TEACHERS IN TOWNSHIPS

Foster and Hazle Directors Name Their Corps.

All Former Teachers Re-appointed by Foster Democrats—Nine Deposed by Hazle Republicans.

Foster township school board met last evening for the purpose of appointing teachers. The session was a short one, the directors agreeing unanimously to the following selections:

Drifton—Harvey Hoffman, Maggie Carr.
Eckley—Frank Hindson, Maggie McFadden, Lizzie Lawson, Cora Keller.
Foundryville—Mary Boyle.
Hazle Brook—V. J. Highams, Bessie Owens.

Highland—Con J. McGeehan, Mary O'Donnell, Josephine Duffy.
Pond Creek—Fred Haiges.
Ripples—Margaret Streeter.
Sandy Run—Thomas Sarricks, Mary A. Gallagher, May Roth.

Sandy Valley—Katie Duffy.
Scale Siding—Mary Powell.
Tannery—Frank Solomon.
Upper Lehigh—J. A. Alden, Celia Gallagher, Leah Parry.

Woodside—John J. McGill, Mary E. McHugh.

Substitute teacher—George Harris.
All of last year's corps who applied for schools were reappointed, and the five vacancies—four regular positions and the substitute—were filled by selecting three teachers who are recognized as Democrats and two Republicans.

The new teachers are: George Harris, Hazle Brook; Misses Josephine Duffy, Upper Lehigh; Lizzie Lawson, Highland; Cora Keller, Eckley, and Katie Duffy, Sandy Run.

Considering that the board is composed of six Democrats, the selections give general satisfaction to the people of the township.

HAZLE'S SWEEP.

Nine Experienced Teachers Ousted by the Republican Board.

Hazle township school directors made their appointments last evening, as follows:

High school—W. W. Garret, C. C. Smith.
Hollywood—Carrie Crouse, Mollie Lannon.

Milnesville—William Probert, Ellen Harvey, Maggie Williams.
Lattimer No. 1—Marvin Mason, Kate Martin, Jennie Burke.

Lattimer No. 2—John McNertney, Lettie Munroe.
Harleigh—Mary Fulmer, Bid Brislin.
Ebervale No. 1—James P. Costello, Lulu Pengilly.

Ebervale No. 3—Sue Ward.
Jeddo—Frank McHugh, Mary Brislin, Miriam Edmunds.
Drifton—Andrew Brannigan, Hattie Cunningham, Grace McGeehan, Kate Gillespie.

Seybert street—Fanny East, Esther Corrigan.

"I wish to truthfully state to you and the readers of these few lines that your Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is without question, the best and only cure for dyspepsia that I have ever come in contact with and I have used many other preparations." John Beam, West Middlesex, Pa. No preparation equals Kodol Dyspepsia Cure as it contains all the natural digestants. It will digest all kinds of food and can't help but do you good. Grover's City drug store.

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure

Digests what you eat.

Artificially digests the food and aids nature in strengthening and reconstructing the exhausted digestive organs. It is the latest discovered digestant and tonic. No other preparation can approach it in efficiency. It instantly relieves and permanently cures Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Heartburn, Flatulence, Sour Stomach, Nausea, Sick Headache, Gastralgia, Cramps and all other results of imperfect digestion. Price 50c, and $1. Large size contains 2 1/2 times smaller size. Booklet about dyspepsia mailed free. Prepared by E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago. Grover's City Drug Store.

Condly O. Boyle,

dealer in

LIQUOR, WINE, BEER, PORTER, ETC.
The finest brands of Domestic and Imported Whiskey on sale. Fresh Rochester and Shuandaol Beer and Youngling's Porter on tap. For further particulars apply at Tribune office.

Hazleton No. 3—Neil McMonigal, Hannah Kennedy, Cora Thomas, Madge Scott, Jeanno Taylor, Anna Burke, Lottie Burgess.

Alter street—John Elwood, Nellie Chrystle, Essie Griffiths, Bridgetta Gallagher, Kate Lannon.
Stockton No. 7—Ellen Dougherty.
Stockton No. 1—Charles Guscott, Ellen Duffy.

Laurel Hill—Lizzie Tilson.
Jeaneville—Peter Reilly, Ella Quirk, Bessie Kohl.

Beaver Brook—Phillip Clark, Jean Nellson, Ethel Richards.
Cranberry—John Thomas, Mary McFarlane, Annie Conahan.

