HARVEY WINS NOMINATION

Named for the Legislature by the Republicans.

Convention This Afternoon Chooses the Ex-Sheriff as the Candidate for Representative in This District.

Ex-Sheriff James G. Harvey, of Hazleton, was chosen this afternoon by the Republicans of the Fourth Luzerne legislative district as their candidate for the legislature.

The convention was held in Hazleton, Hazleton, and was well attended by the party politicians of the district.
Harvey was opposed at the primaries on Saturday evening by ex-Representative W. R. Jeffrey, of Hazleton. The latter obtained less than one-third of the delegates.

Harvey and Jeffrey were placed in nomination at the convention, but the latter's name was withdrawn before a ballot was taken.
For delegates to the Republican state convention John Gernhart, of Hazleton, and Thomas Edmunds, of Drifton, were chosen without opposition, S. J. Neuburger withdrawing before a ballot was taken.

For alternates to the state convention H. E. Hoffman and S. J. Neuburger, of Freeland, and L. C. Miekler, of Jeanev-ille, were named. The vote was: Neuburger, 33%; Hoffman, 34%; Miekler, 16.

For permanent chairman H. P. Kuntz, of Hazleton, defeated Walter Richards, of Freeland, 28% to 18%.

Jacob Williams, of Hazleton, was chosen permanent secretary.

The resolutions instruct the delegates to vote for Elkin for governor, endorse the national and state administrations, commend Congressman Palmer's course in congress and welcome Senator Drury to the fold again.

The delegate elections in Freeland were bitterly contested on Saturday evening. The legislative contest was lost sight of here in the battle for state delegate. The contestants for the latter honor were Thomas Edmunds, of Drifton, and S. J. Neuburger, of town. In the Fourth ward a hard fight was made, which resulted in a tie.

The Republicans of the town exhibited unusual interest in the voting, and when the results were announced the bitter feeling engendered was increased and culminated yesterday in a fistie encounter which was aired in a local court this morning.

"My Girl," Have You Seen Her?

In commenting upon a recent performance given at Catskill, N. Y., of the musical comedy, "My Girl," by Wills and Johnson and their clever company, the Daily Mail has the following to say:

"Wills and Johnson and an excellent company appeared at the Nelliga theatre last evening in the musical farce comedy 'My Girl' and played to one of the largest houses of the season. As early as 8 o'clock every seat was filled and standing room was at a premium, while a large crowd was turned away unable to gain admittance. The performance was one of the best seen in Catskill in a long while and the company deserve great praise for their excellent work. Wills and Johnson are a great team of fun makers and kept the audience in roars of laughter. The company ably supported them in their clever work. The singing was far above the average and the piece was staged in a handsome manner. The costumes were beautiful and the ladies of the company young and pretty."

The above company will appear at the Grand opera house Wednesday evening.

K. of M. C. Prizes.

Major General W. D. Low, of Pittsburg, on behalf of the select castle of the Knights of Mystic Chain, has made the following announcement relative to the prizes which will be offered at the state convention of the order, which will be held here next September:

Grievances Presented.

An open air mass meeting of the employees of G. B. Markle & Co. was held near Japan school house on Friday evening. District President Duffy and National Board Member Gallagher were present, and made addresses, counselling the men to use all possible peaceful means to secure redress. One person from each slope was appointed to serve as a committee to wait on Superintendent Smith next morning, to present grievances and ask that they be remedied.
These grievances are the topping of cars, cleaning coal and demanding the reinstatement of the men suspended during the week.

The committee had a conference Saturday morning with Mr. Smith. There is a considerable list of grievances, and the superintendent requested time to look over and consider them. The miners are anxiously awaiting the firm's answer.

Church Anniversary.

The twenty-fifth anniversary of the dedication of St. Luke's Lutheran church is now being celebrated by the congregation with appropriate exercises.
The church was dedicated April 22, 1877. The services began yesterday, when the pastor, Rev. J. J. Kuntz, delivered sermons suitable to the occasion at both morning and evening services.

This evening Rev. A. Spalde, D. D.
LL. D., of Philadelphia, who was present at the dedication twenty-five years ago, will officiate. Rev. W. M. Rehrig, Ph. D., of Mauch Chunk, will preach on Tuesday evening; on Wednesday, Rev.
J. O. Schlenker, of Hazleton, will preach in the German language. Thursday evening, Rev. N. M. Schmidt, of Schwenksville, will be in charge of the service. Rev. Schmidt is a son of the late Rev. Schmidt, first pastor of the church.

Opera House Bids.

The time set by the Young Men's Corps for the closing of the proposals for the leasing of the Grand opera house expired on Saturday evening, and at yesterday's meeting of the society the bids, two in number, were opened.

Owen Fowler, publisher of the Progress, offered $600 a year for the auditorium, and $100 extra for the meeting room on the third floor. The proposition stated that he would prefer the auditorium alone.

