ALLIANCE SEES THE GOVERNOR

Delegation of Coal Region Men at Harrisburg.

Aid of the Executive Invoked by Representatives of the Business Interests—Extra Session Asked.

Governor Stone yesterday afternoon received a delegation of thirty-eight representatives of the People's Alliance, and for two hours heard their pleadings for the settlement of the coal strike. He told them when they left the executive department, where the conference was held, that he would give the information laid before him careful consideration.

President McCarthy introduced the delegation to the governor and handed him a copy of the demands of the Alliance which the governor read carefully. These demands are as follows:

"An act to provide compulsory arbitration.

"Revision of present legislation so that the state shall exercise better control over foreign corporations doing business in the state.

"Making it unlawful to employ any person under 21 years of age in or about the mines for more than eight hours in any one day.

"Enforcing and making operative the sixteenth and seventeenth articles of the constitution of Pennsylvania regulating the control of corporations and the rights and duties of railroads."

President McCarthy made an appeal upon the coal operators and their attitude towards the striking miners. He said that the miners were simply exercising their inalienable right to strike, and that they had only the strength of organization to rely upon. Mr. McCarthy outlined a bill that he had in view to compel arbitration, the principal feature of which was that the state should seize the mines and place them in the hands of receivers to operate and continue in possession until the operators come to terms.

Captain Parker told the governor of the distress in business circles in the coal regions. He said that the better class of people were leaving the country, business men are bankrupt or insolvent and that men who for years had unlimited credit today had none. It was his opinion that an extra session of the legislature, to pass an arbitration law, is an absolute necessity.

Dr. Swayer, the blind minister of Girardville, said that he wished to express the confidence that the strikers and their representatives felt in the governor. He said that they did not wish to ask him to accomplish more than was within his power to do. He said that he believed that the governor would do all that he could to bring the unhappy condition of affairs in the anthracite coal regions to an amicable termination.

MITCHELL TO MEET GOVERNOR.

President Mitchell will leave Wilkesbarre tomorrow afternoon for Philadelphia, proceeding directly to the Labor Lyceum. After the exercises there he will go to Harrisburg by the first train. He said that he has no knowledge of any plans for a settlement of the strike, to be considered at the conference with Governor Stone. It is understood, however, that the proposition that the miners go back to work at once, pending a settlement of their grievances, will be presented. It can be stated in advance that in that case the meeting will be productive of nothing in the way of settlement.

QUAY CONFERS WITH BAER.

Senator Quay again called on President George F. Baer, of the Reading Railway, in the latter's office, in the Reading Terminal, yesterday morning.

Lion Coffee
is 16 ounces of pure coffee to the pound.
Coated Coffees are only about 14 ounces of coffee and two ounces of eggs, glue, etc., of no value to you, but money in the pocket of the roaster.

and was closeted with him for five minutes. While it was evident that the conference related to the efforts to settle the coal strike, neither Senator Quay nor President Baer would make any statement at the conclusion of the interview. The senator and Mr. Baer left the office together, but separated later. Senator Quay going directly to the office of P. A. B. Widener. From there he went directly to the Republican state committee headquarters, where efforts to extract a statement from him were unavailing.

Although Senator Penrose did not accompany Senator Quay to Mr. Baer's office, it was thought that he might know the object and result of Senator Quay's call on the Reading official, but Senator Penrose is reported as having denied all knowledge of the conference.

Mr. Baer went to Reading late in the afternoon and Senator Quay went to Atlantic City and spent the night at his cottage. Senator Penrose went to New York, but whether or not it was on business relating to the strike or as a result of Senator Quay's call on President Baer, could not be learned.

An attempt was made to interview Mr. Baer on his arrival in Reading, but he absolutely declined to say anything about the conference, adding that when he had any statement to issue he would do so from his office in the Reading Terminal.

Philadelphia Selected.

The state convention of the Knights of the Mystic Chain completed its business at 5 o'clock Wednesday evening. The only important action taken by the delegates after the Tribune went to press was the choosing of the place for holding the thirty-third annual convention in September, 1903. Philadelphia was selected.

In the evening an entertainment was held at Krell's hall under the auspices of Loyal Castle, at which the following program was rendered in honor of the delegates and visiting members.

