FREELAND, PA., APRIL 27, 1903.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

Patrick Hennessy, of Nanticoke, who is in the county jail awaiting trial on a charge of killing Daniel Dorris, who refused to restate him in his position as a pumpman at one of the collieries, has been officially declared insane, after an investigation covering several weeks.

The annual report of the Eastern penitentiary for the prison year of 1902 has been issued. Luzerne county has 61 prisoners in the institution, ranking third in the state. The two leading counties are Philadelphia, with 305, and Lackawanna, with 62 prisoners.

Carbon county juries have awarded damages for injuries sustained on dilapidated pavements against the boroughs of Weatherly and Weissport. Weatherly will have to pay $925, while Weissport's portion is $2,300.25.

Whipped Cream Receptacles.

Whipped cream looks especially tempting and foamy served in a special dish which ceramic designers have got out for the purpose. This is shaped like a broad, shallow bowl with two slender, twisted handles, which have their part in the decorative scheme. The design is maple leaves of a rich scarlet tone, some marked with brown and some with a tinge of gold. An occasional golden brown leaf with an edge of gold is seen in the group. The leaves are massed as if arranged around the dish, and they overlap each other here and there. The slender twisted handle is either gilded or painted brown, to suggest the stems of the leaves.

Another suggestion for decorating a whipped cream dish is to paint in a sea green background and have the figures of sea nymphs rising, with arms outstretched, from the foam tipped waves, as if supporting the mass of whipped cream in the dish.

Systematic Housekeeping.

Any woman in charge of a house, her own or another's, is incompetent who cannot instantly tell not where every article is, but where she has written its place down against the time of inquiry or need. After all, why should a lawyer's set of tin boxes be more orderly and their contents more accessible than our set of trunks? Begin this system at once, and you will save yourself many an unnecessary expenditure and many a weary hour ordinarily spent in looking for things carefully put away and heretofore only to be as carefully sought for.—Household.

London Workingwomen.

A census was recently made by the Women's Industrial Council of the rent paid and accommodation secured by 500 typical London workingwomen of limited income. Their average income was $128 19s., the average rent they paid $28 4s. apiece, and all but sixty-seven lived in lodgings, flats or rooms. The sixty-seven lived in boarding houses. All complained of high rent and irritating rules and restrictions.

The Children's Frocks.

The fashion of trimming with insertion should be utilized by the thrifty mother for lengthening the children's frocks. Cut off the hem of the skirt and put in a strip of insertion two or three inches wide; then replace the hem, and the skirt will be the right length and prettier than it was before. Lengthen the sleeves in the same way and the bodice, too, if necessary.

PEOPLE OF THE DAY

He Represents the Kaiser.
Dr. Alfred Pellidram, the new German minister to Venezuela, who recently arrived in New York en route to his new post, was emphatic in declaring that the American people did Kaiser Wilhelm a great wrong when they attributed ulterior motives to the German emperor's demand that Venezuela pay her debts.

The new minister stated that he had no doubt of a cordial reception at Caracas, saying that his object was to promote good feeling between his country and Venezuela as well as further to assist the good will between the United States and Germany. Dr. Pellidram is a bachelor, but his secretary, who is on the way, has a charming wife.

Marconi's Boyhood.

All great men were boys once, and the world likes to believe that they were dull boys. Marconi, although a young man, is old enough for a legend of his youth to make its appearance. Some one has found that he went to school in Florence. Indeed the teacher who guided his infant footsteps in learning has been discovered. Signora Luisa Cavallero is a fine old lady of seventy-four years, who says the chief recollection of her younger days is teaching Marconi. "Who would have thought," she says, "that the Inglesino (little Englishman), as we used to call him because of his slight figure and sedate manner, would have turned out a genius! He was always a model of good behavior, that I will say for him; but as to brain—well, the least said is the soonest mended. I am afraid he got many severe punishments, poor little man, but he took them like an angel. Since he has become so great," she added indignantly, "my conscience has reproached me a thousand times. Fancy punishing a genius!" holding up horrified hands. "At that time," she added deprecatingly, "he could never manage to learn anything by heart; it was impossible. I used to think that I had never seen a child with so defective a memory. He will not remember me, but I think of him constantly and hope some time to see him again."

Stories of Zangwill.

Countless stories are told of Israel Zangwill's wit, particularly when exercised on the subject of the drama. Some one had quoted the saying that the ancient Greeks could make drama out of "two boards and a passion." Zangwill retorted that all we now need is "two sticks and a wardrobe" and that "every actor's motto appeared to be that 'the part is greater than the whole.'"

Zangwill has many personal peculiarities, according to a writer in the Critic. One of them is his indifference to convention as regards dress. At a garden party given by a well known literary agent his attire consisted of a black frock coat, tightly buttoned; a pair of mealy colored flannel trousers which had evidently seen better days, a black felt Homburg hat and a crimson tie.

"Dooley's" Big Salary.

