SCRIMMAGE AT NO. 40 MINE

Special Officer Attacked at Hazleton Today.

Reports That the Colliery Would Resume Drew a Large Crowd and a Guard Is Roughly Handled.

For nearly a week past it has been heralded through the region that No. 40 colliery, at Hazleton, would resume operations this morning. It was asserted by agents of the company that a large force of men had been gathered inside the stockade during the past few weeks, that a considerable amount of coal had been mined and that this coal would be hoisted and prepared for market this week, commencing today.

At an early hour this morning the striking employes of the colliery began congregating near the stockade, and at 6.30 o'clock every road leading to the mine was filled with hundreds of pickets. It is estimated that fully 3,000 men were on the scene at 7 o'clock.

At the latter hour William Scheuch a young man, made an attempt to break through the strikers' ranks and reach No. 40. Friends tried to induce him to return home and help them win the strike, but he persisted in his efforts to gain the protection of the special police inside the colliery fence.

His father, August Scheuch, is a special officer at No. 40 colliery. He saw the position of his son and rushed to aid him. A dispute arose, no one knows just how or who is to blame, but in a short while Scheuch, Sr., was attacked.

During the melee the young man escaped without injury, but his father was stabbed three times with a pen-knife, received several kicks and was struck on the head by a stone. He was taken to the miners' hospital, where the wounds were found to be very slight.

The incident created tremendous excitement for awhile and many alarming rumors were sent out regarding the affair.

Those who expected to see the company make good their predictions to resume operations and prepare coal for market were disappointed. No effort was made to work the mine, nor was resumption attempted at any other colliery in this region.

CONCESSIONS AGREED UPON.

Today began the sixteenth week of the great strike and the contending forces still face each other with determination. On the part of the strikers the feeling that they will win has infused new hope in their ranks and it can be truthfully said that they are as strong in spirit today as at any time since the contest began.

With their opponents, the operators, there is on the surface nothing visible but that same persistence which has marked their demeanor since the strike was inaugurated. A change in tone in their talk has, however, taken place, and for nearly a week the public has not been regaled with a bombastic interview from their mouth-piece, President Baer, of the Reading Company.

The daily ultimatum of the coal presidents that only an unconditional surrender on the part of the miners will end the strike is no longer read in the metropolitan press. Truesdale, Fowler and Baer, the trio who went out of their way daily to impress the operators' position on reporters, have had nothing to say lately, and their organs in the large cities have taken the cue and are also veering around from their former position.

The avowed intention of those to whom the management of the strike was intrusted by the operators was to break the union before work would be resumed. The time asked by them and given to them to accomplish this is about to expire and the much-desired result, from a Baer's point of view, has not been attained nor can the general body of operators see any symptoms of a breaking up.

The individual operators and the smaller coal roads have found out at a heavy cost that Mr. Baer does not possess the ability to perform all that he promised and discord has followed this discovery. The operators have learned that Baer's uncompromising attitude has steadily strengthened the workers, and that his ultimatums and manifestoes have done nothing more serious than to amuse the strikers.

Such is the condition of affairs in the ranks of the operators and the Tribune is speaking authoritatively when it says so. President Baer is on the verge of being deposed as leader of the operators and unless a truce is declared by the warring elements of the coal combine within a few days he will be ousted from this position.

Self-interest has held the operators, large and small, together so far. This same self-interest has gone its limit and nothing has been gained, and the powerful influences behind Mr. Baer realize that the combination is about to dissolve unless satisfactory results appear without further delay. These results cannot be accomplished within the time given, unless the mine workers bodily desert the union and bettle their present attitude by returning to work or show unmistakable signs of weakening.

That the mine workers are not likely to do either is accepted by those for whom Baer, Truesdale and Fowler act as figure-heads, and, to save the combination from inevitable dissolution and unending warfare among coal producers, concessions have been agreed upon which will undoubtedly meet with acceptance at the hands of the strikers.

These concessions have not been made public and are known to but the very few who have been interested in arranging them. How soon or how long it will be until they are made known depends upon the attitude maintained by the miners and smaller operators, who, at the present day, are fighting a common enemy. All that the Tribune knows is that they will be announced as soon as a dignified down-coming from his pedestal can be arranged for Mr. Baer.

STATEMENT FOR SENATORS.
A committee from the Public Alliance of Wilkesbarre waited on President Mitchell yesterday afternoon and told him of their visit to Atlantic City last week to see Senators Quay and Penrose in the interest of a settlement of the miners' strike by arbitration. Mr. Mitchell was interested in what the committee told him and inquired as to what position the two senators intend to take in the matter. The committee replied that before the senators make a move they want a statement from Mr. Mitchell, giving the miners' side of the case. The chief officer of the union said he would prepare such a statement at once and forward it to Senators Quay and Penrose.

Death of Aged Woman.

Mrs. Margaret Keller died yesterday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. William Stultz, on the Hill, aged 86 years. For some years past she had been helpless and her death came as a relief after much suffering. More than half a century ago she took up her residence at Eckley. Some years later she removed to Highland and when the Stultz family came to Freeland she accompanied them.

Mrs. Keller is survived by two sons, Peter, Highland, and Christian, St. Clair, Schuylkill county, and by two daughters, Mrs. William Stultz, Freeland, and Mrs. David Cobb, Texas.

