The Same Boat.
The proud girl scorned my suit. She was rich, I was poor.
But the next day her father lost all.
"We are in the same boat now," said I cheerfully, but politely.
"Yes, but of course there are first and second cabins," said she, shivering, however, as if she something mis-did—DeWitt's Free Press.

Mr. Duffin's Mistake.
Mr. Duffin—It may seem a strange thing for me to do on such a short acquaintance. Miss Slasher, but I have called on you my love.
Miss Slasher—You have made a mistake. Mr. Duffin, Miss Emsheffer, the newspaper's daughter, lives in the next house.—Boston Courier.

GAG LAW FOR LABOR

A JUDGE WHO IS GREATER THAN THE CONSTITUTION.

A Blanket Injunction That Smothers the Last Right of the Citizen—Family Relations That Create Suspicion in Many Minds.

Whether we believe that liberty is a good thing or not it is certainly an important one. The process of whittling away the liberties of a nation cannot fall to be interesting whatever we may think of it. Therefore each new step in the judicial curtailment of those rights which the founders of our republic thought they had imbedded securely in its constitution is worthy of note.

Edwin B. Gager is a new judge in Connecticut. He has just performed his first official act, which consists in laying down rules for the conduct of certain striking machinists of the Farrell Foundry and Machine company. Judge Gager has issued an order enjoining the strikers:

"From in any manner interfering with any persons who may desire to enter the employ of the plaintiff by way of threats, persuasions, personal violence, intimidation or other means calculated or intended to prevent such persons from entering or continuing in the employ of plaintiff or calculated to induce such persons to leave the employ of the plaintiff, from boycotting the plaintiff and the plaintiff's workmen, either by threats, intimidations, persuasion or otherwise; from interfering, intimidating, boycotting or threatening in any manner any person or persons for the purpose of inducing such person or persons not to deal with or do business with the plaintiff or not to deal with or furnish supplies to the plaintiff's workmen; from congregating or loitering about in the neighborhood of the premises of the plaintiff or in other places with the intent to interfere with the employees of the plaintiff or the prosecution of their business or to interfere or obstruct in any manner the business or trade of the plaintiff.

"From picketing or patrolling the factory or other property of the plaintiff or causing said premises to be picketed or patrolled, or from loitering about the factory of the plaintiff, or from making loud or boisterous noises in the vicinity thereof, or from causing any of such acts to be done by others, or from persuading or assisting any or counseling or advising any such acts."

Judge Gager's law is a long way in advance of that laid down by the New York court of appeals in the case of Reynolds versus Everett, 144 N. Y., 189. In that case the court found that each factory involved in a strike was picketed; that the employees were accosted, urged and entreated to leave the plaintiffs' employment in order that the plaintiffs might not be able to continue their business, and that by such persuasion and entreaty and inducements many of the plaintiffs' employees were induced to leave their employment. It refused to find that these proceedings were illegal and refused to grant an injunction against them.

Without discussing the question whether Judge Gager's first ruling is based on better law than a decision of the New York court of appeals let us ask whether the Connecticut jurist would be willing to apply his principles in all cases. For instance, suppose the Northern Pacific war should break out again and Mr. J. Pierpont Morgan should visit Greenwich for the purpose of trying to persuade Mr. E. C. Benedict to take a hand in it on his side. Would Judge Gager hold such persuasion unlawful and issue an injunction forbidding it? Would he enjoin Mr. Morgan from "loitering about" Mr. Benedict's premises or from standing in the road to intercept him and talk to him on the way to the station?

Formerly the name of Judge Gager was pronounced as if it were spelled Gage-er, but now they call it Gag-er, with the accent on the "Gag," in honor of his injunction against free speech.

Farrel Foundry and Machine company.
Principal owners—Frank Farrel, Charles Bliss and Mrs. George Bryant. Counsel for the Farrel company—Woolster, Williams & Gager.
Associate counsel—George Bryant.

W. H. Williams of the above firm, state prosecutor, who is pushing the charges against the strikers.

E. B. Gager of the above firm, judge of the superior court, who issued the injunction, saying it was unlawful for union men to use persuasion against the men who came to take their places.

George Bryant of the above firm, city judge, who fined a man $50 and costs for saying, "The scabs have come to town."

Such is the chain of connection between the Farrel Foundry company and the machinery of the law at Ansonia, Conn., where three good citizens have been thrown into prison for exercising the right of free speech.

More than that, Judge Bryant is a son-in-law of Frank Farrel. Yet he did not hesitate to sit in judgment upon cases in which his wife had a monetary interest.

Thomas Davis, a waiter, remarked that "the scabs have come to town." Deputy Sheriff Parnelle heard him and dragged him before Judge Bryant, son-in-law of Millowen Farrel.

The judge scored him for using the word "scab," although he did not say it in a loud voice or to a crowd.

"Will you give a definition of scab?" asked Davis.

"This court is not a dictionary," responded the court. "Fifty dollars and costs."

"And I want to add," continued the judge, "that if any one else comes before me on the charge I shall not only fine him $50, but send him to jail for six months."—New York Journal.

