FOR LITTLE FOLKS.

Where Crows Winter.

On the western slope of the picturesque heights on which the suburb of Clifton is located and within the corporate limits of Cincinnati is a grove of quaint oaks and Norway spruce comprising about 25 acres which has been from time immemorial occupied by myriads of crows as a winter rendezvous and lodging place and which is of marked interest to strangers who have never visited such a place. There is a law against shooting or in any way disturbing them. So while the country around them is rapidly growing more populous and noisy with the loud voice of industry, they live on from year to year unmolested and in fearless enjoyment of their undisputed right.

The ground is owned by a benevolent man who has provided in his will for the protection of the rookery after he is gone, and further provision has been made for those by a noble hearted woman who died a few years ago, leaving a permanent fund to supply the rookery with food during the coldest weather of winter. Every morning at early dawn during the winter the crows leave their home and go north in a long, dark stream that spans the whole arch of the sky and is lost in the purple haze of the distant horizon.

After a flight of 20 or 30 miles they begin to scatter and alight in the deserted wheat and corn fields of western Ohio and Indiana, where they spend the day foraging for the waste left by the farmers. In the evening they return in the same sluggish tide, which becomes more and more compact as they near their place of rest.

A Peanut Slot Machine.

No doubt most of our young readers are fond of peanuts, especially of the salted variety. It would seem rather queer, would it not, to put a nickel in a slot and get some salted peanuts in return? Yet this is exactly what a very large firm intends to make a common thing. A company was recently organized in Norfolk called the Southern Peanut company, and it has bought practically all the No. 1 Spanish peanuts in the market. It will operate 50,000,000 nickel in the slot machines in various parts of the world, which will be well stored with peanuts, washed, boiled in coconut oil and salted.—New York Herald.

PEOPLE OF THE DAY

Controls the London Underground.
Mr. Charles T. Yerkes, who recently closed out his interests in the Chicago elevated railway system, is in the game again. This time his field of operations is on the other side of the Atlantic. A syndicate of capitalists, of which Mr. Yerkes is the head, has secured control of the underground London railway. According to Mr. Yerkes, the syndicate is composed of both British and American financiers, but far the greater portion of the capital comes from the United States.

Miss Kelley to Wed.

Miss Lucy A. Kelley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Kelley of Cleveland, but who has lived in New York for several years, is the chief figure in a pretty romance which will shortly culminate in her marriage to Charles C. Perkins in California.

For six years, beginning with school-hood days, Perkins has been Miss Kelley's admirer, but only recently was their engagement announced. A few weeks ago Miss Kelley left New York to visit her fiancé's parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Tod Perkins of Los Angeles. She had planned after her visit there to return to her home and begin preparations for her wedding in October.

When she announced her intention to Mr. Perkins, his pleadings and those of his family were made against another separation, and an early marriage was urged to take place in their home.

General Grant Off For Russia.

General Fred D. Grant, Mrs. Grant and her son, U. S. Grant III, sailed the other day from New York for a few weeks' sojourn in Europe, Russia being the favored country on their list. Just before sailing General Grant paid a visit to West Point and while there met Captain John Quincy O'M. Gilmore, whom he had not seen for many years. General Grant and Captain Gilmore were cadets together and on one occasion settled a grievance by a fist fight. Grant was struck between the eyes by his antagonist and sustained a broken nose, the scar of which is still discernible.

Emperor William a Whistler.

It may not be generally known that among his other accomplishments Emperor William is a first rate whistler. An American young lady at his request had been singing negro ditties to the accompaniment of a banjo. One of the songs happened to be "The Whistling Coon," and the performer was preparing to omit the whistling part, as she was not sufficiently mistress of that accomplishment to venture on it, but the emperor, who was acquainted with the tune, offered to supply the accompaniment and acquitted himself greatly to his credit.

An Up to Date Monarch.

King Leopold of Belgium has had made for himself a very handsome automobile. The carriage work, of the most elegant design, is of aluminum, finished in red, with the truck in blue. All the wood parts which are visible are of polished mahogany. The motor, of the petroleum type, is rated normally at 20 horsepower. Another distinguished automobilist is King Edward, who has just had an especially handsome turnout manufactured for his personal use.

Mr. Hill's Way.

A widow of one of his early friends applied to James J. Hill for a small loan. She said she was going to open a boarding house. "Sorry, Mrs. X., but can't let you have it. But you'd better get your boarding house started." "Why, Mr. Hill, how can I? I have no money." "Don't need money." "Why, surely I must pay for the furniture?" "No, you mustn't." Get a good house, get a bill for six months' rent, furnish the house, send bills to me. I'll pay 'em. Sorry can't let you have any money. Good morning, Mrs. X."