Harwood—Harry Maue, Nellie Carter, Bridget Sharkey, Mary Herron.
Humboldt—Agnes Kinney.

The directors, all of whom are Republicans, deposed nine applicants of last year's corps. The only reason known for this action is to strengthen their political lines in the township.

The ousted teachers are: John Madden, Michael McMonigal, Katie McGinty, Susie Gallagher, Nellie Kaufman, Hazleton; Bernard Costello, Lattimer; Katie Somers, Harwood; Joseph V. Gallagher, Mary Sweeney, Drifton.

The new teachers are: Crawford Smith, Conyngham; Mary McFarlane, Peter Riley, Jeaneville; Nellie Carter, Bridget Sharkey, Sue Ward, Essie Griffiths, Lulu Pengilly, Mollie Lannon, Hazleton; Ethel Richards, Milnesville; Bid Brislin, Jeddo.

Rain Spoils the Parade.

The parade of the Slavonian societies of the region, in honor of the convention of the Pennsylvania Slovak Union, which is in session here, was postponed yesterday. Upwards of 1,200 men, with St. Ann's, Eckley and Hazleton Slavonian bands and forty carriages containing the officers and state delegates, were in line. As they were about to move a heavy downpour of rain took place, causing everybody to seek shelter. When the storm had subsided the paraders were scattered and the demonstration was declared off.

CONVENTION ADJOURNS.

The convention completed its work this morning and adjourned to meet a year hence at Plymouth.

The following officers were elected: President—Andrew Lupko, Nanticoke.

Vice president—Vincent Colkimer, Plymouth.
Recording secretary—Steve Posny, Wyoming.
Financial secretary—Edmund Lembeck, Hazleton.

Treasurer—Andro Hudock, Freeland.
Managing editor—Edmund Uffelsky, Wilkesbarre.

Boxing Exhibitions.

On the evening of the 31st inst. the Sterling Athletic Club will conduct another boxing entertainment. The principal bout will be one which will decide the 110-pound championship of the state. Frank McGeog, of Philadelphia, who is now the recognized champion of Pennsylvania at the above weight, will meet Thomas Quigley, of Wilkesbarre, whose friends believe he can wrest the title from McGeog. The contest promises to be a good one.

On the same evening John Carr, of Highland, and Hugh McDyer, of Freeland, will meet in a six-round go for a decision. Both young men have hosts of friends among the local sports and each will be well backed when they enter the ring.

To accommodate many people in the upper end of the county the club has secured a special train on the Lehigh Valley Railroad. It will leave Wilkesbarre at 7 p. m., and returning will leave Freeland at 1.30 a. m.

Four Funerals.

The funeral of James Moy took place this morning and was attended by many friends, including the Young Men's Corps and the United Mine Workers. A requiem mass was read at St. Ann's church.

At 2 p. m. yesterday the remains of John Gilshon, of Mahanoy City, were taken to St. Ann's church, where services were held. Interment was made at St. Ann's cemetery.

At 2 o'clock this afternoon Mrs. Evan Jenkins, of Upper Lehigh, was laid to rest in Freeland cemetery. The funeral was attended by many friends.

Yesterday afternoon the funeral of Mrs. Thomas Llewellyn took place. Interment was made at Freeland cemetery.

"I am indebted to One Minute Cough Cure for my present good health and my life. I was treated in vain by doctors for lung trouble following a gripe. I took One Minute Cough Cure and recovered my health." Mr. E. H. Wise, Madison, Ga. Grover's City drug store.

MISCELLANEOUS ADVERTISEMENTS.
PROPERTY FOR SALE—One double and one single dwelling and one vacant lot, corner of Pine and Mine streets, Hazleton. For further particulars apply at Tribune office.

They All Come Back.

Thirty-two years ago Charles Ferguson disappeared from his home in Wyoming county. Last night he returned. Ferguson left his wife and young baby to look for work, and the family heard nothing of him in all these years. He says that he wrote to his wife, got no reply, and believing she did not want him, he went west. A few weeks ago a great longing to live the rest of his days in the home of his youth came upon him, and he returned. After several days he located his wife at Wilkesbarre.

She had waited two years, and then, mourning Ferguson as dead, married Jonathan R. Willis, a farmer of Wright township. Two sons and two daughters were born. Seven years ago Willis was accidentally killed. His four children now live there with the widow. Her first son, young Ferguson, runs the farm.

