

FREELAND TRIBUNE.

VOL. XV. NO. 23.

FREELAND, PA., FRIDAY, AUGUST 22, 1902.

TRI-WEEKLY

STATE NORMAL SCHOOL, EAST STROUDSBURG, PA.

Location. This popular State Institution is located in the midst of the Delaware Water Gap-Mt. Pocono Summer Resort Region, the most beautiful and picturesque in the state, and one that is visited by thousands of tourists annually.

Courses of Study. In addition to the departments of the regular Normal Course, we have special Departments of Music, Education, Art, Drawing and Water Color, and a full College Preparatory Department. You can save an entire year in your college preparatory work by coming here.

Free Tuition. Tuition is absolutely free to those complying with the new state law. This gives a rare opportunity to those desiring a complete education and should be taken advantage of at once, as this law may be repealed by the next Legislature.

Cost of Boarding. Boarding expenses are $2.50 per week, which includes fully furnished and carpeted room, heat, electric light and laundry. The additional expenses are less with us than at most any other schools.

Improvements. Among these are a new Gymnasium, a fine Electric Light Plant, and a new Recreation Hall now being erected, which will contain fifteen large and fully equipped recreation rooms. In addition, all best rooms will be replastered and fitted up and various other changes made in the dormitories for the further comfort and convenience of the pupils of the school.

New Catalogue. Catalogue for 1902, gives full information as to free tuition, expenses, courses of study, and other facts of interest and will be mailed without charge to those desiring it. Fall Term opens September 8, 1902.

STRIKE MARTYR LAID AT REST

Over 6,000 People Follow
Remains to Cemetery.

Funeral of Patrick Sharpe at Lansford the Most Impressive Ever Seen in the Panther Creek Valley.

Yesterday the citizens of the Panther Creek valley and surrounding territory paid tribute to the memory of Patrick Sharpe, the strike leader who was shot dead at Nesquehoning Monday night, when they turned out by thousands to follow his remains to the Catholic cemetery at Summit Hill. It was by far the largest funeral ever held in the region. It was a day of mourning. Many flags at half-mast were displayed along the line of march and business was at a standstill. At an early hour in the morning the mine workers began pouring into the town, every hamlet within a radius of many miles being represented.

When 8.30 o'clock, the hour set for the funeral, arrived Ridge street was a surging mass of humanity. A pall appeared to hang over the community and few spoke above a whisper. The remains, which were viewed by 10,000 people, reposed in a black cloth casket and were surrounded by floral offerings. The funeral procession formed for its two-mile march to St. Joseph's Catholic church at Summit Hill shortly before 9. The Miners' Union band, which had toured a large portion of the state under the management of the deceased, led the procession. The cortege then proceeded in the following order:

Railroaders' Brotherhood, Ancient Order of Hibernians, Ladies' Auxiliary to the Ancient Order of Hibernians, President Thomas Duffy, of District 7, and other labor leaders, twenty-four mine workers carrying the floral offerings, hearse drawn by two black horses, twenty-five carriages with relatives and 1,000 women. Next, in solid phalanx, marching four abreast with military precision, came nearly 4,000 United Mine Workers and the engineers' and firemen's locals. St. Joseph's church, Summit Hill, where the services took place, was crowded to the doors while thousands were unable to gain admittance.

Solemn requiem mass was celebrated by Rev. Loughlin, Rev. McConnon and Rev. Norton. Following the mass Rev. McConnon delivered a stirring sermon. Among other things he said: "You mine workers who are looking for your rights, here is one who has shed blood in your behalf; he was a martyr to the sacred cause of labor. I have confidence in the United Mine Workers. The people of the United States commend them for their conduct in this strike. Now I want to say to you observe the law. Let no one dare to try to avenge this martyr's death. Let me say to your leaders, employ good counsel in this case. See to it that the guilty party is punished. Go straight home, cherish not malice and forgive those who are persecuting you."

After the body had been lowered into its last resting place many of the miners dropped the piece of spruce they had worn during the funeral march into the grave, and the casket was covered by a blanket of green sprigs.

Wednesday evening a committee of mine workers visited Major Gearhart, the commander of the Twelfth regiment, stationed at Manila Park, and asked him not to send troops into Lansford. They said they had appointed a "peace committee" of about 200 men to preserve order and that they felt safe in saying that there would be no disturbance. Major Gearhart said that troops would not be sent into the town unless it was shown that the miners and the local authorities could not preserve order.

