NO ATTEMPT MADE TO WORK

Operators Deny That They Are Ready to Resume.

Yesterday's Heavy Rains Did Much Damage to Collieries in This Vicinity and Several Are Flooded.

The rumors that have been current for a few days past that the operators would make an attempt to resume operations this week are denied by the general superintendents and others in charge of the workings. In this vicinity Coxie Bros. & Co., it was said, would make an effort to mine coal tomorrow. The report had it that their colliery whistles will blow for work this evening. In conversation with a Drifton official this morning the Tribune was assured that the company has no intention to resume for the present.

Whether these denials are true or false, time and the operators alone can tell. It is certain, however, that several of the mines are now in no condition for miners to enter. Yesterday's incessant rains, which fell steadily from early morning until night, did much damage to the surrounding workings, and if the owners had any intention to resume this week it was soon dispelled, as the inexperienced men who are at the pumps were unable to keep out the water which flowed in.

The strikers, apparently, were determined not to be caught napping, and this morning found large bodies of them on all roads leading to collieries where non-unionists are at work.

Upper Lehigh boiler-houses were visited at an early hour, and when the crowd departed the men who were employed at the boilers and pumps were missing and did not return for several hours. It is said that an altercation between strikers and a man employed on the new trolley road in the valley took place on Butler hill.

ROADS TO DRIFTON GUARDED. All roads leading to Drifton collieries were strongly guarded from 4 to 7 o'clock, and only those whom the strikers had agreed to permit work passed the picket lines.

Several of those who, when stopped and asked to go home, agreed to do so, but tried to reach their destination via circuitous routes. After finding that the strikers' line extended from Butler hill to Sandy Run the effort to get to Drifton before 7 a. m. was abandoned.

On South Ridge street, below the borough line, fourteen coal and iron police were stationed to escort men to Drifton, but their task was an easy one, as none but clerks, train-runners and the D. S. & S. passenger-train crew crossed the line.

The police wore the regulation blue uniform and military caps. Each man carried a large revolver in his left hip-pocket, but did not make any ostentatious display of the weapon. They were accompanied by Superintendent John Rehlands, Deputy Sheriff Jacob Zeist-loff and three Drifton clerks.

Laubach's bakery wagon, en route to the D. S. & S. station with the daily consignment of bread and cakes for Onedia and Shepton, was met on South Ridge street, and, under the impression that the food was destined for the coal and iron police and workers at Drifton, the strikers induced the driver to return.

SHERIFF JACOBS IN TOWN.

Sheriff A. H. Jacobs, of Hazleton, arrived on the scene on the first trolley car from Hazleton. Finding many of the pickets lined along the Lehigh Valley Railroad, and the coal and iron police, within a few feet of them on South Ridge street, the sheriff quickly decided that the two forces should be placed further apart. There were no signs of disorder or trouble, but knowing that the best of feeling does not exist between the police and the pickets the decision of the sheriff was for the best interests of all concerned.

He promptly notified the police to retreat to Coxie addition, as their presence at the railroad tracks was unnecessary. Then he notified the pickets to return to the borough streets, at the same time cautioning them against breaking the peace in any manner. Both parties immediately obeyed the officer and the morning's work ended in a victory for the strikers.

JUSTICES RECEIVE NOTICES.

The justices of the peace of Freeland

MISCELLANEOUS ADVERTISEMENTS.

FOR SALE—Pine plot of ground, 50x150 feet, with two single residences, stable, outbuildings, etc.; will sell all or part. Apply to William Higgins, Freeland.

borough and Foster township were served this morning with notices from the law firm of Kline, Smith & Bigelow, of Hazleton, attorneys for the following firms and companies: G. B. Markie & Co., Lehigh Valley Coal Company, Coxie Bros. & Co., J. S. Wentz & Co., M. S. Kennermer & Co., Upper Lehigh Coal Company, Estate of A. S. VanWickie, Pardee Sons & Co., Pardee Bros. & Co., A. Pardee & Co., C. M. Dodson & Co. and C. Pardee & Co.

The notices call attention to the authority of justices of the peace in dispersing unlawful assemblies and say that since the inception of the present labor difficulties there have been riotous, tumultuous and unlawful assemblages of persons, who have intimidated employees going to and returning from work, and by reason of their large numbers have deterred other employees from pursuing their avocation.

The justices are then requested to preserve the peace and order within their jurisdiction by dispersing unlawful assemblages and afford to the employees of the companies above named protection from assaults, threats, etc., and to give protection to their operations.

MITCHELL REACHES CHICAGO.

President Mitchell yesterday arrived at Chicago and will be there several days. When asked the object of his visit to Chicago, Mr. Mitchell said he came to settle several questions in dispute in the Illinois coal fields, which had been referred to Commissioner Horner Just, of the Illinois Operators' Association, and himself. These matters, he thought, would be disposed of today.

