THIRTY-EIGHTH YEAR

$6,000 Damage Caused By Fire At Tunkhannock

Fire broke out at 7 o'clock Wednesday night, in the garage and storage of Edward Starke, Jr., on Philadelphia Avenue, in Tunkhannock. A large amount of groceries, in addition to the building, were destroyed. Mr. Starke is a wholesale grocer. The loss is estimated at $6,000.

About a half hour elapsed before a fair stream of water could be secured, the nearest hydrant being some distance away from the spot. An overheated chimney is believed to have been the cause of the flames starting.

For a time the raging blaze threatened to spread with a number of residences near by. Bucket brigades were formed to assist before the stream from the hydrant was sufficient.

The flames were discovered by a neighbor, Leo Kromelbien, who, together with H. O. Powers and Mr. Starke, succeeded in removing a valuable German police dog and passenger truck from the garage. The three men suffered slightly from the effects of the smoke, but did not require any treatment.

SPENDS HOLIDAYS WITH PARENTS

Mr. and Mrs. George Bolton, of Detroit, Mich., spent the holidays with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Moss, of Dallas. Mr. and Mrs. Bolton made the trip in 22 hours with their Dodge. If they had not had to detour several times they could have made the trip in much less time.

It is three years since Mrs. Bolton visited her parents. It was Mr. Bolton's first visit in Pennsylvania. He thinks Pennsylvania is alright, but too many hills. He says Michigan is very level—one can drive all day and not find one hill—some difference.

On Saturday evening a farewell party was given Mr. and Mrs. Bolton. After a late hour a dainty lunch was served to a number of friends and relatives. An enjoyable evening was spent.

Mr. and Mrs. Bolton left on Thursday morning for their home.

BRIEF NOTES

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Sickler visited their daughter, Mrs. Creston Gallup, of Kunkle on Tuesday.

Miss Ida M. Moss, of Danville State Hospital spent Christmas with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Moss, of Dallas, Pa.

Farmers Need Not Pay City License, Agent Declares

Farmers cannot be compelled to pay a license fee to a municipality for the right to sell their own produce, Jas. D. Hutchison, agent of Luzerne Co. Agricultural Extension Association declared yesterday. The statement of the county agricultural agent is prompted by the fact that several municipalities have made the attempt to prevent the sale of produce, unless the farmer had a license.

Act 258, Pennsylvania, is quoted by County Agent Hutchison as follows: "It shall be unlawful for any borough or city of this Commonwealth to levy or collect any money or tax as a license fee, from any farmer, who sells his own products in or about the different streets of any borough or city of this Commonwealth."

In a number of instances, Mr. Hutchison says, farmers were requested to obtain a local peddler's license or be prohibited from dispensing their products within the corporate boundaries of the municipality. If a farmer collects products from his neighbor and then disposes of them by peddling from house to house, he is recognized legally as a peddler or huckster and must obtain a license, but if he is selling his own products that is not necessary.

William Bulford Elected A Director Of First National Bank of Dallas

At the regular meeting of the stockholders of the First National Bank, of Dallas, the past week, William Bulford, known to his many friends of Dallas and vicinity as "Billie," was elected to the board of directors of the First National Bank.

Mr. Bulford has been a business man of Wilkes-Barre and Dallas for many years, and has been successful. He recently moved his business to his farm here and is devoting all of his time to same.

Mr. Bulford was a director of the Dallas Bank before and his return to the board is met with exceptional satisfaction by the great majority of residents of this community.

Mr. Bulford will make a valued addition to the directorate of the bank, and his appointment which was rumored about town before his election, was well received.

We are all more than interested in not only the success of our own bank here at Dallas, but are interested in seeing it grow bigger and stronger as in comparison with other banks and we are sure that the policies of our bank will be improved wherever possible.

The Post congratulates the stockholders of the Dallas Bank for its choice.

Our Apologies To Mrs. Kuehn

Upon reading our paper of last week we noticed a typographical error in the article of "Mrs. Kuehn in Auto Accident." It should have read: "Her many friends wishes for her a speedy recovery."

We are glad we can blame this on our printer.
