WARM SUNDAY IN SCRANTON

Street Cars Wrecked by Strike Sympathizers.

land's leading tailor, you Many People Hurt Yesterday Afternoon in a Riot That Blocked the Trolley Lines of the City.

The strike riots that on Friday las tarted in Scranton in connection with the street car strike were continued yesterday, but in a different part of the town, the south side witnessing about all of the excitement. As a result one man is dying at Dr. Thompson's private hospital and several people are suffering hospital and several people are suffering from severe hurts.

The first trouble of the day broke out at 2.30 o'clock at the corner of Pittston avenue and Hemlock street. A crowd of young men stopped a car by putting an obstruction upon the track and then proceeded to riddle every window with stones. The car crew escaped by theowing themselves fat upon the floor throwing themselves flat upon the floor They were not allowed to proceed and were finally compelled to return.

The serious riot occurred at 3 o'clock at the corner of Pittston avenue and Genet street. A boy threw a stone through the window of a car and the conductor and the motorman both made conductor and the motorman both made after him. The crowd then set upon them and both were beaten severely. The conductor, S. Mofflit, of Jersey Clity Heights, was struck in the back of the head with a stone and concussion of the brain followed. At the same time two passengers, Mrs Jones and her daughter Anna, were struck and badly hurt. The efforts to run cars on this line

The efforts to run cars on this line were then abandoned. On the Dunmore line all the cars that ran to that town returned with shattered windows. The Lafayette street line, on which the riot ccurred Saturday, was closed yester-

The strikers issued a letter to the oublic last night appealing to their sympathizers to refrain from all acts of nce and content themselves with ceeping off the cars.

Test Trade Union Case.

om the Wilkesbarre Record.

A preliminary injunction was granted by Judge Ferris yesterday restraining the Building Trades Council from plac-ing a boycott upon the firm of J. E. Patterson & Co., or from interfering in any way with the business of the firm It is alleged that the Building Trades Council, an organization representing the various crafts engaged in building, has been sending out circulars to contractors and builders asking them not to purchase materials from Patterson & Co., on the ground that the firm did not employ union men, and warning the builders that union men would not be allowed to work on buildings where non-union material was being used. The firm of Patterson & Co. alleges that the firm has been and is employing union men and had entered into an agreement with a union in Pittston and had refused to enter into an agreement with the Building Trades Council.

ROUND THE REGION.

In December Henry W. Knarr, due o the alleged neglect of the North Man-heim township officials in not placing a railing along the highway at Adams-dale, fell into a stream at the point and was drowned. His sons brought suit against the township for $15,000 dama-ges in Schuylkill court. The suit went to trial and an award of $2,000 was made in favor of the plaintiffs.

While a Tamaqua and Lansford stree railway car was crossing Broad street Tamaqua, yesterday it was crushed into by a passenger train. The side of the car was smashed. No one was on the car at the time but the motorman.

When the miners at the foot of the slope in the Chapman mine, Plitston, went to their work Saturday morning they found hanging from the wheel of a car the head of John Bullich, who had accidentally been struck by a trip of Mt. Carmel Sons of Veterans have appointed a committee to solicit sub-scriptions for the erection of a McKinley nonument. Mahlon Peters, one of White Haven' vealthiest citizens, died yesterday after an illness of several months.

Costly Blaze on Saturday.

The wareroom of August Bruening en, on Birkbeck street near Walnut, was discovered on fire shortly after 10 o'clock Saturday morning. An alarm was turned in from box 42 and the fire department made a remarkably speedy response. The blaze was breaking through the roof and sides of the frame building when the fire was discovered.

A large quantity of hay, straw, etc., made the flames exceedingly warm, and a quantity of oil which was stored in the building added to the danger.

Three streams of water were turned into the seething furnace and after a hard fight of three-quarters of an hour the firemen gained control. Their work was very good and highly commended by the hundreds of spectators. The building, while not burned to the ground, was practically destroyed and will have to be rebuilt before it can be

Mr. Brueningsen carried insurance on the building and contents. The origin of the fire has not yet been dis-

The forepart of the building was occupied by Mrs. Oschman and family, whose furniture was saved and taken care of by her neighbors.

THEATRICAL.

Theosophy is one of those peculiar things that has puzzled the minds of scores of persons, and even with the many queries that have been made within the researches of this most pecular science, it still remains an undiscount of the score of the sco covered problem. The ludicrous side of this fatth is forcibly demonstrated in the company will present on Tuesday even-ing. The transmigration of souls to the planets is a thame which may sound improbable to those whose knowledge of theosophy is limited, and while the known to actually exist, the humor that is instilled into the play "A Hindoo Hoodoo" by the methods of Ram Chedulka, a Hindoo, who professes thoosphy, is without a question the funniest that has ever been presented in dramatic form.

Miss Agnes Burroughs, in the dual role of Lady Isabel and Madam Vine, will present her revival of that famous old success, "East Lynne," at the Grand Friday evening. The star is supported by a first-class company and the several characters are all in capable hands. Miss Burroughs' work in the part which has made her prominent in the list of emotional actresses calls forth the ad-miration of all. The great and wholeome moral lesson taught by the play is one of the principal reasons for its con-tinued popularity.

Hoyt's "A Day and Night" held the boards at the opera house last evening and gave a very excellent performance. The singing was magnificent and thoroughly appreciated judging from the vociferous encores. The play is like all the good things Hoyt has given to the theatrical loving public, and drives away the blues and the dull care. -Hazleton Standard, October 11, 1901.

Joseph Callahan, the man whose "Mephisto" in the Morrison's "Faust" No. 1 Company made that character famous from the Atlantic to the Pacific. will soon appear here in that noted play Mr. Callahan's portrayal of "Mephisto is conceded the best ever attempted by any actor.

"Barbara Fritchie" will be one of the November's big attractions at Grand.

Death of an Aged Woman.

The many friends of Mrs. Dennis Sheehan will be sorry to read of her death, which took place yesterday morning at the residence, 103 Spruce street, where she had resided for many years. Deceased was 74 years of age and was well known and highly respect-ed. Besides her husband she is survived by the following grandehildren: Den-nis and Charles Boyle, Mrs. Thomas Cadden, Mrs. James Kingey, of this city, and James and John Costello, of Hazle-ton. The funeral will take place on Monday morning at 9 o'clock. mass of requiem will be celebrated in St. Leo's church and interment will be in Hanover cemetery.—Wilkesbarre

Mrs. Sheehan was a resident of Lattimer and Highland for many years and the family was well known in this end of the county. The funeral this morn-ing was attended by Mrs, Mary Mc-Tighe and son, P. B. McTighe, of Free
