Attorney Kline's Claim to a Seat on Council Referred to the Solicitor--May Enforce Pole Ordinance-

The petition of the employes of the department of the borough was up for consideration at Monday ng's council meeting. The men been on strike for a month for an increase in wages. The matter was satisfactorily adjusted by granting them

A previous resolution, granting an increase of from 12½ cents to 15 cents per hour, falled by a vote of 5 to 4—the resolution receiving one vote less than the law required.

authorizing the street committee to engage men and teams for work on the streets, and providing that council shall not be responsible for any otherwise engaged, was defeated by a

Next to the settlement of the street strike the most important matter acted upon was the claim of Attorney Kline, who, after roll call, asked why his name was stricken from the roll. The presi-dent stated that council has nothing to show that he is a member of the body. The matter was on the point of becom ing as warm as the weather when further discussion was cut off by a motion to refer the question to the solicitor. The motion carried by a vote of 9 to 1. Mr. Kline then stated that if necessary he would procure a writ of

The light committee reported eight lights out for which they will claim a reduction on the bill. Prices on incan-descent lights were quoted. The com-mittee will confer again with the Light ompany.

The fire committee reported that a ongue, reel and rope are needed for use in the fire engine. The committee was redered to procure them without delay.

A ter a discussion on the pole tax or dinance, it was agreed that the com-mittee, secretary and solicitor examine the books and, if nothing is found declaring the ordinance void, that council proceed to collect taxes from the date of its enactment in 1898.

a lengthy report presented, the inance committee showed the estimated working balance would be less than st,600. The committee was informed by the solicitor that no report has yet been filed by the auditor on annexation. Police O'Donnell's report, showing police expense of $140, was approved. Street Commissioner Shovlin's report was apprived.

Eurgess Boyle reported $12.45 due the burgess and $22.50 due the borough.
The ordinance creating a Board of Health was laid over for a special meetng, to be held next Monday evening. An offer from Charles Dusheck to pur class or to rent the stone crusher was referred to the street committee.

A petition was read and accepted asking council to lay sidewalk on Washing-ton street, east side, from Walnut to Cliestnut streets, and a crossing on Chestnut street, across Washington. A. Oswald, on behalf of St. John's Reformed church, stated that the ground for the sidewalk had been donated to the borough and that the church had laid the gutter. The matter was placed in charge of the street committee, with in-structions to have the work done if

The following bills were ordered paid: Electric Light Company, street lights, $273.33; M. M. O'Boyle, supplies, $6.50; James Kennedy, testing fire plugs. $2: Geo. Fisher, hauling coal, $2.80; John Reddington & Co., crossing stone,

A bill from Joseph Birkbeck was al wed to stand until work is finished. A bill for extra work on the Municipal building from the Hazleton Machinery and Supply Co., $24.84, was referred to building committee for investigation.

Enforcing the Law.

Frank Drumheller, a Hazleton fish-erman, was arraigned before Squire Shovlin yesterday on the charge of catching trout less than six inches in length. Drumheller, it appears, paid no attention to the notices placed along Hayes creek by the Freeland Game and Fish Protective Club, but took every-thing that came along in the shape of

The club, in accordance with its announcement, had him arrested, and the evidence at hand was so conclusive that Drumheller was only too glad to compromise the case by paying $58. His violations had made him amenable to a fine of over $1,000, but as his was the first case to be brought to the attention of the club the officers agreed to be lenient.

Hereafter, it is said, no mercy will be shown to violators of the game laws and the full penalty will be demanded in future cases.

The officers of the club also call the attention of all fisherman to the fact that the Nescopeck and Oley are trout streams and parties placing nets therein will be prosecuted. After today a detective will patrol the creeks and violators of the law will find themselves in serious trouble. The club believes it has already given fair warning to all and ignoran e of the law will not excuse persons who fish illegally

Mine Workers in Session.

The Mine Workers of District No. are still in session at Hazleton. It is expected that the convention will end today. Secretary John Gallagher has been placed on a monthly salary, and will devote his entire time to the affairs of the district. The local unions of the Panther Creek valley have been authorized to form a sub-district.

Resolutions of sympathy and author izing financial assistance to Hazleton striking carpenters and Drifton shop employes were passed. The district ex-ecutive board has been authorized to order a suspension of work in collieries where non-union men are employed af ter the first Monday in August

Boxing Contest Postponed.

The twenty-round contest between Jack Boner and "Scaldy" Bill Quinn which was being arranged by the Sterling Athletic Club to take place here on the 17th inst., has been postponed for the present. Boner has signed articles of agreement to meet Joe Wolcott on the 26th inst., and until the latter bout comes off no date will be made for him to meet Quinn.

The club, however, is making arrangements with two other well known boxers and expects to have a bout here in the near future.

ROUND THE REGION.

Eight young society men of Shenan-doah decked in gay shirt waists boarded a trolley car for a trip to Shamokin. On reaching the Centralia branch of the Schuylkill Traction Company's line about half way, the conductors refused to pass them, they claim, because they did not wear coats. The young men threaten to bring suit against the traction company.

When Mrs. William Gibbons, of Scranton, went to call her uncle, William M. Andrews, yesterday morning, she was horrified to find him dead in bed. Death is ascribed to the extreme heat, which caused heart failure. He was a well-todo citizen.

The Ripper chaser which makes the office of Scranton's city treasurer ap-pointive instead of elective, will depose E. J. Robinson, the Democratic party treasurer. Recorder Connell, however, treasurer. Recorder Connell, will make him the appointee.

A Philadelphian, who formerly lived in Wilkesbarre, has offered that city a fountain or a soldiers' monument, to cost $15,000, when the court house is torn down and the site converted into a city park. The name of the person making the offer has not been made public.

Officer Wolf, of Allentown, had robbed him of $70 while under arrest, Joseph Lovington was sentenced to three months' imprisonment by Judge Albright.

James Malloy, of Shenandoah, waylaid, beaten into unconsciousness, then robbed of $25, a gold watch and ring within twenty-five yards of his own home.

The Wilkesbarre Traction Company has decided to allow its conductors and motermen to wear shirt waists, but they must be all uniform in shape and color.

Wheaton is the Quay leader and he made hirself strong by offering to pay the $400 required to make up the deficiency in the fund for the delegates. It this had not been done the delegates would have abolished the Crawford county against county system.

Death of a Young Man.

James Breslin, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Phil Breslin, died at his home in Jeddo yesterday afternoon. He was aged 17 years, 3 months and 9 days, and besides his parents is survived by three brothers and five sisters. The young man had just completed a corse at Pierce Busi-ness college, Philadelphia. Shortly before the term closed he became ill and was very sick when he arrived home. His death was due to typhoid

The funeral will take place at 9 o'clock on Friday morning. The remains will be taken to St. Ann's church, where a requiem mass will be read. The inter-ment will be made in St. Ann's cemetery.
