Bills Introduced for Repeal of the Anthracite Tax

Three bills were introduced at Harrisburg Tuesday seeking the repeal of the anthracite tax which amounts to about 7 cents per ton. It is collected at the rate of one and one-half per cent. of the coal prepared for shipment at the mine and yields approximately $11,000,000 annually.

Coal, fire and labor interests favor passage of the repealer but the loss of revenue heretofore has been used successfully to prevent passage. In the Senate the bill sponsored by Senator Heaton, Schuykill, was referred to new committee on repeal bills, but in the House the measure offered by Republican Staudenmeier, Schuykill, was withdrawn and the bill introduced by Representative Jones of Luzerne, went to the Ways and Means Committee.

Hearing in Bridge Land Dispute Is To Be Held Jan. 29

Appeal of Valmont Development Co. from decision of a majority of the court in dismissing the injunction to restrain Luzerne County from encroaching on its property by erection of the Kingston entrance to the new Market Street bridge to have been argued before the Supreme Court at Philadelphia Thursday, was continued until Tuesday, January 29, owing to the illness of Attorney Mitchell Jenkins, one of counsel for appellant.

The ornamental approach to the bridge on the Kingston side cut off the approach to the plot of lots laid out by the development company extending from Market Street to North Street, and from the right of way of the old Wilkes-Barre & Eastern Railroad to First Avenue, Kingston.

Doctor Advises Jurist To Return To His Home

Judge John S. Fine, who resumed his duties in court on Monday having been ill at his home two weeks, was obliged to return home yesterday morning on the advice of his physician, and may be obliged to remain there the remainder of the week.

Judge Fine had before him the case of M. Kruppa of Nanticoke against A. Kopko of that place, a dispute over repair to property. Defendant's attorneys, G. J. Clark and Bruno A. Knjorski, raised a question of law because the location of the property was not properly set forth in the proceedings. The case was then sent over to Judge W. S. McLean who directed that a juror be withdrawn and the case continued pending right of plaintiff to amend the bill.

Fisher Will Not Appoint Judge This Week

A successor to the late Judge John V. Kosek, of Luzerne County, will not be named by Governor Fisher before next week at the earliest. The Governor left here Thursday afternoon for a business trip to New York City. He will probably return today. The return of Senator A. J. Sordoni, Luzerne County chairman, from Cuba, also is awaited in connection with filling the vacancy.

The Luzerne political community has been reconciled for several days to the prospect that there will be further delay before the appointment of a new judge is forthcoming.

Having consistently shown a disposition to consult county leaders on the matter of appointment, it became evident with the long delay that Governor Fisher might want to hear further from the two State Senators and the county chairman.

So far as is known the situation remains where it was two or three days ago, with Attorney W. A. Valentine in the ascendancy as a prospect for the appointment, but with campaigns still in progress on behalf of Frank L. Pinola, Abram Salsburg, District Attorney Thomas Lewis and others.

Treasurer Wall To Enter Legal Suits Against Delinquents

County Treasurer George M. Wall has returned from Harrisburg where he had a conference with Auditor General Edward Martin concerning payment of mercantile tax, and he was instructed to enter suit against all mercantile tax delinquents and clean up the list.

County Treasurer Wall is now making up a list of delinquents preparatory to entering the suits, which will mean additional costs to those who fail to settle. There is about $20,000 in mercantile taxes unpaid for 1928.

Big Celebration Being Planned for the New Luzerne to Dallas Highway

A small citizens committee has been appointed to co-operate with county commissioners for tentative plans for a formal opening of the new county-state forty foot boulevard from Luzerne to Trucksville. This small committee will just start the ball a rolling by counseling with commissioners as to the two or three last celebration plans. Then a large public committee will adopt the best plan and stage a real old time community celebration.

You know its Greater Dallas now. And it looks very much as though this boulevard will extend from Luzerne to and through Dallas. You don't build boulevards like this one for mountaineers.

Such folks would not know what to do with such a highway. But real 100 per cent. American citizens know what to do with it and will know how to celebrate its completion.

Dallas Rotary Met Thursday

Dallas Rotary, at its meeting on Thursday evening, was addressed by Dr. G. L. Howell and Milton Keeler, officers and members of the Mt. Greenwood Kiwanis Club.

Mr. Keeler spoke on a greater service that could be rendered our community by more united efforts of the Kiwanis and Rotary of this section. That the two clubs represented not only the business men but the civic bodies of our community.

Dr. Howell spoke on conditions affecting our community. He also gave an illustrated talk on the X-ray, showing slides on same.

Nesbit Garinger reported a survey of cripple children in our community. Henry Sipple read a biography of Ziba R. Howell.

G. Earl Bowman, of Dallas, and G. F. Metz, of Trucksville, were admitted as Rotarians. Both men responded with short addresses of thanks to the club for their admittance to membership.

G. A. A. Kuehn Serves Public

Gustavus Adolphus Anthonasis Kuehn, prominent and only druggist of Greater Dallas, has been serving the public through his Dallas store for 14 years. He has during this time, filled over 125,000 prescriptions, an average of almost 25 prescriptions a day, every day for 14 years. This is a very high public tribute to Mr. Kuehn. He has demonstrated his knowledge and ability, or 125,000 prescriptions would never have been handed to him to be filled. It seems almost unbelievable that so many folks have been sick because the real estate men are constantly charging folks as much for view, fresh air and good health up here as they are charging for land.

Local Hardware Firm Has Agency for Philco Radio

The Dallas Hardware and Supply Co. have been chosen as the local representative of the Philco Radio. The amiable George Stevens being in charge of the sales force. He has already made several sales, which is not to be wondered at after hearing this wonderful set.

It's tone at any volume is a soft steady flow. It's lack of interference and its wide range of selectivity impresses one immediately upon hearing it.

Mr. Stevens will gladly give a demonstration of its merits to anyone contemplating the purchase of a radio.
