FAMOUS JOHN L. ARRIVES HERE

Ex-Champion Comes to Freeland in Private Car.

Sullivan Tells a Tribune Reporter About His Show and Picks Jeffries as Winner in Coming Big Fight.

The 9.12 Lehigh Valley train from Mauch Chunk this morning steamed into the Freeland station on time. Attached to the regular train was the private car bearing George H. Downing's Vaudeville Company, headed by the former pugilistic champion, John L. Sullivan.

After the car had been detached from the train and put on the siding here a Tribune representative went to the car to see the big fellow. When ushered into his presence he found the great fighter of other days, the once formidable wallop of men, the man whose gaze was sufficient to frighten nine out of ten would-be champions into a fit of ague, comfortably seated playing a game of solitaire, evidently trying to beat himself.

When introduced he took the proffered hand of the reporter in a friendly grasp, and gave him a warm welcome.
After introducing him to other members of the troupe he spoke very highly of Freeland as he remembered it from his previous visits here.

"How do I like the theatre business?
Oh, it's an old story with me. I have been behind the footlights off and on for the past dozen years, and I feel quite at home on the boards. Now mind you I don't pretend to be an actor.
I never saw the prize fighter yet who was a good actor, and I do not believe actors would make good prize fighters."

THINKS JEFFRIES WILL WIN.
When questioned about the coming fight between Jeffries and Fitzsimmons, Mr. Sullivan said:

"It's Jeffries for a certainty. That young fellow is altogether too big for Fitzsimmons, and although there is no doubt but that the old boy will give him the fight of his life, Jeffries ought to win without much bother. He has got a tremendous advantage over Fitzsimmons in both youth and weight.
This Jeffries is barely 27 years old and, in good fighting shape, will scale nearly 225 pounds. Fitzsimmons, according to good authority, is nearly 47 years old and will weigh under 175 pounds.

"No man in the ring can hit harder than Fitzsimmons, but Jeffries can hit just as hard. Again, 'Fitz' will not be able to get in any fine work on Jeffries' body. That young fellow manages to keep his stomach well under cover with that famous crouch of his, and 'Fitz' will be a thousand times fonder than I give him credit for if he is able to connect with the boiler-maker's lower works.
And it is in the most stomach that 'Fitz's' blows count most.

"You read of Fitzsimmons putting away a man with a punch on the jaw, while Jeffries may have hit the same man on the same spot a number of times and not put him out, and you would wonder how it is. Clear as daylight. Fitz just delivers a few hot wallops into the other fellow's stomach, has a ready recipient for a sleep producer on the jaw.

"If Fitzsimmons could get one or two of his blows on Jeffries' pantry there would be a new champion in about two minutes, but as I said Jeffries is right onto his job and it would take a sheriff with a search warrant and a dark lantern to find out where his stomach is located in a fight."

SOME REMINISCENCES.

Speaking of the old days in the fighting ring Mr. Sullivan said: "Why, nowadays ordinary dubs, who don't know enough about the game to last them over night, come in for purses twice as big as the best men of our day fought for. Yet they can't be sata free trial bottle if you write for it.

SHILOH'S costs 25 cents and will cure Consumption, Pneumonia, Bronchitis and all Lung Troubles. Will cure a cough or cold in a day, and thus prevent serious results.
It has been doing these things for 50 years.
S. C. WILLS & CO., LE ROY, N. Y.

Karl's Clover Root Tea corrects the Stomach isfied to pick up all this easy money but have to 'fake.' Take my word for it, that awful fake that Corbett and Mc-Coy pulled off that sultry August evening, put a damper on the game for a long time in New York and that was not the only fraud pulled off in that city, either."

The big fellow is looking splendid and, as he says, is behaving himself in his old age.

The show has by special engagement, to play the one-act version of "Uncle Tom's Cabin," C. H. Russell, as "Uncle Tom;" Griff Williams, as "Marks;" Patrick Francis Benson, as "The Auctioneer;" and the only John L. Sullivan as "Simon Legree." In this production Mr. Sullivan gives the piece as it should be and was produced in the old original show. In this piece "Simon Legree" is killed by "Marks," the lawyer.

Every one should turn out and give the big fellow a royal welcome. All notices given by the press in towns where this company has shown indorse every act as being above the standard.

Peaceful Settlement Likely.

The following is from the current issue of the United Mine Workers' Journal:

"The anthracite situation is clearing up. Through the superb generalship of President Mitchell and District Presidents Duffy, Nichols and Fahey the onus of a strike, if one occurs, will rest upon the operators. This insures the good will of the public on the side of the miners. Again the Civic Federation has shown that it is a mighty factor for good in an industrial war. That fact can not be gainsayed.

"By its efforts a truce is declared for thirty days, during which time reason will have had time to work out its course upon the operators and cause them to see that there is nothing but justice in the claims of the miners. Reflection will have had time to cool the abrupt anger of the coal kings and cause them to view matters in a different light and be convinced that their 'take it or leave it' is not calculated to insure that peace and harmony necessary to successfully conduct business where there are two parties necessary to that success.

"The operators are to be congratulated upon taking their first step in that direction. The ice has been broken and the rest will come easy. Personal contact with Messrs. Mitchell, Fahey, Nichols and Duffy without doubt convinced them that they had formed misconceptions of those four gentlemen; that they were dealing with men with cool heads and clear ideas; that they were not rash, ignorant or radical, but plain, shrewd, honest men who sought only justice and who would neither take or give less. On the face of affairs there will be no clash in the anthracite region unless the operators refuse to be guided by common sense."

Will Appoint Inspector.

