POLITICS IN THE COUNTY We are better prepared than ever before to ac-commodate you in all branches of this depart-Democrats Have No Doubt of Tomorrow's Result.

> The Party Leaders Predict Sweeping Majorities for All the Candidates -- Republican Money in Town.

The Democratic leaders in Luzerne ounty have no doubt of the result of comorrow's election, if the Democrats are true to their candidates. The party n this county was never better organized nor in better condition to conduct a winning fight, and unless all signs fail every candidate on the ticket will be swept into office by majorities which will be figured by the thousands. As stated in Friday's issue the Repub-

This stated in Friday's issue the Lepho-lican leaders, those on the inside of the present campaign, have abandoned hope of the county licket, and the Quay liceitenants are now confining their attention solely to the state candidates. To keep Yerkes' and Coray's majorities down as low as possible is now the aim of the machine.

Failing to drive the independent Republicans into line for Potter and are now working upon the Democrats, upon the following lines:

upon the following lines: Thèy offer to trade any man on the county ticket, except Holcomb, for a vote for Harris. They are spreading broadcast lies about Coray's record in the legislature.

They are attempting to inject religious bitterness into the campaign, in the hope of injuring Coray. They are offering Democratic watchers money to betray Yerkes and Coray by voting men who are unable to read for Potter and Harris. In Freeland borough and Foster In Freeland borough and Foster township the above moves were dis-covered yesterday, and the men who made them are known and will be watched more closer than ever before until the voting is finished tomorrow evening. evening. Never before in any campaign have the local upholders of the state machine become so brazen in their efforts to win Democratic support. They have un-limited money to spend to keep down the Democratic-Union vote, but every move made so far and every offer to buy or bribe Democrats is known and will be checkmated. Friends of certain candidates on the Republican county ticket have been supplied with money to use in helping their individual aspirations among our foreign-born citizens. Former residents of the lower end who now hold petty clerkships in the courthouse brought the money to town and distributed some of

to be to be and the transfer of the solution o the schemes.

There is money and influences at work in Freeland to obtain Democratic votes for Nicholls. No Democrat need be afraid to vote for Freas. He is an able afraid to vote for Freas. He is an able inwyer and will make an honest judge. There are Republicans at work among the Democrats to secure complimentary votes for Dick. George McLean comes from an honored family of Democrats and no good Democrat will cut him. Holcomb, as second in command of the Quay machine in Luzerne, will be cut by thousands of anti-Duay Republic cut by thousands of anti-Quay Republi-cans. To overcome this defection cans. To overcome this defection money has been poured into the Fourth district to capture votes from Jim Bar-rett. So barefaced have Holcomb's rett. So barefaced have Holcomb's friends become with their money that somebody is likely to land in jail for bothery before tomorrow night. Why should Freeland and Foster bere is a unit against Quayism? Refute the impression among the Quay boodlers and bulldozers that your vote can be swayed against your ticket by oney or other influences.

Campaign Lie Nailed. The Quay machine as a last political card have sent to every liquor dealer in the state a bill which E. A. Coray presented in the legislature, while a member of that body, at the request of ROUND THE REGION. bout ome of his constituents. The machine some of his constituents. The machine stepped out of the way of one train di-is trying to make the saloon men belleve restly in front of another and was killed that Coray is a Prohibitionist, but the attempt will fail. Coray presented the neasure because it was his duty. An honest representative will present any of the balance of the salor of the salor of the salor of the salor to death by a rush of earth in a trench. and all measures which the people who elected him ask for. Further than the formal act of introducing the bill, Coray made no attempt to injure the men in the saloon business.

If the Quay machine loves the liquor dealer as they pretend, why did they raise the price of the license to a figure which is nearly equal to prohibition: If they wanted to enlighten the people If they wanted to enlighten the people why didn't they send out the labor measures which Coray proposed and which were defeated by the machine at interstay? the dictation of corporate interests?

Foster School Board.

The regular monthly meeting of the Foster township school board was held Saturday evening with all members present

Tax Collector Lentz was present and turned over $3,203.44 building tax and $3,229.31 school tax, a total of $6.432.75. It was decided that all school children in the township must be vaccinated and 1,500 certificates were ordered printed the Tribune. The principal reported an enrollment of 1,026; attendance, 872; percentage of attendance, 86. It was decided to close the schools on the 28th and 29th inst., on account of Work

Thanksgiving Day. Furniture was ordered procured for Eckley and Highland buildings. Pupils were reported attending the schools from other districts. It was decided to render bills to the districts for the actual cost of tuition

It was decided to open night schools the first Monday in December for districts from which petitions are presented.

A vote of thanks was tendered Mrs Eckley B. Coxe for kindness toward pupils and the district at Eckley.

The report of the county superinten-dent showed all teachers were in attendance at all sessions of the institute. The committee on the High schoo course reported and recommended books which were ordered purchased. The course as drawn up was adopted. The following bills were ordered paid: G. B. Markle & Co., coal, $4.10; Patrick G. B. Markle & Co., coal, $4.10; Patrick Mechan, repairing wall, $17.30; Coxe Bros, & Co., coal, $3.75; W. H. Greb-meyer & Ce., books, $251.66; J. H. Smith, charts, $192.50; J. L. Owen, wood, $5; John W. Davis, wood, $1.50; W. E. Martin, supplies, $147.22; White Haven School District, tuition, $13.32; William Sheaman, hauling coal, $3.75; El Weaver, lime, 60c. Eli Weaver, lime, 60c.

Treasurer O'Neil reported a balance of $3,403,33 on hand.

Store Order Suits.

The hearing in the store order tax suits was resumed at Harrisburg on Friday, that of A. Pardee & Co. being ley tomore A. Pardee was a witness, as were up. Thomas Duffy, president of the Mine Workers' Union; Peter Flabagan and Jacob Strock, miners, and Manager Wilde, of the Pardee Company.

Argument followed, Attorneys Wil-helm and Carr opening for the common-wealth and Congressman Olmsted for the corporations. Attorney General Elkin closed for the commonwealth.

In some of the cases it was agreed that further testimany might be offered by either side. It was also agreed that some other cases should be argued on Tuesday, November 15. The court took all the papers and will probably render no decision until after all the cases have been fully heard and argued.

Judge Simonton intimated from the bench that the language of the statute was confusing and the object not clearly expressed, but otherwise gave no in-timation as to the views of the court upon the various points argued.
