A Hearty Eater.

There is a story in the French army of a captain who made a wager one day that a drummer of his company could eat a whole calf. The drummer, proud of his distinction, promised to do honor to the captain's compliment. Accordingly, a calf was prepared in various appetizing ways and was being promptly disposed of by the drummer. When he had finally consumed about three-quarters of the repast, he paused for another draft of wine and, placing his knife and fork on his plate, said to his superior officer, "You had better have the calf brought on, had you not, for all these little kickshaws will end in taking up room."

Ladies and Children Invited.

All ladies and children who cannot stand the shocking strain of laxative syrups, cathartics, etc., are invited to try the famous Little Early Risers. They are different from all other pills. They do not purge the system. Even a double dose will not gripe, weaken or sicken; many people call them the Easy Pill. W. H. Howell, Houston Tex., says nothing better can be used for constipation, sick headache, etc. Bob Moore, Lafayette, Ind., says all other gripe and sicken, while DeWitt's Little Early Risers do their work well and easy. Sold by Grover's City drug store.

A Tiger Story.

There is a story current at Kuloang, central China, about a tiger which gave trouble in that quarter. A missionary and his wife had been worried by the tiger prowling nightly around their home. They determined to be rid of it and one night tied a cow up in the back yard and a dog at the front of the house. Then they armed themselves with guns and kept watch. The tiger appeared. The missionary fired and killed the cow. The wife rushed to see what had happened, and in her absence the tiger ate the dog.

END OF THE HACKNEY.

How He Is Worn Out in the Service of Society.

The prancing, high stepping hackneys that draw the shiny carriages of the rich are often driven the pace that kills. In "Horses Nine" Sewell Ford tells the story of such a horse and his mate and how they were worn out. The author says: Seeing them come down the street, heads tossing, pole chains jingling, and the monogram of the house of Jerry glistening on quarter cloth and rosette, their polished hoofs seeming barely to touch the asphalt, you might have thought their lot one to be envied. But Bonfire knew better.

He curved his neck and threw his hoofs high, whether his muscles ached or no; in winter he stamped to keep warm, in summer to dislodge the flies; he did his work faithfully, early or late, in cold and in heat, and all this because he was a son of Sir Bardolph and for the reason that it was his nature to. Had it been put upon him he would have worked in harness until he dropped, prancing his best to the last.

No supreme test, however, was ever brought to the endurance and willingness of Bonfire. They just kept him on the pole, nerves tense, muscles strained, until he began to lose form. His action no longer had that grace and abandon which so pleased Mrs. Jerry when she first saw him. Long standing in the cold numbs the muscles. It robs the legs of their spring. Sudden starts, such as are made when you are called from line after an hour's waiting, finish the business. Try as he might Bonfire could not step so high, could not carry a perfect crest. His neck had lost its roundness, in his rump a crease had appeared.

At last the inevitable happened. Two young hackneys, plump of neck, round of quarter, springy of knee and hock, were brought to the stable. Bonfire and his mate were led out of their old stalls to return no more. They had been worn out in the service and cast aside like a pair of old gloves.

POSTAL ODDITIES.

With one exception there has been a deficit in postal revenues every year since 1835.

Thousands of letters are mailed every day without the vestige of an address to indicate for whom they are intended.

Mail matter of any kind addressed in a vague and indefinite way, such as to "the most prominent physician," etc., is not deliverable.

Benjamin Franklin, first postmaster general, boasted that under his administration all the cities of the country had been provided with a weekly mail.

One may mail a letter destined for foreign parts without prepayment of postage. It will go forward to destination, and the recipient will be required to pay double rates for the privilege of reading it if he values it sufficiently.

At the Chicago post office a record is kept of the different ways of spelling the name of that city on mail addresses. At last accounts 280 varieties had been tabulated. Among the less intricate of these are Zizzzo, Jaggiago, Hipahlo, Jajjijo and Chachicho.

Work Done While Asleep.