The acceptance of the position of general manager of the Lehigh Valley Coal Company in the Lehigh region by Mine Inspector W. H. Davies will cause a vacancy which will be filled by appointment, not by election, as many miners and others seemed to believe the new law demands.

Mr. Davies was appointed mine inspector last September for a term of five years. His office was filled under the provisions of the old law and his successor, it is asserted, will be named under that act.

An Evening Wedding.

Charles H. Wolfe, of Freeland, and Miss Alice B. Switzgale, of Hazleton, were united in marriage last evening at the home of the bride in the latter city.
The ceremony was performed by Rev.
Dr. Wagner. Victor Oswald, of Freeland, was the best man and Miss Edith Switzgale served in the capacity of bridesmaid. The newly wedded couple will in the course of a few days take possession of their furnished home on West Walnut street.

Harry Bertram, a Beaver Meadow miner, was injured in Cox's colliery at that place on Tuesday and died last night in the Miners hospital. He was 45 years of age and leaves a wife and nine children. The deceased was president of the U. M. W. of A., of Beaver Meadow.

Miss Nellie Brannigan, of Plains, aged 24 years, a young lady known to many Freeland people, died Wednesday evening at the home of her mother at that place, after being ill for a week of peritonitis. She is survived by her mother and two brothers.

The county commissioners of Luzerne and Carbon met at White Haven yesterday and agreed upon plans for the rebuilding of the bridge destroyed by the flood on March 1.

ROUND THE REGION.

Rev. John Armond, a Greek Catholic priest of Olyphant, who was excommunicated by Bishop Hoban for unpatriotic utterances regarding the assassination of President McKinley, was yesterday ordered by Judge John P.
Kelly to surrender possession of the Greek Catholic church property. Father Armond, in addition to being the pastor of the Greek Catholic church at Olyphant, was editor of the "Swoba." Its editorials had an extreme socialistic trend, and after the assassination of President McKinley the "Swoba" apparently sought to extenuate the crime.

The rival organizations of Scranton common council formed Monday morning met last night and for twenty minutes both bodies transacted business in the same room, the rival chairmen sitting side by side and directing the business of the bodies. The greatest confusion prevailed. While one body was passing upon a measure an ordinary would be read before the other.
To end the farce both bodies finally agreed to adjourn.

A letter received by a sister of the late William McGeary, of Shamokin, from the war department yesterday, conveys the information that he was hacked to death by Bolo men on the island of Batangus, P. I., some time ago. He was recognized only by a letter found in his clothing. His body had been cut into scores of pieces. He enlisted May 23, 1900.

The striking mine workers at the Pettebone, Avondale and Woodward collieries of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Company held a meeting yesterday afternoon, and decided to make another proposition for a settlement. The proposition was placed before District Superintendent Baruard.
He will refer it to the general officers.

Wilkesbarre's striking painters and the master painters each met Thursday morning and selected three members to represent them as arbitrators. These six will select a seventh, and the differences will then, it is expected, be quickly adjusted and the strike settled, so that work may be resumed next Monday.

Prof. Ralph Sands, of Bloomsburg normal school, was bitten on the forefinger of the left hand by a rattlesnake which he was feeding. He sucked the poison from the wound, but the finger became much swollen and for a time feared for his recovery were entertained.

After being despondent for some years, Jacob Place hanged himself at the residence of his brother at Post Hills yesterday morning. He was for ten years superintendent of the poorhouse at Ransom.

The wedding of Miss Mae Florence Burgunder, of Wilkesbarre, and Napoleon B. Lobe, of Baltimore, took place last evening. Rev. Marcus Salkman officiated. About 300 guests were present.

Adolph Blau was yesterday convicted in Lackawanna criminal court of ticket scalping. The prosecutor was Mark Smith, district passenger agent of the Lackawanna Railroad.

The body of James Boyle, of Plymouth, who was killed during the war in China, has arrived at his former home. Boyle was a marine on the battleship Kentucky.

The quarantine on the Valley hotel, the last house in Luzerne borough to contain a case of smallpox, was lifted yesterday.

DRIFTON.

The Traction Company's bridge at the wooden shanty was condemned recently and yesterday a large force of workmen were at work repairing and strengthening the structure. During the time passengers were transferred from a car which remained on the Freeland side.
Electric lights were placed in position yesterday and work was continued last night. Cars are being run over the bridge today.

The engagement of Charles Rohland and Miss Mame Edmunds, two well known young people of town, has been announced.

Misses Annie Collins and Agnes Kelley returned Wednesday evening after spending a pleasant week at Atlantic City.

The funeral of the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Digon took place yesterday afternoon. Interment was made at Freeland cemetery.

Geneve, a daughter of John McElwee, and Ellen, a daughter of John Hughes, are ill with pneumonia.

Mrs. William Hause left for Pittston
yesterday.

Last Sunday's meeting was well attended, considering the bad weather.
Next Sunday's devotional meeting will be conducted by Prof. C. M. Crawford.
All men and boys are cordially invited to be present.

It has been decided to build a tennis court, hand-ball alley, and croquet ground as soon as the weather will permit.

The property committee expects to beautify the grounds soon. Shrubbery, rose bushes, etc., will be acceptable.

COUNTY COURT.

The grand jury yesterday found the fifth indictment for murder since it convened on Monday afternoon, breaking all previous records of the court. Two more murder cases are to be considered.
The last indictments were against Jos.
Machutis and Anthony Muscavage, who are wanted for the murder of Stanley Molensky.

D. J. McCarthy, Esq., has been appointed master in chancery in the case
