LABOR LEADER IS HONORED

Miners Present Him With a Badge and Watch.

National President in His Reply Looks Forward to Harmony Between Capital and Labor.

President John Mitchell was presented yesterday by the Polish, Lithuanian and Slavish people of the coal region with a gold badge valued at $250 and a watch worth $100. The badge is a copy of the Emancipation badge presented to President Lincoln by the freed slaves after the Civil War. It bears the insignia of the mine workers, a miner's pick and shovel, crossed above a mine lamp, and on the reverse side the inscription. Both badge and watch were inscribed as follows: "Presented to John Mitchell, president United Mine Workers of America, from the Polish, Lithuanian and Slavonian people of the anthracite coal fields of Pennsylvania."

Paul Pulaski, vice president of District 9, officiated as chairman and master of ceremonies. A large delegation of representatives of nationalities that had contributed to the gift were present in addition to Presidents Nichols, Duffy and Fahey and other prominent mine workers, members of both the English and foreign press and ministers of the Reformed Church, who are at present holding a convention in the city.

In his reply to the presentation address, President Mitchell said: "I have in my life been the recipient of many honors and have enjoyed to a large degree the confidence of those whose interests have been committed to my care, but I beg to assure you that I treasure more than language can express this additional manifestation of the good will and respect of your people."

"When I first came to the anthracite coal fields I found the mine workers disorganized and separated by race prejudices and religious animosities. There was no unity of action and no effective power of resistance, but now they are united, they have grown to know one another better, they recognize the identity of their interests and are prepared to move as one man in the advancement of their common cause."

"I look forward to the time when strikes shall be no more; when peace and justice and right shall be secured for those who toil; when labor and capital, each recognizing its rights and obligations to society, shall work in harmony for the common welfare of our country and in the general good of all our people."

The three district presidents, before President Mitchell's departure for Washington, had a long conference with him regarding the conditions. They remained with him until 4 o'clock, when he started for Washington, accompanied by Messrs. Fahey and Duffy. The president of District 7 went no further than Philadelphia.

The matters under discussion were the plans for presenting evidence to the commission, and the disturbing situation at Markle's, Cox's and Pardee's works, the Panther Creek district and at some of the smaller collieries throughout the Schuylkill and the Shamokin regions, where the operators are holding out, refusing to re-engage the men unless they sign contracts agreeing to abide by the decision of the commission or not to interfere with the non-union men working.

President Mitchell would not say what action had been taken, if any, but President Duffy declared that the men there would not return to work if they are required to sign the agreement. He said the miners could not understand why these operators maintain their position when the big companies insisted upon no such proposition.

EVICTON NOTICES.

Employees of Markle & Co. Receive Orders to Vacate Their Homes.

The labor trouble at Jeddo was further complicated today, when notices to vacate the houses owned by G. B. Markle & Co. were served upon several of the striking miners in that town.

The notices were served by Coal and Iron Police Officer Gottlieb Miller, the firm's regular officer, who was accompanied by one of the special guards employed at Jeddo.

The names of those who had received notices up to 2 o'clock this afternoon are: Paul Dunleavy, Henry Cull, James Gallagher, John Demshock, Charles Helferty, Japan; Andrew Konick, Michael Kushma, Foundryville, and Henry Shovlin, Oakdale.

The notices order the men and their families to vacate the premises they occupy within six days.

Most of the men who are ordered out are officers of Local Union No. 1518, of Jeddo, and have been employed by Markle & Co. for a number of years. They have been active in the strike, but so far as is known have not transgressed any laws or done anything which should cause them to receive the summary treatment accorded them.

It is reported that the officers who are serving the notices will visit Highland this afternoon and serve similar papers upon some of the men of that town who have been conspicuous in the strike.

It is believed that today's action of the Jeddo firm will have a tendency to aggravate the differences between Markle & Co. and their employees and will make an immediate adjustment of the trouble very improbable.

Troops Returning Home.

Major General Charles Miller, whose headquarters are at Pottsville at present, on Friday evening issued an order directing that the Twelfth regiment and Batteries A, B and C be sent home the next day. The Twelfth regiment is stationed in the vicinity of Scranton, and has been in service since July 31, a total of eighty-five days. This regiment during the early part of the strike troubles was stationed near Shenandoah. The regiment is from Locoming, Northumberland, Union, Montour and Clinton counties. Battery A is from Philadelphia, Battery B from Pittsburg and Battery C from Phoenixville. They were ordered out when the entire division was summoned recently.

The four Williamsport companies of the Twelfth arrived home in time to attend the funeral of Richard E. Knight, who contracted typhoid fever at Shenandoah and died on Friday. Two other members of the regiment, both of that city, also succumbed to the disease while on duty.

Ill in Philadelphia.

Miss Cassie McGarvey, a daughter of Mrs. Thomas McGarvey, of Walnut street, is dangerously ill at Jefferson hospital, Philadelphia. The young lady has been employed in that city for some years. Lately she became afflicted with stomach trouble and her physicians decided that an operation was necessary to effect a permanent cure. The operation was performed at the above hospital on Friday in the presence of her sister and was a success, but the patient became exceedingly weak and for a time her recovery was in doubt.

