HIBERNIANS' NIGHT OUT

Successful Affair Conducted by the A. O. H.

Members of Divisions 6 and 19 and Their Lady Friends Enjoy a Banquet and Dance Last Evening.

The most successful affair yet conducted by the Ancient Order of Hibernians of Freeland took place last evening, when the banquet and dance under the auspices of the members of Divisions 6 and 19 was held. Accompanied by their wives and lady friends, the members assembled at Krell's hall between 8 and 9 o'clock. St. Ann's band entertained the assemblage until 9.15, when the grand march was formed, led by State Secretary John P. Gibbons, of Hudson, and Miss Mary Ellen Carr, of Highland.

At the conclusion of the march, in which over 200 couples participated, the announcement was made that Mrs.
DeFoy, proprietress of the Osborne hotel, was ready to accommodate 250 people at the banquet tables, and this number departed and enjoyed the sumptuous supper prepared for the occasion.
An hour later a number almost as large as before was served, and at both sittings the tables were surrounded by as jolly a crowd of people as were ever gathered together in Freeland.

The banquet room was prettily decorated and profusely lighted. The tables bore an inviting aspect and were loaded with the very finest of the season's delicacies. Notwithstanding the large number of people present the corps of attendants gave admirable service.

The guests of the evening were Mr.
Gibbons, the state secretary, and Rev.
M. J. Fallibee, of town, and Rev. William O'Hara, of Eckley. County President E. J. Moore, Esq., was unavoidably absent by being detained with a court case, and Rev. John L. Moore was summoned yesterday to the bedside of his mother in Ashland.

At Krell's hall the stars and stripes were tastefully arranged with the green and gold of Ireland, and the whole gave the building an artistic appearance.
Above the stage the Gaelic words, "Cead Milla Faultha" (A Hundred Thousand Welcomes), greeted each corner, and with the beautiful silk banners and flags of the divisions the dancers enjoyed themselves amid surroundings which left no room for improvement.

During the intermission President John F. Shovlin, of Division 19, introduced State Secretary Gibbons, who gave an entertaining address on the origin, history and principles of the organization, and congratulated the Freeland members, on behalf of the state officers, on their success.

The singing of "The Manchester Martyrs" and "Mavourneen" by Patrick Heaney and "The Banks of the Loo" by W. J. Boyle followed the address.

Further amusement was given by the dancing of an eight-hand Irish reel, which was enthusiastically applauded.
The regular dance program was resumed after the intermission and continued until 3 a. m., when all departed for their homes, well pleased with the first Hibernian night that Freeland has been given.

Applying for a Rehearing.

The friends of Thomas Harcur, who was convicted in Schuylkill county courts on the charge of participating in the conflict between mine strikers and deputized coal and iron police, at Onida, on October 10, 1900, have applied for a rehearing before the State Board of Pardons. The board will likely meet next Wednesday, when the application will be considered by the members.

Harcur is confined in Schuylkill prison, serving the sentence imposed on him by the court. The reports from the institution indicate that his health is badly broken and that he is nearing his end. Unless the Pardon Board takes favorable action he is likely to die. His friends have determined to make a final effort to obtain his release, and will place before the board evidence of his physical condition.

The man's family resides at Onida yet, and it is said the wife and four children are in very poor circumstances.
Neighbors and the United Mine Workers have contributed to their support since Harcur was taken to jail, but this is not a satisfactory living to any family and the Harcurs pine for their natural provider, who, if given his freedom, will be able to regain his health and give them the support they should have.

The case is one which deserves favorable consideration at the hands of the pardoning power of the state, and the charitably inclined of our readers can give aid to a worthy cause by petitioning the board, individually or collectively, to grant the pardon of Harcur.

Justice has been fully satisfied in this man's case, whose only crime was that he would not betray his fellow-workers, even when his own life was placed in jeopardy.

Operators Invite Trouble.

The following notice was posted yesterday at Drifton collieries and is occasioning much comment among the mine employes at that place:

Mining Office, Drifton,
April 16, 1902.

Notice to All Employes of the Mining Department:

It has lately occurred that men who did not understand their checks, or intend to make a claim for supposed error, made an organization their spokesman—generally a society does not know anything about their case, and notice is hereby given that any claim must be made through the mine foreman in charge, or at the mining office.

I shall disregard any claims made otherwise.
Edgar Kudlick,
Mining Engineer.

Markle & Co.'s employes will meet tonight at Jeddo to consider several grievances which are said to exist in the collieries of that firm. It is alleged that the officials have persistently ignored all efforts to settle the matters in dispute and that the trouble has now reached a point which demands action.

To the Last Resting Place.

The funeral of Mrs. William Russell, whose death was announced in Wednesday's Tribune, will take place at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon from her residence in Eckley. Services will be conducted at the house and at Eckley Reformed church by Rev. J. B. Kerschner, of town, after which the remains will be interred at Eckley cemetery.

The remains of the late William Mc-Tague, of Drifton, were followed to St.
Ann's church yesterday morning by a very large number of friends and acquaintances, and at the conclusion of the requiem mass read by Father Moore the interment was made at St. Ann's cemetery.

At 9 o'clock this morning the remains of the late Patrick Furey were taken to St. Ann's church from the family home on South Centre street. The funeral and requiem mass was attended by large numbers of the young man's friends.

