STRIKE ENDS IMPRESSIVELY

Unanimous Vote Cast for Resumption of Work.

United Mine Workers cept the Arbitration Offer Without One Dissenting Voice From the Delegates.

With a shout that fairly shook the Nesbitt theatre the 652 representatives of the 147,000 mine workers who have been on strike 162 days, since last May, officially declared off at noon yesterday the greatest contest ever waged between capital and labor, and placed althe questions involved in the struggle into the hands of the arbitration commission appointed by the president of the United States.

The action foreshadowed by the convention on Monday came, when, at noon, the opposition to it being overwhelmed the convention voted with one whelmed the convention voted with one voice to end the strike, accept the arbitration proposition and return to work. All during the course of the convention President Mitchell held the delegates in hand. At almost any time he could have forced the passage of the resolution he desired, but his plan was to let the dissatisfied talk themselves out and then, with a full knowledge of the situation, vote on the proposition.

He knew the right moment and selzed situation, vote on the proposition.

He knew the right moment and selzed it, when there being little life left in the opposition, he stood before the convention and with a voice full of power and rich with confidence, said:

"Now gentlemen, the chair is going to ask to be permitted to speak without being in order. It is quite apparent to every one here what the action of the convention is going to be. I do not think any one here has any doubt now as to the way this convention will vote.

think any one here has any doubt now as to the way this convention will vote. If it were otherwise possibly it might not be quite in place for me to speak to you just before you vote. But I want to remind you of this:

"That when the arbitration proposition was accepted labor all over the land breathed a sigh of relief. That this strike has given labor new dignity no one can deny. Labor occupies a position now that it never occupied before. The fruits of your victory may not be as apparent to you as they are to those who have studied the labor question more thoroughly than you, and not be as apparent to you as they are to those who have studied the labor question more thoroaghly than you, and I don't want to have our achievement, your achievement, dampened by even one dissenting vote. I trust this convention will vote as our people struck; I hope you will all vote one way as you all struck one way."

There was no hesitation in the action of the delegates. Mr. Mitchell put the question and every man was on his feet with a ready "aye." They waited for a note of dissent; none came, and then with one impulse votees and arms arose and the hall rang with cheers. Again and again the delegates cheered for Mitchell, for the union, for their friends, for the victory, for President Roosevelt.

Resolutions thanking the tradesunions and the public for the aid received and the press and pulpit for its support were then passed.

Following these were recommendations for legislative action. They were:

"That legislation be enacted prohibiting miners under the age of 21 from working at any employment about the mines more than eight hours daily;

"That the coal and iron police act be repealed and that instead of being appointed by the governor these police be appointed by the governor these police be appointed by the county courts, providing also that they have been residents of the county for a year and that they are men of good character;

"Providing for means to investigate alleged violations of the miners' examiners law;

"That an employers' liability bill be passed;

"That steps be taken to oppose the

Have You Seen Our New Fall Line of Suits?

Employes of Markle & Co. who reported for work today were prevented by the coal and iron police from going near the collieries. This action was explained by a notice posted today by the firm, which reads as follows: "All men desiring to work for us are hereby notified to make application at our office at Jeddo, Pa., and to bring with them the brass checks we have heretofore issued."

Mr. Markle states that each of his Jeddo, Pa., and to bring with them the brass checks we have heretofore issued."

Mr. Markle states that each of his former employes who desires to resume must sign an agreement to abide by the result of the arbitration commission. In the agreement the firm signifies its intention to do so. Markle & Co. will employ no person who will not agree to do likewise.

Troops on South Side.

Eight companies, comprising the second and third battalions of the Third regiment, were transferred from the Schujikili region to the Sonth Side yesterday. The headquarters of the regiment have been established at Audenried. The force-is under the command of Colonel Price. The companies have been stationed at McAdoo, Audenried, Silver Brook and Coleraine.

Matters have been exceedingly quiet on the South Side since the beginning of the strike, and the sending of troops to the section has no particular significance.

attack about to be made upon the constitutionality of the act providing for the election of the mine inspectors."

This concluded the convention and it adjourned singing "My Country, 'Tis of Thee."

Formal notice of the result was at oncesent to the presidentat Washington, and he promptly called a meeting of the strike commission named by him to convene on Friday.

LOCAL SITUATION TODAY. Throughout Eleven Columns.
A certified copy of the ballot that will be used in this county at the Novembe election has been received at the county commissioners' office from Secretary of the Common wealth Griest. Blanket ballongers. lot is certainly no misnomer for it this year and the average voter will have to have his wits about him if he desires to vote out of the dominant party columns. It contains eleven columns, but in some of these there is no candidate in this district,

The various party columns are as follows: Republican, Democratic, Prohibition, Socialist, Socialist Labor, Citizens, Anti-Machine, Ballot Reform, Citizens, the Machine, Ballot Reform, Citizens' Labor, and Workingmen's. In addition there is the customary blank column in which voters who cannot find are no county or Fourth district candidates.

The column headed Citizens' Labor will be blank in this district. Thomas M. Moyles, of Laurel Run, who was denied a place on the Democratic ticket for representative in the Sixth district by the Dauphin county court, has the column all to himself. His name will not appear outside of the Sixth district. The Anti-Machine party has no candidate aspiring for office in this district. The Workingmen's party has only two candidates on the bailot to be used here. They are Colonel T. R. Martin for congress and Bernard J. Ferry for representative.

The name of Congressman Henry W. Palmer appears in two columns—Republican and Citizens. The names of the Democratic state candidates appear in two columns—Republican and Citizens. The names of the Democratic state candidates appear in three columns—Democratic, Ballot Reform and Anti-Machine.

He Is Not a Socialist.

He is Not a Socialist.

Grand Chief E. E. Clark, of the Order of Railway Conductors, who was in Scranton on Sunday, was interviewed in that city by a reporter. Mr. Clark is a member of the arbitration commission appointed by President Rosevelt. He was asked: "What do you think the commission will do?"

"That is a very leading question," said Mr. Clark. "I have my ideas, but could not express them under the circumstances. No doubt the others also have outlined policies of their own, all of which will probably be altered before the report is submitted."

"What do you think of the president's interpretation of a sociologist? Do you think you meet the requirements in that particular?" asked the reporter.

"My interpretation of a sociologist," he replied, "is identical, though I am modest in assuming that I am versed in sociology or political economy, as the word really means. Some people got the impression that I am a Socialist. They could not be more mistaken. As I understand the term, the president had in mind a man who had practical experi-They could not be more mistaken. As I understand the term, the president had in mind a man who had practical experience in sociological matters. A sociologist is one versed in political economy and a student of social conditions. A Socialist is radically different. The latter is a follower of a socialistic principle and is usually a very radical person. The two words are directly contrasted in meaning. While I deem it an honor to be styled a sociologist by Mr. Roosevelt, I would consider it anything else were I named a Socialist."

A number of Wilkesbarre officers fr A number of wilkesparre otheers from a detective agency in the West, which has been importing men to work at various collieries, were arrested charged with neglecting to pay ten sub-detectives. The latter claim they were brought here to do strike duty and that they are owed sums running as high as $300.

James F. Mullahy, who was nominated for representative by the Workingmen's Alliance in the Third legislative district, withdrew from the race yesterday.
