SLAVS PROTEST AGAINST A FLAG

National Slavonian Society Wins at Washington.

Government Refuses Free Admission of a Valuable Banner Sent to the United States From Hungary.

Local Slavonians and Hungarians are very much interested in a decision rendered at Washington yesterday, and a decided difference of opinion on the justice of the opinion delivered by the authorities has developed. The point at issue is whether or not a flag now on its way to the United States should be admitted free of duty. The flag is being brought to this country by a delegation of Austro-Hungarian noblemen who have been deputed to present it to the Hungarians of the United States in have been deputed to present it to the Hungarians of the United States in order to bind them more closely to their mother country.

On the ground that its acceptance would border on treason to the government of this, their adopted country, the National Slavonic Society has made a successful protest to the authorities at Washington against the admission free of duty of the flag. The members say they don't want to be bound, but want to show their loyalty to the United to show their loyalty to the Unite States, and they declare that the inscrip

A. S. Ambrose, of New York, presi-dent of the society, while in Freeland last Thursday, sent the following tele-gram to Washington: "As an Ameri-can citizen of Hungarian birth, I pro-test against the admission free of duty of the Hungarian day now on the of the Hungarian flag now on the way to this country. Letter follows."

Last night the following telegram was received in reply to the message sent by Mr. Ambrose: "Free entry Hungarian flag denied. H. A. Taylor, assistant secretary." This message came from the treasury department at Washington.

The inscription on the flag which the Slavs object to reads: "Be dauntlessly loyal to your fatherland, oh Magyars." Mr. Ambrose has sent a letter to President Roosevelt in which he says in

"The so-called National League of Hungary has seen fit to present to the people of Hungarian origin in the United States a costly banner. I object to the acceptance of this gift for two reasons. The gift was prompted by the Hungarian government and partly paid for by officials of that government. The delegation on its way has for its spokesman and the that government. The create a sort of bond between the Hun-garians in the United States and those abroad. I base my objection to the ac-ceptance of the gift on the ground that the motives that prompted it are un-American and foreign to the intents of

One of the officers of the objecting society said today: "The minister president of Hungary contributed $500 to pay for the flag, which is very costly. A government official heads the delegation and Consul General Dessewffy, at New York, is to receive it. This is but one of many schemes which the Hungarian government is using to instill into the minds of Hungarians in the United States feelings unfriendly to this government."

New Building Front.

The extensive improvements which were begun some time ago at the P.O. S. of A. building are going forward steadily. The floer of the large storeroom, which is occupied by the Joseph Neu-Burger Estate, is now being lowered, and when this is completed an entire new front will be placed in the building.

This front promises to be one of the finest in northeastern Pennsylvania, Wilkesbarre excepted, and will give the NeuBurgers an opportunity to display more effectively the various lines of goods they carry in stock.

A large addition to the rear of the storeroom has been completed and is being used while the older portion is in hands of the workmen.

The second and third floors of the building have also been remodeled and when all the contemplated improvements are finished the owners will have one of the town's handsomest structures.

Gallagher, engineer at the plant, were the witnesses heard on Wednesday.

Caught at Harleigh.

Mrs. Catherine Greola, aged 37 years, and Joseph Baroats, aged 18 years, were arrested at Harleigh. The couple eloped from New Haven, Conn., eight months ago, and the husband of the woman caused their arrest. They were taken before Squire McKelvey and at the hearing she consented to return to the hearing she consented to return to her husband, who is willing to forgive her. The costs were placed on Baroats. They have been living at Harleigh since they eloped and with them were the woman's two children. Baroats was looked upon by the neighbors as a son of the woman.

The finance committee's report, recommending the expenditure of $14,725, was passed after two hours' debate, the chief objection being on the report to raise State Secretary Weand's salary from $1.800 to $2,000 a year.

The legislative committee reported that the last legislature appropriated $140,000 to sectarian institutions, all Catholic, against the committee's protest. President Noil said: "I fear that the tendencies of many of the brother-hoods are too strong pro-Catholic when I recall that some of the most virulent attacks made on "organizations of this character have come from Protestant sources. Let us be consistent in our proclamations of patriotic duty and protest against any denomination interfering with our public institutions."

President Noil was asked whether a member violated his oath when he took member violated his eath when he took a striker's position, and he answered: "Most certainly not."

Reports of the officers presented at the convention show a substantial growth. During the year it made a net gain in members of 2,101; nearly 9,400 were initiated, and 6,583 were dropped or died. Benefits were paid amounting to $197,193. The treasuries of the camps hold $205,200, and the invested funds amount to $844,900. The total assets of the camps are $1,262,000.

The closing session was held yesterday. Among the resolutions adopted was one indorsing the policy of the administration in arranging for the removal of the friars from the Philippine Islands, the purchase of their lands, the complete divorce of church and state and the establishment of free commoschools for the education of the children of the islands; one opposing every form schools for the education of the children of the Islands; one opposing every form of violence, intimidation, boycotting or blackmalling, and another that the state camp use every effort to enforce a strict observance of the compulsory education law.

Special for Labor Day.

The labor question has been so prominently in the public eye this year that Labor Day reading will have especial interest. The special feature which we will offer to our patrons in Monday's issue is an unusually interesting four-column story by Joseph R. Buchanan, one of the men who has played an active part in the labor history of the United States. This story will call the roll of the men who were prominent in the labor movement twenty years ago and will have something of interest in reference to each. Members of labor unions will find the article well worth reading and it will be equally interesting to all other readers.

Insurance Companies Refused to Insure the Rev. J. W. Yeisley Because He Had Kidney Troubles.

Kidney Troubles.

This case is but one of thousands where the head of the house was refused insurance, because he had kidney trouble. Mr. Yeisley had given up in despair when some friend recommended Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy and it cured him.

Mr. Yeisley writes:

"My kidneys and liver were in bad condition and I was anxious for relief. I had tried many remedies without success and when I bought a bottle of 'Favorite Remedy,' it was with but little faith in its ever helping me, but in a short time it effectively proved its merit. Perhaps the best proof I can give that it has completely cured me is to state that I have since been accepted by four different life insurance companies." The Rev. Mr. Yeisley is the pastor of the First Reformed church, of St. Paris, Ohio, and is as well the editor of the St. Paris Dispatch.

There is no question that Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy is the best and surest medicine in the world for diseases of the kidneys, liver, bladder, and blood, rheumatism, dyspepsia and chronic constipation, as well as the weaknesses peculiar to women. It puts an end to that scalding pain when passing urine and corrects the bad effects of whiskey and beer.
