UPPER LEHIGH.

The Upper Lehigh Coal Company is preparing to do extensive stripping on its property during the coming summer. The steam shovel operated by the company has been started and the contractors are expected to be operating the shovel at No. 6 in a short time.

Miss Lizzie Stoker, of Upper Lehigh, has received a handsome organ as a birthday gift from her father, William Stoker.

Misses Jeanette Keenan and Mame Reilly, of Upper Lehigh, are visiting New York relatives this week.

DRIFTON.

The Philadelphia carpenters employed in placing bath-rooms and tile floors in Dr. Geo. S. Wentz's residence will complete their work this week.

James North left this morning for Wilkes-Barre.

Mrs. John Gallagher, of No. 1, is dangerously ill at her home.

PLEASURE.

April 26.—Lecture by Hon. John G. Woodley at the Grand opera house; subject, "My Own Country." Admission, 25 cents.

THE PRESIDENT

Of the City Council, Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Cured of Rheumatism.

Col. Wm. J. Harvey, a president of Wilkes-Barre's city council, who will long be remembered for his great work for the city, was once a mere physical wreck, torn in every muscle and nerve from the frightful pains caused by rheumatism. He consulted the best physicians, went abroad, took mud baths, and almost every known treatment for the disease. One of the city officials had had a very similar experience and Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy had cured him, so he recommended this great kidney medicine to his friend, and Col. Harvey is today a well man, hale and hearty. In his own abrupt way he states his case:

DR. DAVID KENNEDY,
Dear Sir:—This to certify that I was permanently cured of rheumatism by the use of Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy.

WM. J. HARVEY.

Nothing could be more direct or more to the point than this simple statement. Rheumatism is but another name for uric acid poisoning which is caused primarily by diseased kidneys. Cure your kidneys and the rheumatism disappears.

For all diseases of the kidneys, liver, bladder and blood, rheumatism, dyspepsia and chronic constipation, as well as sicknesses peculiar to women, Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy is unquestionably the greatest medicine known to the medical profession.

All druggists sell it at $1 a bottle, or 6 bottles for $5—less than a cent a dose.

Sample bottle—enough for trial, free by mail.

SHORT TALKS

Brief Comment On Political and Other Matters of Public Interest.

The London Times admits that horses and mules furnish the key to the situation in South Africa, and for these horses and mules they depend on their agents in the United States. The animals are furnished by this republic to be used for the unholy purpose of crushing out two other republics in South Africa, and in plain violation of the treaty between the United States and England. The treaty of 1871 provides that each, as a neutral ground, "is bound not to permit or suffer either belligerent to make use of its own ports or waters for the purpose of re-ports or augmentation of military supplies." In plain violation of this treaty and the still plainer violation of the sentiment of justice, freedom and humanity, our government has knowingly permitted these supplies to be furnished to England while turning a deaf ear to the Boers, who are engaged in fighting as holy a cause as that which our forefathers waged against the same oppressor in 1776. Where is our boasted spirit of freedom and fairness? Our orators shouted themselves hoarse and our editors dipped their pens in blood to proclaim against the cruelties of Spain toward Cuba and to urge our government to declare against such inhumanity; yet we allow England to perpetrate worse horrors against a better people without a word of protest except on the part of a few who are termed "Aunties" or "Grandmothers." In fact, we are committing the same outrage ourselves against the same people that Spain was trying to hold in submission by the bayonet. "Oh, shame, where is thy blush?"

Philadelphia once in a while gets a move on to show that her sense of justice is not entirely dead, though the crimes that are boldly perpetrated in the Quaker City against good government would lead to the opinion that justice is not only blind, but deaf, dumb and paralyzed. A few days ago a negro killed a woman and two children. The crime was committed on Tuesday at 11 o'clock, and he was arrested the same afternoon. The coroner on Thursday at 10.55 committed the negro to await the action of the grand jury. At 1.30 on Friday the grand jury indicted him for murder, and at 1.55 he was arraigned before the court for trial. He pleaded guilty, and within an hour, after a few witnesses were heard, he was sentenced to death and a messenger was on the way to Harrisburg to ask Governor Stone to fix an early day for the execution. This unseemly haste in dealing with a black villain would not deserve notice did it not stand out in strong contrast with Philadelphia's usual method of dealing with many of her white villains. Crimes such as that committed by negro Lane are so revolting that they quicken the public sense and render it more keenly alive to the horrible character of such assaults against society; but the many flagrant crimes against good government in the Quaker City seem to have so deadened the public conscience that good citizens condone the offenses and help to keep the perpetrators in public office instead of driving them from the places they disgrace. If Philadelphia's justice will now take hold of those who are plundering the city in various ways and stuffing ballot boxes to defeat the public will, all will be forgiven.

