HIGH SCHOOL IN TOWNSHIP

Foster Directors Decide to Establish One.

Will Be Located at Woodside and a Committee of Teachers is Chosen to Prepare a Course of Studies.

All members of Foster township school board were present at the regular session Saturday evening.

There was a long discussion but no action was taken in the matter of filling the teacher at Hazle Brook $60 per month. The teacher received an increase of $5 at the opening which allows him $55.

The committee reported in relation to the Aubrey girl of Eckley that she could attend any school she may choose, but would have to pay her own tuition.

The report of the principal showed an enrollment of 1,021, attendance 937, percentage 87. The directors in charge of Hazle Brook, Foundryville and Highland schools will attend matters called to their attention by the principal.

Woodside school was designated as a high school and the following teachers will draw up a course of studies: Messrs. Hoffman, McGill, Highams, Alden and McGeehan.

It was decided to permit the substitute teacher to attend county institute at the board's expense.

It was decided to purchase a Webster dictionary for the Pond Creek school.

Upper Lehigh and Highland schools were reported crowded beyond the comfort mark.

The matter of the vaccination of school children was referred to the solicitor for an opinion.

The tax question came before the board and surprised the members regarding the way the duplicate was made out. It was shown that 13 mills was collected for building and 13 for school purposes and $1 minimum also. It was claimed that this has been done in the township in previous years, but at the time Messrs. Woodring and Lesser were installed promises to make a reduction in taxes were met by lopping off of this $1 minimum.

The present board, in making the tax rate, understood that it would be the same as last year, but the parties filling out the duplicate made an unwarranted increase in the levy without authority. The solicitor will be asked for an opinion.

President Johnson delivered a short talk to those persons who take delight in trying to make things unpleasant for the board. He said the present directors did nothing they need be ashamed of. Pointing to the walls, on which were hung base relief maps, he said it was such deals that caused suspicion of wrong on the part of directors. The maps in question were purchased some years ago and have never been used.

The president rebuked in pointed terms those who are trying to foment trouble in the township by stirring up race prejudices. Every one of the criticized directors, the president stated, was a native-born American, two of them owning Foster township as their birthplace. He deplored the lack of honor which the board's traducers has shown, and promised that if the matter would become necessary to refer to again he would deal with the disturbers more vigorously.

The following bills were ordered paid: Albert Co., labor, $1; Upper Lehigh Supply Co., supplies, $6.25; Mrs. Philip Melxell, cleaning, $8; Mrs. Geo. Stevens, cleaning, $24; Cormac Brogan, labor, $3.50; Mrs. Patrick Murrin, cleaning, $8; Mrs. Baujok, cleaning and lime, $8.40; Mrs. McBrearty, cleaning, $16; Jacob Acker, labor, $2.14; M. S. Picture of Band and Firemen.

Saturday's Philadelphia North American contained a fine five-column cut of St. Ann's band and the Citizens' Hose Company. The features of the bandmen and the firemen show up perfectly and the members of both organizations feel proud of their handsome appearance and the unusual attention they attracted in a city which was crowded with bands and fire companies. The picture was taken on the roof of the North American's new twenty-story building.

The North American pays the following compliment to Freeland's representatives in the big parade:

"None of the many companies who came presented a finer appearance than the Citizens' Hose Company, No. 1, of Freeland. There were fifty-three men, in smart uniforms of dark green, accompanied by the St. Ann's cornet band, of Freeland. They serenaded the North American from the pavement first, and afterwards gave a concert lasting nearly an hour on the roof."

Foot Ball Games.

The Crescents appeared yesterday for the first time in their handsome new uniforms. The club celebrated the event by winning two games. They defeated the Columbians, 5 to 0, on the Hill in the forenoon, and the Layouts, 10 to 5, at the Tigers park in the afternoon.

The Chesters, of Drifton, and the Good Wills, of town, met yesterday afternoon at Drifton park. The game was interesting all through, neither side being allowed to score. The clubs will meet soon again.

The Good Wills will play Hazleton Young Americas at Jeanesville next Sunday.

Did Joe Get His Price?

From the Wilkesbarre Telephone.

After much travail, and waiting, Joe Lloyd has finally succumbed to the inducements held out by the crowd who defeated him, and has withdrawn his opposition to Dick for controller. This is very nice of Joe, and we trust he had the good sense to swell his bank account considerable, for the sacrifice he made. If he failed to get something substantial he is a foolish young man, for he may never again have such a good opportunity. Joe is pretty slick goods though, and its safe to wager that he hasn't wasted any chance to make himself solid.

Wants Renomination.

