FAILED TO KIDNAP CHILD

Woman Tries to Steal Her Own Daughter.

Came from Virginia to Mahanoy City and Made Two Futile Attempts to Carry Off the Little Girl.

Mrs. Mamie Phillips, of Newport News, Va., made a daring attempt to kidnap her six-year-old daughter, Emma, from her foster parents, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Clensen, at Mahanoy City yesterday morning.

The woman met the child, who was going to school, and enticed her some distance by promising to buy a pretty doll. When the little one rebelled Mrs. Phillips seized her in her arms and started to run, but had not gone far before the girl's screams attracted a crowd. In the excitement which followed the woman dropped the child and hurried off, but returned two hours later only to be foiled a second time.

This is the fourth attempt Mrs. Phillips has made to gain forceful possession of the child since being denied the right by Schuylkill county courts two year old.

The child was an inmate of the Children's Home at Pottsville when the Clensen family adopted it. The woman declares she will yet have the child and there promises to be interesting developments.

Hazleton's Smallpox Case.

Mrs. Charles E. Faas, who is confined with smallpox in the Hazleton post-house, is doing well, but the disease has not yet reached the danger point. The Hazleton physician who had charge of the case has withdrawn from attendance on account of the fears of his other patients, and is succeeded by Dr. Denison, of Wilkesbarre, who had charge of the smallpox cases in that city last summer.

The local Board of Health is taking much interest in the Hazleton case and the members are quietly guarding against the introduction of the dreaded disease into Freeland.

Candidates Visit Town.

The Democratic county candidates spent yesterday in Freeland and found a very satisfactory condition of affairs here. Under the guidance of Squire Shovlin, who is a member of the county committee, they called upon a number of our townspeople and were cordially received. The candidates found that in Freeland, as in all other parts of the county, there is a strong feeling that the Democratic ticket will poll an unusually large vote this year.

The ignoring of the factions which heretofore existed in the party by the delegates to the recent convention has united the Luzerne Democrats as they have not been in many years, and with the county committee preparing to wage an aggressive battle against the disorganized opposition the candidates are justified in feeling that they will win at the polls.

All the county candidates are traveling together, which shows that thorough unity and good feeling exists. The party consists of Messrs. McLean, Freas, Jacobs, Barrett and Dr. Berge, and they form a group which cannot avoid attracting attention and respect wherever seen.

During their visit to town they made as many calls as possible during the limited time at their disposal and regretted that they could not spend a few more days in this vicinity.

Death of Mrs. Halpin.

Mrs. Timothy Halpin died at 4.30 o'clock yesterday afternoon at the home of her son, Michael, corner of Walnut and Pine streets. Mrs. Halpin had been unwell for some years past and death was due to diseases incident to old age. The deceased came to the United States from Ireland with her husband upwards of half a century ago. They settled at old Buck Mountain, where they lived many years. Later they resided in Schuylkill county, and afterwards at Upper Lehigh and Freeland. Mr. Halpin died here about seven years ago.

The following sons and daughters survive Mrs. Halpin: Thomas, of Ireland; Michael, Freeland; John, Porth Anboy, N. J.; James, Jedd; Daniel, Scranton; Mrs. John McManus, New Brunswick, N. J.; Mrs. Daniel Leary, Newark, N. J.; and Mrs. John Ryan, Hartford, Conn.

The funeral will take place at 9.30 o'clock tomorrow morning, followed by a requiem mass at St. Ann's church. Interment at St. Ann's cemetery.

Foot Ball Game Off.

The prospects of a foot ball game on Sunday afternoon between Freeland and Hazleton clubs are not very promising at the present time. The Hazleton men have cancelled the game on the ground that they were not to receive a sufficient amount of the receipts. At the same time they offer to play at Drifton or Jeannsville, where they will receive no money.

The opinion in this section is that Hazleton is simply afraid to test the ability of its self-boasted eleven against the Freeland boys. This seeming cowardice will probably upset the arrangements for a series of friendly games which would have been interesting to patrons of the sport.

Curfew Law for Plymouth.

Plymouth council has passed a curfew to go into effect November 1, restricting children under sixteen years of age from being on the streets after 9 o'clock at night, those under eighteen at 10 o'clock, they being liable to arrest and fine unless accompanied by a member of their family over twenty-one years of age; regulating the age at attendance to public balls, and restricting the time to 1 o'clock, and imposing a license fee of five dollars besides the regular police protection. The curfew hours will be made known by the ringing of the fire gongs.

