We'll surprise you with the clothes; possibly more with the prices—for, being unusual in shape, you've had to pay a penalty to your tailor. BOARD READY FOR DISPUTES

Conciliators Meet and Fix Rules for Grievances.

W. L. Connell Selected as Permanent Chairman and District President Nichols Is Secretary.

The representatives of the miners and operators on the Board of Conciliation, which is to adjust the differences in the industry, met yesterday at Wilkesbarre, adopted rules, then adjourned to meet in the same city next Thursday to hear the first of the grievances. There was no hitch. The credentials presented by District Presidents Fahy, Dettrey and Nichols were satisfactory, and there was no discussion of their standing.

W. L. Connell, of Scranton, was selected as president of the board, and District President Nichols was made secretary. The rules which instruct mine workers and mine superintendents regarding the grievances were speedily arranged and the meeting ended yesterday afternoon.

On the question of whether or not President Mitchell can represent the mine workers Mr. Connell said: "The miners may have any one they want to represent them. No objection will be made to Mr. Mitchell. No umpire will be selected unless the board is unable to agree, and the method of selection then is not yet determined." After the meeting the three mine workers on the board held a short session to arrange some affairs. They expressed themselves as much pleased with the result of the meeting. Of the future meetings they could not say whether or not they would be secret.

Long Wait for Verdict.
Yesterday, the first anniversary of his wedding to seventeen-year-old Susan Murphy, Fred Barney, himself just 21 years old, saw the jury file out of court at Wilkesbarre to decide his fate. He is charged with murdering his wife two months ago, and the motive, as alleged, is his love for another woman.

At 9 o'clock last night the jury, after being out for ten hours, had not reached a verdict, and the court adjourned until this morning.

Barney waited all evening, an eager crowd thronging the courthouse and crowding the yard outside. He was pale and nervous and anxiously watched the door leading to the jury room.

Up to 3.15 o'clock this afternoon the jury had not reported.

High School Exercises.

The graduating exercises of the senior class of Freeland High school were held at the Grand opera house last evening in the presence of a large audience. The essays and orations of the graduates were given in the order published in previous issues, and all who participated performed their work creditably. Songs by the class and music by St. Ann's band added to the entertainment.

The address of the evening was delivered by Prof. C. H. Albert, of Bloomsburg state normal school, and was replete with good points. Mr. Albert took a strong stand for education, which he designated the science of human development. He advocated the placing in the schools the very best that the community can afford, and condemned the introduction of anything which might have a tendency to lower the character of the pupils.

The address was frequently interrupted by the applause of the audience, and at its conclusion diplomas were presented to the graduates, Misses Mary Evans, Sara Kuntz, Kathryn Sippel and Laura Winter, and James Gallagher, John E. McDonald and Thomas A. Rohrbach.

Liquor Dealers Give Bail.

Seven liquor dealers of town were served yesterday by Constable Wood with warrants issued by Alderman Richards, of Wilkesbarre. They are charged with selling intoxicants on a Sunday. The information was lodged by two men named Merrill and Overton. The prosecutor is Rev. O. G. Langford. All the accused waived a hearing and gave bail before Squire Buckley for their appearance at court.

The seven defendants are among the saloonists of town who have refused to pay $20 each to the officers of the local branch of the Luzerne County Anti-Saloon League. They were guaranteed immunity from arrest on this charge if this would pay the sum stated, but they preferred to place their cases in the county courts rather than contribute money to private organizations or individuals.

Graduated on Wednesday.

Wednesday was graduating day at a number of educational institutions throughout the country, and, as usual, Freeland was well represented by several of its bright young men and women on this occasion.

At Holy Cross college, Worcester, Mass., Daniel J. Timony was one of the leaders of the class.

At Bloomsburg state normal school Miss Mary Hayes was first on the roll of honor and won the class prize of the school.

At East Stroudsburg state normal school the graduates included John J. McGarey and Misses Margaret Boyle and Margaret Gaffney.

Objects to Outside Work.

