PICKETS OUT AT UPPER LEHIGH

500 Men Visit the Town
Early This Morning.

Outwitted the Coal and Iron
Police and Attained Their Object--Upper End Strife.
John Markle Talks.

The desertion of eight or ten engineers and firemen from the union ranks at Upper Lehigh last week was probably the cause for the appearance of about 500 strikers on the streets of that town at 4 o'clock this morning. The company officials had received an intimation that the pickets were due there today and preparations to prevent them from interfering with the workmen were hurriedly made.

The Upper Lehigh office was kept open all night and after much effort the officials secured twenty-six coal and iron officers from Hazleton. The uniformed specials, upon their arrival, were held in readiness to meet the strikers.

The latter, expecting that the company would be notified of their coming, sent about 150 of their number into the town. To these the officers immediately devoted their attention, and when the pickets appeared on Main street they were met by Superintendent A. C. Leisinger, other officials of the company and the police.

The advance guard was quietly requested by the officers to move on, and they slowly complied with the order followed by the officials and officers. They walked down Main street, along the turnpike and on to Freeland borough line, after which they leisurely dispersed.

In the meantime the larger body of pickets poured into Upper Lehigh via another route, met the men who have deserted the miners' ranks and succeeded in having them return to their residences. This accomplished, the pickets departed and passed homeward through Freeland at 7 o'clock.

Another force, numbering 200 men, was stretched across from East South Heberton to No. 3 Upper Lehigh, and closely guarded all roads to Upper Lehigh workings. The few Freeland men who have returned to work at the collieries saw this line of pickets and did not wait to be asked to cease work, but sought their homes at once.

When the guards returned to Upper Lehigh they found that the crowd they had escorted out of town was only a small wing of the picketing army and that in their absence the strikers had performed the work they had planned. The whole affair, while causing considerable excitement, passed off quietly and without unnecessary show of force by either side. The mine workers were satisfied with the result of their visit to the town, and the company officials and police were thankful that no attempt was made to injure the property.

DISORDER IN UPPER END.

Sheriff Jacobs' deputies were kept busy last night and yesterday by several cases of violence reported in various parts of the county. None of them resulted seriously, but there are prospects of Sheriff Jacobs following the example of Sheriff Schadt, who had the Thirteenth regiment placed in Lackawanna county yesterday.

Joseph Harrison, a non-union workman at Plymouth, heard men in his yard and fired at them. They ran and later he discovered two sticks of dynamite upon his porch. Several non-unionists got into trouble with crowds and were beaten, while the house of a fire boss at the No. 2 colliery, Plymouth, was attacked and stoned.

An attack was made upon another non-union house at Nanticoke, and some shots were fired at the No. 1 breaker. At Warrior Run several deputies protected Lewis Land while he removed his household goods to a place near the Bliss colliery, where he works. Some boys would not allow him to move, and he appealed for assistance.

A large crowd, in which there were many boys, attacked four carpenters as they left the Baltimore No. 2 colliery, Wilkesbarre, last evening, and pursued them down the street. Several guards

MISCELLANEOUS ADVERTISEMENTS.

IN RE-APPOINTMENT OF GUARDIAN OF THE ESTATE OF BRIDGET McGETTICK.

Notice is hereby given that Ellen Boyle has presented a petition to the court of common pleas of Luzerne county, asking the appointment of a guardian of the estate of Bridget McGettick, of Freeland. The said petition appearing to be in proper form, the court has directed the same to be filed, and has appointed Monday, October 6, 1902, at 10 o'clock a. m., as the time for hearing, when such decree will be made unless cause shows to the contrary.

John M. Carr,
Attorney for Petitioner.

NINTH IS CALLED.

Governor Orders Out Luzerne County
Regiment This Afternoon.

At 2 o'clock this afternoon Governor Stone issued orders calling out the Ninth regiment, with headquarters at Wilkesbarre, to do strike duty in this county.

The Freeland members of Company G left for Hazleton on the 2 15 o'clock trolley car.

At 1 45 o'clock this morning Sheriff Jacobs filed a message asking Governor Stone for troops to assist him in maintaining order throughout this county. The sheriff's telegram to the governor stated that he is unable to maintain peace and order, after exerting every means within his power. He also recited a long list of annoyances.

The governor received Sheriff Jacobs' message, but decided that no action would be taken in the matter until this afternoon, as the governor wanted to investigate existing conditions in the vicinity of Wilkesbarre before sending the troops.

from the colliery rushed to their rescue, and some shots were fired. Joseph Rowlands, 17 years old, was hit in the back and slightly wounded. Later Joseph Kessler, one of the guards, was arrested for the shooting and locked up.

MARKLE TALKS IN NEW YORK.

The usual weekly meeting of the coal presidents was held yesterday at the Reading offices in New York city. There were present, when the meeting began at 1 o'clock, the presidents of the Reading; the Lackawanna; the New York, Ontario and Western; the Delaware and Hudson; the Lehigh Valley; the chairman of the board of directors of the Erie; John Markle, of G. B. Markle & Co., and Alfred Stearns, of Cox & Co.

In the morning Mr. Markle went to J. P. Morgan's office, and had a long conference with Mr. Morgan. He refused to tell the nature of the talk. At the office of President Baer later he was asked about the statement of John Mitchell that no licensed miners had returned to work in the mines since the strike began, last May.