She Found Him.

"Did Helena marry a high minded man, the way she always said she should?"
"Yes, she managed to catch an astronomer."—Philadelphia Bulletin.

From Infancy To Age

Laxakola for Babies.—It is the best and most effective laxative for children. BEST because it is safe and made entirely of harmless ingredients. BEST because it is non-irritating and never gripes or causes pain or irritation. BEST because it is sure and never fails. BEST because "Children like it and ask for it." BEST because its tonic properties are so good and so strengthening that it keeps the little ones in fine, hearty condition.

It is a dangerous thing to give little babies violent cathartics that rack and rend their little bodies. DON'T DO IT—give them Laxakola. For constipation, coated tongue, simple colds and fevers it is invaluable.

Laxakola for Young Girls on the threshold of womanhood, has been found invaluable. When they become pale and languid, the eyes dull, aching head, feet and hands cold, appetite gone or abnormal, and their systems generally run down, they need building up, and their blood needs cleansing. Give them Laxakola, its gentle bowel action to cleanse and its tonic properties to build up the system, will show immediate and most beneficial results.

Laxakola for Mothers.—It is particularly valuable and useful to women, especially mothers, as it is a gentle and safe remedy to use during all conditions of health whenever their peculiar and delicate constitutions require a mild and efficient laxative and tonic, while to nursing mothers, worn out with the care of infants and whose systems therefore are particularly susceptible to disease Laxakola is particularly adapted.

It clears the complexion, brightens the eye, sharpens the appetite, removes muddy and blotched conditions of the skin and cures sick headache to a certainty by removing the cause. To women suffering from chronic constipation, headaches, biliousness, dizziness, slowness of the skin and dyspepsia, Laxakola will invariably bring relief.

Laxakola for Old Folks.—In the Autumn and Winter of Life, when the various organs through long years of action have become more or less sluggish, it becomes necessary to stimulate them by some remedy best adapted to that purpose. That Laxakola is such, has been proved beyond all question. Its gentle warming, soothing action on the bowels, liver and kidneys, stimulates them to increased activity, cleanses the blood, quickens the circulation and puts the whole system in a condition of health and enables it to ward off disease, while its tonic properties tone up the system and keep it healthy.

Laxakola Does It.

Laxakola is not only the most efficient of family remedies, but the most economical because it combines two medicines for one price, tonic and laxative. No other remedy gives so much for the money. All druggists, 25c and 50c, or free sample of THE LAXAKOLA CO., 122 Nassau St., N. Y., or 45 Dearborn St., Chicago.

All White Lingerie.

All white is the "demier cri" for lingerie now. You will meet pink, blue and bird's eye cambric, but the best style is pure white interthreaded with pure white baby ribbon and trimmed with lace on suite. Nothing is lovelier, after all. Evening gowns are worn over white cambric petticoats ruffled and interlined with lace in all sorts of profusion, but, look you, not designed with any bizzarerie. Big, sprawling appliques, great, striking motifs, are out, and in their place has arrived a simplicity that is amazing. Fine, narrow insertions run round and round a skirt, with a triple row of six inch frills set on between, one billowing on top of the other, and the skirt, while it fits the hips like a glove, is below so fluttering and full that it absolutely answers to the poet's fine description and is indeed a tempestuous petticoat. It is trained, of course, and is terribly expensive, especially when it is not merely a skirt proper, but a princess underdress made to fit the figure with absolute precision.

White silk hosiery and white shoes for the evening recall the days when every teacher of deportment instructed her demurest in the art of ascending and alighting from a carriage in a graceful manner. Only the merest flash of white footgear was permissible. And, oh, shades of propriety, the horror a thistle glipse of ankle evoked! The most exquisite silk stockings are inset with lace, and the shoes are too. Gold sandal straps are pretty on some.

You can never cure dyspepsia by dieting. What your body needs is plenty of good food properly digested. Then if your stomach will not digest it, Kodol Dyspepsia Cure will. It contains all of the natural digestants hence must digest every class of food and so prepare it that nature can use it in nourishing the body and replacing the wasted tissues, thus giving life, health, strength and ambition, pure blood and good healthy appetite. "I am indebted to One Minute Cough Cure for my present good health and my life. I was treated in vain by doctors for lung trouble following a gripple. I took One Minute Cough Cure and recovered my health." Mr. E. H. Wise, Madison, Ga. Grover's City drug store.