Republican Primaries.

The Republicans of the Fourth legislative district will elect delegates at each poll tomorrow afternoon to attend the district convention at Hazleton on Monday. The delegates will nominate the legislative candidate of the party and will also select two delegates and two alternates to the Republican state convention.

In view of the Elkin-Quay split much interest is attached to the convention, as both sides are anxious to secure the district's delegates.

In Freeland a bitter fight is being waged by the factions of the party and the result of the voting here will not be known until the ballots are counted. In some wards as high as six candidates for delegate to the convention are soliciting support.

Determined Truant Officer.

The truant officer of Nanticoke, P. J.
Fisher, is a determined official and he means to have the law obeyed to the letter even if he is compelled to fill the county prison with heads of families who refuse to comply with its provisions.
Mr. Fisher has had trouble with two or three citizens of that place owing to their neglect in keeping their children in school.

Fisher swore out a warrant for the arrest of August Deya on the charge of disregarding the law by keeping his child from school. Deya was taken before Justice Robbins and was fined $2 and costs. He refused to obey and was sentenced to two days in the county prison. He was taken to Wilkesbarre and lodged behind the bars.

Buck Mountain Visitors.

Mrs. James McGinty and Miss Rose Gillespie enjoyed a drive to Buck Mountain yesterday.

James E. Griffith was at Buck Mountain yesterday.

Condy O. Boyle and T. P. McAndrews made a business trip to Buck Mountain yesterday.

Bernard Miles was run over and instantly killed by the Black Diamond express at Lehigh. Miles was aged 16 years, was an orphan and recently arrived from the South. He had no friends at Lehigh.

ROUND THE REGION.

According to the statement of the Eastern organizations of the railroad employes there is likely to be trouble on the Jersey Central road in a short time unless existing differences are speedily adjusted. The telegraphers say there has been a very plain attempt made to drive the Central members from the brotherhood. If this is continued or if further steps are taken in any direction against the organization, so it is stated, the matter will be taken up by the federated brotherhoods, and one of the most serious strikes ever seen in the Lehigh valley will be the result.

The members of the Hazleton Driving Association have decided to make many improvements at their Mt. Laurel Driving Park and from present indications there will be racing there this season. They have a number of fast horses and, with others from the lower end and many from the upper end, they expect to be able to give a three-day meeting some time during the season.

A few days ago the Jersey Central telegraph stations at Ashley, White Haven, Bethlehem, High Bridge and Jersey City were changed to dispatchers' offices. The men in charge were then notified that dispatchers were not supposed to be union men. John Nelligan, chairman of the grievance committee, applied for leave of absence to lay the matter before the road officials and he was discharged. Trouble may follow.

The places of half the striking miners at the Jersey colliery were filled with forty emergency men collected by the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Company between Wilkes-barre and Scranton and they were able to check the progress of the fire toward the Avondale colliery. By doing extra work they will, it is expected, be able to save the mine.

Nanticoke Clerks' Association has adopted a novel method of promoting the custom of having the people ask for union cards when purchasing. Each clerk, when asked, will give the purchaser a ticket, and the association will give to the one holding the largest number of tickets within a month a dining room suite.

Charles E. Straw, of Wilkesbarre, and Miss Cala E. Brundage, daughter of Dr.
F. M. Brundage, United States consul at Aix La Chapelle, were married Wednesday evening at the home of the bride, in Conyngham. The wedding was a quiet one, only a few near relatives and close friends being present.

The remains of Patrick Curly, a Lehigh Valley section foreman, were found on the tracks near Sugar Notch yesterday morning. He was evidently killed during the night. Deceased is survived by his wife, six sons and three daughters. The funeral took place this morning at White Haven.

John Jermyn, the millionaire coal operator of Scranton, who is dangerously ill at Pasadena, Cal., will be brought home if possible. The physicians announce that the climate of California disagrees with him and that the only hope of prolonging his existence lies in removal from that state.

James Fordham, who was the solo survivor of Battery F, Third Pennsylvania Heavy Artillery, and who while a non-commissioned officer, had charge of the men who guarded Jefferson Davis when he was a prisoner of war, died at Pittston yesterday, aged 70 years.

John Duke and Peter Bickett died yesterday from smallpox at Mt. Carmel.
The Board of Health has issued orders to close schools, churches and places of public gatherings at once, and saloon-keepers were warned to discontinue all loading in their places of business.

A. Oswald has the agency for the celebrated Elysian's extracts and perfumery.
The finest goods made. Try them.

Walter Strack, a Hazleton youth, while playing ball fell and fractured his skull. Yesterday morning he died from his injuries.

Because of the rise of water in the slope, the operation of Morea colliery, near Mahanoy City, has been suspended indefinitely.

DRIFTON.

Miss Sarah Rohrbach tendered a party to a number of invited guests on Wednesday evening, in honor of her birthday anniversary.

William Jones has resigned his position as butcher at Drifton and will go farming near White Haven.

Mrs. James M. Reagan entertained her Sunday school class at her home on Wednesday evening.

The breaker boys at their meeting on Wednesday evening received the union buttons and are wearing the same on their working hats.

There will be a regular meeting of the St. Ann's Cadets on Sunday morning.