Her mother and brother, Daniel, went to Philadelphia on Saturday in response to an urgent message. She was also visited by her brother, John, of Jersey City. Since then her condition has steadily improved, but she is not yet out of danger.

Temperance Men Meet.

Representatives of the Catholic temperance societies of the Lehigh region met at Hazleton yesterday. A number of subjects of interest to those who are engaged in the total abstinence movement were discussed. Freeland was chosen as the next place of meeting on Sunday, January 25, 1903.

The following were the delegates present from the local societies:

Young Men's Corps—John McCole, J. D. Myers, Daniel F. O'Donnell, Patrick Collins and Peter O'Donnell.
St. Ann's Cadets—Edward A. McHugh, Denis North, James Brogan, Patrick S. Quinn and William Higgins.

It Was Another Doctor.

In the report of Friday's session of the Anthracite Coal Strike Commission the Tribune stated that Dr. H. M. Neale, of Upper Lehigh, had been appointed as one of the assistant recorders of the commission. This was incorrect, the appointee being Dr. C. P. Niell, professor of political economy at the Catholic university, Washington.

The report of the commissioner's session was received over the telephone, and the similarity of the names caused the error.

STRIKE NOTES.

News and Incidents of the Battle Between Miner and Operator.

A strike is threatened at the Hollenback colliery, Wilkesbarre. The men claim that the non-union engineers are incompetent, and that they will not go to work while the men are engaged. Saturday night a cage full of men was hoisted to the breaker head instead of the landing. At the Prospect colliery an engineer hoisted a cage to the shieve wheels and broke them. There is similar complaint at several of the mines.

There is general satisfaction among the mine workers over the appointment of Carroll D. Wright as an additional member of the commission, and President Mitchell is much pleased. He expects to return to Wilkesbarre tomorrow night and be present for the Mitchell Day celebration at the county seat on Wednesday.

First regiment soldiers say they would have received orders this week to return to their homes in Philadelphia if trouble had not arisen at Markle's and Cox's collieries. The men are anxious to see the local dispute settled, as they will not be released from duty until general resumption takes place in this section.

James Thompson, of South Centre street, has been authorized to collect statistics to be used before the Anthracite Coal Strike Commission. Mr. Thompson's data will refer principally to the miners' dwellings, families, etc., in the surrounding villages.

The striking miners at Drifton, Jeddo, Highland and Oakdale remain firm and say they will not go to work until the operators take them back on the same conditions upon which the employes of the large corporations returned.

Extensive preparations are being made for the Mitchell Day celebrations on Wednesday throughout the coal field. The union men of this section will parade here.

Judge Rice Seriously Ill.

President Judge Charles E. Rice, of the superior court of Pennsylvania, is in a serious condition at the Presbyterian hospital, Philadelphia. The prominent jurist was operated upon on Saturday for appendicitis. The operation was performed by Dr. Henry R. Wharton, one of the best physicians in that city. Judge Rice was taken to Philadelphia from Wilkesbarre Friday night, and on account of his condition he was accompanied by his wife, who is still at the hospital. The operation is said to have been a rather difficult one, in consequence of which the patient has not rallied as well as was expected. He was reported late last night as having improved somewhat.

Judge Rice has been president judge of the superior court of this state since 1895. He was born in Fairfield, New York, September 15, 1845. He was admitted to the Scranton bar in 1877 and a year or so later was elected district attorney of Luzerne county. His career was promising from the very start and a few years later he was honored with a judgeship of the common pleas court, of this county.

Candidates Seeking Votes.

Two candidates for governor of Pennsylvania on Saturday night pressed their claims for election before the voters at the county seat—Samuel W. Pennypacker, the Republican nominee, and J. W. Slayton, candidate of the Socialist party. The Socialist meeting was largely attended and it is expected that Mr. Slayton will cut into Judge Pennypacker's vote in this county.

Accompanied by his running mate, "Oleo Bill" Brown, former Postmaster General Charles Emory Smith, and W. I. Schaffer, of Delaware county, Judge Pennypacker spoke in the Ninth regiment armory. William Airy called the meeting to order and Congressman Henry W. Palmer was named as permanent chairman.

Next Saturday evening ex-Governor Pattison and other prominent Democrats will speak at the armory.

Engagement Announced.

The following from the society column of yesterday's Philadelphia North American confirms the announcement of the engagement made in Friday's Tribune:

"One of the recently announced Philadelphia engagements of interest is that of Edmund J. D. Cox and Miss Elizabeth K. M. Turner, of 1030 Spruce street. It will be a year from June when the prospective bridegroom is graduated from Harvard; that is if he concludes his course and does not hasten his marriage. Mr. Cox inherited a fortune from his father, the late Brinton Cox, and he celebrated his majority last spring by the presentation of a law library to Harvard college."

"Minne sota's Best" flour is sold by A. Oswald. There is none better made.

LOCAL NOTES WRITTEN UP

Short Items of Interest to All Readers.

Happenings of the Past Two Days in and Around Freeland Recorded Without Waste of Words.