CASTORIA

The Kind You Have Always Bought, and which has been in use for over 30 years, has borne the signature of Dr. J. C. Fletcher and has been made under his personal supervision since its infancy. Allow no one to deceive you in this. All Counterfeits, Imitations and "Just-as-good" are but experiments that trifle with and endanger the health of Infants and Children—Experience against Experiment.

What is CASTORIA

Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrups. It is Pleasant. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other Narcotic substance. Its age is its guarantee. It destroys Worms and allays Feverishness. It cures Diarrhoea and Wind Colic. It relieves Teething Troubles, cures Constipation and Flatulency. It assimilates the Food, regulates the Stomach and Bowels, giving healthy and natural sleep. The Children's Panacea—The Mother's Friend.

From Infancy To Age

Laxakola for Babies.—It is the best and most effective laxative for children. BEST because it is safe and made entirely of harmless ingredients. BEST because it is non-irritating and never gripes or causes pain or irritation. BEST because it is sure and never fails. BEST because "Children like it and ask for it." BEST because its tonic properties are so good and so strengthening that it keeps the little ones in fine, hearty condition.

It is a dangerous thing to give little babies violent cathartics that rack and rend their little bodies. DON'T DO IT—give them Laxakola. For constipation, coated tongue, simple colds and fevers it is invaluable.

Laxakola for Young Girls.—On the threshold of womanhood, has been found invaluable. When they become pale and languid, the eyes dull, aching head, feet and hands cold, appetite gone or abnormal, and their systems generally run down, they need building up, and their blood needs cleansing. Give them Laxakola, its gentle bowel action to cleanse and its tonic properties to build up the system, will show immediate and most beneficial results.

Laxakola for Mothers.—It is particularly valuable and useful to women, especially mothers, as it is a gentle and safe remedy to use during all conditions of health whenever their peculiar and delicate constitutions require a mild and efficient laxative and tonic, while to nursing mothers, worn out with the care of infants and whose systems therefore are particularly susceptible to disease Laxakola particularly appeals.

It clears the complexion, brightens the eye, sharpens the appetite, removes mud and blotched condition of the skin and cures sick headache to a certainty by removing the cause. To women suffering from chronic constipation, headaches, biliousness, dizziness, sallowness of the skin and dyspepsia, Laxakola will invariably bring relief.

Laxakola for Old Folks.—In the Autumn and Winter of Life, when the various organs through long years of action have become more or less sluggish, it becomes necessary to stimulate them by some remedy best adapted to that purpose. That Laxakola is such, has been proved beyond all question. Its gentle warming, soothing action on the bowels, liver and kidneys, stimulates them to increased activity, cleanses the blood, quickens the circulation, and puts the whole system in a condition of health and enables it to ward off disease, while its tonic properties tone up the system and keep it healthy.

Laxakola Does It.

Laxakola is not only the most efficient of family remedies, but the most economical because it combines two medicines for one price. No other remedy gives so much for the money. All druggists, 25c. and 50c. or free sample of THE LAXAKOLA CO., 134 Nassau St., N. Y., or 356 Dearborn St., Chicago.

Getting Even.

Stern Employer—Confound you! Do you see the great blunder you've made? Why, you are—well, not far from a Jackass!

Clerk—Exactly so, sir; not more than three feet.

Arrested Development.
Charles was punished severely. Drawing Charles close to her and wiping the tears from his eyes, mamma said:

"When I was your age, my boy, I never told a falsehood."

"How old were you before you began?" asked Charles between sobs.

P. T. Thomas, Sumterville, Ala., "I was suffering from dyspepsia when I commenced taking Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. I took several bottles and can digest anything." Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is the only preparation containing all the natural digestive fluids. It gives weak stomachs entire rest, restoring their natural condition. Grover's City drug store.

Doing a Double Turn.

"That boy of ours is a little too clever."

"What is his latest freak?"
"I just found out that he can whistle beautifully out of one corner of his mouth and at the same time stuff jam into the other corner."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Those Sporty Sea Urchins.

"What's all the fuss about over there?" asked the bluntness of the codfish down in the briny deep.
"Oh, it's nothing," returned the codfish carelessly. "Only a lot of those sea urchins having fun with a dogfish with a cant tied to its tail."—New York Times.

Unsuccessful.

Quinn—I don't see how a man who has failed a score of times could give much advice in a book, "How to Get Rich."

De Fonte—Oh, yes! You see he enumerates all the schemes he tried, and you can steer clear of them.—Chicago News.

Sanguinary.

Nagrus (literary editor)—Borns' last book is called "Blue Blood." It's awful rot, but I don't want to hurt his feelings by saying so.

Mrs. Nagrus—Can't you say it is written in the author's best vein?—Chicago Tribune.

Don't be satisfied with temporary relief from indigestion. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure permanently and completely removes this complaint. It relieves permanently because it allows the tired stomach perfect rest. Disting won't rest the stomach. Nature receives supplies from the food we eat. The sensible way to help the stomach is to use Kodol Dyspepsia Cure, which digests what you eat and can't help but do you good. Grover's City drug store.