D. A. Harmon, superintendent of the Hazleton schools, in his annual report to the board of controllers, states that many teachers, both men and women, are partially unfitted for their duties by the demand of outside affairs, interest and attention being engrossed evenings and Saturdays by political matters, by social events and by various devices in money-making and by attempting to do the work of the milliner and dressmaker.

WEDDINGS.

R. J. O'Donnell, Esq., of Freeland, and Miss Mary Kane, of White Haven, were married at St. Patrick's Catholic church, White Haven, during a nuptial mass yesterday morning. The officiating clergyman was Rev. E. J. O'Donnell, O. S. A., of Havana, Cuba, a brother of the groom. Peter R. O'Donnell, of town, was best man, and Miss Annie Caffrey, of South Bethlehem, was bridesmaid.

After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride and was attended by the intimate friends of the young couple. Mr. O'Donnell is one of the prominent young attorneys of Freeland and his wife is one of White Haven's most estimable young ladies. They departed yesterday for Niagara Falls, where they will spend their honeymoon, and upon their return will begin housekeeping on Ridge street.

Patrick Heeney, of Freeland, and Miss Bridget Malloy, of Drifton, were married yesterday afternoon at St. Ann's church by Rev. M. J. Fallhee in the presence of a number of friends. Daniel Slattery was groomsmen, and Miss Grace Malloy was bridesmaid.

A reception was held last evening at the bride's home, where large numbers of the friends of the young couple gathered and extended congratulations. The Balaklava Social Club, of which Mr. Heeney is a prominent member, was present in a body. Mr. and Mrs. Heeney will reside on North Ridge street.

Daniel J. McCarthy, Jr., a son of Attorney D. J. McCarthy, of Hazleton, and a former resident of town, was married at the German Catholic church in that city yesterday afternoon to Miss Lucy Mumaw.

A marriage license has been granted at West Hazleton to Miss Dora Welsh, of Freeland, and Otto Best, of Conyngham.

Press People Entertained.

Representatives of newspapers in towns located along the line of the Central Railroad Company of New Jersey, in eastern Pennsylvania, eastern New York and New Jersey, to the number of 850, were given a trip up the Hudson river yesterday afternoon on the company's new steamer, Asbury Park, which goes into commission on Sunday next and will ply between New York city and Atlantic Highlands during the summer months.

Special trains from all points on the road conveyed the guests to Jersey City, where the new boat was boarded. During the trip up the Hudson the officials of Asbury Park, N. J., in recognition of the honor tendered by the company in naming the steamer after their city, presented a silver loving cup to the boat, and the gift was accepted on behalf of the Jersey Central Company by Vice President W. G. Besler.

Both on the boat and on the special trains nothing was left undone by the management of the railroad to add to the comfort and pleasure of the newspaper people. Luncheon was served on the trains, also on the steamer, and at Allentown, on the return trip, supper was given them.

The Scranton special, on which those who attended from Freeland, White Haven, Wilkesbarre and other towns hereabouts were taken to Jersey City, was in charge of General Passenger Agent C. M. Burt, District Passenger Agent Rubie and Traveling Agent Swisher, all of whom were untiring in their efforts to make the day an enjoyable one for the hundreds who were present.

Accomplices May Be Arrested.

That William J. Murphy, the messenger of the United States Express Company who stole $20,000 while it was in transit between Pottsville and Philadelphia, had accomplices is a theory on which detectives from Philadelphia were working at Pottsville yesterday.

It is said that the express messengers are kept in ignorance of the amount of money they are carrying, but that accomplices of Murphy informed him that a bank of Pottsville would consign a large amount of money to Philadelphia on a certain day. Murphy, profiting by this knowledge, stole the money.

Ladies and Children Invited.
All ladies and children who cannot stand the shocking strain of laxative syrups, cathartics, etc., are invited to try the famous Little Early Risers. They are different from all other pills. They do not purge the system. Even a double dose will not gripe, weaken or sicken; many people call them the Easy Pill. W. H. Howell, Houston, Tex., says nothing better can be used for constipation, sick headache, etc. Bob Moore, Lafayette, Ind., says all others gripe and sicken, while DeWitt's Little Early Risers do their work well and easy. Sold by Grover's City drug store.