Selection, Citizens' Band; duet, Misses Allen and Salmon; recitation, John Price, Jr.; piano solo, Miss Annie Goepfert; vocal solo, Miss Llewellyn; cornet solo, Morgan DeFoy; tenor solo, John Price; selection, Citizens' band; recitation, Frank Langford; solo, Miss Annie Solomon; tenor solo, John Price; vocal solo, Miss Llewellyn; recitation, R. H. Bullard, Scranton.

St. Ann's Band Returns.

The members of St. Ann's band returned home last evening, arriving here on the 6:34 o'clock train from New York city. They played up Centre street after their arrival and were warmly greeted by their many friends. The band left Freeland on August 5, and after playing a week in the towns between Freeland and New York accepted an engagement at Coney Island, where their music delighted thousands at that popular resort.

The members, though pleased to reach home again, speak well of their experiences during their tour. They were dressed in miners' blouses and overalls and wore miners' caps, and the unique uniform attracted general attention.

Death of Mrs. H. J. Haworth.

Mrs. H. J. Haworth, of Harrisburg, mother of Hon. H. W. Haworth, of Freeland, died Wednesday after an illness of several months. She was born in New York city 67 years ago. The family lived in Hazleton for about twenty years, removing from there to Harrisburg, of which city she was a resident of nine years. Besides Hon. H. W. Haworth she is survived by H. H. Haworth, of Harrisburg, and Miss Mary Haworth, of New York city.

The remains will be taken to Hazleton on Saturday. Services will be held in St. Peter's Episcopal church at 3 o'clock and interment will follow in the Vine street cemetery tomorrow afternoon.

Leaving for College.

Daniel Timony, Con McGeehan and James McGinty, students at Holy Cross college, Worcester, Mass., leave this week to resume their studies after spending their vacation in town.

Orion L. VanAken and John Sipple left yesterday to enter Pennsylvania university, Philadelphia. The former will enter the law and the latter the medical department. C. O. Stroh, Esq., accompanied the young men to Philadelphia.

Edward J. Gaffney and Patrick J. Gallagher will next week resume their studies at St. Mary's seminary, Baltimore, Md.

Dr. F. G. Ibach, a well known eye and ear specialist of Mauch Chunk, died yesterday. Death was caused by a complication of diseases.

COMMUNICATED.

Upper Lehigh, Pa., September 11.
Open letter to Rev. Chas. Pajdusak and his companions:

Gentlemen.—I am at leisure now, so I will pen a few lines in answer to your communication in the Tribune, Monday, September 8, which had a very flimsy foundation. There is an old proverb which will be very appropriate in this case: "He that herds with the wolves must learn to howl."

Gentlemen, you are only trying to hide the shame from the face of Ambrose, that he received by his unwelcome protest against his motherland and her banner.

Gentlemen, a negro will never become white by washing. Those who do not respect the land which was sprinkled by their forefathers' blood over one thousand years ago, I don't believe have much love for this country either. Men who are ready to beat their mother, would be more ready to beat their step-mother.

Gentlemen, any one who has read the Dingley tariff bill knows that such a costly banner could not be admitted free of duty; therefore, why the protest?

I said nothing against the duty in my last letter. It is not question of money.

I merely proved that Mr. Ambrose was incompetent. For example: If this protest came from one that was not of Hungarian birth, then I would not attempt to pen one word, but Mr. Ambrose stated that he is of Hungarian birth. Now I don't believe a real good boy would try to smite his mother, if he did not have revenge against her, as Mr. Ambrose did? I can prove my loyalty any time to this country, without smiting my mother in the face.

Furthermore, can you take the stand as jurors, where your mother has been convicted of any offense, can you? No! Well this is something similar. Mr. Ambrose's action was incompetent. As regards the inscription on the flag, I made the statement in my last letter that it was a line taken from a Hungarian hymn.

I can easily prove that Mr. Ambrose and his companions carry revenge against the Hungarians in this country. I know Mr. Ambrose as a publisher of a Wilkesbarre Slav paper. He was then consistent with the Hungarian principle. He used every possible means to defeat the Slav leaders and make a peace between the Hungarian and Slovak in his paper. Naturally the subscription became too small, then in order to place himself in a better position, what did he do? Changed his principle. (Reader just think of it.) Sold his paper firm and entered into the service of Mr. Rovnianek, who is one of the chief leaders of the Slovak in this country and a deadly enemy of all the Hungarians. Now I can't understand how a man of this type who will turn his coat so easy can be loyal to any country.