The funeral will take place at 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon. Services will be conducted at St. John's Reformed church by Rev. J. B. Kerschner. Interment at Freeland cemetery.

Patrick McGuire Arrested.

Patrick McGuire, Jr., was arrested at 3 o'clock yesterday morning at his home in Upper Lehigh. He is charged with being implicated in the affair at the Hoffman and Beterly homes in that town some months ago. The arrest was made by Coal and Iron Policeman Hampton and Constables Ziegler, of Hazleton, and Woodring, of West Hazleton. As soon as the arrest was made McGuire and the officers were driven to Hazleton, where the prisoner was placed in the city lockup.

McGuire was given a hearing before Alderman Heidenrich this afternoon. He was placed under $1,500 bail on the charge of riot and $1,000 on the charge of burglary. Bail was furnished by Denis Boyle, Hazleton.

Still Another Party.

The county committee of the Workingmen's party on Saturday decided to place in the field only candidates for congress and state legislature and none for county offices. There was much discussion over the advisability of leaving off the county officers. It was finally decided on as giving better opportunities for each district will be fixed today.

The Workingmen's party is a separate organization from the Socialists, and if their announced intention to nominate legislative candidates is carried out there will be four candidates for state representative in the Fourth district.

Two Held for Sharpe's Death.

Coroner Behler, of Carbon county, conducted the inquest in the killing of Patrick Sharpe, the strike leader, by a mine guard at Nesquehoning Monday night. Fourteen witnesses were examined and four deputies gave testimony. Of the seven foreigners who gave testimony all swore that Sharpe made no attempt to strike any of the guards and that he was shot without provocation. Four other men were positive Harry McElmoyle did the shooting.

Four of the guards testified that William Ronemus, a guard, and not McElmoyle, fired the shot that killed Sharpe. They also swore that Sharpe had struck Ronemus, and had made the second attempt to hit him when the shot was fired.

After deliberation which lasted two hours the following verdict was agreed upon:

"We, the jury, find that Patrick Sharpe came to his death by the malicious act of either Henry McElmoyle or William Ronemus, and we advise that both Henry McElmoyle and William Ronemus be held for trial on this charge."

Many assert that the verdict is only another step in the plan to set McElmoyle free without punishment of any kind. The friends of William Ronemus say that he will never be convicted.

Municipal water for Carbonade city has been knocked out by Judge Halsey, specially sitting in the injunction proceedings. The injunction granted against proceeding with the bonding of the city $248,000 and erecting the water plant has been made permanent, all the exceptions of the city being overruled.

Burgess Isaac M. Dando, of Edwardsville, began suit against John Oram, president of council, for $5,000 damages for false arrest and imprisonment. He charges Oram with having him arrested on the charge of falsely obtaining the borough minute book, and declared that for one hour he was deprived of his liberty. He believes the arrest, which grew out of an electric light contract controversy, was malicious.

Boyle.—To Mr. and Mrs. John C. Boyle, a son.
McLaughlin.—To Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McLaughlin, Jeddo, a daughter.

Would Not Insure Him.

Insurance Companies Refused to Insure the Rev. J. W. Yeisley Because He Had Kidney Troubles.

This case is but one of thousands where the head of the house was refused insurance, because he had kidney trouble. Mr. Yeisley had given up in despair when some friend recommended Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy and it cured him.

Mr. Yeisley writes: "My kidneys and liver were in bad condition and I was anxious for relief. I had tried many remedies without success and when I bought a bottle of 'Favorite Remedy,' it was with but little faith in its ever helping me, but in a short time it effectively proved its merit. Perhaps the best proof I can give that it has completely cured me is to state that I have since been accepted by four different life insurance companies."

The Rev. Mr. Yeisley is the pastor of the First Reformed church, of St. Paris, Ohio, and is as well the editor of the St. Paris Dispatch.

There is no question that Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy is the best and surest medicine in the world for diseases of the kidneys, liver, bladder, and blood, rheumatism, dyspepsia and chronic constipation, as well as the weaknesses peculiar to women. It quickly relieves and cures inability to hold urine and the necessity of getting up a number of times during the night. It puts an end to that scalding pain when passing urine and corrects the bad effects of whiskey and beer.

All druggists sell Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy in the New 50 Cent Size and the regular $1.00 size bottles. Sample bottle—enough for trial, free by mail.

Proof That Advertising Pays.

The effectiveness of advertising in the Tribune was again demonstrated on Friday evening, when the pair of spectacles and the case advertised in that day's issue were returned to a representative of the paper. The finder was Hugh O'Donnell, Sr., Walnut street, who promptly delivered the lost articles upon reading the notice, and the glasses were sent on Saturday to the owner, Mrs. Patrick Brislin, Upper Lehigh.

There are still some people, several merchants and professional men included, who say that advertising does not pay. It is sometimes not an easy task to prove the contrary, but instances like the above are proof positive that advertising does and will always bring returns in Freeland when the columns of the Tribune are used.

Socialist Orator Arrested.

Morrison I. Swift, the Socialist orator of Philadelphia, was placed under arrest at Hazleton Saturday night when he attempted to make a speech on the principal street of the city, in defiance to the mayor's orders. The entire police force was sent to the scene, and over a thousand persons followed the police and the prisoner to the mayor's office. Swift was fined $2 by Mayor Reinhardt for violation of a city ordinance.
