FOUGHT A DRAW.

McGee-Quigley Boxing Contest Was a Good Exhibition of the Art.

The boxing bout between Frank McGee, of Philadelphia, and Thomas Quigley, of Wilkesbarre, at the Grand opera house Wednesday evening, was the greatest event in that line that has taken place so far. The fight was one of the most gentlemanly affairs that has ever taken place in the state, and was interesting from the first to the twentieth rounds. The special train from Wilkesbarre brought Quigley supporters and backers in large numbers, and the audience was the largest that has yet gathered here to see an exhibition of this kind. While the upper end was solidly for Quigley, Freeland and Hazleton people favored McGee, consequently the house was fairly divided.

Quigley was handled by Thos. Hayden and Pat Burke and Manager Thomas Gawley. McGee was looked after by Pat Henney, H. Malloy and Manager Mike Campbell. The time keepers were: For the club, John C. Boyle; for McGee, Thos. Laughran. Jack Bonner, of Summit Hill, was referee. Wilty Dougherty acted as announcer. Both men agreed that if they were on their feet at the end of the twenty rounds the bout should be declared a draw. The weights as given were McGee 106 and Quigley 110 pounds.

The bout opened with both men very cautious. From the beginning they gave a fine exhibition, there being more scientific sparring than sledge hammer blows. McGee did some excellent close fighting and played heavily on Quigley's ribs. Later Quigley changed his tactics and from then on the Philadelphia slugger was on the defensive. In almost every round Quigley had his opponent against the ropes, but the quick foot work and clever dodging of McGee always saved him from receiving a knock-out. There was some good sparring in every round, but the windup was warm enough to satisfy the old timers in the hall.

Though the fight was warm all through and there was plenty of scientific boxing the sports seemed dissatisfied that either one of the other did not win. It was termed a clean fight, there being no fouls nor mean plays.

Neither of the men received much punishment, aside from a few skin abrasions and discolored eyes, there being no evidence that they had gone through such a tussle.

McGee has made quite a record in the ring, defeating several clever men of his weight. Quigley has experienced a few fights, but is still young in the business.

The bout between John Carr, of Highland, and Hugh McDyer, of town, was very good while it lasted, there being some heavy blows delivered. At the second round Carr decided to quit and Referee Dougherty awarded the decision to McDyer.

During the intermission between the preliminary and the big event Con Carbon, of Wilkesbarre, entertained the audience with his amusing recitations and songs.

"Kid" Ferry, of Allentown, who won the plaudits of local sports in his contest with Jack Donohue, of Philadelphia, on May 20 last, will meet Charles Mulhall, of Summit Hill, on the evening of the 17th inst. The men will box twenty rounds for a decision and a purse of several hundred dollars, offered by the Sterling Athletic Club.

Lenahan vs. Garman.

Ex-Judge David L. Krebs, of Clearfield county, who is receiving letters from Democrats in all sections of the state urging the expulsion of the Donnelly-Ryan Philadelphia delegation from the coming Democratic state convention, has received a characteristic one from John T. Lenahan, of Wilkesbarre, who takes advantage of the opportunity to give his old enemy in local Democratic circles a body blow. Mr. Lenahan's letter says:

"There is one traitor whose name has been omitted, but before whose infamy Donnelly and Ryan's action in the past pales to insignificance. This man is Garman."

The letter was printed in yesterday's North American among a number of others from Democrats who are endeavoring to "purify" their party. Mr. Garman will not likely allow the occasion to pass with returning the compliment.

Tracked Her Husband.

Mrs. Julius Thomas worked hard for eight years and traveled over 3,000 miles to punish the husband who deserted her when their children were young. He left her in the old country nine years ago and she then determined that if possible she would one day find and punish him.

She now has the satisfaction of knowing that the runaway husband is in jail, awaiting trial. The woman came to this country last June with a nine-year-old son and yesterday found the man they wanted in Warrior Run. When arrested he begged for mercy and offered to work faithfully for his wife for the rest of his life, but she would not listen to him and as he could not furnish bail he went to jail.

School Contract Awarded.

Freeland borough school board met last evening and opened the bids for the proposed new rooms in the Washington street school. The figures from the two contractors were as follows:

James E. Griffith—School room, $1,073; school and supply rooms, $1,377.

Lewis H. Lentz—School room, $713; school and supply rooms, $1,085.

The board decided to complete only the school room this year, and the offer of Mr. Lentz to perform the work according to the plans and specifications for $713 was accepted.

The officers and solicitor were instructed to execute a contract with Mr. Lentz, the contract to require the work to be done by August 24.

New Style of Headlight.

From the Hazle Standard.

