete pavements have been laid before the business places of M. M. O'Boyle and Willy Dougherty.

Daniel Houston and Miss Annie O'Donnell, of McAdoo, visited town yesterday.

A son has been born to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Sweeney, South Ridge street.

Hugh Boyle is having an addition built to his residence on Ridge street.

James O'Donnell is visiting his parents on Walnut street.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Michael Pasternak last week.

Libor Winter has closed his oyster house on Main street for the season.

BASE BALL.

An uninteresting game of ball was played at the Tigers park yesterday between Drifton and Hazleton Athletics. The batteries were: Drifton, Con McGeehan and Carlin; Athletics, Maue and Chas. McGeehan. Terrific batting by Drifton netted 16 runs, while the visitors scored but 1. After playing five innings the game was called with the consent of the Athletics.

A game will be played at the Tigers park next Sunday between the strong Pittston and Edwardsville clubs. Both teams are making extensive preparations for the contest and many of their friends will accompany them to town on the special train which will be run to Freeland.

John Boner, of Drifton, played a good game with Chester against the Cuban Giants on Saturday. Since joining the club Boner was ill, and his reappearance on the diamond is pleasing to his friends.

Thursday's New York World contained pictures of a dozen or more National league players in grotesque attitudes, among which appeared one of McFadden labeled "McFadden Warming Up."

The Chesters defeated the Columbians at Drifton yesterday, 20 to 10.

The Good Wills defeated the Manhat-tans yesterday, 15 to 2.