The twentieth anniversary of the wedding of Postmaster and Mrs. B. F. Davis was celebrated at their home on Ridge street in an appropriate manner on Saturday. During the day they received many congratulations from their numerous friends. Mr. and Mrs. A. Donop also celebrated their twentieth wedding anniversary the same day.

The White Haven silk mill, which is operated by Peter Magagna, of town, and Frank Frigerio, of White Haven, is having its capacity increased by the installation of considerable additional machinery. The plant is run night and day and is a credit to its proprietors.

John Mainwaring, Sr., of Duryea, father of Register of Wills John Mainwaring, died suddenly at Plymouth last evening of heart trouble. Deceased was 73 years of age and had been a resident of Plymouth for years previous to his moving to Duryea.

The public school teachers of Freeland, Foster, Jeddo and Hazle departed at noon today for Wilkesbarre, where they will spend the week attending the county institute. The schools of the districts named will remain closed until next Monday.

The members of St. Ann's band were entertained on Saturday evening by Mr. and Mrs. F. H. McGroarty at their home on Main street. The band, of which Mr. McGroarty has been a member for many years, rendered a number of selections during the evening.

A one-story warehouse, with a deep basement, has been erected by Peter Timony in the rear of his bottling establishment on South Centre street. The structure will hold the produce from Mr. Timony's farm in Sandy valley.

The Crescents foot ball club was photographed yesterday morning at Herbst's gallery. The boys wore their gridiron costume and expect to show up well.

Cyrus Roffenberg, of the Hill, has resumed his duties as a motorman for the Lehigh Traction Company after a month's idleness due to rheumatism.

Miss Mame Hayes, a student at Bloomsburg normal school, is visiting her mother, Mrs. S. E. Hayes, on North Washington street.

The Good Wills foot ball club won from Jeddo yesterday by a score of 15 to 5.

John Denny, of Shamokin, spent yesterday at his parents' home on South Washington street.

The Crescents Athletic Association will hold a ball at Krell's hall on Thanksgiving Eve.

Yesterday's North American contained views of the troops stationed at Jeddo and Highland.

John Kelley, of Philadelphia, is a guest of his parents on South Washington street.

Weatherly council is still deadlocked on the granting of a franchise to the Hazleton, Beaver Meadow and Weatherly Trolley Company.

An investigation into the cause of the stoppage of a ventilating fan at the Maple Hill colliery, Mahanoy City, resulted in the discovery of the mangled body of John Davis, 67 years old, entangled in the blades of the fan.

The body of Joseph Sanders, cut in two, was found on the Lehigh Valley Railroad tracks Saturday afternoon. No one saw the accident. He had been one of the chief clerks in the Lehigh Valley freight station at Wilkesbarre for fifteen years.

The Banks township school board, of Carbon county, has taken a decided stand against permitting the use of school buildings by the Socialists, who are touring the region in quest of votes. The objection is that several of the buildings have been damaged.

BIRTHS.

Hudock.—To Mr. and Mrs. George Hudock, Main street, a son.

PLEASURE.

November 26.—Thanksgiving Eve ball under the auspices of the Crescents Athletic Association at Krell's hall. Ticket, 50 cents.

WILL SEND $4.00 FREE.

Franklin Miles, M. D., LL. B., the Celebrated Chicago Specialist, Will Send $4.00 Worth of His New Special Treatment Free to Each of Our Readers.

When an experienced physician offers to give away $10,000 worth of a New Treatment for disease of the heart, nerves, stomach or dropsy, it is conclusive evidence that he has great faith in it. And when hundreds of prominent people freely testify to his unusual skill and the superiority of his New Special Treatment, his liberality is certainly worthy of serious consideration.

That Dr. Miles is one of the world's most successful physicians is proven by hundreds of testimonials from well-known people. One patient cured after failure of eleven Grand Rapids physicians, two after being given up by six and seven Chicago physicians, another after nine leading doctors in New York City, Philadelphia and Chicago failed. 1000 testimonials sent upon request. The eminent Rev. W. Bell, D. D., of Dayton, O., Gen. Secy of Foreign Missions, writes editorially in The State Sunday School Union: "We desire to state that from personal acquaintance we know Dr. Miles to be a most skillful specialist, a man who has spared neither labor nor money to keep himself abreast of the great advancement in medical science." Col. Tucker, late General Manager N. Y. L. E. & W. R. R. says: "Dr. Miles' success as a physician has been phenomenal." "My heart," writes Dr. M. Davis, of Warren, Pa., "was so bad I was afraid of going to sleep lest it would be my last. Dr. Miles saved my life. I was completely cured in six weeks." Mrs. Abigail Chambers, of Chambersburg, Pa., states: "My trouble was in the brain and spinal cord. When I commenced Dr. Miles' treatment I had severe trouble with my stomach, neuralgia, sinking spells and dropsy. Dr. Miles cured me."

This new system of Special Treatment is thoroughly scientific and immensely superior to all ordinary methods known. As all afflicted readers may have $4.00 worth of treatment free, we would advise them to send for it at once. Address, Dr. Franklin Miles, 203 to 211 State street, Chicago, Ill.