Gentlemen, Mr. Ambrose and his followers always seek the knot on the bulrush. For instance: There is the Slav protest against the Louis Kossuth monument at Cleveland, O. This shows more of their loyalty. Why they made this protest? From revenge.

Gentlemen, if you remember on the twenty-sixth of June, 1896, when the Hungarian Workingmen's Society, of Freeland, held a ball in Yannes' opera house, in memory of its millenium celebration, what protest did you make then against the ball? On the eve of the ball you threw on the streets of Freeland the following proclamation: "Down with the Hungarians and their ball! Hurrah for the Slovak, of Freeland and vicinity!"

What was the result of this? Very few men attended our ball, of which the proceeds were for charitable purposes, and we had to pay as damages $300. I would like to ask any thinking man where is the principle involved in those people?

Gentlemen, there is nothing but revenge in your hearts, and as I said before you are only practicing deceit. You are playing cards with a lone hand.

Furthermore, I would state that Mr. Ambrose delivered an address in Freeland on the twenty-first of August. He was very cunning in his remarks, especially when he made the offer of $50,000 for the striking miners. Where is the money? The members of the Slav Society need relief. Why does he not send this $50,000?

I believe he made that offer only as a bait, but his purpose in reality was to link the members of the society to himself, for the protest he made against the Hungarian flag; and to attract the eyes of the people of the United States. My opinion is that we will never see one penny of that money.

Gentlemen, I think you had better drop this matter forever, because my case is a righteous one.

In conclusion you doubted as to whether I am or ever will become an

Democratic Slates.

The slates of the two wings of the Democracy as they stood last evening, according to the Wilkesbarre Record were:

Lenahan—Congress, Thomas R. Martin, Wilkesbarre; county treasurer, John J. Moore, Plymouth; register of wills, Silas Jones, Hazleton, or Jacob Schappert, Wilkesbarre; county commissioners, P. J. Finn, Miners Mills, and Jacob Schappert, Sr., Wilkesbarre, or W. Pean Kirkendall, Dallas.

Garman—Congress, Hon. Stanley W. Davenport, Plymouth; county treasurer, Paul Dasch, Wilkesbarre; register of wills, James P. Brown, Plymouth; county commissioners, Silas Jones, Hazleton, and Michael Mayock, Miners Mills.

It will be noticed by reading the above that some of the candidates are stated for offices for which they have not been aspirants and that Silas Jones, of Hazleton, is on both slates. The developments of the past few days made this necessary. Both factions want a German from the Fourth district and as Jones is the only German in that locality who has aspirations he is in great demand.

Order Is Hopelessly Split.

Notwithstanding efforts being put forth by a number of the members in Lancaster county to restore peace in the Junior Order United American Mechanics the strife still continues. On September 16 the Loyalist and Insurgent factions propose holding separate state councils, at which arrangements will be carried out that each body shall be separate and distinct and lay claim to being the faction in control. The Loyalist faction, which claims control and is recognized by the national council, will meet in Pittsburg, and the insurgents will hold a state council meeting on the same day in Reading.

IF YOU ARE SICK

And Need Medicine for Your Kidneys, Liver, Bladder or Blood, Get the Best.

Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy.

If you are suffering from kidney or bladder disease, the doctor asks: "Do you desire to urinate often, and are you compelled to get up frequently during the night? Does your back pain you? Does your urine stain linen? Is there a scalding pain in passing it, and is it difficult to hold the urine back? If so, your kidneys or bladder are diseased."

Try putting some of your urine in a glass tumbler, let it stand twenty-four hours. If there is a sediment, or a cloudy, milky appearance, your kidneys are sick.

Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy will surely relieve and cure the most distressing cases of these dread diseases and no physician can prescribe a medicine that equals it for kidney, liver, bladder and blood diseases, rheumatism, dyspepsia and chronic constipation.

Walter D. Miller, of Delhi, N. Y., writes:

"I suffered for years with kidney trouble and severe pains in my back, at times it was so bad I could hardly walk. My stomach also troubled me and I frequently had twinges of rheumatism. I suffered a great deal and received no benefit until I began the use of Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy. After taking it a short while it cured me."
