BREVITIES.

Sweden spends $15,000,000 a year in coal and has 2,000,000 to 4,000,000 electrical horsepower going to waste. The government is thinking about utilizing some of it.

California's state flower is the golden poppy, and one of the professors at Stanford university has published a book devoted exclusively to the flower and its legendary history.

The skin of the musk ox, which is a denizen of the "Barren Grounds" and the arctic region of Canada, has taken the place of that of the extinct buffalo for sleigh robes. It varies in price from $50 to as low as $5 for a poor article.

The industrial depression in Germany is reaching serious proportions. Employment agencies are deluged with applicants. From the mining regions come reports of numerous dismissals and reduced work. The same is true in iron and steel work.

Gigantic water power developments are projected in the Alps. There are now in the French Alps forty-eight factories supplied by 250,000 horsepower, electrically generated. Engineers estimate that 3,000,000 horsepower is now running to waste in the Alps.

The royal library at Windsor castle is about to be enlarged by the inclusion of a room adjoining hitherto used by the lord in waiting. This will enable many thousands more volumes to be added to the hundred thousand valuable works now on the shelves.

So great has become the demand for American coal in Europe that it has been decided to build an immense receiving station for unloading, screening and grading coal in northern France. Rates have been made on French roads which will drive German coal out of central Europe.

Dr. Bizarro of Gorz has published a pamphlet in which he tries to prove that the Adriatic has for more than a thousand years been rising and encroaching on its shores. The lowest parts of Trieste are experiencing trouble already, and in course of time Venice will be buried in the mud of the lagoon.

It is reported from the City of Mexico that Senor Sabino Osuna has invented an ingenious and yet seemingly very simple affair styled the "Contador Rapido Siglo XX" (twentieth century rapid calculator). The apparatus, which resembles the ancient Chinese counting machine, is for the purpose of rapid computation.

New York state has more cows than Pennsylvania and New Jersey combined and more than any other one state in the Union, Iowa being second, Illinois third and Wisconsin fourth. The entire number of cows in the states and territories in the exact census figures is 16,292,360, with a total valuation of $514,812,100.

The beaver, the staple fur of the French regime, is now becoming scarce and its price varies greatly according to fashion. Even the skin of the offensive rabbit has now a positive market value, as it is dressed, clipped and dyed a deep brown, almost black, and then becomes what is called "electric seal," much in vogue for ladies' jackets.

The trees now growing on the farm near Franklin, N. H., where Daniel Webster was born are to be cut up into friction matches, a manufacturing company having paid $2,800 for the standing timber upon it. The legislature of New Hampshire refused at its last session to pay $3,000 for the entire farm, though many patriotic citizens of the state petitioned to have it preserved as a perpetual memorial of New Hampshire's great son.

An exciting scene was witnessed in the Romita ring during a bullfight on bicycles. Two of the chulos placed the banderillos, or short stabbing sticks, into the necks of the bulls. When the second bull entered the ring, Jose Basuro, maneuvering his bicycle cleverly, placed the sticks with great daring, while his comrade coolly sat on his wheel, which was propped to stand upright in the ring. Luckily the bull paid no attention to him.

MEMBER OF SPANISH ORDER

Special Honor That Was Conferred on Mrs. E. Burd Grubb.

One of the most admired of New Jersey matrons is Mrs. E. Burd Grubb. Mrs. Grubb is a very beautiful woman and before her marriage was Miss Violet Sopwith of London. General Grubb, her husband, was minister to Spain under the Harrison administration, and the queen of Spain appointed her a member of the Order of Noble Ladies of Maria Louisa. She also presented to her the very beautiful decoration of the order, which is of gold and beautifully enamelled.

The Order of Maria Louisa is a very exclusive one, vacancies having to be made by death. She is the only woman of this republic who has been fortunate enough to receive this coveted decoration.

Women Climbers.