When the old man entered the house last night Mrs. Ferguson-Willis did not recognize him, and it was a long time before he could convince her that he was her old-time husband. The old couple have not decided whether they will live together. The wife wants a few days to think it over.

Coroner—Dr. L. L. Rogers, Kingston.
Surveyor—Fred R. Thomas, Wilkesbarre.

To Celebrate Labor Day.

A movement has been started to have a creditable celebration of Labor Day this year. A parade and demonstration under the auspices of the Central Labor Union is under way, and if the plans of the committee in charge are carried out Freeland will outdo every town in the coal fields in honoring the day set apart for laboring people. Labor Day falls on Monday, September 2.

Pan-American Exposition.

Low fares via the Lehigh Valley Railroad to the Pan-American Exposition. Five-day tickets, good only in day coaches, will be sold on Tuesdays and Saturdays, May 1 to October 31, from Freeland at the rate of $7 for the round trip.
Ten-day tickets will be sold from Freeland every day, May 1 to October 31, good on any train, except the Black Diamond express, at the rate of $10 for the round trip.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC.

Beginning with Monday, April 15, A. Oswald will close his store at 8 o'clock every evening except Saturdays and the general pay nights.

LOCAL NOTES WRITTEN UP

Short Items of Interest to All Readers.

Happenings of the Past Two Days in and Around Freeland Recorded Without Waste of Words.

In the orphans' court on Wednesday the Birkbeck will contest was down for a hearing and scores of witnesses, principally from Freeland, were present. The estate involved amounts to several hundred thousand dollars and a protracted legal struggle is expected between the rival heirs. Owing to Judge Darte's illness the case was continued.

Mr. and Mrs. David Jones, who arrived here recently from Bristol, have decided to remain here and have taken up their residence on Front street. On Monday Mr. Jones will begin work as Freeland correspondent of the Hazleton Sentinel, succeeding John James, who has been promoted to the city staff.

Pardons were granted yesterday to John Ulrich and John Poliga, the Onelda rioters, and refused to their associate, Thomas Hareur. The board took no action in the case of the other men, although it is probable that they will be pardoned.

The finest ice cream in town, all flavors, wholesale and retail, at Merkt's.

Lewis Snyder, who until a few years ago conducted a hotel in Butler valley and who was well known to many Freeland people, died at Hazleton Wednesday evening, aged 41 years.

Three men from Philadelphia began work in Drifton shops yesterday. The strikers have so far induced two to quit work and return to their homes.

The Tigers will play at Slatington on the 20th inst., and on the 21st will meet Pittston at the local park.

Mr. and Mrs. John James will celebrate the first anniversary of their wedding this evening.

Evan Woodring and family, of Brooklyn, N. Y., are visiting in town.

Owen E. Edwards and family, of Upper Lehigh, removed today to Scranton.

Harry W. Belleville, clerk for F. H. Nushaum, a wholesale grocer of Pottsville, has absconded with $474 of his employer's money.

A sensation was created in Wilkesbarre police circles by the removal of William K. Kline from the office of chief.

A small boy and a cigarette are responsible for the burning of George Keller's barn at Conyngham and the loss of $2,000.

Daniel McAna, a former resident of Yatesville, this county, was killed in a railroad wreck in Missouri on Monday. The remains have been shipped to Pittston for interment.

President T. Nichols and Secretary Dempsey have been re-elected by the Mine Workers of District No. 1.

Burglars broke into the room of Joseph Faetian at a boarding house at Mount Carmel, and while he slept stole $250 from a trunk and escaped.

A bad complexion generally results from inactive liver and bowels. In all such cases, DeWitt's Early Risers produce gratifying results. Grover's City drug store.

The board of poor directors of Schuylkill county has decided to establish an emergency hospital for smallpox patients at Millersville. Dr. Carey, of Ashland, will have charge.

William H. Bond's hardware store at Nesquehoning was destroyed by fire, the loss being $2000.

National Organizer Fred Dilcher, of the United Mine Workers, has made the announcement that he has resigned to go into business. He is to become agent for a newly invented wax that is designed to take the place of the oil for miners' lamps.

The latest of interest in railroad circles is the announcement that all of the telegraphers employed on the Lehigh Valley and the D. S. & S. will have to undergo a rigid examination. Just when the examination is to take place is not stated, but it will be a very rigid one nevertheless. Every telegrapher will be compelled to make a certain percentage and if he fails a dismissal will follow.—Standard.