The following special dispatch from Hazleton appeared in today's North American: "Harry Haworth, who represented the Fourth district of Luzerne county in the last legislature, will be a candidate for renomination. Despite much protest from his constituents, he voted for Senator Quay and the Gang's notorious bills. Now, it is asserted, he seeks 'vindication.' There are other aspirants for legislative honors, and it is a safe prediction that Haworth will not succeed himself."

Coll Won Foot Race.

A foot race between Joseph Coll, of Ebervale, and Thomas Howley, of Hazleton, for a purse of $100, attracted a large number of sports to the Tigers park Saturday afternoon. Both men are fast runners, but Coll secured a start and held it to the end, covering the hundred-yard course four feet ahead of his opponent. The time of the winner was 11 1/4 seconds, which is considered good in the face of a strong, cold wind.

Notice to Milk Buyers.

Notice is hereby given that on and after Monday, October 14, 1901, the price of milk sold by the milk dealers of Freeland and vicinity will be 8 cents per quart when purchased in quantities of less than four quarts per day; to purchasers of four or more quarts per day milk will be sold at the rate of 6 cents per quart. Above prices are to continue in force until May 1, 1901.

This slight increase in the price of milk is made necessary by the increase in the cost of hay, feed, etc., during the fall and winter months. Patrons are requested to bear in mind the fact that milk costs considerable more to produce during the above months and that the small advance made barely covers our increased expenses. Believing that our patrons will concede us the right to ask a reasonable profit in the conduct of our business, and requesting your further patronage, we remain,

Respectfully yours,
Milk Dealers of Freeland and Vicinity.

THEATRICAL.

"Uncle Terry," which has been dramatized from Charles Clark Munn's story of Maine coast folks by William Gill, is in a prologue and four acts. The prologue describes a terrific storm at sea, the wrecking of a ship and the loss of its human cargo, except Telly the wail, who miraculously escapes. The first act shows the exterior of Uncle Terry's house in Southport, with the light house in the distance. The second act show the office of a Lawyer Frye in Boston. The third act shows the drawing room in John Nason's house in Boston, and another view of Lawyer Frye's office. "Uncle Terry" is booked to appear here on Wednesday evening. James R. Waite is the star and the production is under the management of Harry D. Grabame.

"Madeline of Fort Reno," which comes to Freeland tomorrow evening, is one of prettiest constructed plays of the current season. It tell a pretty love story of the time when the far west was not so safe, or thickly populated as it now is. Old Fort Reno, in the early days, was the scene of many bloody encounters, by the white settlers, with the savage Indians. The story of Madeline of Fort Reno is wound around the life of pretty Madeline Hartman, daughter of John Hartman, whose name is recorded in the history for his many brave deed. The cast of players has been selected with especial care.

"East Lynne" has been revived, on a larger scale than ever before, and the new dramatization will make its debut this evening at the Harlow theatre, New York city, with Helen Burroughs as the star. She will be here this month.

↑ ↑ ↑

In "Uncle Terry" the theatre-goers of Freeland have another opportunity to show their appreciation of that higher and better class of plays which so many of the patrons frequently request the management to bring here.

↑ ↑ ↑

"The Evil Eye," probably the greatest spectacular production on the road, will play Freeland in December if the local management will sign a $400 guarantee contract.

↑ ↑ ↑

"The King of the Opium Ring" pleased a fair-sized audience on Friday evening. The company is composed of twenty-three people and carries a large amount of scenery.

↑ ↑ ↑

The Bryon Comedy Company, booked to appear here for the week of October 21, has been compelled to cancel, owing to the destruction of the opera house at Vineland, N. J. All their scenery, wardrobe, etc., was destroyed.

Large Detective Bills.

From the Wilkesbarre Record.

With respect to the drawing of some four thousand dollars in detective fees from the county treasury by Herman Barring a few days ago District Attorney Jones said that the payment of $1,281 of the amount for work in the Cape murder case was an outrage. The district attorney said he did not know the bill was paid until he saw it in the newspapers. He said the agency furnished a foreigner to try and get a confession from Cape while he was in jail. The foreigner was in a cell with Cape for nine or ten days but got nothing. Then he spent a few days in Freeland but Mr. Jones said the testimony he secured threw no light on the case.

Mr. Jones said $100 would have been good pay for the work performed. Instead a bill for over twelve times that amount is paid. He says he does not know what the commissioners were about when they approved it.

Mr. Barring was seen by the Record. He said he would have a statement to make at the proper time. The bills, he said, were itemized and were gone over item by item with the commissioners and they were by no means exorbitant.
