FREELAND, PA., AUGUST 19, 1901.

ROUND THE REGION.

George Moser, of Pottsville, a teamster, while returning home from Minersville was held up by two footpads. One of the robbers held the horses while the other climbed into the rear of the wagon. When the demand was made to hand over his money, instead of complying he whipped the man out of the wagon and beat down the other ruffian with the butt end of his whip and then made his escape with the wagon.

The will of Samuel L. Williams, of Pittston, was admitted to probate on Saturday after a long contest. The estate is valued at $60,000 and was left to two nephews, distantly related. A third nephew somewhat nearer of kin made a contest, asserting that Williams was unduly influenced, and after hearing much evidence Deputy Register of Wills Potteiger admitted the will to probate.

William Eising, of Philadelphia, was killed at Mill Creek, this county. He had been visiting his sister, Mrs. Mollie Haas, of Scranton. Eising tried to jump on a Delaware and Hudson freight, but slipped and fell under the wheels. Both legs were cut off above the knees and his body was badly torn.

In cases of cough or croup give the little one One Minute Cough Cure. Then rest easy and have no fear. The child will be all right in a little while. It never fails. Pleasant to take, always safe, sure and almost instantaneous in effect. Grover's City drug store.

From Denver, Colorado, came a telegram announcing the arrest of Robert Schuler and George Skinner, accused of robbing the jewelry store of Leonard G. Seifing, Jr., Allentown, of $5,000 worth of diamonds and jewelry. They are locked up in Denver awaiting transportation to Allentown to answer for the theft.

The fire in the Jersey mines of the Lackawanna Company, at Avondale, which has been raging for seven weeks past, is now under control. The flames are confined to one breast, and the men engaged in fighting the fire say they will have it out tomorrow.

Eruptions, cuts, burns, scalds and sores of all kinds quickly healed by DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Certain cure for piles. Beware of counterfeits. Be sure you get the original—DeWitt's, Grover's City drug store.

Floyd Lash, Edwin Buchman, and Eugene Ritter, ranging in age from 13 to 15 years, were arrested, charged with burglary of the hardware store of M. S. Young & Co., at Allentown, and stealing $400 worth of cutlery and barber tools. The boys confessed and were committed.

James Grabe, 26 years old, of Coal Castle, after attending a picnic Saturday night, lay down to sleep upon the railroad at Hockersville and was run over by a car of the Traction Company of Pottsville and had both legs crushed. He was taken to the Pottsville hospital, where he died.

James White, Bryantsville, Ind., says DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve healed running sores on both legs. He had suffered 6 years. Doctors failed to help him. Get DeWitt's. Accept no imitations. Grover's City drug store.

The citizens of Mt. Carmel have decided by an election that they shall increase the borough indebtedness to $65,000 by issuing bonds sufficient to put in a complete sewerage system.

A council of Knights of Columbus, with forty-eight charter members, was instituted yesterday at Mauch Chunk.

HUMOR OF THE HOUR

Only Human.

They occupied two $3.50 seats at the opera—those two women did. They wore high and costly hats of their heads and an aspect of grim determination on their faces.

For the young woman in a $3.50 seat behind them had said:

"I beg your pardon, but will you please remove your hats?"

And each had answered:

"No, I will not."

When the first scene was over, she asked them again, and again they answered, "No."

Then she went to the head usher and made complaint.

"Yes," he said, "it is a hardship, madam, but I hesitate to ask them to take off their hats, for I know they would refuse, and if I should undertake to compel them there would be a scene. But I can do better for you than that. There is a vacant seat directly in front of them. Go and take that, and I will see that you are not disturbed."

She took it.

With her face wreathed in smiles she turned to them and said:

"Keep your hats on, ladies, if you choose. You will not incommode me in the least."

Then she put on her own hat, a close imitation of a Gainsborough in its design, make up and general scope, and sat serenely with it on her head through all the rest of the performance.

For she was only human, and the provocation was great.—Chicago Tribune.

The Long Lost Brother.

Hercules—Why, that chap looks awfully like my brother Samson what I ain't seen for five years.

"Is that you, Sammy?"
"Is that you, Herky?"

"Come to my arms, dear boy!"

A Well Grounded Suspicion.

Mr. Isolate (of Lonelyville, indignant)—Then you think we suburbanites must suffer more from rheumatism than city people?

