WILLING TO HELP FREELAND

All Are Anxious to Organize Board of Trade.

Meeting Called For Tomorrow Evening Promises to Be Well Attended by the Citizens of Town.

The movement started recently to advance the interests of Freeland by the organization of a Board of Trade, or some similar association of citizens, has now reached a point which means success or failure. The promoters have fixed tomorrow evening as the time for the coming together of all persons in our town and vicinity who feel inclined to interest themselves in the welfare of the community. Should the attendance on this occasion be in keeping with the importance of the event, the movement will start out with its success assured; if a spirit of lethargy and indifference is manifested, the movement cannot prosper.

Consequently, it is absolutely necessary that the meeting called for tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock in the Municipal hall should not be missed by any person who is in sympathy with its object. Business men, especially, ought to make a special effort to be present and help in establishing an organization of the class proposed.

So far nothing but encouragement for the movement has been heard on all sides. The proposition apparently meets with unanimous approval, and, if but a little of the town's old-time energy and push is displayed this week, Freeland will again be classed with the progressive cities and towns of the state and have an enterprising body to guard its interests and be ever ready to advance them.

The fact that not one dollar has ever been lost to an investor in a Freeland industry ought to be a sufficient inducement to those who have idle money to give their assistance in bringing more mills, factories, etc., to the town.

Hundreds of manufacturers of staple goods and employers of adult labor are seeking locations in towns like this, and in a few months many propositions from such as these can be obtained, providing an association exists there to officially consider them and pass upon their merits. Freeland cannot get away too soon from its dependence upon coal alone, and it should be the aim of every land-owner, property-owner, business man and workingman in the town to assist in hastening the day when the borough will be self-sustaining and independent.

Go to the meeting tomorrow evening and show by your presence that the progress of the town is not a secondary consideration in your affairs.

Carries Heavy Insurance.

The Prudential Insurance Company, which has agents in Freeland, one of whom is Mrs. S. E. Hayes, has insured L. Rodman Wanamaker, son of John Wanamaker, of Philadelphia, for $1,000,000. This makes Mr. Wanamaker one of the most heavily insured private individuals in the world, as he carries policies for $2,000,000. His insurance is said to be exceeded only by that of King Edward VII. John Wanamaker, his father, carries policies of $1,500,000.

Eckley Man Killed.

Patrick Burke, aged 44 years, who removed from Eckley to Hazleton after the late coal strike, was killed today in Shaft No. 40 by an explosion of dynamite, caused by a spark from his lamp coming in contact with the powder. The deceased has several relatives in this vicinity.

THREE DEATHS.

Two Former Drifton Residents Die at Wilkesbarre and One in Freeland.

James McCallum died at 6 o'clock this morning at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Michael Halpin, corner of Walnut and Pine streets, from general debility and ailments incident to old age. Mr. McCallum was one of the pioneer residents of Drifton, and spent many years in that town before making his home here. The deceased is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Halpin, Freeland, and Mrs. Frank Brogan, Mt. Carmel, and one son, Hugh, of New York state. The funeral will take place at 9 a. m. on Wednesday, followed by a requiem mass at St. Ann's church. The interment will be made at St. Ann's cemetery.

The remains of John Carr, Sr., of Wilkesbarre, will arrive here at 9.55 a. m. tomorrow. They will be taken to St. Ann's church, and after services have been held will be interred at St. Ann's cemetery. Mr. Carr died Saturday evening at his home in Wilkesbarre from an attack of bronchitis. He was a resident of Drifton for many years, and is survived by the following children: Mrs. Timothy Boyle, Mrs. Daniel Shovlin, John J. Carr, Freeland; Michael Carr, Mrs. Anthony McGandy, Wilkesbarre; also Maggie, Theresa, Annie and Katie.

The death of John Kilkelly occurred last evening at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Peter Riely, Wilkesbarre, after four months' illness of general debility. He is survived by his wife and one daughter. The deceased resided several years in Drifton and Freeland, where he was well known and respected. His son was killed in a boiler explosion at Drifton some years ago. During the Civil war Mr. Kilkelly served in the Second regiment, New York Heavy artillery.

Lost First of the Series.

Saturday evening's game, which was the first of a series of three between the Crescent and Plymouth clubs, resulted in a victory for the latter by a score of 13 to 7. The game was very rough and that some one was not injured was surprising. During the first half one of the visiting players struck his opponent several times in the face. After a time an apology was made to the Freeland player and the game continued.

