

FREELAND TRIBUNE.

VOL. XV. NO. 153.

FREELAND, PA., MONDAY, JUNE 22, 1903.

TRI-WEEKLY

All Shapes of Men

Can be fitted and suited here. We have clothes made for the "hard to fits" and we fit them. Many stout and slim men who give up trying to buy clothes ready made, come here and find exactly what they want. If you are an extra tall, short or fat man come and see what we can do for you. We'll surprise you with the clothes; possibly more with the prices—for, being unusual in shape, you've had to pay a penalty to your tailor. We do away with that and charge you no more than we do the ordinary built man.

We also have a large line of Ladies' and Gents' Furnishings, Hats, Caps, Neckties, Dry Goods, Notions, etc. Large line of Trunks and Suit Cases.

PUPILS' TENTH ENTERTAINMENT

Program of Exercises of the Parochial School.

Will Be Rendered Tonight at the Grand Opera House and Will Be Repeated Tomorrow Evening.

At the Grand opera house this evening the tenth annual entertainment of the pupils of St. Ann's parochial school will be given its first production. For some years past it has been necessary to repeat the program, in order to give all who desire to be present an opportunity to attend, and the usual custom will be followed this year. The second production will take place tomorrow evening, when the exercises, with additions, will be repeated.

The opera house has been prettily decorated for the occasion, and the pupils, several hundred of whom will participate in the various choruses and songs, have faithfully rehearsed their parts, under the instruction of the Sisters of Mercy, and are prepared to entertain the large audiences which are assured for both evenings.

Below will be found a copy of the program to be rendered this evening:

Overture by DePierro's orchestra.
Opening chorus by the Pupils.

Cricket Poika, quartette, Misses M. D. Johnson, M. Bonoma, L. Hayes, M. Thompson.

Selection by the orchestra.

"Pretty as a Pink," sextette, Misses A. Magagna, L. Senie, R. Halpin, M. Bakaltis, A. Capece, M. Timony.

Vocal duet, "Music and Her Sister's Song," Misses A. and M. Bonoma.

March trio, Misses D. B. and L. Senie. International drill by the Boys.

Cavalry Advance, quartette, Misses D. and B. Senie, L. Hayes, M. Bonoma. Recitation, An Incident of '98, M. Gallagher.

St. Cecilia's Club—Violins, Masters P. Sweeney, D. Brennan, J. Brogan, B. McLaughlin, R. DePierro; mandolins, B. Haughey, A. Jacobs, M. Denny, M. Hudock; mandola, K. Malloy; guitar, M. Bonoma; piano, G. Sweeney.

Charge of the Uhlans—Piano first, Miss Grace Sweeney; piano second, Miss L. Hayes.

Ribbon drill by the Young Ladies. Selection by the orchestra.

"Mortgage the Farm," Masters R. DePierro, F. Welsh, Misses A. and M. Bonoma, Rachael DePierro.

Let Us Go for Pleasure, quartette, Misses G. Sweeney, M. B. Johnson, M. D. Johnson, M. Halpin.

Dude song, Master R. DePierro.

"FLORINDA, OR THE ROSE AND PEARL."
Cast of Characters.

Florida, Miss Rachel DePierro. Norma (Florida's sister), Miss M. Bonoma.

Fortuna, fairy queen, Miss L. Furey. Vala, gypsy queen, Miss M. B. Gallagher.

Holo, queen's messenger, Miss G. Brennan. Gypsies, fairies, etc., by the pupils.

Synopsis.
Woodland scene—Fairies' frolic; the crowning of fairy queen.

Garden scene—Norma and Florida arranging flowers; gypsy dance.

Wood scene—Florida lost and charmed by gypsy queen.

Gypsy lullaby—Norma, in search of Florida, is met by fairy queen; fairies find the wondrous Rose and Pearl; the gypsies' charm dispelled; repentance of Vala; joy in fairyland.

Planists—Misses G. Sweeney and L. Hayes.

In addition to the above, the graduation exercises will take place tomorrow evening and will be the fourth number on the program, as follows:

Salutatorian, Miss Bridget H. Gillespie. Valedictorian, George C. Denny.

Distribution of Graduation Medals and Diplomas by Rev. M. J. Fallhee. Academic Class—Misses Bridget H. Gillespie, Mary M. Bonner, Mary B. Johnson and Mary D. Johnson.

Shot Near Upper Lehigh.
Mrs. Denis Ferry, Jr., while on her way from Freeland to her home in Upper Lehigh, was shot near the railroad resting in the latter town at 11 o'clock this morning. The bullet, which was a .38-calibre, grazed her temple and cut her ear. She was overcome by shock and faint from the wound and was taken to her residence by neighbors. Mrs. Ferry is unable to explain how she was shot, as she saw no one before she received the wound, but heard revolver shots while passing through the swamp. Her wound is painful, but is not regarded as dangerous.

Shortly after 12 o'clock Officer Molk found three boys shooting from a revolver near the scene where Mrs. Ferry was injured. Two of these were arrested and the other had escaped. A number of .38-calibre bullets were found in their pockets.

The boys were placed in the borough lockup, but refused to give their names. Both are known to be residents of the Fourth ward.

At 1 o'clock the missing boy, Kyatin Rymsha, was arrested and the revolver was also found.