U. S. Hill, of Ohio, at one time manager of Kitty Rhodes, offered $600 a year for the auditorium.

As both parties offered the same amount for the same privileges, the society postponed definite action until the next regular meeting, to be held on May 4.

Recent Weddings.

Daniel E. O'Donnell, of Freeland, and Miss Mary Boyle, of Hazleton, were quietly married in the latter city last week. The bride is the daughter of Denis Boyle, of North Wyoming street.
They will take up their residence in Freeland.

Henry Stark and Miss Sarah Porter, both of town, were married on Saturday evening by Rev. J. J. Kuntz at the home of the bride in the Second ward.

Anthony Lutz and Miss Mary Fierro, of Freeland, were married at St. Anthony's church by Rev. Longo on Saturday morning.

Additional locals on the fourth page.

ROUND THE REGION.

Oliver Purvis, a watchman at the First National bank, of Wilkesbarre, was shot and killed in the pay office of the Lehigh and Wilkesbarre Coal Company, over the bank, at 7 o'clock last evening.
Whether he committed suicide or was killed by a man who had entered the office is not certain. The street outside was crowded at the time with churchgoers, and the shot was plainly heard.
A moment after, while people were looking around to see where it was, a young man appeared at the door of the building, and in a great hurry sprang down the steps and was lost in the crowd.

C. W. Kline, Hazleton; J. J. Snyder, Allentown; S. H. Gangwere, Weatherly; S. Duesy, Harrisburg, and N. B. Ritter, Wilkesbarre, appointed to view the bridge at White Haven, have completed their work and decided to recommend to the state the construction of a new steel bridge to replace the one destroyed.
The viewers recommend an expenditure of $18,000.

The Wilkesbarre Sunday Dispatch, a newspaper established eight months ago, suspended publication yesterday. The proprietors were Sol Bacharach, executive clerk for Governor Stone, and W.
B. McGuire. A difference of opinion as to whether the paper should be for Watres or Elkin caused a controversy which ended the paper's career.

After an investigation into the death of James O'Brien, at Ashland, the authorities have dismissed the charge against Thomas J. Joyce, editor of the Daily American, who was accused of assaulting O'Brien. A post-mortem examination showed that O'Brien's death was due to diseases of the heart.

The contract for the construction of the Tamaqua and Lansford Street Railway's extension between Nesquehoning and Mauch Chunk, a distance of five miles, was awarded on Friday, and work will be commenced at once.

The wages of the moulders at the Vulcan Iron Works, Wilkesbarre, have been increased 15 cents a day to $2.65.
A similar increase has been given to the moulders employed by the same company at Tamaqua.

E. A. Niven, late editor of the Wilkes-barre Sunday Dispatch, has left that paper to become the editor and publisher of the Wilkesbarrean, a new candidate for public favor which made its appearance yesterday. A feature of the new publication is that no paper will be sold or subscription solicited until September 1. It will be circulated free of charge until that time.

Illegal Fishers Fined.

Dr. W. W. Peeler, of White Haven, John Each, of Lehighton, and Charles D. Remaly, of Weatherly, were arrested on Friday by Fish Warden Hugh Malloy, charged with catching fish under six inches long in Hazle creek. Dr. Peeler had 8 trout in his possession which were less than the required length. Mr. Each 9, and Mr. Remaly 31. The fine is $10 for each fish. The two latter were unable to pay the fine, which was imposed by Squire Best, of East White Haven, and were committed to Mauch Chunk jail. Dr. Peeler paid his fine today under protest.

On Saturday morning the warden learned that the men had been released by the justice and he made another visit to the East White Haven court. The squire claimed that his action was the result of advice furnished by Attorney Kline. Mr. Malloy gave him until tomorrow morning to recapture Each and Remaly and place them in jail, otherwise the justice will be prosecuted.
Squire Best promised to have the men in prison as soon as possible.

First Show of the Season.

Lowrey Bros.' New Olympia Shows will exhibit at Freeland on Thursday, April 24. The show comes with many new and novel features, only to be seen hibited. Nobody can afford to miss the wonderful acrobatic performance of Baby Irene, who is known the world over as the youngest and most clever child contortionist now appearing in public. This little performer is only 6 years of age. All those who delight in daring acts should not fail to see Prof.

McDade make his balloon ascension on the show grounds daily. Prices: Children, 10 cents; adults, 20 cents. Two performances, afternoon and evening.

Delegates Elected.

The Young Men's C. T. A. B. Corps yesterday elected Charles Shovlin and John Meehan, of town, and Patrick Collins, of Drifton, to represent the society at the C. T. A. U. convention of the Scranton diocese, to be held next month at Olyphant.

Rev. John L. Moore, spiritual director of the society, will also attend the convention.