At the outset the game started well and after a hard tussle Plymouth landed a basket. When the ball was again put in play the visitors recaptured it and secured another ace. The locals then advanced the ball and scored. A free throw by Plymouth missed and one by the locals was not scored, as Referee Cope decided Welsh was over the scratch when he threw it. A free throw shortly after netted the locals one more point. Another ace was made by the locals, then the half ended with the score: Crescents, 5; Plymouth, 4.

In the second half the Crescents only scored on two free throws, while the visitors made four aces and a free throw. The score of the half was: Crescents, 2; Plymouth, 9. The final score was: Crescents, 7; Plymouth, 13.

The line-up was as follows:
Crescents. Positions. Plymouth.
Nowak.....Forward.....Collett
O'Donnell.....Forward.....Morris
Welsh.....Centre.....Jones
Davis.....Guard.....Davis
Hartman.....Guard.....Jones

Placed Under $2,000 Bail.

Jesse Wolfe, a son of Daniel Wolfe, of Butler valley, was arrested by Constable Welsh Saturday evening on a warrant charging him with being the assailant of Miss Estelle Klose and with shooting at and wounding her stepmother, Mrs. John Sipple, while the women were driving last week from Hobbie to their home in Jeddo.

The prisoner was identified by Miss Klose as the man who stopped their horse, tried to drag her out of the carriage and afterward fired shots at them, one of which took effect in the arm of Mrs. Sipple.

Wolfe, who is aged about 21 years, was given a hearing at noon today before Squire Shovlin, at the conclusion of which he was asked to furnish $2,000 for his appearance at court. Up to the time of going to press the security had not been furnished, but his friends expect to have him released before night.

Special Train Tonight.

In order to give the large number of White Haven people who desire to see "Foxy Grandpa" an opportunity to witness the play, a special train has been chartered by the theatre-goers of that town to run to Freeland tonight. The train will arrive here about 7.30 o'clock and will leave on its return trip about 11.15 o'clock.

White Haven people appreciate a good thing when it comes within hailing distance of them, and their prompt work in securing a special train to bring them to the Grand this evening speaks well for their enterprise.

SOME NEW LAWS.

Bills of More or Less Local Interest Recently Signed by the Governor.

Among the bills recently signed by Governor Pennypacker were the following:

Requiring schools tax collectors in boroughs and townships to make monthly statements to the secretary of the school board and providing for the meeting of school directors and tax collectors and for the collection and payment of all school taxes to treasurer on or before the first Monday of June of each year.

Permitting farmers to sell their own products without a license in and about the streets of boroughs and cities.

To establish county associations of school directors.

Enabling the burgess or council of a borough or incorporated town by ordinance to annex adjacent territory upon petition of a majority of the freehold owners.

Two bills giving the courts discretionary power in imposing penalties on violators of the acts relating to the sale of intoxicating drinks.

Permitting the election of one female overseer of the poor in boroughs and townships.

Making it a misdemeanor to wilfully and maliciously poison a dog.
Providing for the payment of liquor license money to school districts in townships in which the roads shall have been made and repaired by taxpayers pursuant to the act of June 12, 1893.

BILLS VETOED.

Governor Pennypacker has vetoed a number of bills, among them the following:

For the better protection of game and game birds.

Making it unlawful for persons to spit in public conveyances and public places.

To regulate the sale of anthracite coal by the ton.

Making it unlawful for liquor dealers to furnish free lunch, except crackers, cheese and pretzels.

Providing for the better sanitary conditions for hotels and boarding houses in townships of the second class by the erection of sewers through private property.

"Foxy Grandpa" Tonight.

The fact that "Foxy Grandpa," which comes here tonight, is based chiefly on pictures seems to have been a distinct advantage, for it allowed the author to draw on his imagination, and he has shown much ingenuity in working out the plot. "Foxy" and Chub and Bunt, with their jokes and tricks, are much in evidence, but never too much so. There is more of a plot than is expected in plays of this kind. Goodelby Goodman, "grandpa," has taken his grandsons to a summer hotel, where he does his utmost for their enjoyment, and in that is assisted by his private secretary, Polly Bright. Through a service rendered one of the grandsons Goodelby's sympathies, and afterwards his affections are enlisted by Signorina Colonna, an adventuress, and she almost succeeds in winning him away from his grandsons, and with the help of her three brothers forcing him to marry her, when her designs are exposed.

On a thread of mistaken identity are hung many funny situations and complications, out of which everybody emerges triumphantly. This, of course, is the merest sketch of the story, which is told in a hilarious and entertaining manner.