Smoker This Evening.

A smoker will be conducted at the Grand opera house hall this evening by Division 19, A. O. H. In addition to the members of the two Freeland divisions, the members of Division 20, of Eckley, and Division 10, of Hazleton, will be present. Several of the prominent members of the order in the upper end of the county, including the state secretary and the county officials, will also attend and participate in the evening's exercises.

Will Lead the March.

National President John Mitchell will review the parade of the United Mine Workers at Hazleton on the 29th inst. Learning this fact, the energetic ball committee of Local Union No. 1499 invited him to spend the evening previous in Freeland. He has accepted and has assured the committee that he will lead the grand march at their ball.

ROUND THE REGION.

The men at the Sugar Notch Maffett mine are on strike. Three weeks ago they went out because they were not paid promptly. A couple of days ago they got their pay, and when they went back to work found notices posted declaring a reduction of 12 cents in the price of a car and 25 cents in yardage.

At the last session of the quadrennial conference of the Primitive Methodist Church of America, at Scranton, an important divorce rule was adopted. It follows: "None of the ministers of this church shall marry a person or persons divorced contrary to the words of Jesus Christ, found in Matthew xix: 9."

Four men were instantly killed by a fall of roof in the Klondike mine at Archbald. The dead are: Patrick Nealin, assistant mine foreman; John Healey, Martin Dougher and John Carney. Nealin and Healey were both married, and leave a widow and one child each.

Father C. Von Welden, late assistant at Wilkesbarre German Catholic church, has been appointed by Bishop Hoban as pastor of Sacred Heart church in Weston. Connected with this church is a mission, St. Joseph's church, in Nuremberg.

William Astleford has returned to his home in Harwood after two years' service in the United States army at Honolulu.

The funeral of Mrs. Hannah Powderly, wife of Hon. T. V. Powderly, of Washington, D. C., commissioner of immigration, was held at St. Patrick's church, Scranton. There were many floral offerings from Washington.

John R. Stark, a member of one of the oldest families in the Wyoming valley, died today at his home in Plains, aged 69 years. He had lived in Plains all his life. His ancestors came here from England in 1771.

Miss Barbara Walton, of Plymouth, was stricken with smallpox and removed to the emergency hospital, she being the last one of the entire family of seven now having the disease.

C. Edgar Steadman, freight and station agent for the Central Railroad of New Jersey at Mauch Chunk since the road was first opened, in 1868, has resigned.

A new knitting mill is to be started at Nanticoke in a few days, and when finished will give employment to about 250 girls.

While on a visit to Philadelphia, Mrs. John Brennan, of St. Clair, caught the germs of smallpox and last evening she was removed to the pest hospital at Pottsville.

Arrangements were made last night for a twenty-round bout between Harry Ruhlin, of Wilkesbarre, and Jack Ashton, of Philadelphia. The contest will be held on October 28 at Nanticoke.

William P. Hopkins, one of the leading iron manufacturers in the Lehigh valley, died yesterday at his home in Catawauqua, aged 70 years.

THEATRICAL.

Hoyt's "A Day and a Night" is said by many to be his brightest and best comedy, and it is claimed that this season's company is by far the best ever engaged in its production. There is a distinctly original idea in the unravelling of the story of a supposed country bumpkin's introduction into the gay life of New York city. Briefly told, "Marable Hart," an inexperienced young man, visits New York in search of vocalists for his church choir in a New Jersey village. He falls in with a theatrical manager and his staff, and they, in turn set a party of comic opera singers to initiating the young man into the life of the metropolis. He enters into their scheme with little hesitancy, and comes out a full-fledged sport. The costuming is elaborate, the music bright and up to date, the girls pretty and the specialties of novel character interesting to all.

Miss Agnes Burroughs and her carefully selected company will give a performance this evening of her own dramatization of that ever popular story "East Lynne." This young star about whom much has been written and concerning whose talents many words of enthusiasm have been spoken, has won an enviable reputation in her tour of the principal cities of the country last season. East Lynne is without question the greatest emotional drama of the present generation; a play in which the most famous actors and actresses of the country have appeared, and one which will live when others are forgotten.

The Irish comedy, "My Friend Clancy," will be one of the attractions here in the near future.

Fine free lunch at all hours at Bernhardt's restaurant, Walnut street.