Street Views Postponed.
At Wilkesbarre on Friday Judge Lynch, at the request of Borough Solicitor McBrearty, handed down an order of court naming July 11, at 10 a. m., as the date and time for the citizens appointed as viewers on the proposed street extensions to meet and view the grounds.

The Ridge street viewers had selected tomorrow as the day for their view, and the Centre and Pine street viewers were to meet on Friday. Notices had been given to this effect, but the new order of court, fixing July 11 as the date, necessitates the going over again of the work so far done.

Drifton Resident Dead.
Michael Lennon, one of the early settlers at Drifton, died Saturday morning after an extended illness. The deceased is survived by his wife and the following sons and daughters: Patrick and James, Philadelphia; Sister M. Leona (Rose), Carbondale, and Miss Maggie, Drifton.

The funeral took place this morning, followed by a requiem mass at St. Ann's church. Interment was made at St. Ann's cemetery.

Teachers' Examination.
The annual examination of applicants for teachers' certificates was conducted today in the Daniel Cox building by County Superintendent F. P. Hopper. The class numbered thirty-two, of which twenty-eight were females and four were males. This is much smaller than the classes examined here for some years past.

The examination began at 9.15 a. m. and continued until late this afternoon.

To Cure a Cold in One Day
Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. All druggists refund the money if it fails to cure. E. W. Grove's signature is on each box. 25c.

The Crescent picnic was changed Saturday evening to a hop and was held at Krell's hall. The inclement weather made this necessary.

Beautiful hammocks at Birkbeck's.

HIS FIRST MASS.

Rev. Patrick J. Gallagher the Celebrant at St. Ann's Church Yesterday.

In the presence of an army of friends which filled every seat in St. Ann's church, Rev. Patrick J. Gallagher, who was ordained to the priesthood on Tuesday by Cardinal Gibbons at Baltimore cathedral, celebrated his first mass yesterday morning. The young clergyman passed through the trying ordeal successfully, every movement of the important ceremony being performed properly.

Rev. Daniel Herron, O. S. A., of Bryn Mawr, another young man of town who has dedicated his life-work to his church, delivered the sermon on this auspicious occasion. It was one of the best orations heard in St. Ann's church for some time and abounded with good advice to the people present.

Others who assisted the young priest were: Rev. M. J. Fallhee and Rev. M. J. Fleming, of St. Ann's church; Rev. J. Duane, Baltimore; Rev. Burke, Hazleton, and Edward J. Gaffney and Frank O'Donnell, who are candidates for the priesthood.

At the conclusion of the mass Rev. Gallagher gave his blessing to the congregation, and this was repeated at last evening's services.

During the afternoon the young priest was visited at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Gallagher, by many of his friends, who tendered him their congratulations and wished him a successful career.

On Saturday evening a reception will be tendered Rev. Gallagher by Division 6, A. O. H., of which he is a member. The final arrangements for this affair will be completed at tomorrow evening's meeting of the division.

Convention Work Ended.

With Saturday morning's session the national convention of the First Catholic Slovenian Ladies' Union of America came to a close at St. John's Slavish church. The convention opened on Tuesday and much business of importance to the members was transacted during the week. The reports of the officers showed a paid-up enrollment of 4,191 members and a cash balance of more than $10,000. The union has been organized less than seven years. Bridgeport, Conn., was selected as the place for holding the next convention, in June, 1904.

The following officers were chosen to serve for the ensuing year: President, Mrs. Anna Ondrey, Cleveland, Ohio; recording secretary, Mrs. M. Strunak, Cleveland, Ohio; financial secretary, Mrs. Rozalle Boytin, Yonkers, N. Y.; treasurer, Mrs. Cathrina Hinzay, Peckville, Pa.; trustees, Mrs. M. Chrisma, Plymouth, Pa.; Mrs. P. Doerl, Baltimore, Md.; Mrs. Molloris, New York city; spiritual director, Rev. John E. Stas, Olyphant.

A number of the delegates and officers departed for their homes on Saturday, and the balance of the visitors left town today. All were well pleased with the treatment and courtesies extended them by the members of the local branch of the union.

Paid for Positions.

The defense in Schuylkill court in the cases of the Blythe township school directors, who are charged with demanding and accepting bribes from school teachers, admitted that contributions were received from the teachers, but it was claimed that the money was for campaign purposes and not for the private benefit of the directors.

The pledge of the teachers, signed by each teacher in the district, was repeated by Director Doyle, one of the defendants, as follows: "We, the undersigned teachers of Blythe township and beneficiaries of the Citizens' party, do voluntarily contribute the sums mentioned below for the perpetuation of the Citizens' party."

Prior to the commonwealth closing it was shown that money was received from female as well as male teachers. Mrs. Michael Flanagan testified that her daughter, Annie, a teacher, was assessed $40.

Patrick Ryan, one of the thirteen teachers of the district, testified that Director Doyle asked him for money on account of his assessment.

The Week's Wedding.

Among the weddings booked for the week are the following:

John Branigan, of Jeddo, and Miss Kate Doggett, of Freeland, on Wednesday, at St. Ann's church.

Patrick Heaney, of Freeland, and Miss Bridget Malloy, of Drifton, on Thursday, at St. Ann's church.

R. J. O'Donnell, Esq., of Freeland, and Miss Mary E. Kane, of White Haven, at St. Patrick's church, White Haven.

Screen windows and screen doors are selling at lowest prices at Birkbeck's.
