The Vulture.

The question is mooted whether the vulture knows of its quarry by sight or smell.

Colonel Ramsay ordered the carcass of the skinned tiger to be dragged out from under the thick mango trees into the open.

There had been a dogfight in the street, and a small crowd was just dispersing as the chief's carriage dashed up.

"What's the crowd after, Jenkins?" demanded the head of the firm.

"The chief clerk thought he recognized a chance of breaking the news gently and seized it.

"The vacancy, sir," he replied. "Vacancy? What vacancy?"

"Casher, sir." "But we want no cashier, Jenkins."

"Beg pardon, sir, but we've a vacancy for one."

"Jenkins, are you mad?" "No, sir. That is, sir, I don't know, sir. Fact is, sir, all the cash is gone, and—"

"Well?" "The cashier's gone with it, sir."—Baltimore World.

A Simple Rule. "It seems to be a very nice dog," said young Mrs. Torkins critically.

"I didn't know you were so well informed about dogs," exclaimed her husband.

"Oh, I could tell at a glance. He isn't ugly enough to be well bred."—Washington Star.

Keyless Napoleon. Napoleon was making an inspection of St. Helena.

"I have the Napoleonic lock all right," he mused, "but there doesn't seem to be any key."

"Seeing there was no chance of a hairbreadth escape, he bitterly turned to his memoirs."—New York Herald.

Woman's Best Friend. "Patience—Woman is woman's best friend after all."

"Patience—I guess you're right. Certainly I'm right. Even when she is getting married doesn't a man give her away and her maid of honor stand up for her?"—Yonkers Statesman.

Explained. "Yes; the stork brought us a baby brother."

"But he is so small." "Well, you see, the flies are so small in our house I don't guess the stork could get a larger one down the chimney."—Chicago News.

Effectual. "I have heard that Miss Chopchinn married young Fimblers with the idea of reforming him."

"Well, she succeeded. He says he'll never marry again if he lives to be a thousand years old."—Chicago Tribune.

Tablecloths. Tablecloths are marked nowadays on the diagonal line from the center to one of the corners.

An effective centerpiece for a table is an electric lamp placed on a mirror, with a stained glass globe reflecting the varied colors of the glass used in the design of the shade.

The lamp wick should be the largest size that the holder will receive. If it refuses to move easily, draw out one or two threads from each side.

For liver troubles and constipation there's nothing better in creation than Little Early Risers, the famous little pills.

They always effect a cure and save doctor bills. Little Early Risers are different from all other pills. They do not weaken the system, but act as a tonic to the tissues by arousing the secretions and restoring the liver to the full performance of its functions naturally. Grover's City drug store.

EASTER HATS.

At Easteride a woman's hat is foremost on her mind; She wants the very latest style.

The most expensive kind; All through the day, all through the night; About it she will chat, The while her husband has to wear His old plug hat.

On Easter day she will parade Along the avenue, Her bonnet trimmed with violets And costly roses too; She is the cynosure of eyes, The subject of each chat, The while her husband calmly wears His old plug hat.

—New York Times.

A Welcome Caller.

The Caller—What did your sister say when you told her I was here? Dorothy—I can't tell you, 'cause mamma sez it's un ladylike to say "Dog-gone the luck!"—New York Journal.

Breaking It Gently.

The cashier of a certain firm had absconded, and the head clerk was decided on as being a fit and proper person to acquaint the head of the firm of the fact on his arrival.

"What's the crowd after, Jenkins?" demanded the head of the firm.

"The chief clerk thought he recognized a chance of breaking the news gently and seized it.

"The vacancy, sir," he replied. "Vacancy? What vacancy?"

"Casher, sir." "But we want no cashier, Jenkins."

CONTRACT FOR THREE YEARS

Continued from First Page. Information on the subject, was notified that a commitment must accompany all prisoners placed in the borough lockup.

The annual report of the auditors was read and accepted and ordered published in the Tribune and Press.

The water pipe was reported broken at the Fourth Ward building, and the proper committee was authorized to have repairs made.

The special committee to investigate bonds of borough officials reported that the same are correct.

A motion was carried that the chair appoint a library committee to consist of four councilmen and five citizens.

A motion prevailed that last year's special police officers be retained.

Messrs. Brennan, Crawford and Hincor were appointed to secure a filing cabinet in which to preserve the documents of the borough.

The printing committee was instructed to procure all necessary stationery.

The expenditures on the streets by Commissioner Herron amounted to $75.86.

Burgess Martin reported total amount collected in March $27.45; $15.50 due borough and $12.45 due burgess.

The report was approved with the exception of a deduction of 50 cents commission off three lockup fees.

The matter was referred to the law and order committee.

The following bills were approved: P. J. Boyle, coal and hauling work on streets, $32.40; Michael Doggett, ex-street commissioner, $11.88; Hugh O'Donnell, janitor, salary and feeding prisoners, $25.65; Dr. W. H. Deardorff, secretary Board of Health, $25; James J. Ward, health officer, $50; salaries of police, $147; John Edinger, coal oil, $2.80; Matthias Schwabe, coal, $3.50; Silas Woodring, carpenter, 75c; Bernard Gallagher, ex-janitor, salary and feeding prisoners, $11.56; John J. McBrearty, solicitor, salary and filing bonds, $151.70; Bernard Boyle, Jonah Evans and George H. Hartman, auditors, $12 each.

Due notice is hereby served on the public generally that DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve is the only salve on the market that is made from the pure, unadulterated witch hazel.

DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve has cured thousands of cases of piles that would not yield to any other treatment, and this fact has brought out many worthless counterfeits.

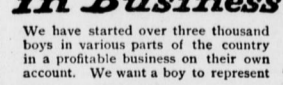

Those persons who get the genuine DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve are never disappointed, because it cures. Grover's City drug store.

Sleeps on Spikes. Many are the fakirs in Benares, but it is doubtful if any one of them excites as much astonishment as the man who voluntarily submits to a kind of torture which is decidedly sensational and novel.

Instead of reclining, like other mortals, on an ordinary couch he stretches himself daily in the presence of a wondering throng on a plank bed which is studded with a forest of sharp spikes.

Stoically he endures his suffering in silence. Indeed the expression on his face seems to indicate that he rather enjoys his uncomfortable position.

Do You Enjoy What You Eat?

You can eat whatever and whenever you like if you take Kodol. By the use of this remedy disordered digestion and diseased stomachs are so completely restored to health, and the full performance of their functions naturally, that such foods as would be one into a double-bow-knot are eaten without even a "rumbling" and with a positive pleasure and enjoyment.

Kodol is the only digestant or combination of digestants that will digest all classes of food. In addition to this fact, it contains, in assimilative form, the greatest known tonic and reconstructive properties.

Kodol cures indigestion, dyspepsia and all disorders arising therefrom.

Kodol Digests What You Eat Makes the Stomach Sweet.

Bottles only. Regular size, $1.00, holding 2 1/2 times the trial size, which sells for 50 cents.