Everything goes with a snap. Action is the thing, from first to last. The musical numbers have this also from the wooden-legged song and dance, "Military Charlie," through the "Bathing Lesson" and "My Clementine," to the "Barn Dance" at the finale. All is movement, light and color. The company is remarkably capable, and the chorus of pretty girls tuneful and graceful. With music by DePierro's complete orchestra of ten pieces, the topical songs are likely to be popular outside the theatre.

For Jury Commissioner.

Among the offices to be filled at next fall's election is that of jury commissioner, and John J. McNellis, of Freeland, has announced himself as a candidate for the nomination on the Democratic ticket. It is many years since the town has been favored with a nomination for a county office, and Mr. McNellis feels that his claims for the honor will be favorably considered by the convention. He has placed delegates in a number of the districts of this section, those in Freeland being as follows:
First ward—Bart McClannan.
Second ward—John Gallagher.
Third ward—Frank McLaughlin.
Fourth ward—James Dennell.
Fifth ward—Peter O'Donnell.
Sixth ward—H. A. McMenamin.
Additional locals on the fourth page.

LOCAL NOTES WRITTEN UP

Short Items of Interest to All Readers.

Happenings of the Past Two Days in and Around Freeland Recorded Without Waste of Words.

A number of contract miners employed by Cox Bros. & Co. at Drifton mines were suspended on Friday for two days, on the charge of violating a new rule of the company, which prohibits employees from leaving the mines before 5 p. m. Many of the men suspended are indignant and promise to retaliate in a manner which will not be relished by the Drifton corporation.

A perceptible decrease in school attendance has taken place during the past week, by pupils leaving their studies to work in the breakers and mills. Some parents, it appears, fail to appreciate the recent extension of the school term, and if the decrease in attendance continues the board of directors would be justified in closing at the end of the eighth month.

A kitchen adjoining the residence of William Williams, of Upper Lehigh, was discovered on fire last evening. The blaze gained headway rapidly and to save the dwelling the kitchen was overturned and pushed far enough away from the house to prevent the flames from spreading. The structure was totally destroyed.

The remains of Mrs. John Sheetz, who died Friday evening at Eckley, were interred yesterday afternoon at Freeland cemetery. Services were conducted at St. Luke's Lutheran church previous to the interment.

Garden seeds can be had at Wm. Birkbeck's for 3 and 5 cents a package.

The rooms occupied by the Young American Social Club, in the Gallagher building, are being remodeled. A piano has been purchased by the club and the organization is enjoying a period of prosperity.

The suggestion in Friday's Tribune that Freeland make an effort to secure the proposed Miners' Home has been favorably commented upon by exchanges in Wilkesbarre, Hazleton and other towns.

"Minnesota's Best" flour is sold by A. Oswald. There is none better made.
In an interesting game of base ball played on Saturday at the Tigers park between the High School and the Mining and Mechanical Institute teams, the former won, 12 to 6.

Phil C. Miller, the Front street barber, who has been ill the greater part of the past winter, is again confined to his bed and is said to be very low.
Latest wall paper at Wm. Birkbeck's.
The special convention of District 7, U. M. W. of A., opened this morning at Hazleton, with all the locals of the district represented.

Herbert Smith, who is taking a course at Philadelphia Dental college, is the guest of his sister, Mrs. S. S. Hess.
John Collins, Sr., of Hartford, Conn., is the guest of his son on Birkbeck street.

Miss Kate Gallagher, of Philadelphia, is visiting her parents in the Third ward.
Fred Snyder and family have removed from the Third ward to Hazleton.

Mrs. John McDonald is confined to her home with a severe cold.
Anthony Rudewick is suffering from an attack of the mumps.
Miss Mame McDonald is home from New York city.

RELIGIOUS.

An anniversary requiem mass will be read at St. Ann's church Tuesday morning of next week in memory of Mrs. Julia O'Donnell.

Rev. Carl Houser conducted services yesterday at Cementon, where a congregation of Slavish Lutherans has been formed.

Rev. L. C. Edmunds, of Indiana, filled the pulpit at St. John's Reformed church yesterday.

Good for Children.

The pleasant to take and harmless One Minute Cough Cure gives immediate relief in all cases of Cough, Croup and Laryngitis because it does not pass immediately into the stomach, but takes effect right at the seat of the trouble. It draws out the inflammation, heals and soothes and cures permanently by enabling the lungs to contribute pure life-giving and life-sustaining oxygen to the blood and tissues.