Mountain climbing is one of the pastimes in which women of the present day take a keen enjoyment, although it is always fatiguing and oftentimes attended with danger. To be a good mountain climber one must possess strong will power, firm footing, a steady head and a sound heart. Among the women who have attained distinction as mountain climbers are several of royal birth, such as the late empress of Austria, ex-Queen Margherita of Italy and Queen Helene of Italy. Frau Aurora Herzberg of Bavaria is one of the most enthusiastic of mountain climbers and celebrated her seventieth birthday by climbing a mountain of considerable height.

Queen Helene of Italy is a skillful mountain climber and in her girlhood often accompanied her father and brother on mountain expeditions in Montenegro in pursuit of game.

The usual dress of the woman mountain climber is a very short cloth skirt, with coat and small Tyrolean hat.

A number of English women have proved themselves as courageous and skillful as their continental sisters in mountain climbing, and American women have shown also that they possess the requisite qualities for successfully ascending mountain peaks.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Hints For Home Dressmaking.

Without much labor or expense ready made skirts, elaborately tucked and intersected with gupure or alencon insertion lace, with sufficient material for the bodice, may be obtained at a reasonable price in an endless variety of designs suitable for fashionable promenade or evening wear and only need a small amount of experience to put together, as nearly all the newest designs in gowns in this description have the lining foundation of silk or satin made separate, the collar of which may be varied from time to time. Bought skirts of this kind are, as a rule, somewhat full round the hem, so that the silk foundation will have to be in seven breadths—that is, a front, two side pieces each side and two backs, and, whatever the length of seam must measure five inches longer, or, if it is to be of cotton, six widths will be sufficient. And, should the ready made skirt be too short, narrow frills of lace or glass silk might be sewed on to the separate foundation.

Woman Knight Errant.

The United States is to receive a visit this winter from Princess Hairie Ben Ayad, who has created a stir in England by her crusade against social conditions in Turkey. The princess, who is a daughter of a former Turkish minister to France, hopes to eradicate polygamy in Turkey by organizing a movement against it from the outside. Her lectures in London have been crowded, and she has become a fad with society there, says the Chicago Tribune. Unlike a beautiful and refined face, she has the usual heavy type of the east, and carries herself in a regal way. Her husband, who was sentenced to prison for exposing the cause of the deposed sultan, Morad, but escaped, is with her in London. When out driving, she wears a heavy veil over her face, according to Turkish custom.

Frenchwomen Who Smoke.

The women of France, says the Montreal Herald, are fast falling into the smoking habit. Indeed among the higher classes indulgence in the narcotic has become almost universal. There is a woman of fashion no longer apologizes to her guests for lighting a cigarette after dinner, and even an accompaniment to 5 o'clock tea a golden tipped Egyptian cigarette is frequently indulged in by fair Parisiennes. Russian ladies who inhabit the capital are largely responsible for the growing taste for tobacco among the grandes dames of Paris. It is interesting to hear that at the leading couturieres boxes of fragrant cigarettes are kept in stock to help madame to pass the time agreeably while being fitted. In Germany feminine emancipation is not sufficiently advanced to make the practice of smoking among ladies very prevalent. In certain circles and the smart restaurants, however, many women may be seen with cigarettes and even cigars. Among the middle and working classes it is safe to say that scarcely a woman would think of smoking except for fun. But there is one class of feminine society that greatly affects the cigarette, and that is financial ladies engaged in speculation.

Montreal's Gift to the Duchesse.

The jewel which was presented to her royal highness the Duchesse of Cornwall and York as a souvenir of her visit to Montreal is as beautiful as it is typical of Canada. The jewel consists of a diamond spray or corsage pin of six maple leaves, mounted with diamonds. No two of the maple leaves are alike in form and color. They are of solid eighteen carat gold, beautifully enamelled in delicate tones. There are 362 carefully selected white diamonds, and at the end of the stem is set a perfectly shaped Canadian pearl weighing no less than twenty grains. The whole jewel is of native Canadian gold and workmanship. The jewel was inclosed in a handsome silver casket bearing an inscription and the arms of the city of Montreal.—Toronto Globe.

Schools For Washermen.