Mr. Mitchell will go to Saginaw, Mich., Tuesday, to meet the miners' officials of Michigan and the operators of that state, with view to settling the strike, which has been in progress there since last April.

President Mitchell denied emphatically the story current in some quarters that his visit to Illinois was connected with divorce proceedings to be brought. His marital relations, he declared, were amicable. Mitchell said he would prosecute the newspapers which published the story.

CONSPIRACY CHARGED.

Warrants were sworn out at Pottsville on Saturday by Attorneys John T. Lonahan, of Wilkesbarre, and W. J. Whitehouse and S. H. Kaercher, of Pottsville, for the arrest of John J. Hudock, John Ernst, Stephen Drosdick, Edward Malloy and others, charging them with conspiracy to prevent merchants at Shepton and Onedia from selling goods to Arthur Donahoe, a machinist, and Thomas McNamara, a foreman, and other non-union men employed at Coxie Bros. & Co.'s collieries, except at exorbitant prices.

This is said to be the first of a series of suits against boycotts which are to be brought in the Schuylkill region.

MISCELLANEOUS NOTES.

Made angry by the jeers of boys, guards employed at the Glenwood colliery, at Mayfield, fired into the crowd and wounded John Quinn, who chanced to walk out of a barber shop at the time. Quinn, who is 20 years old, is now at Cardonade hospital with a bullet hole through the left leg. The shooting took place at 11.30 o'clock Saturday night. Five guards are under arrest.

The operators have issued a statement alleging that many of the strikers are applying for their old places, and that two-thirds of the collieries could be opened if proper protection could be afforded. The strike leaders say that this is an effort to frighten the men, but will not succeed.

Mrs. William Mitchell, wife of the fire boss at No. 11 colliery, Plymouth, who is working, was fined $11.25 yesterday for firing off a revolver. A mob had congregated in front of her residence, and she fired two shots from an upper story window, thinking to frighten them away.

James Davis, superintendent of the West Pittston Congregational Sunday school, has resigned because the scholars in the school refused to attend its sessions, as he is a non-union man employed at the Exeter colliery.

James Anderson, a coal and iron policeman, stationed at the Nottingham colliery, Plymouth, accidentally shot himself in the stomach yesterday. He was removed to Wilkesbarre hospital, and small hopes are entertained for his recovery.

Owing to the small number of employees who responded for work this morning, Drifton shops were compelled to close.

Joseph Frankel, a liquor dealer at Plymouth, has filed a $10,000 damage suit against the borough for failing to protect him against a boycott resulting from an effigy hung in front of his place of business.

A. Oswald has the agency for the celebrated Elysian's extracts and perfumery. The finest goods made. Try them.

Wedding Bells Ringing.

At St. Ann's church at 10 o'clock this morning Neale V. Gallagher, formerly a resident of Sandy Run but now employed at Audenried, was married to Miss Nellie A. Duffy, of Upper Lehigh. The ceremony was performed by Rev. M. J. Fallihee in the presence of several friends of the contracting parties. The groomsmen were Frank Duffy, Upper Lehigh; Joseph Gallagher, Sandy Run, and Daniel Gallagher, Audenried. Misses Maggie Gallagher, Sandy Run; Johanna Duffy, Upper Lehigh, and the bridesmaids.

After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Duffy, Upper Lehigh, which was attended by a number of invited guests.

At 3 o'clock Mr. and Mrs. Gallagher left Hazleton to spend a week in the large cities, and upon their return will make their home at Audenried.

James F. Brennan, of Philadelphia, and Miss Mary Campbell, also of that city, were married this afternoon at St. Ann's church by Rev. M. J. Fallihee. John Kane, of Philadelphia, was groomsmen and Miss Sarah Campbell, a sister of the bride, was bridesmaid. A number of friends of the young couple were present.

After the ceremony the wedding party enjoyed a drive through the surrounding country. Upon their return this evening they will be given a reception at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Campbell, South Centre street.

Mr. and Mrs. Brennan will spend the balance of the week in town, after which they will return to Philadelphia, where they will reside.

New Style of Coining.

Michael Urban, the Polander from Glen Lyon, who was arrested on June 20 for passing counterfeit coins, was given a hearing before Commissioner Hahn and held under $2,000 bail for his appearance at United States court, which convenes in Scranton in October. The defendant was given a partial examination on June 21, but was held under $2,000 bail for a further hearing. The Secret Service officers have in their possession several five and ten-cent coins, which the defendant made, and also have a number of witnesses whom the defendant has tried to pass the coins on. The coins have been largely circulated in Glen Lyon, Mocanqua, Shickshinny and other surrounding towns.