There was no need for them. The officers who were appointed by the various locals of the Mine Workers were on duty along the route of the funeral.

MISCELLANEOUS ADVERTISEMENTS.

NOTICE OF MEETING.—A regular meeting of the stockholders of the Freeland Brewing Company will be held at the office of the said company on Monday, September 22, 1902, between the hours of 10 and 11 a. m., for the purpose of electing a board of directors and to transact other business. By order of James J. Timony, secretary.

to see to it that no disorder took place. A movement has been started to raise funds to erect a tablet on the spot where Sharpe was shot, and also to place a monument above the spot where he sleeps.

The Sharpe inquest will begin tomorrow. Application for the release of Henry McElmoyle will be made on Saturday or Monday, and it is now certain that William Ronemus will be put forward by the coal and iron policemen as the man who killed Sharpe. The mine workers will produce at least five witnesses who will swear that McElmoyle did the killing. The case promises to be one of the most bitterly fought and sensational in the history of the state.

Suit Over a Monument.

From Yesterday's Plain Spoker.

An interesting suit, in which prominent Freeland people are involved, was heard before Alderman Buchenan, of this city, last evening. It appears that some time ago Mrs. Frances J. Thomas, Mrs. Catherine Brobst and William Davis, heirs of the late Thomas Davis, treasurer of Freeland borough, contracted with Philip Kelper for the erection of a monument over the remains of their father, which reposed in a plot in the Freeland cemetery.

The three children aforementioned and another daughter each contributed $50 to a fund of $200 to pay for the monument, and the full amount was deposited in the Citizens' bank of Freeland. After the stone had been erected in the cemetery, however, Mrs. Brobst demurred at signing the check for the payment of Kelper, and it was only after considerable difficulty that she was induced to attach her name to the paper. Kelper finally procured the check for the $200 but when he presented it at the Citizens' bank he found that Mrs. Brobst had again changed her mind and ordered payment suspended. Kelper then garnished the money in the bank and the suit before Alderman Buchenan was the result.

The hearing developed some interesting testimony and was marked by several sensational scenes. Alderman Buchenan gave judgment against the bank for $150 which is the amount held by the institution minus the $50 contributed by Mrs. Brobst and which she protested against Kelper receiving.

Gave $1,000 to Miners.

The last day of the state convention of the Ancient Order of Hibernians at Wilkesbarre was taken up with the reading of reports from committees, the adoption of a number of resolutions and the election of officers. One thousand dollars was also voted to the relief fund for the striking miners. The total membership of the order in Pennsylvania is 23,202. Since the last report $100,065 45 has been paid out for sick and funeral expenses; paid for charitable purposes, $18,040.47; paid for maintenance, $30,587.82. There is a balance in the treasury of $126,789.45.

The officers elected were: President, Patrick Donohue, Philadelphia; vice president, C. C. Donovan, Scranton; secretary, John P. Gibbons, Hudson; treasurer, John P. Kelly, Pittsburg; chaplain, Father Murphy, Minersville. The next convention will be held at Erie in August 1904.

The order held a monster picnic at Mountain Park yesterday, preceded by a parade at the county seat, where 1,800 of the members of this county were in line. Freeland was represented by 113 members and the Balaklava drum corps.

Mountain Park Excursion.

Trains for Mountain Park will leave tomorrow at 6.50 a. m. from Upper Lehigh and Sandy Run. Freeland people can board the Upper Lehigh train at the railroad crossing near the latter town. The fare from either Upper Lehigh or Sandy Run will be 90 cents for adults and 60 cents for children. Tickets will be for sale on all trains by members of White Haven Relief Association, under whose auspices the excursion will be conducted.

There is no resort within a few hours ride of town where a day can be spent to better advantage than at Mountain Park. The grounds are in perfect shape for the large crowd that is expected to attend and all who go can confidently look forward to a day of pleasure. St. Ann's band will furnish the dance and promenade music at the park.

The proceeds of these annual excursions are distributed to worthy persons in White Haven and Freeland and vicinity without regard to nationality or denomination, hence all that is spent on this occasion is given for charitable purposes.