Finley Peter Dunne, author of "Mr. Dooley," has closed a contract with Harper & Bros., the publishers, that makes him the highest salaried literary man in the country and perhaps in the world.

Mr. Dunne is to receive a salary of $40,000 a year, so the report goes. His work is likely to include editorials for the Harper publications as well as additions to the Dooley sketches and other efforts.

Senator Vest's Colleagues.

Ex-Senator Vest has been drawing some conclusions about the fleeting tenure of office. He reaches these conclusions through a compilation of names of men who have been his colleagues in public life at Washington. He has the number of these senators and representatives arranged by states. One of the most interesting points Mr. Vest develops is that in the twenty-four years of his service in the senate Missouri is the only state which during that period has not made some change in her senators.

School Directors Arrested.

The first of several scores of school directors who, it is alleged, have been demanding bribes from teachers in return for employment, were arranged before Justice Fister, of Pottsville, Saturday evening. No evidence was heard, as the defendants waived a hearing; but attorneys for the prosecution say that a condition of affairs far worse than that recently developed in Philadelphia will be exposed.

The defendants, each of whom was held in $500 bail, are Nicholas Murray, James Boyle, Daniel Gallagher, John Donahue and Richard McGee, school directors of Blythe township.

The Lehigh Coal and Navigation Company, the heaviest taxpayer of Blythe, is the prosecutor in the case. Affidavits were submitted to prove that the directors conspired together and with one James Hughes to demand money from the teachers, of whom there are thirteen in the district.

Last Sunday Rev. P. F. Dever, rector of the Holy Family church, at New Philadelphia, which is situated in Blythe township, announced from the altar that it was known that money had been paid certain school directors by school teachers, and he cautioned them to return the money or prosecution would follow.

A Sweet Breath

is a never failing sign of a healthy stomach. When the breath is bad the stomach is out of order. There is no remedy in the world equal to Kodol Dyspepsia Cure for curing indigestion, dyspepsia and all stomach disorders. Mrs. Mary S. Crick, of White Plains, N. Y., writes: "I have been a dyspeptic for years—tried all kind of remedies but continued to grow worse. By the use of Kodol I began to improve at once, and after taking a few bottles am fully restored in weight, health and strength and can eat whatever I like." Kodol digests what you eat and makes the stomach sweet. Grover's City drug store.

Temperance Convention.

At Harleigh yesterday afternoon the quarterly convention of the Fourth District T. A. B. societies was held. Bishop Hoban, of Scranton, made a brief address to the delegates, dwelling on the importance of leading a life of sobriety. To the lady delegates he spoke encouragingly and advised them to continue in their noble cause and to gather to the fold all who strayed from it.

Father Hussie gave one of his characteristic talks on the subject of intemperance, in which he expressed his disapprobation of the treating habit. Father Burke and Father O'Hara also made brief addresses.

The proposed amendments to the constitution were taken up and but few of the many proposed were endorsed. President McCullough was elected as a delegate to represent the district at the annual convention of Scranton C. T. A. Union, which will be held at Jersey May 20.

It was decided to hold the next convention at McAdoo and it will under the auspices of the Ladies' T. A. B. Society, of that place.

Due Notice is Served.

Due notice is hereby served on the public generally that DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve is the only salve on the market that is made from the pure, undiluted witch hazel. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve has cured thousands of cases of piles that would not yield to any other treatment, and this fact has brought out many worthless counterfeits. Those persons who get the genuine DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve are never disappointed, because it cures. Grover's City drug store.

Cannot Own Brewery Stock.

An important ruling was made recently in the license court at Pittsburg, which is to the effect that every applicant for a retail license must file an affidavit stating that he is not the owner of any brewing company stock. This is in line with the interpretation of the Brooks law, which prohibits a retailer from being engaged in the manufacture of intoxicating drinks, the judges deciding that the holding of stock constituted being engaged in the manufacture. The ruling will affect hundreds of retail dealers in breweries.

For liver troubles and constipation There's nothing better in creation Than Little Early Risers, the famous little pills They always effect a cure and save doctor bills.

Little Early Risers are different from all other pills. They do not weaken the system, but act as a tonic to the tissues by arousing the secretions and restoring the liver to the full performance of its functions naturally. Grover's City drug store.

Do You Enjoy What You Eat?

You can eat whatever and whenever you like if you take Kodol. By the use of this remedy disordered digestion and diseased stomachs are so completely restored to health, and the full performance of their functions naturally, that such foods would tie one into a double-bow-knot are eaten without even a "rumbling" and with a positive pleasure and enjoyment. And what is more—these foods are assimilated and transformed into the kind of nutriment that is appropriated by the blood and tissues.

Kodol is the only digestant or combination of digestants that will digest all classes of food. In addition to this fact, it contains, in assimilative form, the greatest known tonic and reconstructive properties.

Kodol cures indigestion, dyspepsia and all disorders arising therefrom.