Two large cap bolts or nuts were given in evidence as the machine with which the defendant made the coins. The hole in the nuts is the same diameter as a nickel, and Urban would fill the two nuts with lead, and then put a good coin between them, and get an imitation by pressing it in a vice.

LOCAL NOTES WRITTEN UP

Short Items of Interest to All Readers.

Happenings of the Past Two Days in and Around Freeland Recorded Without Waste of Words.

The new revenue stamp law goes into effect tomorrow. Condy O. Boyle, president of the Freeland Brewing Company, is at Wilkesbarre today securing the new stamps which will go on the brewery's product.

The result of the law examinations held at Wilkesbarre two weeks ago were announced on Saturday. Among the successful first-year students is Hugh A. Shovlin, Esq., of town.

George Shigo, Jerry McGinley and John McGarey, students at East Stroudsburg normal school, and Miss Mamie Hayes, of Bloomsburg normal school, have arrived home.

Gustav Schneider, until recently publisher of the Slavonic Truth, has decided to re-locate at Port Chester, N. Y., and has removed his family to that place.

William M. Powell was on Saturday appointed by President Roosevelt to succeed himself as postmaster of Hazleton.

New delivery wagons have been placed on the road by Butcher Jacob Sosnowski and Beer Agent W. J. Morgan.

Yesterday's rain prevented the several ball games which were scheduled to be played by local clubs.

A Bell telephone has been placed in the business office of James A. Christy.

It has been given out that the Pennsylvania Railroad Company will control the Pottsville iron and steel works, which will resume work shortly after an idleness of five years. It is stated that the bulk of the structural work for the New York city underground road will be done at the plant.

A large sewer is being constructed at Edwardsville and in order that a great many miners may be employed its excavating is being done with two shifts. One commences at 5 a. m. and quits at 12 noon. The other commences at 12 m. and quits at 7 p. m. The wages are 15 cents per hour. About 100 miners are employed.

The mystery surrounding the disappearance of two-year-old Annie Wacjak, of Brodericks, was cleared on Saturday. Her body was found in a swamp two miles from her home. The little one disappeared about a month ago. Her father clung to hope to the last because a fortune teller said that the child had been carried away by a woman.

Paul Urban, once treasurer of Marcy township, a prominent politician and a wealthy man, was sentenced to two years in jail and to pay a fine of $1,211.50 and costs. This is the amount he is accused of failing to turn over to his successor in office as the balance of the township funds. His attorney, in asking for mercy, said Urban got none of the money, and that it was a case of poor bookkeeping. Judge Auten said it would be a lesson to others who held responsible positions.

P. O. S. of A. Officers.

Camp 147, P. O. S. of A., has elected the following officers: President—Levi Dreisbach. Vice president—W. S. Carl. Master of forms—Ollie Koch. Conductor—William Eastwood. Inspector—Charles Missmer. Outer guard—Harry Lessor. Right sentinel—Archie Keers, Jr. Chaplain—Myron Zimmerman. Trustee—Richard Brobst. Delegate to state camp—George Hartig. Delegates to district camp—Jesse A. Alden, William Eastwood, Calvin Zeist-loff, Charles Kroene.

"The Hound of the Baskervilles."

Sherlock Holmes' greatest piece of detective work is done in the new story by Dr. A. Conan Doyle, "The Hound of the Baskervilles." Holmes himself says to Watson his co-worker, "Here at last is a foeman worthy of my steel." The result is a story which, for thrilling interest, stands by itself. From the first discovery of the hound's trail, when the dried-up young doctor brings to Sherlock Holmes the ancient manuscript, to the final scene where the great detective is brought face to face with the monster of the moorland, there is not a sentence that does not carry the reader breathlessly forward. It is a great novel, with a great subject, by a master of the craft. This thrilling story begins in the Philadelphia Press Sunday, July 6. Be sure not to miss it.

JAS. H. MONTGOMERY, M. D.

In a Carefully Prepared Article Recommends Dr. D. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy.

In a recent issue of the New York Magazine of Sanitation and Hygiene, the recognized authority on all matters pertaining to health, James H. Montgomery, M. D., says editorially:

"After a careful investigation of Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy, a specific for kidney, liver and bladder troubles, rheumatism, dyspepsia and constipation with its attendant ills, we are free to confess that a more meritorious medicine has never come under the examination of the chemical and medical experts of the New York Magazine of Sanitation and Hygiene. In fact, after the most searching tests and rigid inquiry into the record of Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy, it becomes a duty to recommend its use in unequivocal terms to every reader of this journal whose complaint comes within the list of ailments which this remedy is advertised to cure. We have obtained such overwhelming proof of the efficacy of this specific—have so satisfactorily demonstrated its curative powers through personal experiments—that a care for the interests of our readers leads us to call attention to its great value."