City Friend (visiting the suburbs)—I don't see how you can help it. I am all the time reading in the newspapers of suburbanites sitting in holes in the ground, dug by electric light and trolley workmen, to keep the men from erecting poles in front of their suburban homes.—Brooklyn Eagle.

Monieur's Way.

"You will have to be careful, monieur, in acoustomizing yourself to our climate. Do not change your flannels until you are quite sure the weather is entirely favorable."

"Do not worry about me, sare. I nevair change my flannels."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Saviors of the Truth.

Little Willie—Say, pa, what's the difference between a genius and a lunatic?

Pa—If there is any difference at all, my son, the odds are in favor of the lunatic. He at least is sure of his board and clothes.—Chicago News.

Taking No Risk.

Mrs. Muggins—Don't you tell your husband everything?

Mrs. Buggins—Gracious! I should say not. He's a teler in a bank, and the first thing I would know it would be all over town.—Philadelphia Record.

The engine hostlers employed at the Pennsylvania Railroad roundhouse in Pottsville have been granted an increase in wages from 13 to 15 cents per hour.

From Infancy To Age

Laxakola for Babies.—It is the best and most effective laxative for children. BEST because it is safe and made entirely of harmless ingredients. BEST because it is non-irritating and never gripes or causes pain or irritation. BEST because it is sure and never fails. BEST because "Children like it and ask for it." BEST because its tonic properties are so good and so strengthening that it keeps the little ones in fine, hearty condition. It is a dangerous thing to give little babies violent cathartics that rack and rend their little bodies. DON'T DO IT—give them Laxakola. For constipation, coated tongue, simple colds and fevers it is invaluable.

Laxakola for Young Girls on the threshold of womanhood, has been found invaluable. When they become pale and languid, the eyes dull, aching head, feet and hands cold, appetite gone or abnormal, and their systems generally run down, they need building up, and their blood needs cleansing. Give them Laxakola, its gentle bowel action to cleanse and its tonic properties to build up the system, will show immediate and most beneficial results.

Laxakola for Mothers.—It is particularly valuable and useful to women, especially mothers, as it is a gentle and safe remedy to use during all conditions of health whenever their peculiar and delicate constitutions require a mild and efficient laxative and tonic, while to nursing mothers, worn out with the care of infants and whose systems therefore are particularly susceptible to disease Laxakola particularly appeals.

It clears the complexion, brightens the eye, sharpens the appetite, removes muddy and blotched condition of the skin and cures sick headache to a certainty by removing the cause. To women suffering from chronic constipation, headaches, biliousness, dizziness, salivaceous of the skin and dyspepsia, Laxakola will invariably bring relief.

Laxakola for Old Folks.—In the Autumn and Winter of Life, when the various organs through long years of action have become more or less sluggish, it becomes necessary to stimulate them by some remedy best adapted to that purpose. That Laxakola is such, has been proved beyond all question. Its gentle warming, soothing action on the bowels, liver and kidneys, stimulates them to increased activity, cleanses the blood, quickens the circulation, and puts the whole system in a condition of health and enables it to ward off disease, while its tonic properties tone up the system and keep it healthy.

Laxakola Does It.

Laxakola is not only the most efficient of family remedies, but the most economical because it combines two medicines for one price, tonic and laxative. No other remedy gives so much for the money. All druggists, 25c and 50c, or free sample of THE LAXAKOLA CO., 152 Nassau St., N. Y., or 25 Dearborn St., Chicago.

The Florida Razorback.

The Florida "razorback" is the hog indigenous to this climate and soil. He is usually large of limb and fleet of foot, being the only known porker that can outrun a dorky. He has a tail of wondrous length, which, while he is in active motion, he twists into the tightest corkscrew, but with which while quietly feeding he raps his leathery sides much in the same manner that the docile cow uses her tail.

He is self supporting. He earns his own living and thrives equally well in the highwoods, in the flatwoods, in the hummocks and in the marshes. He subsists upon anything he can find above the earth or underneath its surface. He has a clear, farseeing eye and is very sensitive of hearing. Nature has equipped him with a snout almost as long as the beak of the wild pelican of Borneo, with which he can penetrate the earth many inches in quest of worms, snakes and insects. He is the most intelligent of all the hogs and is likewise the most courageous. He has been known to engage in mortal combat with a coon for the possession of a watermelon and to rend asunder a barbed wire fence.—Forest and Stream.
