Bill Pending in Legislature for This Purpose.

Church People Are Using Their Influence With the Law-Makers to Have the Act Passed.

A bill now pending before the legisla-ture which provides that it shall be il-legal for any saloonkeeper to serve a free lunch in his place of business meets with the approval of the members of many church congregations throughout the state, and a movement is under way to press the proposed legislation and to press the proposed legislation have the act passed at the pre

At Philadelphia yesterday the anti At Philadelphia yesterday the anti-free lunch bill was discussed by the ministers of the Methodist Church con-ference and they gave their sanction to the measure by passing a special reso-lution which calls upon all members of the two houses to support the bill. The resolution sets forth that, in the opinion of the clergymen, free lunches are nothing more or less than tempta-tions which induce young men to visit saloons. The lunch is characterized as "a dangerous and prolific source of temp-

Notice to Milk Buyers.

Milk buyers are hereby notified that the present price of milk, 8 cents per quart, will be maintained until further notice. Owing to the refusal of whole-sale dealers and producers to lower the cost, and the continued high price for feed, etc., the customary summer reduction to 6 cents per quart will not be made this year. By order of Milkmen of Freeland and Vicinity.

One of the greatest melodramas ever written will come to Grand opera house this evening. The author has taken for the foundation of the play the life, trial and escape of the famous Biddle brothers, and the result is a play full of thrilling situations, exciting climaxes and a great love story. Briefly, the story is as follows: Two brothers get in with a tough gang and attempt to rob the store of an old man, who surprises them and is killed during the struggle. The Biddle brothers are arrested, convicted and sentenced to die.

Sam, the elder brother, has a strange influence over all women with whom he comes in contact, and he uses this power over the warden's wife, convincing her that he is in love with her and inducing her to provide them with pistols and the means of severing the prison bars. After they have over-powered the guards she takes them through her house and runs away with Church Destroyed.

St. Joseph's Italian Catholic church, Hazleton, was destroyed by fire yesterday morning, entailing a loss of $10,000. The edifice was located on the first street outstde of the city limits, and the Hazleton firemen did not respond because of some difficulty encountered at a recent conflagration outside the city limits.

Rev. Father Anthony, the rector, was the prime spirit in the movement for annexation to the city, which was defeated in common council recently.