"That is absolutely false," Mr. Markle said. "There are several hundred certified miners at work today cutting coal." Commenting on the statement recently made by Mr. Mitchell, that he had always discountenanced violence, Mr. Markle said: "Ask Mr. Mitchell if he has issued a peremptory order to each local of the United Mine Workers not to do any illegal act. The point is this: If Mr. Mitchell says he has issued such orders, he confesses that he cannot control the miners, for they have resorted to violence. If he says he has not issued such orders, he is in no position to maintain that he is opposed to violence."

After the main meeting Presidents Baer, Fowler and Truesdale went into a small office across the hall from the main offices, closed the transoms and locked the doors, and remained closeted together for over half an hour.

"Merely a talk, an informal talk," said Mr. Baer, when asked what occurred at this after meeting.

When asked how much longer he thought the strike would last, he said: "I am not a prophet. The strike will end. That is the one thing we may all be certain of. But I will not attempt to say when it will end."

STRIKE PLEDGE RENEWED.

At a meeting of the mine workers employed at Upper Lehigh collieries, Monday evening, the following was unanimously adopted:

"Resolved, That we, the members of Local Union No. 1519, U. M. W. of A., located at Upper Lehigh, Pa., do hereby renew our allegiance to the demands of the Shamokin convention and pledge ourselves to not return to work until ordered to do so by the national president of our organization, John Mitchell."

Visited a Hospital.

Evan Moses, accompanied by his son-in-law, U. G. Fetterman, spent the forepart of the week in Philadelphia, where Mr. Moses had his eyes examined at Wills hospital. It was thought that a cataract was growing over one of his eyes, but the hospital physicians found this was not so, that the trouble was due to hemorrhages of the eye. He was informed that nothing could be done at the hospital for him.

Mr. Moses is now completely blind in one eye and the sight of the other is also affected. His many friends regret that the experts are unable to alleviate his pain.

Thomas P. McAndrews has been prevailed upon to withdraw his resignation as business manager of the Freeland Brewing Company and will continue in the position.

ROUND THE REGION.

District Attorney McLaughlin and Coroner Gillars, of Schuylkill county, had a consultation yesterday, the result of which is that the body of Patrick McDonald, of Girardville, which was buried last week, was exhumed for examination, as murder is suspected. McDonald's body was found near Lost Creek, with marks upon it supposed to have been inflicted by being struck by a train. It developed that McDonald was the likely victim of foul play.

Dr. J. G. Zern, the Carbon county Democratic politician, was for the second time nominated by the Republicans of that senatorial district. Dr. Zern, after his nomination last week, filed his withdrawal papers at Harrisburg. But he has now decided to stand and the conferees met at Mauch Chunk Monday evening and nominated him. James T. McIlhearn, of Carbon county, is the Democratic nominee.

Proceedings to test the constitutionality of the mine inspector law passed by the last legislature were instituted in Northumberland county yesterday. Attorneys for Mine Inspector Edward Brennan, of Shamokin, filed a bill of equity asking the court to restrain the name of James Tinley, the Republican nominee, from appearing on the ballot. Mr. Brennan's term as inspector expires in March, 1903.

A new political party which proposes to nominate a county, legislative and congressional ticket filed its claims yesterday to the right to use the name or political appellation of the "Ballot Reform Party." The organizers of the new party are the following residents of Nanticoke: James Uren, Jr., Robert M. Smith, P. W. Burns, Joseph L. Frankel, Andrew O. Link.

Republicans representing the counties of Berks and Lehigh, comprising the Thirteenth congressional district, met at Allentown yesterday and nominated William H. Sowden, who served two terms as a Democrat. Sowden was beaten at the Democratic primaries this year.

The Allentown fair opened yesterday. The exhibits exceed by several thousands the individual displays of last year, when high water mark was reached. It is believed that the attendance on "Big Thursday" will exceed that of last year, when over 80,000 people were on the grounds.

"Minnesota's Best" flour is sold by A. Oswald. There is none better made.

The Socialists of Schuylkill county have made the following legislative nominations: Fourth district, J. J. Campbell, miner, St. Clair; Morris Owens, minor Pottsville; Julius Kellar, secretary brewery workers and organizer for American Federation, Pottsville; Third district, Charles Gildea, Coaldale.

Michael E. Doyle and A. P. Tabor, of Shenandoah, have been placed on the Socialist Schuylkill county ticket--for state senator and assembly respectively. They were both turned down for the same offices at the Democratic conventions.

Five companies of the Twelfth regiment were sent from Shenandoah yesterday to Lebanon, where a strike is on in a large iron and steel mill. Negroes from the South have been imported to break the strike and rioting has occurred.

Mrs. Rocco Ballatera has been arrested and held at Hazleton, charged with arson. Mrs. Ballatera, it is alleged, set fire to her home last week. The blaze that resulted destroyed $15,000 worth of property.

Ice cream--all flavors--at Merkt's.

The Abduction Case.

Up to the present time there are no new developments in the sensational abduction case reported in Monday's issue. Miss Mabel VanHorn, who claims she was taken away Sunday night and held a prisoner until Monday morning, tells a story which no amount of questioning has shaken. A thorough search has been made by her father, James VanHorn, and her brothers for traces of her abductors, but the efforts to learn of their whereabouts have not yet proven successful.

There are many who are inclined to doubt Miss VanHorn's version of the affair, but these people are unable to show proof of their misgivings.

Smith-Dinn Trial.

The attorneys, witnesses and other persons interested in the trial of Thomas Smith and Lewis Dinn, charged with the murder of Michael Choro last April, left for the county seat today. Attorneys Daniel Kline and George T. Brown of Freeland, and John M. Garman, of Nanticoke, are the lawyers for the defendants. Attorney John M. Carr, of town, will assist the commonwealth's attorneys. Much local interest is manifested in the result of the trial.