Two Good Whist Hands.

Once upon a time two young men and two young women were playing whist, and quite frequently one of the young men and one of the young women found that their fingers were intertwined under the table, out of sight.

This finger contact did not in the least disconcert them—in fact, they appeared to enjoy the play much more than did the other young woman and young man.

Moral.—The enjoyment of the game depends on the hands that are held.—New York Herald.

All Over Again.

"Here are half a dozen prescriptions I would like to have you fill as soon as you can," wheezed Rivers.

"I can see they are all for the cure of a cold," remarked the druggist, looking them over.

"It's this way," explained Rivers. "When I had the other cold, I tried all these. One of 'em cured me, but I can't remember now, confound it, which one it was!"—Chicago Tribune.

Her Decision.

"Whatever my daughter decides upon, sir, I will abide by."

"Good! She has decided that she will marry me if you will supply the means."—Detroit Free Press.

Education.

Many a man goes around looking for trouble, and the minute he meets it he has a hurry call in another direction.—Chicago News.

What sculpture is to a block of marble education is to a human soul. The philosopher, the saint and the hero, the wise, the good and the great man very often lie hid and concealed in a plebeian, which a proper education might have disinterred and brought to light.—Addison.

OLD FASHIONED.

What has become of the old fashioned woman who said, "Oh, now you hush?"

What has become of the old fashioned man who had his picture taken in lodge regalia?

What has become of the old fashioned woman who wore a long gold chain around her neck?

What has become of the old fashioned woman who did things in three slakes of a lamb's tail?

What has become of the old fashioned woman who referred to the best room in her house as "the room?"

What has become of the old fashioned home where the children sat with their noses at the window every night watching for their father?

What has become of the old fashioned girl who, as soon as she became engaged, got out her crochet needle and began to make her own trimmings?—Achtson Globe.

Took the Hint.

A story is told of a certain English bishop well known for his verbosity who rose to address the house of lords on a very important occasion. "I will divide my speech under twelve heads," he said, to the discomfort of his audience.

The Marquis of Salisbury begged to be allowed to interpose with a little anecdote. "A friend of mine was returning home late one night," he said, "when opposite St. Paul's he saw an intoxicated man trying to ascertain the time on the big clock there. Just then it began to strike and slowly tolled out 12. The man listened, looked hard at the clock and said: 'Confound you, why couldn't you have said that all at once?'"

The bishop heartily joined in the laughter which followed and took the hint contained in the story.

Lattimer Monument Fund.

From the Wilkes-Barre Record.

Louis N. Hemmerling, of this city, is still industriously engaged in soliciting funds for the erection of a monument to the memory of the men who were killed at Lattimer, in this county, during the mine strike a couple of years ago. The following subscriptions have so far been received:

Dr. F. C. Johnson, of the Record, $5; J. C. Powell, of the Record, $5; Central Labor Union of Wilkes-Barre, $50; James H. Shea, $5.

The treasurer is W. G. Saha, Box 4, Wilkes-Barre, and he is authorized to receive contributions. Mr. Hemmerling has sent out above five hundred letters to well known people throughout the county asking for contributions. The miners' locals and other labor organizations are also expected to give something to swell the fund.

It is proposed to have the monument erected in the court house square in Wilkes-Barre and it is to cost between $5,000 and $10,000. It is to be up by next Labor Day, the tenth of September, and is to be dedicated with one of the largest parades ever held in Wilkes-Barre. Mr. Hemmerling says it will be a great day for Wilkes-Barre.

BREVITIES.

None of the engineers and pumpmen at the Woodward, Pettobone and Avondale collieries of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Railroad Company went on strike on Friday. They were ordered to do so by the United Mine Workers, under pain of dismissal from the union if they refused. They will now, it is said, be ejected from the union.

A dynamite cap in a cook stove at the home of Mrs. Frank Hertzog, of Shamokin, exploded. The blaze set fire to her clothing and the carpets. She was rescued by neighbors, who also extinguished the fire. The stove was blown to atoms. The explosive was hidden in the coal, which she was pouring into the stove.