The Lehigh Traction Company yesterday received a new light for use on the head of the trolley cars. The light was used for the first time last evening. The device is on the plan of the commercial arc, so common in the stores. A tiny globe encloses two small carbons which throw off a light almost as strong as those of the street arcs. On Broad street considerable interest was manifested in the mechanism and when the car started on its westward trip there was a gleam of light two blocks in advance of the car.

Died at Highland.

John O'Donnell, aged about 70 years, died on Wednesday evening at the home of his sister, Mrs. John McGill, in Highland, who with a brother, Hugh O'Donnell, of Missouri, survive him. The deceased was one of the early residents of old Buck Mountain, where he settled after coming from Ireland. He spent the major portion of his life working in the mines of this vicinity.

The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon at 2.30 o'clock. Interment at St. Ann's cemetery.

P. T. Thomas, Sumterville, Ala., "I was suffering from dyspepsia when I commenced taking Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. I took several bottles and can digest anything." Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is the only preparation containing all the natural digestive fluids. It gives weak stomachs entire rest, restoring their natural condition. Grover's City drug store.

The finest ice cream in town, all flavors, wholesale and retail, at Merkt's.

ROUND THE REGION.

The family of Corporal Edward Abplanalp, who served in the Philippines with Company E, Twenty-eighth volunteers, is very much worried over his strange disappearance. He served with distinction and won promotion in the Philippines and was mustered out at Presidio, California, on May 1 last. He had $150 back pay when mustered out, and his family believes that he has been murdered. His parents live at Lackawanna and there, too, his wife and three-year-old child await his return.

The nine hundred employees of the Woodward mines of the Lackawanna Company went out on strike yesterday morning because the superintendent would not permit a committee of the United Mine Workers to examine the working cards of the miners. The men claim the action of the superintendent is uncalled for, as the working cards of the miners at all the other collieries of the company are examined regularly.

William Loski and Maggie Loelcis were to be married last evening at Frogtown, near Piltston. The groom arrived at the church with his best man and friends, but the prospective bride failed to appear. Inquiry revealed that she had not only disappeared, but had taken with her $50 in cash and a gold watch which her intended husband had given her for safe keeping.

James White, Bryantsville, Ind., says DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve healed running sores on both legs. He had suffered 6 years. Doctors failed to help him. Get DeWitt's. Accept no imitations. Grover's City drug store.

Adam Janous, 18 years old, was drowned at Shenandoah while attempting to rescue a pet dog which had fallen into a mine breach filled with water. The young man under-estimated the depth of the water in the breach and sank to the bottom immediately. The dog was rescued a few minutes after Janous disappeared.

Two burglars carried a trunk three miles and then were forced to abandon it, owing to the close pursuit. They got it from the home of George Burnett, at Larksville, and were followed. They managed to cover three miles carrying the trunk between them and then dropping it and ran without opening it. It contained some bits of jewelry and $50.

Mrs. S. H. Allport, Johnstown, Pa., says: "Our little girl almost strangled to death with croup. The doctors said she couldn't live but was instantly relieved by One Minute Cough Cure. Grover's City drug store."

George Squires, owner of the Laycock hotel, at Wyoming, has disappeared and has not been seen since Saturday night. Just before closing he called all to the bar and said: "Have a last drink with me, you'll never have another." The next morning he was missing. All efforts to trace him have been fruitless.

The employed at Murray & Co's, mine in Dunmore are on strike on account of the dismissal of two drivers who asserted that there was a shortage in their pay. The strike affects 3,000 men and boys.

O. O. Buck, Beirne, Ark., says: I was troubled with constipation until I bought DeWitt's Little Early Risers. Since then I have been entirely cured of my old complaint. I recommend them. Grover's City drug store.

Mary O'Donnell, of Hazleton, widow of a civil war veteran, was granted a monthly pension of $8 yesterday by the government.

At the Raub colliery, Luzerne borough, owned by Payne & Co., 500 men struck yesterday because the Mine Workers committee were not allowed to examine working cards.

The carmen employed by the Delaware and Hudson Company at the yards in Wilkesbarre went on strike yesterday for an increase in wages. They now get $1.15 and they want $1.50.

Otto Brien, a well known resident of Hazleton, was injured in Hazle mines this morning. There is little hope of his recovery.

If the action of your bowels is not easy and regular serious complications must be the final result. DeWitt's Little Early Risers will remove this danger. Safe, pleasant and effective. Grover's City drug store.

Water is being sold by the pail for the first time in the history of Piltston district. Wagons are carrying a supply into the city by the gallon.

Mayor Nichols, of Wilkesbarre, fined George Gabriels $12.50 for using three swear words on the street, while Alderman Donohue at the same time, fined Joseph Horns $5.50, including costs for two swear words. Now there is an interesting controversy as to which figure is right.
