PARADE ON MARCH 17

ROUTE OF PARADE.

Parade will form at St. Ann's church in the order given above and be prepared to march at 1.30 p. m. over the following route:

From church to Luzerne street, to Ridge, to Carbon, to Washington, to Chestnut, to Ridge, to South, to Centre, to Chestnut, countermarch on Centre to Carbon, to Ridge, to Luzerne, where parade will be reviewed by the clergy and dismissed.

Curfew at Wilkesbarre.

The heavy whistles of three large breakers sounded the curfew to the children of Wilkesbarre at 9 o'clock last night for its first time. The new law compels all children under 14 years to be off the streets by 9 o'clock, unless accompanied by a parent or guardian.

Mayor Price's instructions to the police were to make no arrests last night, but to warn children found out and escort them to their homes. A second offense will mean arrest and the children and their parents will be compelled to pay a fine.

Whistles at each end of the city and in the heart of it gave loud warning, blowing for several minutes and they could be heard all over the city. The authorities are confident there will be but little violation of the law, the two weeks' notice given having been sufficient to warn all the parents and children.

Missing Girl Found.

Rose Chipano, aged 14 years, disappeared from her home on South Ridge street Wednesday evening, and all efforts of her father, step-mother and friends to locate her proved futile until last evening, when she was found residing with an Italian family named Franchell, in Hazleton. She was persuaded to return to her home and arrived here late last night. The girl says she ran away because of ill-treatment accorded her by her step-mother, but the latter denies that Rose was ever given reason to complain.

After the girl disappeared her uncle, Sandy Chipano, was suspected of being implicated in her going away, and he was arrested and placed in the borough lockup. His release was ordered yesterday by Chief of Police O'Donnell, who refused to hold him in the absence of any proof that he knew of the girl's whereabouts.

Death of Conrad Hoch.

Conrad Hoch, a Civil war veteran, died last night at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Frank Hontz, Birkbeck street. He was attacked by pneumonia some time ago and owing to his advanced age was unable to resist the weakening effects of the disease. Mr. Hoch was a resident of town for a number of years and was respected by his large number of acquaintances. He served in the Civil war as a sergeant in Company K, Eighty-first Penna's Volunteer infantry.

The deceased was a native of Luzerne county and was aged 74 years, 1 month and 14 days. He is survived by two sons and two daughters, as follows: Joseph, George, Mrs. Thomas Horn and Mrs. Frank Hontz, all of Freeland. He was married twice, and his second wife died last December at Allentown.

The funeral will take place at 1 o'clock Sunday afternoon. Interment will be made at Freeland cemetery. The members of Maj. C. B. Cox Post, No. 147, G. A. R., will attend the funeral.

Crescents Win Again.

The Crescents played all around the Gordon basket ball team last evening and won by a score of 28 to 12. The game was hotly contested by the visitors and had the locals not played ball at all times the result might have been different. The first half ended with the score 14 to 4 in favor of the Crescents.

The second half opened with terrific playing and passing and the audience became enthusiastic. The spurt of the Schuylkill county boys was short-lived, however, and they succeeded in scoring only four baskets, while the locals had seven for the half. The points were 14 to 8.

The final score was: Crescents, 28; Gordon, 12. Davis had one basket, O'Donnell and Jaquet two each, Welsh three and Nowak six. The latter shot for a basket during the second half which played him a trick. The ball rolled around the cage and stopped for a second or two on the edge and finally fell out. Dr. Cope refereed the game.

Report Ready Next Week.

Colonel Carroll D. Wright, recorder of the Anthracite Coal Strike Commission, is busy on the report of the commission. The expectation is that the award will have been decided upon and the report ready for transmission to the president by the latter part of next week.

The president, it is understood, would prefer to have the work completed before the adjournment of the present session of the senate. The members of the commission decline to discuss their work on the ground that all knowledge of the situation must come from the White House.

Y. M. C. A.

The Boys' Brigade gave their many friends a pleasant surprise in the way they conducted their social last evening. A very interesting program of vocal and instrumental solos, recitations, male quartette singing and selections by a pianist was rendered and refreshments were served.

Boys' bible class Saturday afternoon at 3.30 o'clock. All are welcome.

Sunday afternoon Secretary Vannauker will give his report of the state convention, recently held at Lebanon. All are invited to be present.

THEATRICAL.

In "Way Down East" Manager Wm. A. Brady has met with one of those opportunities that come to but few—and for which we all are anxiously looking. The play is one of the greatest dramatic successes of the last quarter century, and has made its fortunate owners not only rich but recognized as standing in the very front rank of theatrical managers.

The play tells a story so simple and yet so powerful, that it appeals to everybody at once. The pathos however is only one side of the picture, for the quaint New England characters who fill about the stage provide plenty of the element of humor to relieve the tension and give opportunity for hearty laughter. The tears and joy follow each other like the sun and showers of springtime, and in the end the benign influence of justice done and virtue rewarded, soothes and satisfies like the green of a peaceful landscape.

"My Friend From Arkansaw," which will be at the opera house tonight, is another of the successful character plays that are taking the country by storm now-a-days. This play gives us a picture of life in Arkansaw; showing the different types of individuals that are to be found in that locality. Any one that is at all familiar with the people of Arkansaw will readily understand that if the characters are properly drawn they can not help but be interesting when presented upon the stage.

Mr. Robert Sherman, the author, has fulfilled his mission in writing the play, for he has drawn characters true to life, people that you meet every day in Arkansaw. He has woven a strong plot around those people and introduced much natural and wholesome comedy, thereby making this drama one of the strongest plays now before the public.

Manager McMenamin has secured for Monday evening the beautiful rural and rustic drama, "One Night in June," in which W. J. Holmes will be seen as Silas Pevey, an honest Vermont farmer. In the last act he will introduce his funny specialty which has made millions laugh from Maine to Frisco. The play is full of pathos, sentiment and comedy. Many new specialties will be introduced by the several members of the company.

The convention of the State Federation of Labor, in session at Harrisburg, yesterday refused to endorse Socialism and acquitted certain high officials who are alleged to have allowed the use of the name of the organization in advocating enterprises intended for their private benefit.
