UMPIRED THE GAME OF BALL

John L. Sullivan Was the Attraction Yesterday.

Ex-Champion Officiated at a Contest Between Reading and the Tigers—Local Club Won Easily.

John L. Sullivan, ex-champion pugilist of the world, umpired a game of ball at the Tigers park yesterday afternoon. Owing to the short notice upon which the game was arranged the attendance was small. This was Mr. Sullivan's second appearance in town to act in the capacity of umpire for the Tigers, and his work was, as a whole, creditable.

The opposing club was the State league team of Reading. The visitors gave a poor exhibition, and if yesterday's playing is a sample of the quality of ball furnished by the State league that organization is a back number. The score at the end of the contest was 9 to 3 in favor of the Tigers. The latter played a fine game and outclassed their opponents at every stage of the struggle.

Following is the detailed score:

Dyspepsia cannot be long lived because to live requires nourishment. Food is not nourishing until it is digested. A disordered stomach cannot digest food, it must have assistance. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests all kinds of food without aid from the stomach, allowing it to rest and regain its natural functions. Its elements are exactly the same as the natural digestive fluids and it simply can't help but do you good. Grover's City drug store.

Sunday Fishing Allowed.

The new fish laws of this state, a synopsis of which was published in the Tribune a week ago, are receiving much attention from the newspapers of the state. The Stroudsburg Times has discovered the fact that the act which the governor has just signed is silent regarding Sunday fishing. The editor wrote to W. E. Meehan, secretary of the State Fish Commission, asking for information on this point, and the secretary replied as follows:

"The new laws are very much more liberal than the old ones, I am glad to say. Among other things, you will notice that there is no prohibition against Sunday fishing."
"This feature of the law will undoubtedly be welcomed by those who cannot find time to fish on week-days. On the other hand, it will be condemned by all who oppose Sunday pleasure and pastimes.

"The Victorian Cross."

The Lebanon Times, speaking of the "Victoria Cross" says:
"The Jessie Sawtelle Dramatic Company, comprising a company of excellent players, headed by Miss Jessie Sawtelle, opened a successful engagement in Fisher academy Monday evening, when the five act-military drama, "The Victorian Cross," was presented to a packed house. The company is the best aggregation producing repertoire plays that has visited this city this season. Every member of the company from the leading lady down is strong. A carload of special scenery is carried by them."

This play will be presented this evening at the Grand opera house by the Sawtelle Company. Ladies who purchase their tickets before 6 p. m. this evening can obtain reserved seats for 15 cents.
