

NOXEN

Miss Helen Williamson, formerly of Noxen, but of late years attending school at Chicago has been visiting friends around about Noxen. She left town last Sunday with her brother, Mr. Claude Williamson, who has a position with the Penn Power and Light Company at Allentown, Pa. Helen has accepted a position as teacher in one of the western states.

Mr. Ralph Dimmick, who has been absent from Noxen for nearly ten years arrived in town last week, Friday, to be at the bedside of his sick sister, Mrs. Arthur Saxe. Ralph, together with his brother, Rodney, left down about ten years ago and took up a tract of land in the State of Arizona—they have about 12,000 acres devoted to raising hay and cattle. Ralph states that the business of raising cattle is much more encouraging than it has been a few years back.

Well—We Easterners realize that fact every time we call for a pound of beefsteak.

The record of sickness at the Noxen High School shows 40 per cent loss in attendance due to this prevalent distemper going about.

A. J. Davis, who a year ago had two leagues of quoit players has four leagues this year. A bunch of sixty-four players. The contest takes place every Wednesday evening until the series are through which will be about the end of March. The playing takes place in the M. E. Social Hall. The following are players in the National League: C. A. Boston, Albert Dendler, Robert Hackling, Clinton Gaily, Professor Ingram, Wm. Kiper, Harry Miller, Rev. W. F. In the National League: The Cubs (C. A. Boston and Bob Hacklin) and the Phillies (Prof. Ingram and Prof. McCarrick) lead with only one game lost.

In the International League: The Newark (John Traver and Lyman Roote) also the Reading team (Paul Montross and Sylvester Traver) are leaders with no game lost to their credit.

There were no games scheduled in the New York and Penn League.

In the first evening of the contest which was last Wednesday evening, Lyman Roote, of the International League lead with ringers pitched, eleven in three games; James Traver stood second with six to his credit, also a member of the International League.

The results of this week's contest will appear in next week's issue of this paper in which 26 teams of the four different leagues will contest against each other.

Mr. Ed. McDougal, who has been an inmate of an asylum for several years, died and his funeral took place the past Tuesday at Beaumont. Rev. Wm. Miller officiating. Mr. McDougal's wife and children still reside at Beaumont.

Mrs. Lena Carey attended the funeral of her sister, Mrs. Alice Shultz, of Shavertown the past Tuesday. Mrs. Shultz had suffered with cancer for a long while.

Several members of the Noxen Lodge of Odd Fellows attended the banquet at Beaumont last Saturday evening in honor of the event of the presentation of jewels to three of its members. Mr. Robert Steltz, who has been a member for 25 years; J. Hadsal, who conducts a general merchandise store at that place, a thirty-year jewel, and a Mr. Oederkirchen, who has been a member for sixty-two years in the Odd Fellow's Lodge.

The Sportsmen League meeting held at Scranton the past Saturday evening the following attended from Noxen: Mr. M. W. Whitaker, C. A. Boston, Albert Dendler, Lawrence Dymond, Carl Auvil and Earl Richards. It is through the efforts of our home league that we are indebted that our home streams are kept well stocked with fish.

The case of Herbert Spencer for non-support of his family came before Judge Terry last Saturday. Herbert, through the leniency of Judge Terry, was paroled with the understanding that he should see that his family was provided with thirty dollars monthly for their support.

The old Noxen stork made out to make Noxen another visit before warm weather sets in and this time was at the home of John Steirnuck, leaving a 41 pound baby girl.

Remember the bake sale at the M. E. Hall this Saturday afternoon. Did you every try some of sister Bakers Noxen baked beans or sister Gilmore's hot chowder soup? Both are generally sold out one hour after the sale begins. They furnish the same amount at each sale.

Mr. William Race has been quite sick with an attack of the grippe. This is his third attack so far this winter.

Miss Nora Sickler, who has spent the forepart of the winter with her niece, Mrs. Lizzie Maganella at Kingston has arrived home.

Mr. Charles Wright has moved with his Uncle James Wright on the farm.

It is reported that Clarence Derby intends to build two more bungalows similar to the one he just erected, all of which will be on the Island section.

Tom Wright, the assessor for Noxen Township, mailed his annual notices the past week.

Mr. George Schooley, who is suffering with the grippe is being attended at the home of his brother, Mr. Corey Schooley.

Mr. Walter Blizzard has laid a new water line from his residence to the main line.

At the election of trustees for the M. E. Church, A. J. Davis, George Stitzer and James Strohl were re-elected for a period of three years.

Mrs. Clarence A. Boston attended a party at Trucksville last week.

George VanCampen, son of Mrs. Beulah VanCampen, who was operated upon for appendicitis, was brought home last week Friday much improved.

Miss Ora Miller was one of the entertainers at the Odd Fellows banquet last Saturday evening. She gave a vocal selection with Mrs. Tillie Loveland at the piano which was much appreciated.

Since tracking snow has arrived there seems to be a slump in chicken thievery.

Many of our Noxenites claim that Luzerne County moonshine is far better than homebrew. Why not patronize home industry? There are plenty of places.

Miss Jessie Thomas, who suffered an attack of infantile paralysis a few years ago and left unable to walk, was on the programme at the Odd Fellows banquet at Beaumont. She rendered a piano selection in first-class style.

Saturday evening the four month-old child of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hahn passed away having contracted quick pneumonia. Mrs. Hahn was formerly Miss Schenck, daughter of Wesley Schenck.

Mr. Walter and Edward Saxe, who are at present residing at St. Louis, Mo., arrived home Saturday evening to be at the bedside of their sick mother, Mrs. Arthur Saxe.

Sunday evening the Tannery Company sounded the fire alarm, which was turned in by Joseph Dotters family. The fire was started by throwing a lighted match on the floor which set a piece of cloth afire. Joe had the fire extinguished before help arrived.

Some claim that Still is the driest spot in Pennsylvania.

Rebuke From the Bench
Said the judge to the young man defendant in a breach-of-promise suit—"You will please discontinue your joking remarks during the remainder of this trial. You may court in jest, but you cannot jest in court."

Applied Philosophy
A Chicago university professor finds that 8 a. m. is too early for his class in philosophy to assemble. Here is one philosopher that seems to understand human nature.—Minneapolis Journal