Hugh Gallagher, of Hazleton, who was in the field as a candidate for the Democratic legislative nomination, has withdrawn from the race. He intends to remove to Philadelphia in the near future.

ROUND THE REGION.

The Temple Iron Company has offered a reward of $1,000 for information that will lead to the arrest and conviction of the person who shot and seriously injured two of its employees at the Edgerton washery in Lackawanna county on Monday night. Foreman Connelly, one of the injured, is still at the Scranton private hospital. He has lost the sight of one eye, but is improving and will recover. His companion, one of whose feet was amputated at the Emergency hospital, Scranton, is also improving and will recover.

Bloomsburg was founded in 1802, and the citizens are making preparations to celebrate the centennial. The exercises will begin Wednesday evening with a union meeting conducted by the clergy. On the 28th there will be a historical meeting in the morning, a civic parade of secret societies in the afternoon, and band concerts and fireworks in the evening. On the 29th is Fireman's day, with contests in the morning and a parade in the afternoon.

The state lodge of the Knights of Pythias, in session at Sunbury, heard the reports of the state officers. The grand keeper of records and seals reported the number of lodges in the state to be 455, with a membership of 43,630, an increase of 770 over last year. Rumors of a deficit in the treasury were scattered by the report of the finance committee and trustees, who showed the finances to be in sound condition.

Henry Courtright, while excavating for the new Federal building in Wilkesbarre, yesterday unearthed a large well-preserved cannon ball three feet underground. Mr. Courtright believes the ball was lost when General Sullivan's army, then on its way to the relief of the Wyoming settlers in 1778, passed through Wilkesbarre. He intends presenting the relic to the Wyoming Historical Society.

The Central Valley Trolley Company, popularly styled the Cannon Ball, has won out in its sharp contest over the right of way in Pittston city. Judge Wheaton yesterday afternoon made an order dissolving the preliminary injunction granted several months ago, and the trolley company is now at liberty to proceed with the work of building its line across and on the streets of the city.

Attorney John L. Bunnell, who was convicted with his brother, John, in December, 1901, with keeping a disorderly house at the Windsor hotel, Wilkesbarre, was pardoned yesterday morning by Governor Stone. When convicted James was sentenced to three months' imprisonment, but was released on bail pending an appeal, after being confined a few weeks.

After a short interval of peace horse thieves again began plying their trade in Schuylkill county last night, when they stole a valuable horse and carriage from the farm of Samuel Mengle, near Port Clinton. The farmers are up in arms and will appeal to the county commissioners to offer a reward, which they are willing to double.

Ice cream—all flavors—at Merkt's.

John Laukitis, proprietor of a Mahanoy City installment house, was arrested yesterday, charged with arson. Fire was discovered in six places in his store and dwelling and several gallons of coal oil were found in various places about the building. The damage to the building amounts to about $200.

Charles Seane, an eleven-year-old lad, died at Easton, a victim of excessive cigarette smoking. During the last hours of his illness the boy imagined he was smoking cigarettes continually. He went through the motions of lighting matches and puffed away with seeming delight and satisfaction.

At a meeting of the Workingmen's Alliance Wednesday evening it was decided to place a labor ticket in the field for congress and the county officers. The candidate will be named by a committee of thirty, which is to meet tomorrow morning at Wilkesbarre.

Slatington citizens are raising funds to purchase a site for a company of Paterson capitalists who want to build a silk dyeing plant to employ 700 people.

Rufus Lockwood, a member of President McKinley's regiment during the Civil war, died at his home in Lost Creek yesterday, aged 60 years.

Michael Harkins, aged 30 years, formerly a resident of McAdoo, was killed in a mine near Pittsburg.

The state convention of the Patriotic Order Sons of America will be held next week at Williamsport.

PLEASURE.

Short Items of Interest to All Readers.

Happenings of the Past Two Days in and Around Freeland Recorded Without Waste of Words.

Deputy Sheriff Isaac Eckert has been offered and has accepted a position as coal and iron policeman for Coxe Bros. & Co. Eckert has made himself unnecessarily aggressive against the strikers in the present trouble and made himself so valuable to the Drifton corporation that he received a permanent position. He will make his home in Coxe addition.