A washerwoman's school for laundry work was recently opened in New York city by the Charity Organization society. The course consists of twelve daily lessons. The instructors teach them the best methods for cleaning different fabrics and exercise supervision until the woman receives a certificate. Just such a department has the Mechanics' institute of Rochester. In fact, the city does not realize what a school within schools is in this superior and extensive institution that is coming to be a pride to Rochester. The laundry department is equipped with most modern machinery, with the most helpful apparatus, such as is found in homes and in business establishments and by which women may learn to become proficient in the trade.

Sensible Clothing.

How broad and strong are the sensible shoes now worn by schoolgirls! No wise mother will attempt to compress either the waist line or the foot of her little daughter. Little girls should be "expansionists" and have full chance to acquire the capital of health and strength upon which they must draw in adult life. A "skin tight" dress is a mistake, even if the little maid has a thick waist. It is a shame to put stays or tight underclothing on a girl before she is fourteen years old, says the Pittsburg Dispatch. She is really a child and should enjoy a child's privilege of wearing loose, warm, light clothing which does not interfere with her movements.

Women Sign Painters.

Sign painting is added to the list of trades practiced by women in Berlin. Women sign painters undergo a regular apprenticeship. They are taught how to use the brush and to mix paints. Gymnastic training is carefully gone into before they are allowed to ascend the scaffolding, so that they may not lose their nerve in standing on the ladder. They wear the gray linen frock and cap which are the house painter's badge as well as his defense against paint.

A Spoon For the Baby.

A pretty spoon intended as a gift to an infant has a gold bowl with a baby head engraved on it. The design of the handle is delicately ornamental. With the spoon the donor sent a bit of charming verse, found in a scrapbook of unidentified clippings, supposed to be voiced by the spoon to the baby, one sentiment being the avowed purpose of the former to watch closely when its bowl should be in the little pink mouth of the baby for the first tooth.

Mrs. T. B. Blackstone will present Hyde Park, Chicago, with a magnificent public library building, completely furnished and equipped, costing $100,000.

THE "WHEN" POEMS.

When searching press or magazine
To catch a moment's bliss,
You're sure to find some poem there
Which reads about like this:
"When Mabel Trips Across the Street,"
"When Mollie Mounts Her Wheel,"
"When Susie Starts Herself to Play,"
"When Stella Starts to Squeal,"
"When Celia Comes Upon the Stage,"
"When Helen Has a Beau,"
"When Sophie Skates Upon the Ice,"
"When Sallie Starts to Sew,"
"When Mother Makes a Johnnycake,"
"When Polly Pours the Tea,"
"When Father Shaves His Shabby Face,"
"When Susie Smiles at Me,"
"When Grandma Winds Her Ball of Yarn,"
"When Father Sings His Brand New Top,"
"When Father Sings a Slunk,"
"When Ezra Kats Pie With a Fork,"
"When Charlotte Chews Her Gum,"
"When Gertrude Strikes Her Golden Ball,"
"When Baby Sucks His Thumb,"
"When Rachel Ramps the Meadow Hay,"
"When Betty Bumps Her Crown,"
"When Willie Wears His Trousers First,"
"When Reuben Comes to Town,"
And so it goes from day to day,
No matter which you read,
The daily press or magazine,
"When" poems take the lead. —Life.

A Queer Landlord.

Wife—Just think of it, George, the landlord told me we'd have to move if we did not pay our rent.
George—Well, does he think if we could pay our rent we'd have stayed here as long as we have?—New York Journal.

Minister Wu on Marriage.

Minister Wu Ting Fang is of the opinion that American girls are too particular about whom they marry. He thinks their tendency to dismiss early admirers who are not to their liking a very grievous error. "Woman," he says, "ought to marry. That is what she is made for. Chinese girls are different. Few of them remain single."

Mme. Grand in America.

Mme. Sarah Grand, author of "The Heavenly Twins" and "Babs," is in this country at present on a lecturing tour. The themes of her lectures are "Mere Man" and "The Art of Happiness." Mme. Grand is what might be called a

MME. SARAH GRAND.

"story" writer, and many of the critics and authors in England and this country handle her rather roughly. But she also has in both countries many admirers and staunch supporters, and her books have had large sales. Of the "problem novel," the story that attempts to teach a theory or ism, Mme. Grand says, "Well written, it will always be a success."
