

CASTORIA

The Kind You Have Always Bought, and which has been in use for over 30 years, has borne the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher and has been made under his personal supervision since its infancy. Allow no one to deceive you in this. All Counterfeits, Imitations and "Just-as-good" are but experiments that trifle with and endanger the health of Infants and Children—Experience against Experiment.

What is CASTORIA

Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrups. It is Pleasant. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other Narcotic substance. Its age is its guarantee. It destroys Worms and allays Feverishness. It cures Diarrhoea and Wind Colic. It relieves Teething Troubles, cures Constipation and Flatulency. It assimilates the Food, regulates the Stomach and Bowels, giving healthy and natural sleep. The Children's Panacea—The Mother's Friend.

From Infancy To Age

Laxakola for Babies.—It is the best and most effective laxative for children. BEST because it is safe and made entirely of harmless ingredients. BEST because it is non-irritating and never gripes or causes pain or irritation. BEST because it is sure and never fails. BEST because "Children like it and ask for it." BEST because its tonic properties are so good and so strengthening that it keeps the little ones in fine, hearty condition. It is a dangerous thing to give little babies violent cathartics that rack and rend their little bodies. DON'T DO IT—give them Laxakola. For constipation, coated tongue, simple colds and fevers it is invaluable.

Laxakola for Young Girls on the threshold of womanhood, has been found invaluable. When they become pale and languid, the eyes dull, aching head, feet and hands cold, appetite gone or abnormal, and their systems generally run down, they need building up, and their blood needs cleansing. Give them Laxakola, its gentle bowel action to cleanse and its tonic properties to build up the system, will show immediate and most beneficial results.

Laxakola for Mothers.—It is particularly valuable and safe remedy to use during all conditions of health whenever their peculiar and delicate constitutions require a mild and efficient laxative and tonic, while to nursing mothers, worn out with the care of infants and whose systems therefore are particularly susceptible to disease Laxakola particularly appeals.

It clears the complexion, brightens the eye, sharpens the appetite, removes muddy and blotched condition of the skin and cures sick headache to a certainty by removing the cause.

To women suffering from chronic constipation, headaches, biliousness, dizziness, sallowness of the skin and dyspepsia, Laxakola will invariably bring relief.

Laxakola for Old Folks.—In the Autumn and Winter of Life, when the various organs through long years of action have become more or less sluggish, it becomes necessary to stimulate them by some remedy best adapted to that purpose. That Laxakola is such, has been proved beyond all question. Its gentle warming, soothing action on the bowels, liver and kidneys, stimulates them to increased activity, cleanses the blood, quickens the circulation, and puts the whole system in a condition of health and enables it to ward off disease, while its tonic properties tone up the system and keep it healthy.

Laxakola Does It.

Laxakola is not only the most efficient of family remedies, but the most economical because it combines two medicines for one price, tonic and laxative. No other remedy gives so much for the money. All druggists, 25c and 50c, or free sample of The LAXAKOLA CO., 122 Nassau St., N. Y., or 359 Dearborn St., Chicago.

HUMOR OF THE HOUR

A Study In Caste. Human nature is so happily constituted that as long as the humble man has a humbler man to look down upon he can still maintain a degree of dignity and self respect.

To the back door of a city residence the other day came an old man tramp. He was grimy and tattered, weary and wretched in appearance, but asked no money, merely something to eat. A cup of hot coffee was added to the bread and meat bestowed upon the poor old fellow, and as he munched and sipped contentedly, albeit ravenously, on the doorstep the lady of the house chatted with him. He said that he was from old England, that he was once a traveling tinker and made good wages every day, but that he had grown old, work made him very tired, so he had concluded to beg his bread.

"Couldn't you find occupation of some kind somewhere?" asked the sympathetic lady. "It would surely be less tiresome than walking as much as you do to beg."

"Oh, no, lady," replied the old tramp. "An' I hain't a low down begger; I hain't the lowest of th' low, lady. No, no; there's a class 'twixt me an' th' gypsies."—Detroit Free Press.

And It's Often Done. "Are we all out of debt at last?" she asked.

"Thank heaven, we are!" he answered.

"Then let's give a swell dinner and dance," she suggested.

"But that will put us in debt again," he protested.

"Of course it will," she returned, "but what's the good of making our credit so good if we don't use it?"—Chicago Post.

A Suggestion Considered. "An actor must often leave his real self behind him when he goes on the stage, must he not?" said the inquisitive young woman.

"Well," answered Mr. Stormington Barnes, "it would assuredly be a great convenience if there were two of him so that one could remain out and watch the box office."—Washington Star.

Might Be Worse. "Oh, doctor," exclaimed a rheumatic patient, "I suffer dreadfully with my hands and feet."

"But, my dear sir," rejoined the physician, "just try to think how much inconvenience you would suffer without them."—Chicago News.

NOT A PLEASANT PLACE.

Young Woman Who Was Terrible Ameer's Court Physician. The woman who of all others had the greatest influence with the late Abdur Rahman Khan, was a modest, forceful English woman, who practiced medicine. She is Miss Lillias Hamilton, M. D., and was practicing in Calcutta, and news of her success as a physician reached the ameer. Like all Asiatics, he had a poor estimate of women in general, but, acting on the advice of a European traveler, he offered the clever English woman a handsome salary to become his court physician. It seemed a hazardous experiment, but Miss Hamilton decided to risk it. She soon reached a friendly footing with the wily Afghan ruler, who was amused at her independent manner and dictatorial way of deciding what he and her other patients should eat and drink.

The sultana regarded her with jealous eyes, and therefore it was that Dr. Hamilton always refused to visit female patients in their homes. It was decidedly unsafe to do so, and they had to come to her when seeking advice. Neither did she eat food prepared by other than the servants she brought with her from India. The conditions which rendered these precautions necessary gave a warm spice to the doctor's life in the Afghan capital; but, on the whole, she enjoyed the experience.

Not infrequently the plucky woman ventured to argue with the semiautocrat on behalf of some wrongdoer, and he never failed to listen, though he was rarely swayed from his proposed course. Dr. Hamilton remained at court for several years.

Linen Showers. "Linen shower" is the newest greeting to an engaged girl. It is very nice for the engaged girl, but rather hard on the friends, for every one is expected to present the fiancée with a piece of linen, and linen is scarcely an inexpensive thing.

The shower takes place in the form of a surprise party, to which the girl is asked, believing that she will see only her hostess. When she arrives in the afternoon, she finds her friends drawn up in present array, and on her is bestowed a parcel from each one. These she is expected to open as soon as she has recovered from the state of "rattles" that usually intervenes, and of course she is supposed to make pretty and graceful speeches. The latter are mostly in the supposition. Ten and gossip wind up the festivity.—New York Telegram.