Cabanis tells us that Franklin on several occasions mentioned to him that he had been assisted by dreams in the conduct of affairs in which he was engaged.

Condillac states that while writing his "Course of Studies" he was frequently obliged to leave a chapter incomplete and retire to bed, and on awaking he found it, on more than one occasion, finished in his head.

The most remarkable testimony of this kind is perhaps that of Sir Thomas Browne, who declared that, if it were possible, he would prefer to carry on his studies in his dreams, so much more efficient were his faculties of mind when his body was asleep.

Hysteria in Dogs.

Nerves are the disease of the present day among human beings, but I did not know till recently that hysteria is also a malady of dogs. A friend of mine owned a dog which suddenly one day was seized with an attack of nerves. Since then it has been very ill, wandering incessantly round and round the room, refusing food, but still recognizing its owner. Another little dog suffered from hysteria in consequence of fright from railway traveling, and it really seems as though civilization, in rendering dogs more delicate and more susceptible, had done them a distinct physical injury.—London Graphic.

Work Planned Out.

"That was a pleasant gentleman you introduced to me."
"Yes; he has some excellent qualities. I am going to make something of him if he will let me."
"You make something of him? Why, he looks old enough to be your father."
"He is old enough. That's what I'm going to make of him—a father-in-law."—Kansas City Journal.

Plenty of Taste.

"Well," said Nuritch, who had been showing Kandor through his new house, "what do you think of the furnishing?"
"They—er—show a great deal of taste," replied Kandor.
"Think so!"
"Yes; but it's all very bad."

No Cause for Complaint.

"So you resent these hints of dishonesty in the government?"
"Most emphatic," answered Farmer Cornstossel. "I've been buyin' postage stamps from the government for years and never got cheated yet."—Washington Star.

HUMOR OF THE HOUR

A Bright Boy.

Mrs. Benham—That boy of ours has no reverence, no bump of veneration. Benham—That so?
Mrs. Benham—Yes, it is so. You know the picture we sent away as a wedding present yesterday?
Benham—Yes; what of it?
Mrs. Benham—I told Charlie to pack it in a box, supposing, of course, that he would use some of the old packing paper so abundantly scattered about the house. Well, I went out of the room for a minute, and when I came back he was tearing up a copy of Longfellow's poems and using the leaves for packing paper. What do you think of that?
Benham—I think the boy knew his business.

Mrs. Benham—How do you make that out?
Benham—He probably knew there was "Excelsior" in it.—New York Times.

Between Friends.

Mayme—I hear you are going to be married again.
Edith—Again? Why, I've never been tied up as yet.
Mayme—No, but I can't recall the number of times you were "going to be."—Chicago News.

Change of Tune.

"Such a dear, good little boy!"

"Hoopla!"

"Here we go!"

"You miserable, ill-mannered little wretch!"

Subject to Amendment.

"You said I could prescribe my own terms," protested the startled and indignant prima donna.

"I know it," replied the manager, who had cut her figures in half, "but I didn't say I'd follow your prescription."

A Case of Necessity.

"Why, all my money's gone!"
"Yes; I took it."

COUNCIL MEETING. SCHOOL BOARDS' NEW OFFICERS

Ordinance for Trolley Extension Has Not Yet Been Presented.

The borough council met Monday evening with all members present except Messrs. Doggett, P. G. Gallagher, Moore and Brennan. The following bills were ordered paid: Moses Tranter, drying hose, $3; Hazleton Machinery and Supply Co., zincs, $6; J. D. Myers, lumber and labor, $6.80; Frank McLaughlin, electrician, $10; James McLaughlin, electrician, $15.

Dates for picnics at the Public park were given to the Good Wills for July 1 and Division 19, A. O. H., for July 18.

Street Commissioner Herron's report was approved with an expenditure of $109.84.

Burgess Martin's report showed $10.10 due Burgess and $13.50 due Burgess. Janitor O'Donnell reported collecting $1.50 lockup fees. Salary and feeding prisoners amounted to $32.40.

The police expenditures for the month were $146.

