Tour of Candidates.

The Democratic county candidates are making a tour of the Fourth dis-rict and are meeting with considerable incouragement in their canvass for The nominees on the Democratic ticket this year are remarkably strong men, as not one of them has ever before sought even a nomination at the hands of a county convention. It will be refreshing to the voters of all-parties to have the pleasure of meeting a set of candidates among whom no chronic office-seekers can be found.

The party is composed of George R. McLean, of Wilkesbarre, candidate for controller; A. M. Freas, of Wilkesbarre, candidate for orphans' court judge; A. H. Jacobs, of Hazleton, candidate for sheriff; James Barrett, of Wanamie candidate for recorder, and Dr. W. H. Berge, of Avoca, candidate for coroner. They are spending today at Hazleton and expect to reach Freeland tomorrow.

Several Weddings.

John McCann and Miss Annie Duffy, of Sandy Run, were married yesterday at Eckley Catholic church by Rev.
Thos. Brehony. After a drive around the surrounding country a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. Mr. and Mrs. McCann will reside in Freeland, making their home in handsomely furnished apartments in