Several inmates of Laurytown almshouse are engaged in picking coal from the banks at Old Buck Mountain for use at the institution. The supposition was that the poor district would be given the coal free, but such is not the case, as the directors are charged $1 by Coxe Bros. & Co. for each load hauled.

Richard Roberts, the young man who was arrested on suspicion of having caused the death of William Yates at Hazleton last Friday, was discharged at a hearing given him by Squire McKelvey yesterday. There was no evidence presented which would warrant holding Roberts on such a serious charge.

Military companies of the Knights of Mystic Chain from Allentown, York, Harrisburg, Johnstown, Pittsburg, Scranton and Wilkesbarre have signified their intention to be here on September 9 and compete for the valuable prizes offered by Loyal Castle, No. 65, of town.

Yesterday's low fare to Wilkesbarre, on account of the A. O. H. parade, induced a large number of Freeland people to visit the county seat. About 140 tickets were sold at the local station, and many of the holders remained at Wilkesbarre until today.

A large number of the Slavonians of Freeland and vicinity listened to the address of Anthony S. Ambrose, president of the National Slavonic Society, at Zeman's hall yesterday afternoon.

A new street is being opened through the land of M. Schwabe in the Third ward. When completed it will make access to the business section of town much easier for Upper Lehigh people.

A. Oswald has the agency for the celebrated Elysian's extracts and perfumery. The finest good made. Try them.

A pair of spectacles in a case was lost on Friday between St. Ann's church and Upper Lehigh. The finder can return them to the Tribune office or to Mrs. Patrick Brislin, Upper Lehigh.

A. W. Roberts and family, of Coxe addition will remove to Bethlehem on September 1. A farewell party was tendered the family by their friends on Wednesday evening.

C. L. Meisell, of Mauch Chunk, will give an address on the word "Ask" at the Y. M. C. A. rooms at 3.15 o'clock Sunday afternoon. All are invited to be present.

It is reported that the members of St. Ann's band who are playing at Coney Island have accepted an engagement, which will keep them there for several weeks.

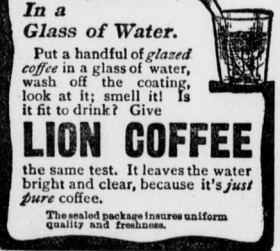

Grace Reinsmith, aged 2 months, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Reinsmith, died Wednesday evening and was buried this afternoon at Freeland cemetery.

Preparations for the celebration of Labor Day are being completed by the Central Labor Union of Freeland and Vicinity.

Mrs. Henry Gillespie and family have returned from an extended visit at Wilkesbarre.

Mr. and Mrs. George Welch and family, Ridge street, are at Atlantic City.

Hazle township public schools will open on Monday morning.

In a Glass of Water.
Put a handful of glazed coffee in a glass of water, wash off the coating, look at it; smell it; is it fit to drink? Give LION COFFEE—the same test. It leaves the water bright and clear, because it's just pure coffee. The sealed package insures uniform quality and freshness.

Would Not Insure Him.

Insurance Companies Refused to Insure the Rev. J. W. Yeisley Because He Had Kidney Troubles.

This case is but one of thousands where the head of the house was refused insurance, because he had kidney trouble. Mr. Yeisley had given up in despair when some friend recommended Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy and it cured him.

Mr. Yeisley writes: "My kidneys and liver were in bad condition and I was anxious for relief. I had tried many remedies without success and when I bought a bottle of 'Favorite Remedy,' it was with but little faith in its ever helping me, but in a short time it effectively proved its merit. Perhaps the best proof I can give that it has completely cured me is to state that I have since been accepted by four different life insurance companies."

The Rev. Mr. Yeisley is the pastor of the First Reformed church, of St. Paris, Ohio, and is as well the editor of the St. Paris Dispatch.

There is no question that Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy is the best and surest medicine in the world for diseases of the kidneys, liver, bladder, and blood, rheumatism, dyspepsia, and chronic constipation, as well as the weaknesses peculiar to women. It quickly relieves and cures inability to hold urine and the necessity of getting up a number of times during the night. It puts an end to that scalding pain when passing urine and corrects the bad effects of whiskey and beer.

All druggists sell Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy in the New 50 Cent Size and the regular $1.00 size bottles. Sample bottle—enough for trial, free by mail. Dr. D. Kennedy Corporation, Rondout, N. Y.