The secretary reported that he had not sent out bills as instructed at the last meeting to the corporations owning poles, wires and rails, for the reason that he could not ascertain how many poles, etc., there are in town.

Councilman Ward reported having looked over the engine belonging to the stone crusher, which is now at Pond Creek and for which Mr. Brandmier offered to pay $75. No action.

Councilman Carpenter reported that the light which was reported out on Fern street for a month was lighting during the time with the possible exception of one night, due to the breaking of the arm.

The test of the fire engine was reported unsatisfactory by Chairman McNeil, of the committee. The only plug which did work was the one at the engine house. The committee conferred with officials of the Water Company and were promised that a six-inch main would be laid along Walnut street as far as the second plug, and if force was not then satisfactory the line would be continued to the third plug.

President McLaughlin reported for the special committee on trolley that, owing to the absence of President Markle, the company was unable to meet to draft an ordinance for the proposed extension but would likely do so at an early date.

Councilman Ward, of the sanitary committee, reported the names of the following citizens who have consented to become members of the Board of Health: Messrs. H. M. Breslin, Dr. W. H. Deardorff, J. B. Hanlon, John M. Gallagher and Andrew Poisha.

After a discussion in which all agreed that something should be done and done quickly to get the board in working order, a motion prevailed that the selection of the above named be approved and that each councilman select two members from the wards not represented.

The building committee reported the removal of the fire bell tower and the delivery of the old timber to the Municipal and Fourth ward buildings to be used for fire wood.

A long debate on plans for getting the fire engine out then took place. Some members thought a team of fire horses could be used with profit to the borough. Others thought a lighter engine should be procured. A motion was passed that the committee confer with the Fourth Ward Company and recommend to council.

A motion was carried that the solicitor be notified by the secretary to bring the auditor on annexation into court or hand in his resignation.

The street committee was ordered to count the poles and find out how much wire and rails are in town subject to taxation.

Council adjourned to meet at the call of the president.

PLEASURE.

SCHOOL BOARDS' NEW OFFICERS

Continued from First Page.

The new directors are Philip Brior, Drifton, and Adam Sachs, Jr., of Eckley, who succeed Frank McHugh and Jacob Zeistloft.

The old board held a meeting before the above business was transacted. Those present were Directors Johnson, Dudley, O'Neill, Weber and Zeistloft.

The report of Tax Collector Lentz was received, showing that only a small amount of taxes has been paid since the previous report.

The auditors were instructed to get to work on the financial report and the board decided to meet on Monday evening to receive the report.

A motion to award the publishing of the audit was opposed by Messrs. Johnson and O'Neill, but was carried.

The Plain Speaker and Tribune were then named, but failed to secure a majority of the votes cast. The Plain Speaker and Sentinel were proposed and the motion met the same fate as its predecessor.

The Tribune and Progress were next proposed and the motion authorizing them to publish the audit was carried.

The board then adjourned.

Fair at Laurytown Almshouse.

A fair will be held at the Laurytown almshouse on the afternoon of four Thursday and Friday, namely the 4th, 11th, 18th and 25th, for the benefit of two of the inmates of the institution, Andrew O'Donnell and Patrick McCole.

It is hoped that a sufficient sum may be raised by the proceeds of the sale of fancy articles, to purchase artificial limbs for these men, who have been so unfortunate as to lose each of them a leg.

Do You Enjoy What You Eat?

You can eat whatever and whenever you like if you take Kodol. By the use of this remedy disordered digestion and diseased stomachs are so completely restored to health, and the full performance of their functions naturally, that such foods as would tie one into a double-bow-knot are eaten without even a "rumbling" and with a positive pleasure and enjoyment. And what is more—these foods are assimilated and transformed into the kind of nutrient that is appropriated by the blood and tissues.

Kodol is the only digestant or combination of digestants that will digest all classes of food. In addition to this fact, it contains, in assimilative form, the greatest known tonic and reconstructive properties.

Kodol cures indigestion, dyspepsia and all disorders arising therefrom.
