BEAUMONT * * *
"WELCOME"—all invited to Mizah Minstrels at B. H. S. But don't forget your purse.

Hester Hilbert of Beaumont started to work in Kingston last week.

P. F. Nulton, Beaumont, is having plenty of business. He will soon have millions if he keeps his troid.

Leap Year is past so "Cosy" and Julia's engagement is broken.

Edward MacDougall, of Beaumont has recently joined the Clover Farm Stores. He is making a good living at his business.

Betty Goodwin, of Beaumont, has had a serious operation, but is now improving nicely.

One of Mr. Zacharia's girl of "Stor Hill" was hit by an auto when delivering milk at the Lake.

Mr. George Clark has purchased a second-hand tractor.

O. E. Hilbert, of Beaumont, has purchased a team of donkeys. Clear out of the way boys.

The Senior Class of B. H. S. will soon give their class play. Watch for time and date least you miss something good.

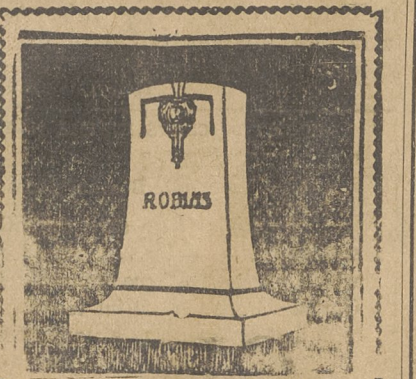

Mrs. C. I. Hilbert of Beaumont has been sick for several days and has now recovered from her illness.

Mr. Luce has purchased a new auto and wants to sell the old model. Boys make a rush, a cheap bargain.

To Eliminate Sump Trouble

Recently the school authorities have experienced considerable trouble over the filling up of the sump on the school grounds. The sewerage question at the school house has been the cause of much trouble and annoyance of the school boards for several years.

Now that the new building is almost ready for occupancy and the fact that an immense septic tank has been installed, it hoped that this part of the school trouble will soon be a thing of the past.

The men of the Dallas group met Wednesday morning in the Shavertown Church and set the date for the Standard Training School the week of March 11-15. Two sessions will be held each evening of the week beginning at 7:30 with a 50 minute class period then a 20 minute chapel service and the second class period closing at 9:30. Five course will be given each yielding a credit to those who complete the ten sessions. The school will be held in the Shavertown Church as it is the only church in the district having five separate rooms available. This emphasizes the need of the new educational building in Dallas. Dallas is the natural center of the group but must have added facilities to accommodate the school. Rev. E. R. Roberts was elected registrar; Rev. J. N. Bailey, dean, and teacher of the course for credit No. 5. "The Message and Program of the Christian Religion," textbook by Shackford. Rev. H. F. McHenry will teach course No. 91 "Church School Administration," textbook by Cunningham and North. Rev. W. S. York will teach course No. 4, New Testament. Textbook by Eiselen and Bacala. Rev. James Burleigh will teach course No. 105, Church History with textbook by Hutchinson. Rev. C. B. Henry will teach course No. 106, Missionary Education with textbook by Loveland.

The registration fee will be $1.00 and this will pay all expenses including the textbook. This school is for the whole region and is not denominational. Anyone wishing to take the course may do so and get credits from the International Committee.

March has been set by the Official Board as "Loyalty" month in the Dallas Church in which every member and friend of the church is asked to prove his loyalty by attending the service, praying for the success of the church and paying his share of the expenses.

Ladies' Aid of East Dallas Church are planning to have their kitchen built Wednesday of next week. Any man willing to donate his work should please come. Dinner will be served by the Ladies' Aid at noon.
