OVATION GIVEN JOHN MITCHELL

Thousands Greet the Leader at Indianapolis.

President of Mine Workers Accorded an Unparalleled Reception by the Citizens of the Convention City.

President John Mitchell, of the United Mine Workers of America, was accorded a magnificent reception by the citizens of Indianapolis when he arrived there yesterday to preside over the national convention of union miners, which began its sessions today. Thousands as-sembled at the Union station, where they vied with each other in cheers of welcome as he left his train and walked through the station. When he started to his carriage, which was waiting in front of the station, another large crowd surrounded him and would have carried him to the door had he not modestly waved the people aside.

Cheer after cheer rent the air as the carriage moved slowly along the street, and when he reached the Grand hotel
another demonstration was given in his No such scene was ever withonor. No such scene was ever witnessed in the city at the coming of a labor leader, and Mr. Mitchell was himself evidently surprised at the enthusiasm which his presence evoked, for he blushed like a girl as he acknowledged by bowing and by waving his hands the generous compliment paid him.

Mr. Mitchell's train was scheduled to arrive at 3.30 o'clock, and a delegation arrive at 3.30 o'clock, and a delegation arrive at 3 30 o'clock, and a delegation of citizens, headed by Mayor Book-walter and the business men of the city, went to Greenfield and met the incom-ing Pennsylvania train and acted as scort to the miners' president into the city. After boarding the train Mayor Bookwalter made a short speech, in which he referred to the people of the city as being highly appreciative of Mr. Mitchell's efforts in behalf of humanity. and wished him success in his futur undertakings.

Mr. Mitchell replied very modestly to Mr. Mitchell replied very moursely to the address, saying, in substance, that he had tried to do his duty, and was glad to receive another evidence that the people are taking such a deep inter-est in the cause in which he is engaged. He said he was but one among many thousands who have been making a fight for freedom and for better con-ditions, and he must construe the gen-erous sentiment expressed by the committees as relating more to the cause in which he is engaged than to any per-sonal merit in himself. After reaching the hotel an impromp-tu reception was held for an hour, when many took advantage of the occasion to congratulate Mitchell on the wonderful contest through which he had gone in the anthracite region.

A formal reception will be given the miners' leader at Tomlinson hall tonight by the citizens, at which a number of speeches will be made and which will be attended by the delegates to the nation-
